THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1885. NO. 279

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

A man named Deatfield in Lowell, Mass., a few days ago.

Fred Douglass says he is satisfied with President Cleveland's administration.

Mrs. Augustus Evans Wilson, it is reported, has received nearly $100,000 from her books.

A London paper says Mrs. Langtry has injured her appearance by the use of Paris paint.

Ex-Congressman Belford, of Colorado, who had been reduced to the verge of the grave by intemperance, has entirely reformed and is once more on his feet, with a growing law practice.

The penalty for the crime charged upon W. S. Warner and James Henry Work, the well-known New York brokers, is from five to ten years in the State prison. That is, if they are convicted.

New York Tribune: Mr. Hendricks was in no sense a reformer, and made no pretense of favoring civil service reform. Easy of access, genial of manners and popular with his party, his loss will be widely mourned.

Dr. Antonio Martin says that the flavor of cod liver oil may be changed to the delightful one of fresh oysters, if the patient will drink a large glass of water poured from a vessel in which nails have been allowed to rust.

A special dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer says that there are many who do not believe that the Canadian rebel, Louis Riel, was hanged. It says that Riel has been seen on the north bank of the Saskatchewan, and that he who was actually hanged was a clever and generous substitute in the person of one of the condemned prisoners at the Regina jail.

The story is again contradicted that Lord Tennyson received a special fee from Queen Victoria for his lines on the Princess Beatrice's wedding. The poet laureate is a member of the Queen's household and is paid for his services at an annual fixed salary. In Lord Tennyson's case this fixed salary is $1,000 per annum, which sum he has received since 1821, when he succeeded Wordsworth.

The musical season at St. Petersburg has been commenced by the reappearance of the American singer, Miss Mary Van Zandt. She is still the favorite diva of the St. Petersburg musical public, and it would seem, from the enthusiasm of the audience at her first concert, which was attended by several members of the Imperial family, that her power of attraction has in no way abated.

George Meack, a Wisconsin farmer, was considerably exercised last week by the strange actions of a partridge, which alighted on his head three consecutive times while he was at work in the field. Being superstitious, he was filled with forebodings, which were strengthened by the comments of his neighbors. Instead of dying or meeting with some dreadful accident, as he fully expected, he received word that an uncle had died and left him a large estate.

New York Commercial Bulletin: If the intimations of our Washington correspondent are based upon reliable information—as we have reason to believe they are—the extraordinary endeavors which are making to somehow commit the President to steamship subsidies in his annual message to Congress are but labor in vain. Mr. Cleveland on that question is as unyielding as Postmaster-General Vilas himself; and what is more, Mr. Bayard (as doubtless the other members of the Cabinet) stands upon the same ground.

Mr. George H. Sterling, the Brooklyn politician, was recently appointed port warden by Gov. Hill, of New York. He seems to be encountering as much trouble with his new office as he did with the office of weigher at the New York customhouse. The warden whom he was appointed to succeed refused to give up his office, as he says there is no vacancy and that under the State law the Governor has not the power to appoint his successor during a recess of the Senate.

The net loss of daylight this month is only 8 minutes.

Poultry and eggs are creeping up to Christmas prices.

The "Rag Baby" Company arrived here this morning.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 658 bales.

This month has five Tuesdays, five Wednesdays and five Thursdays.

Nor. barque Hildur, Gundersen, hence, arrived at London Nov. 28th.

If you need a meat cutter you can be supplied at JACOB'S Hdw Depot.

The stores begin to don a holiday appearance with the fine display of Xmas goods.

The storm signal has been taken down, so we presume that there is fair weather ahead.

Wood was plentiful in the docks this morning and it was being disposed of quite rapidly.

This is the first day of the first Winter month and the first day of the last month in the year.

Four white tramps, three of whom were English sailors, were lodged at the guard house last night.

Travel is said to be quite dull on the railroads now, but it is expected to revive as the holidays draw nearer.

The Custom House was closed to business today in respect to the obsequies of Vice-President Hendricks.

George Gause, colored, was brought before the Mayor this morning, charged with disorderly conduct and was fined $5 for the offense.

Camilla Urso, the celebrated female violinist, will appear at the Opera House on the night of the 14th inst. She will be supported by an excellent company.

Quite a number of the stores were closed from noon until one o'clock this afternoon, as that was the hour in which the obsequies of Vice-President Hendricks were held.

Capt. F. M. James reports that there were seven interments in Oak Grove Cemetery during the month ended Nov. 30th, 1885. Of this number four were adults and three were children. They were all colored except one white child.

The Cornet Concert Club is a musical organization to which the public of this city are much indebted for many enjoyable musical treats. Show your appreciation by going to the performances of Crazy Quilt, and buying several tickets and let your friends enjoy the show.

Why Will You?
 Throw away ten, fifty—yes, one hundred dollars or more every year when you can save that amount by trading with SHERRIE, who is always ready to show goods? And it does not cost a cent to see them. It is only a matter of five minutes' time, and we are willing to stand or fall in any sensible man's opinion on the result. The fact is, that while we have been for years in business, we never saw the time when people looked so closely at goods as they do to-day, and nothing ever pleases us better, for our clothing, as everybody admits, is all the choicest in style and quality. All we have to prove to the most suspicious buyer is that our prices are the lowest, and this is why we want every one to come and see our offers. We have only one thing to say, and that is, we guarantee to give you full value for your money every time, and will refund money if you are dissatisfied. Call and convince yourself of the fact.

