A Massachusetts inventor beat all the previous records last week by taking out forty-four patents.

Right Rev. H. A. Shultz senior bishop of the Moravian Church, died at Bethlehem, Pa., on the 22nd, aged 80 years.

Evangelist Sam Jones claims, during his campaign at St. Joseph, Mo., to have converted 25,000 people, including one thousand children.

William Russell, of Indiana, attempted to blow up a dog with dynamite. His recovery is probable, though not assured. The dog, of course, escaped.

The Ferdinand Ward case becomes still more promising. Warner now expresses a willingness to testify against Ward, although he himself is under arrest.

The underground telegraph line between Paris and Marseilles is working successfully in spite of the protests of American telegraph managers against the system.

So many of the favorite horses that Grant rode during the war, especially at Vicksburg, are turning up that one is led to think that perhaps the General followed the example of the Hurricane Rider of the Western prairies, and rode four or six horses at once.

At Lowell, Mass., five girls of 11 or 12 years of age have been arrested for getting drunk and fighting in a vacant lot near the Merrimac. They were too drunk to give a connected account of their doings, and reviled each other and the officers in language of indescribable filthiness.

New York World: Mr. Thoman, of the Civil Service Commission, is a model reformer. Not long ago he purchased a house in Washington City with fraudulent Indiana bonds. He now refuses to make restitution upon the ground that he paid out the bonds in good faith and they were accepted after due examination.

Richmond State: The fact that some citizens of Norfolk have "commenced shelling" a road in that vicinity does not excite a tinge of the alarm it would have done had it occurred in 1864. At that time the shelling of the road between Richmond and Petersburg was perfectly disgusting to those who had to go over it.

Recent statistics show that the French railways kill one passenger out of 2,000,000 annually, while out of 21,500,000 there is only one fatal accident on the English railways. On the French railways one person out of 500,000 is injured, while only one out of 750,000 is injured on the English railways.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie, the Pittsburgh millionaire, has expressed his sympathy with the Parnell movement in a substantial way. On Wednesday he handed to the chairman of the Parnell fund in that city his check for $500. "To aid Mr. Parnell in compelling the British Government to give Irishmen their rights and Ireland an independent government."

In the National Convention of Cigar Manufacturers, lately in session at New York, a resolution urging the abrogation of all discriminating duties on tobacco and favoring a uniform duty of 55 per cent. on all imported tobacco was the text for a long debate. Finally a substitute was adopted which condemned the existing tobacco tariff and provided for the appointment of a committee of seven to co-operate with representatives of the Tobacco Growers' Association and the Leaf Tobacco Board of Trade in securing desired legislation.

Thomas Manahan, No. 32 Montgomery street, Hudson, N. Y., two years ago was given up by his physicians. He was afflicted with dyspepsia and obstinate constipation; had lost forty pounds in weight and was a bedridden invalid. He commenced taking Brandt's Pills in doses of five, four, two and one. Then he took two every night for a month, gained eight pounds in weight, and was able to attend to business. He took two pills every night for the following six weeks, and was entirely cured.

We ask those in need of a heating stove to examine our stock and hear our low prices, before purchasing JACOB'S HDW. DEPOT.

It has been suggested to us that there should be a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals formed in this city and organized under the laws of the State, as cases are frequent where dumb animals are most cruelly and outrageously treated.

The Grand Ball at Germania Hall to be given to-morrow night by the lady friends of the Germania Cornet Band, as a benefit to that organization, promises to be a grand affair. The management is in excellent hands which speaks success. Of course every young man will go and carry his sister or some one else's sister.

Death of Mr. Macindoe.
Mr. George P. Macindoe, a native of Scotland, but for a number of years a resident of this city, died yesterday afternoon aged 63 years. His obsequies took place this afternoon at the residence of Mr. J. W. Monroe, on North Second street. He left two daughters one of whom was with him at the time of his decease.

This Morning's Fire.
At about half past 9 o'clock this morning the grocery and bar room of Mr. J. G. L. Geischen, on the corner of Chestnut and McKee streets, was discovered to be on fire. Mr. Geischen sleeps in the room overhead and closed his store at about midnight last night. The first he knew of the fire was at the time indicated, when he was aroused by the volume of smoke which was pouring into his room. He hastened down stairs and found the counter in a light blaze, but after a hard struggle for a short time, he succeeded in extinguishing the flames. The bar, money drawer and contents, together with a fine mirror in the rear of the counter and a few bottles were destroyed. No general alarm was given. Loss estimated at $250.

A Boom.
A boom in the clothing business has struck this town and Mr. S. H. FISHLATE is the originator of it. How did it happen? He made up his mind to do an immense business this Fall and Winter, and accordingly purchased an immense stock of the latest styles and newest fabrics, in all the fashionable colors, to be had in the market. FISHLATE'S success is due to the excellence of his clothing. He keeps a class of Tailor-made clothing that the people want, such clothing as no other house contains. You will find at his large stores a full assortment of the square cut sacks and four-button cutaway frock coats, which are now all the rage. He keeps no shoddy or cheap goods. He takes as much interest in the making up of his cheapest class as he does in his finest goods. Mr. FISHLATE has certainly gained the distinction of being the leading clothing house in this State, and we take great pride in referring to his success.

The best ready mixed paint can be had at JACOB'S HDW. DEPOT. He has it in all size cans from half pints up.

Orris Martin, colored, charged with the same offense, was fined $2.

Taylor Smith, a German sailor, with an American name, for disorderly conduct was fined $2.

