The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

The official majority over Wise in Virginia is 16,031.

A natural bridge has recently been discovered in the Tonto Basin, A. T., which is 200 feet long, 500 feet wide, and 170 feet high.

Every few days the report reaches London that Caroline Patti has fallen from the stairs and broken her leg. English paragonists are now beginning to wonder how many legs she has.

It is estimated that there are in Canada from 10,000 to 15,000 lacrosse players, 5,000 curlers, 4,000 snow shoers, 3,000 or 4,000 cricketers, 2,000 football players, 1,000 rowing men, 1,000 base ballists and 1,000 bicyclists.

I would seem that Nutfield, in Surrey county, England, is the most healthy spot in the world, as the rector has announced that, with a population of 1,500, only one male died last year, and he was eighty-eight years old.

It is a curious commentary on the alleged impetuosity of the English land ed gentry that they manage to support as many packs of hounds as ever, even in those counties which are asserted to be the most distressed.

The cotton crop of Central Asia has been unusually good this year. Many owners of cotton mills in Russia, it is said, seem to prefer Central Asian to American cotton, and have established direct relations with the planters of Bokhara, Tashkend and Khiva.

It gives a notion of the cost of royal traveling in the last century that the bill of George IV at the Hotel d'Harcamp, Namur, for one day was 3,009 francs ($601.80). The head waiter received $40. The charge at the table d'hote at that time was two francs.

If there be a something indicative of the philoprogenitive temperament noticeable in Mr. Swinburne's poems, it may be accounted for on the hereditary theory. His ancestor, Sir John (temp. Charles II), had thirty children by his wife, daughter of Mr. Lawson of Brough.

One of the largest manufacturers of gloves in England recently issued a circular to the fashionable dealers in London pointing out that the habit of attempting to wear gloves too small has grown to such an extent that it has seriously affected the reputation of the factory, and urging the dealers to exercise their influence against this expensive manifestation of vanity.

The moderation in drinking practised by their American visitors tells heavily on the profits of the great hotels in London and other cities frequented by them. One proprietor felt that he had good cause for complaint when Mr. Mackay engaged an expensive suite of rooms for six weeks, and yet drank only three shillings and sixpence worth of wine during the time.

Butte City, Montana, has a population of 18,000, 4,000 to 5,000 of whom are employed in the mines at $4.50 per day, while fully as many men are idle. The town supports five daily news papers, five brass and string bands, and fifteen gambling establishments, four variety theatres, and one opera house, which are doing a rushing business every night.

A dazzling shower of shooting stars was observed in New Jersey last Friday night. These blazing meteors were in all parts of the sky, appearing every few seconds, sometimes several instantaneously, the back lines mainly intersected near the feet of Andromeda. Magnificent star showers have been witnessed recently at Teheran (Persia), and a meteoric display at Naples in connection with Biela's comet has been unusually brilliant. In London, in the early hours of Friday evening, a shower of meteors was well observed.

Osman Digna is dead at last, just about as dead as Julius Caesar and sinking as bad as Billy Mahone. His successor is one Khalifa Abdulla El Taasha, a gentleman who has very few acquaintances in this section. He is better known, however, to the British on the Soudan, whose acquaintance he is ardently seeking. He has fixed his military and strategic eye on Lower Egypt (not Upper Egypt as some will have it) and at last accounts it was hinted that our British cousins should be careful about cultivating his acquaintance.

Messrs. E. J. Moore & Co. have the thanks of the Foreman and composers in the DAILY REVIEW office for a treat to some of those fine Florida oranges advertised by them in this issue. They (the oranges, not the boys) are the finest lot we have seen here in many months.

Bishop Watson held services at Faison, Duplin county, on Sunday last, and confirmed two persons. Thence he went to Clinton, Sampson county, where he held a two days mission and confirmed three on Tuesday night. He is now at Goldsboro, but is expected to arrive home to-morrow night.

Rev. Dr. Yates has returned from Conference and was on our streets to-day. Mr. A. H. Neff and wife, formerly of this city, but now residing in New York, arrived here last night and registered at the Orton.