Smashed Up.
 Mr. George F. Tilley was driving out on the shell road with his horse and buggy last night, having as a companion Mr. John Haar, Jr. and at about dusk they met two men with horses and carts coming into the city. To avoid a collision Mr. Tilley guided his horse to the side of the road, giving ample room for the carts to pass by careful driving. The foremost cart passed safely enough, but the other ran plump into the buggy, breaking one of its shafts and the whiffletree, besides doing considerable other damage. The horse of Mr. Tilley is a spirited animal and when the broken fragments of the buggy fell at his heels he showed a disposition to run, but his owner sprang to his head and held him. Fortunately neither of the occupants of the buggy were injured. The driver of the cart, as soon as he found out the mischief he had caused, whipped up his horse and drove rapidly to town, while Messrs Tilley and Haar were obliged to walk home.

The largest and best assortment of Pocket Knives in the city can be seen at JACOB'S Hdw Depot.

A Nice Fish.
 We saw what is known as a fresh water trout this morning which was the finest fish of its kind we ever saw. It was caught at the Orton plantation yesterday and weighed eight pounds. We are not prone to be covetous, but could not help a little feeling of envy at the luck of the gentleman who bought it, for it was a fine one.

A great lot of Gent's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. ELSEBACH, Prop.

Exports Foreign.
 The exports foreign from this port for the month ended November 30th, 1885, as taken from the books at the Custom House, foot up $737,692, divided as follows: Cotton, 15,139 bales, weighing 7,029,042 pounds, and valued at $618,222; spirits turpentine, 137,711 gallons, valued at $46,061; rosin, 17,037 barrels, valued at $16,673; tar, 2 barrels, valued at $3; pitch, 2 barrels, valued at $4; lumber, 1,514,000 feet, valued at $34,357; shingles, 187,000, valued at $967; flour, 20 barrels, valued at $100; peanuts, 400 bushels, valued at $300; window sash, 4 pieces, valued at $5.

Personal.
 Dr. A. T. Jones, of the New Orleans Times Democrat, is in this city to-day. Mr. Louis J. Poisson has entered into the real estate business and has opened an office for that purpose at No. 113 North Second street.

Mr. Frank L. Meares, for a long time bookkeeper with Messrs. P. L. Bridges & Co., has become associated with Mr. W. H. Green, in the drug business, so that the style of the firm will be known hereafter as Messrs. W. H. Green & Co.

We were pleased to receive a call yesterday from Hon. Wharton J. Green, Congressman from the Third district, who has been on a visit of a few days here. He left here last night for Fayetteville, and will be in his seat on Monday next, when Congress convenes.

Mr. Henri Learock, under the stage name of Tony Williams, with the Rag Baby Company, is a former Wilmingtonian, his father, Mr. John B. Learock, having been at one time a planter here and owner of the old Wilmington race track. The son, Tony Williams, will appear to night in the dual character of "James Finnegan," an average policeman, and "Patrick Magillhaggarty," a tough tramp.

This Morning's Fire.
 At about 3 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the conservatory of Mrs. H. Webb, on Market Street, between Seventh and Eighth. It was in a new part which has been recently added to and connected with the other building, in which were some of her rarest, most costly and most beautiful flowers, many of which were of recent importation. This building, with all its valuable contents was destroyed, and the other building was badly scorched, and many of the plants were seriously injured. The fire department turned out as quickly as possible, but the flames had nearly all extinguished before their arrival. It is supposed that the fire caught from a defective flue. The loss is a severe one and it will take considerable time and a good deal of expense to replace many of the plants that were destroyed. There was no insurance.

Harbor Master's Report.
 The number of vessels arriving at this port for the month ended Nov. 30th, 1885, as taken from the books of Capt. Joseph Price, Harbor Master, is as follows:
 American—4 steamers, 3,380 tons; 15 schooners, 3,730 tons, making a total of 19 vessels and 7,110 tons.
 Foreign—1 steamer, 1,061 tons; 13 barques, 5,471 tons; 1 brig, 529 tons; 1 schooner, 80 tons, making a total foreign of 16 vessels and 7,141 tons, and a grand total of 35 vessels, aggregating 14,251 tons.

Tokens of Respect.
 Many of the flags of the shipping in port, as well as those of the several consulates and public offices, were at half mast to-day as a token of respect to the memory of the late Vice-President Thomas A. Hendricks. Business was not generally suspended and the only place we noticed draped in the emblems of mourning was the dry goods store of Capt. R. M. McIntire, the front window of which was trimmed with a wide field of black in the centre, bordered with white, which reached the entire length of the glass.

Holiday Headquarters.
 Such is the title of the large and attractive advertisement published in this issue by Mr. P. Heinsberger. It is good reading and yet we do not think that he altogether does justice to the large, varied and attractive stock he displays. In books the seeker for holiday purchases will be hard indeed to please if he cannot make his selections there; the musical department is supplied with the finest instruments from the most celebrated makers and the picture gallery, which occupies a large portion of the two floors, is a marvel of beauty in itself. And yet there are many other things besides these to attract the eye and arrest the step which it is beyond our space to mention. If "a thing of beauty is a joy forever," that same thing must be seen before it can be appreciated and there are lots of things of beauty at Heinsberger's.
