THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX.

WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1885.

NO 254

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Ferdinand Ward has been found guilty and now, what will be done with him?

The New York Staats openly proclaim that they will punish Davenport by not voting at all.

There will be but little added to John Sherman's already doubtful glory in his labors in the Virginia campaign.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee is conducting the funeral exercises of John S. Wise very neatly and effectively. There is a remarkable absence of mourners in the procession.

Venus, peerless queen of our October twilight, has a soft and most delicate back ground of pink sky against which to display her loveliness, and her admirers seldom have a more favorable opportunity to study the planet.

A widow farm in Macon, Ga., produces about a ton of switches to the acre, commanding, when dried, $200, and, as the leaves and bark sell at twenty-five cents a pound baled, the enterprise pays better than cotton.

Gen. George B. McClellan, the greatest and purest military man of the Northern army in the late war died at his residence on Orange Mountain, N. J. on the night of the 28th inst. His disease was neuralgia of the heart, with which he had been suffering for about two weeks.

While Mr. Fish, "by occupation a convict," as he described himself in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, evidently desires to have Ferdinand Ward convicted, he probably prefers to have him sit in some other prison than that at Auburn, at least for the ten years of his own residence there.

The importance and value of the tobacco crop in Virginia is very clearly shown in the statement of the Lynchburg Advance that Lynchburg pays more revenue into the United States Treasury, on the single article of tobacco, than any one of the New England States pays on everything it produces.

Discussing the new suffrage law of England, the New York Journal of Commerce says: In England, as in the United States, the result of elections will be determined more by the ability andadroitness of leaders, the strictness of party discipline, and the free employment of all available influences, than by the merits of the principles which are in conflict.

Rev. Sam Jones, now in Birmingham, reports 2,000 conversions as the result of his meetings at St. Joseph, Missouri. Of Sam Small, "Old Si," who aided him, he says:

"His sermons were remarkable. He is in Atlanta now. Small bids fair to be one of the most powerful preachers in this nineteenth century. He is as smart a fellow as I ever mixed with, very industrious and thoroughly converted, I believe."

The New York Star predicts that the Democrats of Virginia will carry both the State ticket and the Legislature. It says that Senator Voorhees and other Democratic speakers are prepared to exert any effect that Sherman, Foraker and other imported Republicans may produce. The Democrats, it says, are well organized and have an abundance of enthusiasm. The Republican appeals to race prejudice are not doing them any good, but tends to unite the whites more than ever.

Wall street has just transacted the largest week's business on its record, the sales of stock amounted to 3,723,000 shares. This unprecedented volume of business for the brokers naturally enhances the value of their privilege of executing orders at the Exchange, and $24,000 has been bid for the right to become one of the exclusive eleven hundred. The buying craze continued unchecked during the first three days of the week, and everything—good, bad and indifferent—went up.

One of the cunning methods of defeating the Federal Treasury is for a gang to discover objects of world-wide consequence and then press it on the attention of Congress in such a shape as to advance private interests. It is for this reason we are glad to see that the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy have refused to accede to schemes looking to additional appropriations for expeditions to the Arctic Seas. Enough life and money have already been expended in that direction for a century to come.

Mr. Gladstone, in his contribution to the book, "Why I am a Liberal," defines the principle of Liberalism to be a trust in the people qualified by prudence, and the principle of Toryism to be a mistrust of the people qualified by fear.

The registration in New York city for the coming State election is larger than was at first expected. The total, 215,898, is larger than any previous year except at the Presidential election of 1880 and 1884. The New York World says that Hill's majority in the city will not be much below 60,000.

Russville, Ind., claims to have a resident, Mrs. Colter, who was a sister of Commodore Perry and was born in Delaware in 1769, making her present age 116 years. She is also said to be the oldest Methodist living, having united with that Church seventy-five years ago.

It is reported from Mexico that there is a growing inclination in the Northern States of Mexico towards annexation to the United States. This is natural enough, but "Barkis" is very far from being willing. We are getting along very comfortably as we are, and there is no reason why any additions should be made to the country.

The Richmond State has rare hit a nail on the head with such force as when it said that "the $150,000 which Engineer Melville wants to pay his way to the North Pole with had better be employed in rearing a building to house those unfortunates heretofore made cripples and rendered useless for life by making similar foolhardy expeditions."

There was no City Court this morning.

The off-shore storm signal was flying to-day.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 767 bales.

Schr. Reindeer, Benjamin, cleared at New York for this port Oct. 28th.

Br. steamer Wyo, Rogers, hence, for Bremen, passed Lizard Oct. 28th.

Thanksgiving Day, this year, will be on Thursday, the 26th of November.

THE REVIEW JOB OFFICE is the place to get good work at moderate prices.

Three tramps—two white and one colored—were accommodated with lodgings at the guard house last night.

