THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1885. NO. 260

The Baltimore Sun says: The present advances in stocks and bonds of railway properties is probably due, to a large extent, to the growth of a belief that the immediate future will witness a large revival of business.

One case is reported in which it was profitable to have a divided household—politically at least. The postmaster at Berlin, Ill., being a Republican, he has been superseded in the office by his wife, who is a Democrat.

World: Dr. Dio Lewis and Edward Everett Hale are in dispute over the proper diet of literary workers. Lewis advocating only two meals a day and Hale going in for five, and meanwhile the literary workers eat all they want, or in some instances all they can get.

Historical.
To-day is the seventy fourth anniversary of the battle of Tippecanoe, Indiana, where Gen. Wm. H. Harrison, who commanded the American forces, acquired the name which was so famous in the Presidential campaign of 1840, when he was elected President by the Whigs over Hon. Lewis Cass, of Michigan, who was the Democratic candidate. The battle was fought November 7th, 1811, against the Indians.

Personal.
Mr. R. K. Bryan, of the Hickory Press, was in the city to-day and paid us a visit this afternoon. Mr. M. W. Hart, of the Tar River Talker, published at Rocky Mount, N. C., is in the city to-day. Mayor E. D. Hall returned to the city last night from New York, where he had been for several days. He is in good health and enjoyed his trip very much.

The Festival.
The Festival gotten up by the ladies of St. Thomas' Catholic Church will be given at the City Hall and will commence on Monday night. It will be a grand affair. Two beautiful dolls and a piano will be raffled; an elegant silver pitcher will be voted to one of the three white fire companies and a gold medal will be voted to one of the white bands in the city. Aside from these there will be many articles of elegance and value to be disposed of. Be sure and attend. It will be continued several nights.

The Fair and the Fire.
Col. F. A. Olds, of the News and Observer, was in Fayetteville on Thursday and writes as follows to his paper, relative to the fair and the fire there on that day:
At 11 o'clock to-day a special train with Gov. Seales, treasurer Bain, attorney general Davidson and Maj. Finger, superintendent of public instruction, in charge of Mr. J. A. Gray, arrived from Greensboro, N. C. The party went in procession to the fair grounds on arrival here. Congressman Wharton J. Green introduced Gov. Seales, who made an excellent speech, also attorney general Davidson, Robert S. Huske, Esq., introduced Messrs. Bain and Finger, who made brief speeches. As the latter was concluding, an alarm of fire was given, caused by the burning of the Fayetteville hotel. The fire broke out at 1 o'clock, caused, it is thought, by a defective flue in the kitchen. The building burned slowly. It is of brick, three stories high, 150 feet on Hay street and 155 on Donaldson street. The value of the building is $40,000. The owners are Messrs. Thornton, Ray, Hindsdale, the John Gilchrist estate, Hollingsworth & Robinson. The furniture is owned by W. G. Matthews and Charles Glover, proprietors. The house has been refurnished in the last three months at a cost of $3,500. Insurance on the building, $11,000; nothing on the furniture. The fire department is miserable, the water supply poor. The indications are that the buildings west on the block, owned by E. J. Lilly and A. B. Williams, will be burned. They are among the finest in the place. The Governor and other State officers were all at the hotel. No person was injured. The militia are guarding the property. The Raleigh fire department was called on at 1:15 for aid.

LATER.
FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 5, 9:16 p. m.—The fire in Fayetteville hotel did not extend beyond that building. In the hotel building were three stores: F. W. Thornton, clothing, nearly all the goods saved, loss $250, no insurance; J. M. Lee, groceries, many goods saved, loss $500, no insurance; C. W. March, confectioner, loss $250. There was also an office occupied by the Singer Sewing Machine Company and Gen. A. G. Brady. These suffered slight losses. In the west wing of the building was Fayetteville Hall and above this the lodge rooms of Cumberland Lodge Knights of Pythias, the Masons and the Independent Order of Red Men. These orders all lost considerable property and valuable carpets. They had about $1,000 insurance. There were 280 guests in the hotel. None suffered any losses of importance save Capt. John B. Broadfoot and H. M. Robinson and lost furniture. The people in the hotel were kindly cared for by the citizens. The Governor and State officers, together with Mrs. S. M. Finger and Mrs. T. F. Davidson, were taken to the fair by Congressman Green. The train bearing the Rescue steamer and thirty-four firemen, in charge of chief T. W. Blake and foreman W. R. Dick, arrived at 5:30, having left Raleigh at 2:40. The engine went to work at once. The firemen were cheered and treated with the greatest cordiality by the residents. Water was taken from the historic Cross Creek. The firemen saw the smoke of the fire when ten miles away. T. Mortimer Fleming was the engineer and made quick time over the road, which was strange to him. The firemen expect to return home to-night.

The exhibit at the fair is highly creditable, especially as to farm products. The attendance to-day was fairly large. To-morrow it will also be large. The fair ball will be given at Williams' hall to-morrow evening.
