There were no tramps at the guard house last night.
The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 688 bales.
If you need a meat cutter you can be supplied at JACOBI'S Hdw Depot. †
Schooner Roger Moore, Gilkey, sailed from Philadelphia for this port Nov 28.

There is an unmailable letter in the postoffice here, in a white envelope and with no address.
The storm signal was flying again this morning, and the weather was cold and threatening.

The scene representing the Pennsylvania Oil regions, which is to be in the production of "Crazy Quilt," is one of the finest. Sois DYER'S Monarch shirt for $1.

We regret to learn that Mr. Eugene Maffitt is still confined to his house by sickness but are glad that his condition is as comfortable as might reasonably be expected.

It is expected that the famous female violinist, Camilla Urso, supported by an excellent troupe, will visit our city sometime during the winter. She is acknowledged to be the best female violinist in the world.

Rev. J. W. Gurganious has been called as pastor of the Society worshipping at Brooklyn Hall, during which time there will be regular services every Sunday morning and night. Miss Ella McMillan has been elected organist of the society.

Chicken Thieves.
On Saturday night last some midnight marauder paid a visit to the premises of Mr. D. H. Walsh, on Seventh street, between Mulberry and Walnut, and made a raid upon his hen-coop, taking therefrom seven fine chickens.

Sale of Real Estate.
The lot of land, with the buildings thereon, running from the West side of Front street to the Cape Fear river, near the New Market, recently owned and occupied by Messrs W. E. Davis & Son, was sold to-day by Mr. S. Van Amringe, auctioneer, to Mr. E. E. Burruss for $6,600.

Why Will You?
Throw away ten, fifty—yes, one hundred dollars or more every year when you can save that amount by trading with SHIRER, who is always ready to show goods? And it does not cost a cent to see them. It is only a matter of five minutes' time, and we are willing to stand or fall in any sensible man's opinion on the result. The fact is, that while we have been for years in business, we never saw the time when people looked so closely at goods as they do to-day, and nothing ever pleases us better, for our clothing, as everybody admits, is all the choicest in style and quality. All we have to prove to the most suspicious buyer is that our prices are the lowest, and this is why we want every one to come and see our offers. We have only one thing to say, and that is, we guarantee to give you full value for your money every time, and will refund money if you are dissatisfied. Call and convince yourself of the fact.

Food cannot be properly cooked, in a poor stove, so don't blame your cook but go to JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot and buy one of his fine stoves. Then you will have Peace, Comfort, and Happiness at home. †

Services Recognized.

Capt. E. Williams, who it will be remembered married the step daughter of the late Mr. Robert Scarborough, and was wrecked while on his first voyage after his marriage, in which his newly made wife accompanied him and shared his dangers and sufferings until they were rescued by a passing vessel, has again suffered shipwreck. The last time he was rescued by a Norwegian vessel, and in recognition of the gallant services of the Norwegians upon that occasion President Cleveland has sent an elegant gold watch, valued at $200, to the captain of the rescuing vessel. We are indebted for this information to a young gentleman of this city, who has recently received a letter from a party interested in it and acquainted with the facts in the case.

Opera House.
The "Rag Baby Co." will not give a Wednesday matinee, as was announced in our local columns on Saturday last. A matinee was intended and we were so informed by the business agent, but it has now been decided not to have one. They will appear on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, however, and will present one of the most laughable farces ever seen in this city. In speaking of the play, the Boston Evening Transcript says:

The new play is one of those absurd and fantastical creations which defy any criticism based on the ordinary rules of dramatic art. Its leading motive is—fun; and of this there is an abundance—sufficient to keep the audience in an almost continuous roar throughout the three acts.

The box sheet is now open at Heinsberger's.

Just as we Told You.
Mr. S. H. FISHELTE's business has grown to such an extent that he is now in a position to Retail Clothing at Wholesale Prices. The public appreciated and encouraged his enterprise in building up a First Class Clothing establishment, which every person will admit is a credit to this city and State. His stock is very large and he has all the novelties. The make and finish of his goods are equal to custom made. FIRST-CLASS will not keep any shoddy or clap trap baits. His trade has been immense this Fall, and he buys in such large quantities that he can afford and will sell you goods at prices that other clothiers have to pay for them. He guarantees perfect satisfaction or money refunded, and agrees to keep your clothing, purchased from him, in perfect order for one year free of charge.
