THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1885. NO. 258

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Iowa has five women lawyers and one hundred and twenty-two women physicians.

Eight acres of sunflowers in Kansas produced 600 baskets of seed, which sold at $1.50 per bushel.

The coming anniversary—November 10—of the birth of Luther will be marked in Dresden by the dedication of a fine bronze statue of the great Reformer.

A man in Augusta, Ga., sent a $50 Confederate bill to the Grant monument committee, which was sold on Friday to John Fullman & Co., of New York City, for $50.

Flats to the number of about two thousand are reported lying idle in New York, in consequence of the unpopularity into which this mode of living is there growing.

The New York Independent, published in New York City, gets up and says: "It is high time that government of the saloon, by the saloon, and for the saloon, should perish from the earth."

In the Vienna Hofbibliothek there is a parchment manuscript, written between the years 1516 and 1519—the private prayer book of the Emperor Charles V. It bears the traces of long use.

Possibly the largest single order ever sent forward for any book is that of Hubbard Brothers, of Philadelphia, for 55,000 copies of Volume 1 of the Grant Memoirs, representing $212,000. The volumes are to be delivered before Christmas.

The teeth of pupils in Chicago public schools, under a resolution adopted by the board of education of that city, are to be examined by the Chicago Dental Society "in the interests of science." The examination is to be made without cost to the children and without interfering with their studies.

Maquoketa (Iowa) Sentinel: More liquor was sold in Iowa last year by one-third than ever was sold any year before. There are more liquor sellers by a large per cent. than have taken out Government licenses before, and some of the secret sellers are selling without Government license.

There is a fearful condition of distress among the silk trade operatives of London. They claim that work is virtually at a standstill, owing to the competition of foreigners, especially of Germans. Their complaint is sustained by official statistics, which show that within the past twenty-five years the number of operatives has decreased from 9,000 to 3,000.

The Greek army on paper consists of 80,000 men, with 120 guns, but not more than 50,000 could be placed in the field, and they are totally incapable of resisting Turkish regulars. The term of service with the colors is only one year, but most of the recruits are sent home on furlough as soon as they have been enlisted, owing to the want of money to pay them, so that one "battalion" could only raise eleven men.

The history of the regular drama in China has been divided into three periods, corresponding respectively with the pieces composed under the Tang dynasty (A. D. 790-995), the Song dynasty (960-1499) and the dynasty of the Kin and Youn (1123-1341). It is from a hundred plays composed under the Youn dynasty that those at present translated into European languages have been selected.

Having libeled and spat upon the people of the South all Summer, Mr. Murat Halstead, of Cincinnati, magnanimously suggests that politics be given a rest, and that Cincinnatians employ the time in rehabilitating out of form intimate commercial relations with their Southern friends. How imposing is the sight of this blood-drinking victor, having smoothed his corrugated brow and converted his sword into a meat-axe, falling upon the neck of his late antagonist and picking his pockets.

From the Sisters of Charity.
 PROVIDENCE HOSPITAL,
 WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21, 1884.
 We take pleasure in attesting the merits and soothing qualities of Allcock's Porous Plasters, having used them on various occasions with much benefit to many of the patients under our charge during many years.

Mr. Thomas Harriss, of Sacramento, Cal., fifty-seven years old, has abandoned a real, not mythical Mrs. Harriss with four children, obtaining a divorce on the ground of alleged cruelty and then immediately marrying his adopted daughter, a girl of eighteen.

Medical Age: A doctor who has been fanning the anti-vaccination flame in Montreal by writing and speaking against vaccination, was examined by an inspector, of course very much against the doctor's will, and not only a scar showing an old vaccination, but fresh vaccinations, were noticed on his arm. When detected the scamp took the train for parts unknown.

There are no positive figures yet as to the result of yesterday's election. New York elects the State ticket by a safe majority, approximating more 15,000, and hardly less than 14,000 but the legislature has gone Republican, thus ensuring a successor of the same stripe to U. S. Senator. Warner Miller, whose term expires March 3rd, 1887.