For Thirty Days It has often been said that it would be impossible for a man to eat a quail (with its called a partridge) each day for 30 consecutive days, but a man in this city is confident that he can accomplish the task and commenced the job yesterday. There is considerable money staked on the result.

Madame Camilla Urso, the celebrated female violinist, who will appear in this city on the night of the 14th inst., will be assisted by Miss Alice May Esty, prima-donna soprano; Signor Carlo Russo, prima tenore, from the San Carlo Opera House, Naples; Mr. Auguste Sauret, the eminent French pianist, and Miss Janie G. Savage, the celebrated reader and elocutionist.

Christmas falls on Friday this year, giving a good chance for two days holiday to many.

The attendance upon the Graded Schools is now larger than at any previous year.

Fine New River oysters are rather scarce in this market now. Oh! for a railroad to that happy land.

Corn, in the opinion of some of our best farmers, has been a much more profitable crop this season than cotton.

Scaffolding was being erected on the First National Bank to-day, preparatory to the painting building, of which it stands in need.

All kinds of dry goods and groceries are remarkably cheap now, but poultry and eggs are away up beyond the reach of ordinary pockets.

The sale of watches and jewelry, at the store on Market street, near Front, by Messrs Collier & Co., auctioneers, will be continued to-night.

This has been a lovely day and the ladies and children have flocked the streets and stores, admiring the weather and the pretty Christmas goods.

The Goldsboro Messenger was disgusted with the Rag Baby performance in that city. There are a variety of opinions on the subject here.

Rev. F. A. Bishop will preach at Front Street M. E. Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Yates will conduct the services at night.

A great lot of Galt's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. ELSEBACH, Prop.

The Mountain Pink company closed their engagement in Charleston on Wednesday night. They played to good houses and the News and Courier speaks handsomely of the entertainment.

Food cannot be properly cooked, in a poor stove, so don't blame your cook but go to JACOB'S Hdw. Depot and buy one of his fine stoves. Then you will have Peace, Comfort, and Happiness at home.

Our friend, Mr. P. Heinsberger, has added a new instrument to his stock of musical merchandise in the shape of a "Roller Organ," and it attracted much attention during the day. It is cheap in price and can be played by any one who can turn a crank.

Messrs. E. J. Moore & Co. have the thanks of the Foreman and composers in the DAILY REVIEW office for a treat to some of those fine Florida oranges advertised by them in this issue. They (the oranges, not the boys) are the finest lot we have seen here in many months.

Bishop Watson held services at Faison, Duplin county, on Sunday last, and confirmed two persons. Thence he went to Clinton, Sampson county, where he held a two days mission and confirmed three on Tuesday night. He is now at Goldsboro, but is expected to arrive home to-morrow night.

Rev. Dr. Yates has returned from Conference and was on our streets to-day. Mr. A. H. Neff and wife, formerly of this city, but now residing in New York, arrived here last night and registered at the Orton.

For Thirty Days It has often been said that it would be impossible for a man to eat a quail (with its called a partridge) each day for 30 consecutive days, but a man in this city is confident that he can accomplish the task and commenced the job yesterday. There is considerable money staked on the result.

Madame Camilla Urso, the celebrated female violinist, who will appear in this city on the night of the 14th inst., will be assisted by Miss Alice May Esty, prima-donna soprano; Signor Carlo Russo, prima tenore, from the San Carlo Opera House, Naples; Mr. Auguste Sauret, the eminent French pianist, and Miss Janie G. Savage, the celebrated reader and elocutionist.

CITY COURT. J. A. Ashe, better known as Toney Ashe, a colored deputy sheriff, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct, yesterday at the corner of Fourth and Mulberry streets. It seems that he was intoxicated at the time and was brandishing a pistol "sorter promiskers like," an offense for which the Mayor imposed a fine of $5.

Loss of the Fidelio. Ger. barque Fidelio, Meyer, hence, for Wolgast, Ger., was found on her beam ends in the English Channel and was towed into Doyer. She had been cut down three strikes below the copper on her starboard side, but partly righted after her masts had been cut away. One dead body was found on board. Two of the crew have since been picked up and carried into Belfast, Ireland.

The Fidelio cleared from this port October 9th, with 231,630 feet of lumber, valued at $4,633, shipped by Messrs W. Walter & Finke.

