Goldsboro Messenger: The many friends of Judge McKoy will learn with pain that sickness prevented him from presiding Jones Superior Court this week. The Judge came here from Carteret on Saturday quite unwell, and had to subject himself to a surgical operation, which was performed by Dr. J. D. Spicer. He left for his home on Monday, in hopes that he would be strong enough to preside at Onslow Court next week.

Durham Plant: It is a rare thing to find a Jew in jail or in a penitentiary, and rarer still that they are ever hung. But one named Gordison (so he gave it himseif, though the Danville Register puts it Abrams) hung himself in the Yanceyville jail last Sunday morning. He was jailed the day before on charge of robbing a peddler named Nathanson he was with of $85.50. Gordison or Abrams was a young man just 21. He wasa higher type of .lew than the peddler, Nathanson. When arrested he cursed the peddler to his face telling nim he knew what he took his money for. He said he was employed by
