Full moon to-morrow morning at 25 minutes past 4 o'clock.
There was one interment in Oakdale Cemetery this week—an adult.
These Brass and Silver head tacks are here. JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.
Br. steamer Carbis Bay, Tregarthen, hence, arrived at Bremen Nov. 19th.
There was one interment in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, an adult.
There were two interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week, one adult and one child.
Turner's Almanac promises rain for Monday.
The storm signal has been ordered down, so we may expect pleasant weather for a few days.
The hour fixed for the meeting of the Brooklyn Sunday School is 3 o'clock p. m., instead of 3:30 o'clock, as heretofore.
The Register of Deeds issued six marriage licenses this week, three of which were for white and three for colored couples.
Rev. Jno W. Primrose will return to night from assisting Rev. Dr. Marable, and will supply his pulpit to-morrow as usual.
Elder J. P. King has returned from Georgia and will occupy his pulpit in the Second Baptist Church to-morrow morning and night.
The Quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church will be held at the parsonage of the Front Street M. E. Church to-night at half past 7 o'clock.
Call at DYER'S and see the elegant styles of suitings. The outfits for all of the characters to appear in the Crazy Quilt were furnished by DYER.
The delegates from this city to the River and Harbor Convention, which will meet at Savannah, Ga., on the 24th inst., will leave on Monday night at 10 minutes past 10 o'clock.
Messrs. R. E. Lloyd & Co. are pushing the wood business and have enormous piles of it on their yard at the foot of the New Market. Their wood is cut to order and is sold at low prices and full measure.
Love Pridden, colored, charged with larceny, was arrested today on a capias issued by Brunswick Superior Court, and lodged in jail here until he is wanted at Smithville.
A street concert by itinerant musicians (?), a bird show and toy balloons were the attractions upon our streets today. The bird show seemed to attract the most attention and was well worth looking at.
The revival at Fifth Street M. E. Church still continues and quite a deep interest in spiritual affairs is being manifested. There have been 18 conversions and 15 accessions thus far to the membership of the church.
There were but two cases for the Mayor's consideration this morning, both of which were colored men and both charged with disorderly conduct. In one case a fine of $5 was imposed, and the other was continued for the defense.
Capt. F. M. James will start on Wednesday morning next to collect the subscriptions which have been made for the poor for Thanksgiving, and will deliver the same as soon as collected. He states that his appeals have been met with a very cheerful response by our citizens.
Exports Foreign.
Br. steamship Cyprus, Heslop, cleared today for Liverpool, with 5,245 bales cotton, valued at $317,712, shipped by Messrs Williams & Murchison. Nor. barque Deodala, Andersen, cleared also for Liverpool with 1,665 bales of cotton, valued at $67,100, shipped by Messrs Alex. Sprunt & Son, making a total of exports foreign of 6,910 bales cotton, amounting to $384,812.
Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, fair, warmer weather and variable winds.

Hymeneal.
Marriages are the order of the day. We are people of fashion. It seems to be in style to get married now. Marrying seems like taking a cold; its catching. Well, marrying is always in style. The question is there have ever been so many marriages in the same amount of time, in Wilmington before?
There were two weddings at the Lutheran Church this week. On Tuesday evening Mr. Carl A. C. Muegge, so long and well known in our city, led Miss Johanna D. Runge to the altar as his bride. They had no attendants.
On Wednesday evening Mr. E. Wm. Doescher, of the firm of Kure & Doescher, was united in marriage at the same altar to Miss Laura Kure, Rev. F. W. E. Peschau officiating, as on the night before. The attendants were Messrs John W. Gerdis and C. F. VonKampen and Misses Gesina and Wilhelmina Doescher. To Mr. John W. Gerdis was given the honor of giving the bride away, an act which he performed in a graceful manner.