We understand that there are not many more than 500 applications for subordinate positions at the postoffice.

Camilla Urso, the famous female violinist, will probably appear in this city sometime during the present season.

When you think that you need a new hat, you will be reminded that the "Melville" is the best, and it is sold by DYER.

There was a heavy fall of hail yesterday about noon, a mile or two East of the city, but no damage has been reported.

The Fayetteville Observer comes out this week with a half page supplement devoted almost exclusively to the Cumberland County Fair, which will be held in that city next week.

The maximum velocity of wind at Smithville yesterday was 30 miles per hour, but no damage was done either to the buildings on shore or to the shipping in the harbor.

Painters and those in need of white lead, colors, oil, etc., can get the best and save by buying at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

We call attention to the advertisement of Messrs. R. H. Grant & Co., which appears in this issue. This firm have recently made important additions to their business and are deserving of a full share of public patronage.

The following was received at the signal office here at 45 minutes after 10 o'clock this morning:

Hoist off shore signals, Wilmington and Wilmington section. Storm central East of Jersey coast, dangerous Northwest winds.

We ask those in need of a heating stove to examine our stock and hear our low prices, before purchasing JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

Death of Mrs. T. O. Bunting.
We regret to learn that the wife of Mr. T. O. Bunting died at about 11 o'clock this morning after a long and painful illness, which she bore with Christian fortitude and resignation. She leaves a husband and five children—four sons and a daughter—to mourn her death.

Personal.
Dr. W. T. Ennett, of Burgaw, Pender county, is in the city to-day.
Rev. C. C. Quin, rector of Calvary Church, at Wadesboro, is in the city and the guest of Mrs. Kate DeR. Meares.
We regret to learn that Mr. J. H. Muse became much worse at about noon to-day and at last reports was in an unconscious condition, with but little hopes of his recovery.

Painful Accident.
At about 9 o'clock this morning, as Mr. S. L. Yopp, Clerk of the Fourth Street Market, was standing on the walk in front of the new building on Princess street, in course of erection for Mr. S. Bear, engaged in conversation with Mr. C. D. Morrell, the contractor and builder, a piece of scantling, which was being lowered to the ground, slipped from the hands of the man who had it in charge, and fell, striking Mr. Yopp square upon the top of his head and knocking him prostrate to the ground. At first it was thought that he was killed, but after a moment he returned to consciousness and was taken to Messrs. Munds Brothers' drug store where his wound was dressed and he was soon able to go about his business. It was a fortunate escape from death.

Flags Presented.
The schooner Roger Moore, belonging to Capt. R. H. Beery, was presented to day with a new suit of colors by Col. Roger Moore, in whose honor she was named. She was formerly the Isaac L. Clark, and was cast away on Stump Sound several months ago, and was subsequently bought by Capt. Beery and brought around to this city where she has been completely overhauled and made as good and strong as ever. Capt. Beery had her name changed to Roger Moore, under which she will hereafter be known. The colors were ordered through Mr. George A. Peck, who received them this morning by express. They are manufactured from the very best bunting and consist of the National flag, regulation size; a "Burger" of white ground with red border and the legend, "Roger Moore," in blue letters, and the Union Jack, which is also of the regulation size.

A Boom.
A boom in the clothing business has struck this town and Mr. S. H. FISHLATE is the originator of it. How did it happen? He made up his mind to do an immense business this Fall and Winter, and accordingly purchased an immense stock of the latest styles and newest fabrics, in all the fashionable colors, to be had in the market. FISHLATE'S success is due to the excellence of his clothing. He keeps a class of Tailor-made clothing that the people want, such clothing as no other house contains. You will find at his large stores a full assortment of the square cut sacks, and four-button cutaway frock coats, which are now all the rage. He keeps no shoddy or clap trap goods. He takes as much interest in the make up of his cheapest class as he does in his finest goods. Mr. FISHLATE has certainly gained the distinction of being the leading clothing house in this State, and we take great pride in referring to his success.

All in a Nutshell.
Giving the best that money can buy, and always at the lowest possible prices, has made the Old Reliable's the safest place for rich or poor, young or old to trade. The better you know the value of goods the greater will the cheapness appear. See our Fall and Winter suits for men, boys and children. Our goods are all square, honest and well made in every respect. We guarantee them from top to bottom and we will refund them to the last point, and will refund the money if any representation made in our house is shown to be false. If any gentleman, who has not desired to injure us, has taken offense at any expression of ours in yesterday's advertisement, we are sorry for it, as we have no desire to reflect on any one's honesty or integrity. SHIER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market street. †

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, winds generally from North to West, higher barometer, colder in Northeast portions, stationary temperature in Southwest portion.

The best ready mixed paint can be had at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot. He has it in all size cans from half pints up. †
