THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1885. NO. 273

The Prince of Wales, on a recent visit to Buda Pesth, was remarkably fortunate in his ventures at the gaming table, and won nearly half a million florins (about $240,000) in the National Casino. He expressed the hope, on leaving that he would soon be able to give the losers an opportunity to have their revenge.

The Goldsboro Messenger copies a large portion of our carefully prepared history of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R., and credits it to the Star. Bro. Bonnitz will please make the necessary correction.

The tide of travel Southward is unusually large, said by many to be larger than ever before thus early in the season. It has not, however, reached its full height, nor will it be fully developed until after the holidays.

An excellent upright piano of the most approved make and pattern is for raffle at Heinsberger's. There are to be 350 chances—and no more—at one dollar a chance. This will be a good opportunity for some lucky one to obtain a first class piano for a mere trifle.

There will be a Children's Concert and Festival in the Luther Memorial Building, on the night of Thanksgiving Day, to which the public are invited. Only 10 cents will be charged for admission. Let there be a big turnout to make glad the hearts of the little ones.

The fourth game of the balk line billiard tournament in Chicago was played on Thursday by Vignaux and Schaefer. Schaefer won the game by a score of 600 to 507. Schaefer's best score was 152 points, while Vignaux only made 74 points on his best play. The game lasted two hours and fifty minutes.

The total military force of Servia amounts to 170,413 officers and men, and 418 guns. The cavalry force amounts to 4,600 men. The Bulgarian army amounts to 60,000 men, 1,400 of whom are in the cavalry service. Roumelia has a fighting force of 64,030 men. Bulgaria and Roumelia have an abundance of arms and ammunition, but there is a very great scarcity of competent officers.

Mr. Greer Kidder has established a poultry depot on Second street, between Market and Princess, and proposes to supply housekeepers in quantities to suit. He has roomy quarters, with plenty of yard room. He has now about 500 chickens on hand, and in a few days will have also ducks, geese, turkeys and eggs. See advertisement in our columns to-day.

JACOBI'S has well earned the reputation of keeping the best and cheapest Stoves. Call and see his stock before buying.

The Independent Order of Rechabites have adopted a plan of insurance which promises to be beneficial and to be attended with the least possible amount of expense. There is connected with it a disability clause by which an insured party upon being totally and permanently disabled can receive one half of the amount for which he is insured, the remaining half being paid, according to his direction, at the time of death. Several of the Rechabites in this city have availed themselves of its benefits and we learn that quite a number of others contemplate becoming candidates for its advantages at an early day. The requisites for insurance by this plan are that the insured must be an active member in good standing in the order, must pay his assessments promptly, and the policy becomes void if he should violate his pledge of total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks or should be expelled from the order for immoral conduct.

The Texas Supreme Court has decided that a will scrawled on a candle box is a legal instrument, thereby following an English precedent, where the testator chalked his testament on a table cloth.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 452 bales.

Extensive preparations are being made for the presentation of this comedy, by the young gentlemen and ladies connected with the play. Rehearsals are held nearly every night, and every effort will be made to present it in a manner worthy of the appreciation of the theatre goers of this city.

The steamer River Queen, which has been undergoing extensive repairs and alterations, is now nearly completed and, under the command of Capt. A. H. Worth, will begin to run regular trips from here to Fayetteville on Monday next. She has been furnished with a new engine and made in every way a first class freight boat for the Cape Fear.

The Sacramento Union very justly says and very truly too: "Every one says better times are coming on. Well, that is one way to hasten them. A good receipt for the making of hard times is for all hands to moan and howl about the hard times."

There was no City Court this morning. One man, who was drunk and down, was arrested last night and lodged in the guard house until he had sobered off, when he was discharged.

The second german of the season, by the L'Arioso German Club, will be given in Concordia Hall to-morrow evening, and it promises to be a very brilliant affair. The Club has recently been reorganized for the season and the Germans are given on the fourth Wednesday in each month. Messrs. L. P. Davis, R. D. Cronly, R. M. Dix, W. M. Parsley, J. W. Carmichael, J. McK. Cowan and A. G. Conoley form the Governing Committee.

The Cornet Concert Club will give a performance at the Opera House very soon. The comedy of "Crazy Quilt" will be presented by several talented ladies and gentlemen who buy furnishing goods of DYER.

The pocket and best assortment of Pocket Knives in the city can be seen at JACOBI'S Hdw Depot.

The Grant memorial committee are thinking of having medals prepared to be presented to all who subscribe as much as $10 to the New York monument fund, which is increasing at a very slow rate. They have not yet collected $100,000.

The Boston Commonwealth says:—"It is rumored in Printing-House square, New York, and the rumor is credited, that Charles A. Dana, who owns a controlling interest in the Sun, intends making his paper a one-cent issue on account of the heavy inroad made upon its circulation by the reduction of three of the morning quartets to its price. January 1 is mentioned as the date of the change. The size of the Sun will, it is said, remain the same."