Mortuary Report. Dr. F. W. Potter, city physician, has made his regular monthly report which shows the number of deaths for the month ended Nov. 30th, 1885, were as follows:

White males 8; white females 2, making a total of 10 whites, of which 5 were adults and 5 were children.

Colored males 13; colored females 4, making a total colored of 17. Of this number 11 were adults and 6 were children. Aggregate white and colored 27, from which should be deducted 2 white and 1 colored still born, which leaves a total of 24 who died from disease. This is 9 less than for the corresponding month last year.

Our Platform. We are willing to let you take any goods home for inspection or comparison with goods from any house in this city, and if our goods are not superior to all others and at least from 15 to 25 per cent cheaper, or when our customers are not perfectly satisfied we will cheerfully refund the money. We protect our patrons, good judges and poor judges alike. Upon this Platform we have built up our Enormous Trade! The largest retail clothing business in this city! We do not wonder at the daily increase of our trade. People soon find out where they can save a dollar. We can convince you of the fact that we can give better value for your money than you can find elsewhere! Why is it? Simply because we give you honest goods at fair prices and only ask you to pay for what you get. No nonsense of any kind. SHRIER'S The Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market St.

JACOB'S has well earned the reputation of keeping the best and cheapest Stoves. Call and see his stock before buying.

The wind got around to the South-west to day and as a consequence the atmosphere is much warmer. It seems strange that the coolest wind in Summer and the warmest in Winter should both blow from the same point of the compass.

There was a good turnout of the members of the Wilmington Light Infantry last night and a fine drill. We are glad to note an increasing interest in the prosperity of the company, which was made manifest last night by quite a liberal donation of books with which to increase its library.

PERSONAL. Rev. Dr. Yates has returned from Conference and was on our streets to-day.

Mr. A. H. Neff and wife, formerly of this city, but now residing in New York, arrived here last night and registered at the Orton.

The Crazy Quilt.

One of the prominent features in the comedy of the Crazy Quilt, the original play to be presented this month at the Opera House, will be a song and dance by Mr. Joe Conlan, who will appear in the character of a New York Irish boot-black in the first act, and as a colored depot servant in the third act, and will also give in this character a representation of a neat song and dance man rehearsing for a cake walk and festival.

We understand that Mr. Conlan is considered one of the finest dancers that has appeared on our stage, and the management of Crazy Quilt is fortunate in securing the services of so good an artist.

Division of Conference.

As will be seen from the proceedings of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, that body decided by a majority of 24 not to divide at this time. We think the discussion has brought out the fact that the main reason given by those who oppose division at this time was that the educational interests of the church would suffer by the move.

Many of those who oppose the movement now are really in favor of it, and will vote for it just as soon as they think the church's interests will not be damaged by it, even if that time should be a year or two hence, but certainly in four years. By reference to the vote it is easy to infer that the intelligent ministers and laymen who voted against the measure now certainly know what they are doing. The minority are also able and intelligent gentlemen, and these facts furnish a safe guarantee that, as a member of the Conference said to us to-day, all malcontents and soreheads will be disappointed in their desire for a squabble.

How to Burn Coal.

As winter is at hand, and as much fuel is wasted in the manner of replenishing coal fires, both in furnaces and grates, it would be well to try the following rule, copied from an exchange:

"They should be fed with a little coal at a time, and often. But servants, to save time and trouble, put on a great deal at once, the first result being that almost all the heat is absorbed by the newly put on coal, which does not give out heat until it becomes red hot. Hence for a while the room is cold, but when it becomes aglow the heat is insufferable. The time to replenish a fire is as soon as the coals begin to show ashes on their surface; then put on merely enough to show a layer of black coal on the red. This will soon kindle, and as there is much of it, an excess of heat will not be given out. Many also put out the fire by stirring the grate as soon as fresh coal is put on, thus leaving all heat in the ashes, when it should be sent to the new supply of coal. The time to stir the fire is just when the new coal is well kindled. This method of managing a coal fire is troublesome, but it saves fuel, gives more uniform heat, and prevents the discomfort of alternation of heat and cold above referred to."

Just received a lot of burglar proof blind fasts. Call and see them at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot, and you will buy.