Last Night's Lecture.
Rev. Charles J. Soon, the converted Chinese, who has been in our city for several days, delivered a lecture at Luther Memorial building, corner of Sixth and Princess streets, last night, to a large and interested audience. His subject was "Life in China," a matter with which he was entirely familiar, and which he discussed with ease and fluency. It was an interesting theme and was made thoroughly instructive by the speaker. Mr. Soon will soon leave for China, his native land, where he will become a missionary, under the auspices of the M. E. Church, among his brethren of that land. He was converted to Christianity in this city, under the preaching of Rev. T. Page Ricard, who was then pastor of Fifth Street M. E. Church, and subsequently prepared himself for the ministry and missionary work by a course of theological studies at Vanderbilt University.

Our Cotton Market.
Upon more than one occasion we have, in the columns of the REVIEW, shown that Wilmington was one of the best cotton markets on the South Atlantic Seaboard, and that it was a better place for the sale of the staple than some of our neighboring ports, and that higher prices obtained here than elsewhere. To show that such is the fact we copy from the Charleston News and Courier, of the 24th inst., the prices quoted for cotton at the ports of Charleston, Savannah and Wilmington for the week ended Friday October 23d. The quotations are for midling. Saturday, 17th inst., the quotations at Charleston were 9 3-16; at Savannah 9 3-16; Wilmington 9 5-16. Monday, 19th, Charleston 9 1-2; Savannah 9 3-16; Wilmington 9 5-16. Tuesday, 20th, Charleston 9 1-2; Savannah 9 3-16; Wilmington 9 5-16. Wednesday, 21st, Charleston 9 1-2; Savannah 9 3-16; Wilmington 9 5-16. Thursday, 22nd, Charleston 9 3-16; Savannah 9 1-2; Wilmington 9 5-16. Friday 23d, Charleston 9 1-2; Savannah 9 1-2; Wilmington 9 5-16.

Here we have quotations for six days, which may safely be taken as the relative basis for the cotton year, and on only one of those days did the prices at Charleston reach Wilmington figures. There is no question about the importance of this city as a cotton market and with increased facilities for exportation it is bound to be one of the leading ports of the South.

The Talk of the Day
Is the immense clothing trade now being handled at SHRIER'S. It is the subject of constant remark that while a general dullness is complained of elsewhere, the Old Reliable is strained to the utmost to serve the immense patronage now flocking to his establishment. Competent observers attribute this exceptional activity to the fact that SHRIER will not tolerate any of those scheming ways which is being introduced by some dealers in their efforts to get extortionate prices for their goods, thereby enabling them to get double and treble their value. Their gifts are their baits to greenies as honey is to catch flies and cheese to catch mice. Ever bait and gift they offer is only to dazzle your eyes and blind your judgment. This community knows that they can depend on us and as for honor and pride which ought to build up the city, we will let the people be the judge as to who has done the most. They have tried us for over fifteen years and we have been successful in gaining the respect of all by giving to each and ever one one hundred cents in full value in return for every dollar they pay us, and we have also paid full value for every dollar's worth we have ever bought. We will receive by today's steamer the second instalment of straight cut sack coats, which we expect will be the finest line in this city. Call and see them. SHRIER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market St., sign of the Golden Arm.

Personal
Mr. John R. Paddison, of Point Caswell, was in the city to-day and favored us with a call.
Mr. Jerome P. Chace, a prominent lawyer of Florence, S. C. was registered at the Orton last night.
Mr. Henry Burkheimer, with his young bride, to whom he was married a few days since in Philadelphia, arrived here last night.
Mr. L. B. Brady, general traveling agent of the American Press Association, was in the city to-day and gave us the pleasure of a call.

Good Crops.
The good people of the Point Caswell section are joyous over their good crops for this season. There is rather less of cotton than in former years, as there was a smaller acreage planted last Spring. The acreage in corn is large and the yield is much larger than usual. Nearly or quite twice as much rice was planted last Spring as in former years and the harvest has been correspondingly larger. Another pleasant and satisfactory feature of their condition is in the fact they have managed to get through the year without running in debt to any considerable amount, and with this incubus taken from their shoulders, and a plenty to eat, drink and wear, they are happy. The only real drawback which they have had to encounter has been the inroads made upon their herds of hogs by the ravages of the cholera. But meat is cheap.

The Postmaster.
A telegraphic despatch was received here last night announcing the appointment of Mr. O. G. Parsley to be postmaster in this city, vice Col. E. R. Brink. Mr. Parsley received his appointment last night, and will take charge of the office as soon as practicable. He is a native of this city, is well known to all our citizens and it becomes a singular fact in political history that, in all the squabble for political preferment he had no competitor. The appointment will give general satisfaction to our people, who will look with pride upon the fact that now all the government officials in this city are in full accord with the administration and are uncompromising Democrats, as they should be. Col. Brink has been a good and competent officer, but he is a Republican and a partisan and as such he has very properly been required to step "down and out."

Piano Recital.
There was not a large audience at Miss Annie Hart's School room last night to listen to the delightful piano recital of Prof. J. H. Deack, of Columbia, S. C. The opening piece was Beethoven's Sonata, Opus 10, which is one of the master pieces of that wonderful musical genius. It was rendered with exquisite taste last night, the pianist seeming to catch the inspiration of the theme. His shading and phrasing were admirable, and his audience were delighted. The programme was varied, but excellent. Among the principal of the selections may be mentioned, "Impromptu" by Chopin; "Waltz Etude," "Raff;" "Reminiscences of Lucia de Lammermoor," by Liszt, and "Ronde," by Mendelssohn. These were all rendered with the taste, precision and expression which only a true musician in thorough sympathy with the grand ideas of the composer could accomplish; and they are named here in order to show the wide and diversified field in which Prof. Deack had gleaned music's sweetest, rarest, richest and most beautiful flowers. He is a pianist of rare accomplishments and we are glad to know that his valuable services have been secured for the entertainment to be given by the Young People's Association at Luther Memorial building next Friday night.