A dense throng was present in the church upon each of these occasions. Across the centre aisle an arch of evergreens; ivy and flowers had been erected. In the centre of the arch, which spanned the upper part of the decorations, the initials of each happy couple were suspended. These large letters were made of flowers and looked charmingly beautiful. Underneath the semi-circular span, a large lover's knot made entirely of flowers was hanging. It demonstrated the handiwork and admirable taste of Mrs. H. Rehder and Mrs. A. Deumelandt. There were handsome vases filled with natural and artificial flowers at the sides of the altar and around the pulpit. Very many expressed the opinion that the church never looked more beautiful or more tasty for such an occasion. The ladies deserving special praise for this charmingly handsome adorning are Mrs. F. W. E. Peschau, Miss Lillie Gerken, Miss Minnie Wessell, Miss Minnie Ulrich and Miss Lena Stemmerman. After the conclusion of the services on Tuesday night, the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Muegge gathered at their residence, on Fifth street, to offer their congratulations and wish them continued happiness. On Wednesday night, after the nuptial of Mr. and Mrs. Doescher, their friends repaired to the residence of Mr. Kure, on Second street, the bride's brother, to offer their congratulations. A bountiful repast was served, during the partaking of which the Germania Band discoursed some fine music. Each couple received many valuable, useful and handsome presents from their friends, who, in addition to their kind interest, manifested by their presence at the church and presents at the houses, wish them also God's blessings.

Mail Matters.
We learn that Hon. W. J. Green, Representative in Congress from the Third District, will take charge of the Southern fast mail interest, including the Havana and South American mail, during the next session of Congress. It could not be placed in better hands, as Col. Green is a persistent worker and an influential and faithful Representative.
We ask farmers and those in need of a corn sheller to examine our stock and bear our low prices before buying, JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.
The Affairs of Life
Hinge upon confidence. It is the basis upon which every successful business enterprise is conducted, and without it no concern can prosper. SHREK has done business a great many years, and the growth has been large, popularity and success, an established fact. We attribute this satisfactory result of our efforts to public confidence. The people trust us and we never deceive them. Our resources are ample, and as a consequence we undersell all competition and guarantee to the consumer the best value for his money obtainable anywhere. We are offering superb bargains this week. Don't buy a dollar's worth of clothing until you have seen our late New York purchases of men's, boys and children's suits and overcoats. You will save fully from 15 to 25 per cent. on every dollar you will buy. If any article bought of us is not exactly as represented, or is in any respect unsatisfactory, it may be exchanged or we shall promptly refund in cash the price paid for it. SHREK, The Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market street.
A great lot of Gent's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 37 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop. †

That Piano.
Mr. A. Liebman was the lucky man to win the piano at the raffle last night. It will be remembered that the piano was to have been raffled off at the recent Catholic Fair, but was postponed for one week, or until last night. There was quite a struggle to see who should be the fortunate man, but it finally fell to Mr. Liebman.
Fun Ahead.
The farce of "Peck's Bad Boy," which will be presented at the Opera House next Monday night, seems to delight all who have seen its performance. The Philadelphia Press says: "It is an immense audience and the wildest demonstration of applause be the test of a dramatic success, the performance of 'Peck's Bad Boy' last evening at the Arch Square Opera House, by Atkinson's Comedy Company, must be recognized as a decisive popular hit. The building was crowded in every part, even the aisles and stairways, by a throng whose outbursts of laughter were continuous enough to interrupt and retard the performance in almost every scene."
Box sheet now open at Heinsberger's.
Black River.
A meeting of the merchants and business men of Point Caswell, Pender county, was held on the 20th inst., to take action looking to the improvement in the navigation of Black River. Mr. John R. Paddison was made chairman, and Mr. L. Vollers was appointed secretary of the meeting. Capt. W. H. Bixby, of the U. S. Engineers, has recommended an appropriation of $35,000 for the desired improvements, and it is expected that Hon. Wharton J. Green, Representative in Congress from the Third District, will use his influence in obtaining an appropriation for the purpose. With this object in view it was deemed advisable to have a representation at the River and Harbor convention which will meet at Savannah, Ga., on the 24th inst., and Capt. R. P. Paddison and Mr. W. J. Hollingsworth were appointed delegates to that convention.
