THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1885. NO. 257

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Mrs. Langtry seems to have been having a high old time. She has painted her hair red.

Miss Cleveland will return with the President when he goes back from New York, after having cast his vote.

Chicago Times: It is true that Andy Johnson was once an alderman, but it was hoped that he had effectually lived it down.

Secretary Lamar makes all visitors run a double gauntlet—first of a confidential clerk in an outer room and then of his private secretary. The sieve works fine.

President Eliot, of Harvard University, and the chef in the Parker House restaurant, Boston, receive each a salary of $4,000.

In the twelve cities of Massachusetts the death rate averages 20.57 per thousand. The extremes are 25.07 in Boston and 15.65 in Lynn.

Mr. Blaine is reported to have once said, in reply to a remark: "In politics there is no gratitude. Politics mean ambition and success."

Hercules Wilson, colored, has resigned his seat in the Georgia Legislature, giving as a reason that he can make more money by laying bricks at $1 to $5 a day.

Lewis C. Bartlett, of Indiana, Second Deputy Commissioner of Pensions, has resigned, on account of ill health, resulting from old wounds.

Baltimore American: Senator Sawyer has given $15,000 to the Young Men's Christian Association of Oshkosh. It needs some great incentive to preserve the piety of youth in a town with such a name as that.

Sarah Curry, aged 19 years, a girl of Scotch-Irish parentage, residing at Dover, N. H., has received a cablegram announcing that by the recent death of an uncle in Scotland she inherits $1,000,000.

Texas Siftings: A bootblack named Joseph Moak has become an actor. It is now in order for some actors to turn bootblacks. There are many who would shine in that profession to much more advantage.

Washington letter in Philadelphia News: There are only 44,000 fourth class and 1,800 Presidential postoffices yet to be filled. Assistant Postmaster General Stevenson's room is crowded daily with a long-haired-unwashed-short-pantalooned crowd of hungry-looking patriots who are "waitin' to git thar."

Louisville Courier-Journal: The colored people of Mississippi inaugurated their first annual State fair at Jackson, yesterday, under the most encouraging auspices. The fair is fostered by the white people of every section and class, while the colored people enter into the competition with deep interest. The opening address on the 20th ult. was delivered, not by Senator John Sherman, but by Gov. Lowry, a Democrat.

The attempts of the newspaper correspondents to find a bride for President Cleveland are fully as unsuccessful as were those made in President Arthur's interest. A friend of Arthur's watched the newspapers and clipped out everything that was published about his matrimonial intentions. Just before his term expired these clippings were all pasted in a handsomely bound scrapbook and presented to him. On the cover was stamped a figure of Cupid with a quiver full of arrows, and the words, "Many were called, but none was chosen." Mr. Arthur regards this memento with a great deal of interest.

The Democrats all over the country are happy. If they are not they will be glad to please. If they don't smile today there are no smiles in their souls. New York and Virginia are still firm in their allegiance to Democratic principles. The entire State ticket is elected in both, in the former by a majority approximating 15,000 and in the latter by about 20,000 majority. The Legislatures in both Democratic also thus ensuring Massachusetts' defeat.

A prominent Republican in this city remarked last night that if the Republicans failed to elect Davenport in New York they might as well give it up and not try again, and he is right. The country is safely Democratic and Democratic it will remain. A wise policy on the part of the leaders will ensure the ascendancy of that party for many years to come. The basis and fabric of it all is the Solid South and Virginia, thanks in a great measure to John Sherman and Foraker, is once again at the head and front of the column, and there she will remain. As long as the solid Southern phalanx remains unbroken just so long will the Democratic party retain control of the Affairs of the government. A fact which the Republican leaders are already beginning to acknowledge.

The very latest is that Hill is certainly elected Governor of New York! The Republicans concede it! Will give the majority, which will not be far from 15,000, to-morrow! Hurray!

There was no City Court this morning.

This has been a most delightful Autumnal day.

News gathering has been dull work to-day.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 600 bales.

Schr. Bessie Morriss, Wheaton, hence, arrived at Philadelphia Nov. 2nd.

Br. steamship Grandholm, Brown, hence, for Liverpool, passed Kinsale Nov. 1st.

"How is New York?" is the oft-repeated question we have heard in our rambles to-day.

Steamboatmen report only fair boating water in the Cape Fear, with the river slowly rising.

Just received a lot of burglar proof blind fasts. Call and see them at JACOBI'S HdW. Depot, and you will buy it.

We learn that the Rechabites in this city are making arrangements for a series of temperance lectures to be delivered by clergymen and others of our citizens.

When you think that you need a new hat, you will be reminded that the "Melville" is the best, and it is sold by DYER.

Glorious Old Virginia! Her Ship of State has safely entered port in spite of treacherous seas and adverse winds and has found a safe anchorage under the lee of a strong and secure Democratic harbor.

At the regular meeting of the Literary Society of the Wilmington Light Infantry, held last night, there was a large attendance. Books of the value of $50 were donated, which with those previously given makes a very good and valuable library.

Mr. Matt J. Heyer, one of the progressive business men of North Water street, advertises in this issue a direct importation of coffee from South America. It is an experimental shipment, which, if successful, will be followed by others with a view to establishing a direct trade with our Southern namesake.

Good Work.
The steamship Fannie, which cleared to-day, took out 5,200 bales of cotton, which was 600 bales more than she took from Galveston last year, notwithstanding the fact that the latter city has been loud in claiming that their presses and other facilities for stowing large cargoes were superior to anything of the kind along the entire coast. The cargo here was stowed under the direction of Mr. Wm. Richardson, the veteran stevedore.