The Democratic majority in Virginia is a very handsome one, exceeding the most sanguine expectations of the most ardent Democrats. The Legislature is largely Democratic and they are talking of 30,000 majority for Fitz Lee. Mahone goes out in 1887 and a Democrat will take his place.

In Connecticut the election was for members of the Legislature only and the vote was consequently a light one. There have been heavy Democratic gains, but probably not enough to elect a majority of the members. Dispatches as to the result are conflicting, and both parties seem to be claiming the Legislature. Senator Hawley's term expires in 1887 and his successor is to be chosen. Massachusetts and Pennsylvania have gone Republican, both by increased majorities, and Maryland and Mississippi roll up enormous majorities for the Democratic tickets, while Iowa, a heretofore strong Republican State, is in doubt, and claimed by both parties. In this State the Democrats and Greenbackers fused.

New Jersey has elected a Republican legislature which will choose a successor to Senator Sewell, Republican.

Nevada has also gone Republican, as usual, a result which doesn't seem to have aroused a very great excitement anywhere.

 ENTERTAINMENT—Singing Class Oxford Orphan Asylum

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 586 bales.

Two white tramps were lodged at the guard house last night.

We have a large lot of glass for Hot-houses which we are offering low. JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

The annual North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will meet at Charlotte on the 25th inst.

There will be an important meeting of Wilmington Cornet Concert Club tomorrow night, at which all the members are expected to present.

When you think that you need a new hat, you will be reminded that the "Melville" is the best, and it is sold by DYER.

There will be a grand ball to-night at the Pavilion of Hotel Brunswick, at Smithville, where a good time is confidently expected.

The Young People's Association connected with St. Paul's Lutheran church contemplate giving another of their delightful entertainments at an early date.

Br. steamship Fahnie, which cleared for Liverpool yesterday morning, got ashore opposite Big Island while going down the river and remained there at last accounts. She will probably get off on to night's tide.

The singing class of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, twelve in number, under the charge of Mrs. Burwell, arrived in the city on last night's train and will give a concert to-night at the Lutheran Memorial building, corner of Sixth and Princess streets. It is to be regretted that an earlier and more extensive notice had not been given of their coming.

Adjourned.

The U. S. District Court disposed of the business of the term and adjourned yesterday afternoon. No business of importance was transacted after the closing of our last report.

City Court.
 Annie McNeill, colored, was brought before Mayor pro tem Bear this morning charged with disorderly conduct at the foot of Mulberry street last Tuesday night. The testimony of officer Webbe, who made the arrest, showed that she was drunk and uproarious, and she was fined $3 for the offense with the alternative of four days in the city prison.

A Good Move.
 The city government are having water pipes introduced into the rear of the Opera House, with a supply of hose, so that in the case of fire igniting the scenery the flames can be readily extinguished. The hydrant on the stage will be placed close to the prompter's stand, and will be under the charge of that person during the performance.

"Crazy Quilt."
 We learn that a young gentleman in this city has recently written a comedy to which he has given the above title, and that it is now under rehearsal by a number of our young ladies and gentlemen with a view to its presentation to the public at no distant day. It is said, by those who have examined the manuscript and who are quite competent to form a correct opinion, to possess real merit. Give us the "Crazy Quilt" by all means, so that we may know what the possibilities of Wilmington are.

A great lot of Gent's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. ELSEBACH, Prop.

More Light.
 A gentleman was walking along the North side of Princess street, between Front and Second, last night, when owing to the Cimmerian darkness he ran against one of the posts which support the scaffolding on the new building in course of construction there by which his face was badly bruised. There is a light at the intersection of Front and Second, but it was not sufficiently strong last night to allow the gentleman to see the obstacles in his path. A lantern suspended from the front part of the building would make the place entirely safe for pedestrians at night, and would cost but a trifle.