Personal.
Mrs. E. J. Powers and two children arrived in the city last night from New York.
Mr. J. T. Bland, of Burgaw, Pender county, is in the city to-day on business connected with his profession of law.
Rev. T. Page Ricard, formerly pastor of Fifth Street M. E. Church, but now stationed at Washington, N. C., arrived in the city last night.
Rev. J. P. King, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, has returned to the city from Brunswick, Ga., after an absence of two weeks. Mr. King's visit was a professional one, and he preached to large congregations in Brunswick.
Spiritualism.
The first lecture delivered under the auspices of the Library Association of our city this Fall was given in its Hall last night, by Rev. T. M. Ambler, on the subject of Spiritualism. The introductory part of this scholarly lecture was devoted to a recital of the origin of Spiritualism, from the strange rappings andappings in the Fox family, to the so-called revelations of persons called spiritual mediums, and from its growth in this country to its spread into other lands. There were some masterly and eloquent passages in the lecture, which is well-written and well-arranged. The speaker, in analyzing the theme, dwelt more particularly upon the phase of spiritualism, as exhibited at seances, a form of it that was so completely exposed as a sham, in Philadelphia, a few years ago, after the King demonstrations and also a few years ago, in the Opera House of our city. He divided the subject into two parts, one form of Spiritualism being the so far unexplained phenomena that have surprised persons and whole families, in broad daylight, and the other form of phenomena that manifest themselves in the darkness or amid the gloom of a dim light. He gave in rotation the various views and explanations of this latter form, showing with strong arguments and in striking words the well-attested fact, that all these so-called phenomena and so-called spiritual revelations and the information thus given belonged emphatically to and came naturally within the circle of human knowledge. His answers to the thrusts of Robert Dale Owen, as to the Infallibility of God's word etc., were overpowering and the citations from the standard authors on his subject were in good taste and logically overthrown. Considering the size of the average Wilmington lecture audiences, the audience last night compared favorably with other audiences we have seen in the Hall, to hear literary lectures.

CONSUL TO MONTEVIDEO.
President Cleveland has appointed Mr. Preston L. Bridgers, of this city, the head of the well known grocery house of P. L. Bridgers Co., as Consul to Montevideo, Uruguay. The appointment, we understand, was suggested by Mr. Bridgers and he has not yet decided as to whether he will accept or decline it. It is, at all events, a compliment to a very clever gentleman and a good Democrat, and one which his friends heartily appreciate.
Ashes to Ashes.
All that was mortal of Captain John Kent Browne was laid to rest to-day in Oakdale. The funeral services took place at St. James' Church, and from hence the remains were carried to the dead city of the dead, followed by a large concourse of mourning relatives and friends. The following gentlemen served as pall-bearers on the occasion: Hon. A. M. Waddell, Mr. DuBrutz Cutlar, Col. Roger Moore and Messrs. R. E. Calder, Jas. G. Swann, W. H. Green, A. D. Brown and W. S. Harrock.
Criminal Court.
The following have been the proceedings before this tribunal to-day up to the time of closing our report:
State vs. Jake Hines, assault and battery. Continued.
State vs. Charles Sullivan, affray. Continued.
State vs. E. D. Hall et al., nuisance. Continued for the defendants, and E. D. Hall, G. P. Rourke, E. W. Dasher, D. G. Worth, E. H. Darby, J. L. Dudley, Clayton Giles, W. I. Gore, John W. Gerdis, and C. VonKampen recognized in the sum of $50 each for their appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.
This case is based upon the fact that the city is owner of an engine house in the Northern portion of the city, where it is alleged people gather to drink and play cards and other immoral purposes. Hence the case against the authorities cited above.
Court adjourned until 10 o'clock next Monday morning.
Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 49 minutes past 4 o'clock.
Rev. Dr. Pritchard having returned from the Baptist State Convention at Reidsville, will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist Church to-morrow, at the usual hours.