Exports Foreign.
Br. steamship Fannie, Nielson, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 5,200 bales cotton and 100 bags peanuts, valued at $225,730, shipped by Messrs. Williams & Murchison. Ger. barque Lucie Rodman, Draeger, cleared for Stettin with 3,943 barrels rosin, valued at $4,300, shipped by Messrs. E. Peschau & Westermann. Nor. barque Frey, Halversen, cleared for Monte Video, for orders, with 200 casks spirits turpentine and 214,978 feet lumber, valued at $4,661.63, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son, making a total of exports foreign amounting to $224,691.63.

Interesting Exercises.
The Reformation anniversary services last night, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, were extremely interesting. There was a large assemblage present to listen to the addresses of Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, the pastor, and Rev. Wm. Stouendmire, of Salisbury, N. C., who was present. The instrumental music, furnished by Messrs. J. E. Willson, S. A. Schloss, G. M. Hobbs, J. Greenwald and F. W. Ortmann, was very fine and added much to the interest of the occasion.

A Curiosity.
At Capt. J. M. McGowan's saloon to-day was a mongoose, which is described in Webster's Unabridged as "A quadrumanous animal of the family Lemnidae, or Lemnids," but which we shall describe as a cross between a cat, a fox and a coon. It is about as large as an ordinary house cat, with a head like a fox and a very long tail with stripes running around it. The color of the animal is gray. He seems to be very domestic in his habits, although quite inclined to mischief. He was brought here on board the Br. steamship Cygnus, but is, we believe, a native of South America.

For Thanksgiving.
Capt. F. M. James, who for the past eight years has devoted considerable time and labor just before Thanksgiving to soliciting articles for the benefit of the worthy poor, is making preparations to go upon the same errand of love and mercy for the approaching holiday, which is now near at hand. Capt. James devotes his time and labor to this noble work without the expectation of fee or reward, and it is hoped that our citizens may generously respond to his appeal and contribute a portion of the bounties with which God has blessed them to the happiness of those who are less favored with worldly substance.

We have a large lot of glass for Hot-houses which we are offering low. JACOBI'S HdW. Depot.

U. S. District Court.
The business before this tribunal since the close of our last report, has been as follows:

U. S. vs. John Gore, robbing the mail. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

U. S. vs. J. W. Murray, retailing. Guilty; judgment not yet pronounced.
Owen Richardson, violation of postal laws. Guilty; judgment not yet pronounced.

G. W. Perry, embezzlement of postal funds. Guilty; judgment not yet pronounced.

There were several continuances and a nolle pros was entered in several cases.

The cheapest and best heating and cook stoves can be had at JACOBI'S HdW. Depot.

"Mixed Pickles."
This play has received abounding praise from the press wherever it has been presented. The New York Music and Drama, a high authority in such matters, says:

When shall we know the value of fun that comes from depicting the incongruities of life? When we have seen Polk in "Mixed Pickles." The brothers, Joseph and Arthur Pickle, are respectively bad and good, and both are in love with Cherry Brown. To get a precedence Joseph, the bad, represents Arthur, the good, gets his brother into no end of scrapes, and himself procures the hand of his beloved Cherry. How this is brought about is acted with so much genuine humor and exquisite fun by Mr. Joseph Polk that one is drawn into the very meshes of it; in fact, there is no way to get out of it.

A great lot of Gent's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

Dead Leaves Useful.
Perhaps many of our readers are not aware that there is no material so good for the covering of plants in winter as leaves. When they are pressed down closely by the rain and snows of winter it takes quite a severe frost to penetrate a light layer of them. Where they fall to a depth of four or six inches, frost does not penetrate the ground at all, and this is one reason why many wild plants will survive in such places during winter, and die out when in cultivation. There is no garden of any size but what has use for fallen leaves. If for no other purpose they serve as a fertilizer for the ground, and mixed with refuse common in a garden, afford a rich feast to plants in their growing season.

Personal.
Capt. W. S. Norment, of Robeson county, is in the city.
Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of Pender county, was in the city, to day.

Col. John D. Powers, of Pender county, is here in attendance on the Federal Court.

Judge McKoy has been sick in Goldsboro, suffering with a very painful carbuncle in the neck. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

We were glad to see Capt. Wm. H. Newell on our streets again to day after a sickness which has confined him to the house for four weeks.

Maj. P. F. Duffy, of Charlotte, was in the city yesterday and favored us with a visit. Sorry we were not in. It is whispered that Maj. Duffy will re-enter journalism shortly, and in this city.

A Big Majority!
You are about to buy some clothing, said a newspaper man to a friend a few days since. Well, I'll relate a little incident which may influence you in your purchase. Last summer I went to Clinton, to the Farmer's Dinner, and on returning home I found myself among what Senator Vance would have called a lot of plain people. The subject of clothing was being discussed, and somebody suggested that a vote should be taken to ascertain who was the most popular clothier in Wilmington. The result was a big majority for SHRIER—he being the principal favorite because it was conceded that his styles were more correct, his garments more durable, and prices far lower than any other house in the city.

This was a very high compliment to SHRIER, who is really the people's Clothier. He certainly has passed beyond successful competition for splendid quality of goods, and beauty of fit and finish. Call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Thorough instruction will be given in the rudiments of vocal music, and the pupils will be advanced as fast as previous acquisitions will warrant, and no fee.