Fox Hunt.
 The Wilmington Fox Club have a magnificent fox which they will turn loose in rear of the County Poor House tomorrow afternoon. Renard promises to give a splendid run as he ran more than four hours on Monday. It will be an interesting race and it is the wish of the club that as many of our citizens, and especially ladies, as can possibly attend will turn out to witness the sport. The club will meet at Mr. R. C. Orrell's stables, corner of Fourth and Mulberry streets, at half past 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon where citizens and ladies are invited to join them. There will be some of the finest dogs in the State in the race.

A Specimen Brick.
 Mr. Geo. M. Crapon yesterday received by steamer a trial lot of New York sausages, packed in lard. He advertised them in the DAILY REVIEW yesterday afternoon and by 9 o'clock this morning the last had been sold, which shows that there are a few people, at least, in Wilmington who read our paper. Mr. Crapon has telegraphed for more and they will be here in a few days. We thank him for some of those received yesterday. We gave them a fair trial and found them very fine. They were fresh and sweet and were made entirely of pork, well prepared.

Prepare Your Ballots.
 There is a fine silver pitcher in the window of Mr. M. J. Dingelhof's store, on Market street, which will be exposed for sale by vote at the festival to be given by the ladies of St. Thomas' Church. The ballots will cost ten cents each and the pitcher will be given to the white fire company which may receive the largest number of votes. The companies entitled are the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Co., No. 1; Howard Relief Steam Fire Engine Co., No. 1, and Hook & Ladder Co., No. 1. There will undoubtedly be a spirited contest for the prize as it is well worth winning, and the members and especial friends of the different organizations will do their best. A free ballot and a fair count is all we want and to the victors shall belong the spoils.

FIRE IN FAYETTEVILLE.

The Flames Fiercely Raging—Raleigh Rushes to the Rescue.

The unwelcome news reached here this afternoon that a serious fire had broken out and was raging at Fayetteville, and that the Chief of the Fire Department there had telegraphed to Raleigh for assistance. Maj. J. C. Winder telegraphed in reply that an engine had been sent from Raleigh and that another would soon follow. Since then a despatch has been received here stating that the fire originated from a defective flue in the hotel on Hay street, which was destroyed. The fire extending Westwardly destroyed the printing office, E. J. Lily's former dry goods store, A. B. Williams' store and at 4 o'clock this afternoon was burning in John D. Williams' large warehouse. Eastwardly was burning Col. J. B. Starr's store. It was thought that the flames could be arrested. A special train left Raleigh with a fire engine and men at 35 minutes after 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Good News.
 The Wilmington Cotton Factory will resume operations, although on a limited scale, on Monday next and thus quite a number of hands will be given employment.

Personal.
 Maj. T. D. Love, of Bladen county, was in the city today.
 Mr. Fred St. E. Rolfe, of the Clinton Caucasian, was in the city yesterday and called to see us last evening.
 Mr. John F. Garrell returned to the city yesterday from a short business trip to Norfolk. He was in the midst of the election excitement there and says that it was intense and immense.

Rev. W. T. Jones, formerly of this city, arrived here last night with his young bride, to whom he was married at Newbern yesterday morning. They are the guests of his father, Mr. J. H. Jones, No. 17 North Seventh street.
 Rev. William Stoudenmire, of Salisbury, N. C., who has been in the city several days, the guest of Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, will leave for his home tomorrow. He is an agreeable gentleman, and has made many warm friends during his sojourn with us, and he expresses himself as highly delighted with his visit.

Mr. A. T. McCollum, a native of this city, but for thirty or more years past a resident of Washington City, is here on a visit to some of his old friends and we acknowledge the pleasure of a call from him yesterday. It is his first visit here in twenty years. Mr. McCollum is the author of the famous "Si Tod" letters which appeared in the Journal at one time and which excited so much interest among all the readers of that paper.

Schr. Muriel S. Haynes, Gamage, cleared to-day for Samana, San Domingo, with 457,450 feet lumber, valued at $6,175.58, shipped by Messrs. J. H. Chadbourne & Co.

Just received a lot of burglar proof blind fasts. Call and see them at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot, and you will buy.
