THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1885. NO. 286

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

A patch of land known as House Point Island, off West End Light, Pawnee town, Mass., was swept away in a recent storm.

Miss Cleveland's favorite flowers are pansies and roses. A bouquet of pansies is taken to her room every morning and a fresh basket placed on the table at breakfast.

Mr. J. W. Daniel will succeed Madison in the U. S. Senate for Virginia. The vote in caucus stood 66 for Daniel to 31 for Barbour.

Milton Jayne, of Setauket, N. J., died on Monday from blood poisoning.— Three months ago he lost a horse from glanders, and in doctoring the animal he absorbed the poison through a cut in his hand.

In one of the many Bibles scattered about a hotel in Grand Rapids for the past few days a matter of fact drummer wrote in large letters on the title page an appeal for "less Bibles and more buns."

The laws regulating the government of Yale College prescribe that the President of that institution must be a cler-gyman. This excludes several of the proposed candidates for President Potter's place.

It is impossible to publish the novel "The Guardian of the Guards" killed in the Sudan, left behind him, because no one has been able to decipher the man-script. It has been examined by one who knew the author's handwriting well and has been in the hands of a professional "decipherer," but nothing can be made of it.

The domestic felicity of Mr. and Mrs.
Hendricks was a proverb in Indiana.
At a wedding ceremony in Shelbyville three years ago the officiating clergyman, after shaking hands with the newly married couple, gave them his benediction in these words: "May you be as happy as Mr. and Mrs.
Hendricks are."

The ocean fisheries of France and Algeria, according to the last Government report, employ over 87,000 persons and 24,000 vessels, while the value of the fish taken is between sixteen and seventeen millions of dollars. The fresh water fisheries amount to about one-third as much more. The cholera epidemic interfered with this trade very appreciably, especially in the items of sardines and oysters. As a whole, the Mediterranean fisheries were deficient last year, and fishermen suffered greatly in some districts.

The Star has opinions and if it had done its mission would end. It proposes in a decent way to give expression to them as occasion requires. It proposes to utter its own views whenever it thinks proper, and to do it freely, and it hopes, courteously and fairly.—Star, Sunday morning.

Is not Mr. Randall himself a strong advocate of the Blair raid on the Treasury, that proposes to take out and mis-apply some $90,000,000?—Star, Tuesday morning.

It is evident that our neighbor has either a treacherous memory or that he is very insincere in his expressions.
In one issue he proposes, to utter his own views, "courteously and fairly," and in the next he charges one of the most distinguished Democrats in the country with favoring a "raid on the Treasury" and a scheme to "misapply some $90,000,000!" And the charge is not against Mr. Randall alone but against many others, pure, honorable, upright gentlemen. The Blair bill passed the Senate last winter and was pigeon holed in the House, because there was not sufficient time to get it properly discussed before that body.
Senator Ransom, of North Carolina, and Senator Hampton, of South Carolina, voted for the bill and we saw it stated that Senator Vance had said that he, too, would have voted for it had he been present at the time. It was also asserted, and without contradiction, that every Democratic representative in Congress from North Carolina, but one, favored the bill. This is all of last winter. For the present the campaign has just been opened, and opened handsomely, too, by the Virginia Democratic Legislature, where Monday, in the Senate, a joint resolution was passed by that body endorsing the Blair bill and calling upon their Senators and Representatives in Congress to vote for it.

And now, a word for ourselves. We favored the Blair bill last Winter, and we favor it now. There is a vast surplus in the Treasury and that surplus is properly the property of the people.

If they, through their representatives in Congress, shall decide in what manner this money shall be spent, then there is no power of appeal beyond that decision. The word raid is of Scottish origin, and means a hostile in-cursion. This cannot be in such a sense. It has latterly become corrupted, in this country, into expressing something perhaps worse, something illegal and dishonest. Therefore we are not disposed to sit down quietly and submit to the charge of favoring a "raid" upon the U. S.
Treasury or any other treasury. We do not suppose, for one moment, that our neighbor wishes to intimate any such severe charges as these against those who are so unfortunate (for him) as to differ with him in his views as to public policy. The charge is more in expression than in intention. It is as if too frequently the case with him, the unfortunate use of words without accurately considering their actual import. But we are sure he is amenable to reason and will see wherein he has thoughtlessly erred.
He will continue to discuss the Blair bill from his own peculiar and isolated standpoint—that we insist upon,—but we are sure that in doing so he will carry out in the spirit, as well as in the letter, his own expressed determination to do so "courteously and fairly."

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,051 bales.

The REVIEW JOB OFFICE is the place to get good work at moderate prices.

Nor. barque Mozart, Gjeruldsen, for this port, passed Dover, Eng., Dec. 6th.

Schr. Albert H. Cross, Henderson, hence, arrived at Philadelphia, Dec.
7th.

The merchants have had but little to do during the day on account of the rain.

There was no City Court this morning and quietude prevailed about the City Hall.

Sw. barque Boomerang, Frocburg, hence for Antwerp, passed Isle of Wight Dec. 5th.

There was one white tramp accommodated with lodgings at the guard house last night.

The largest and best assortment of Pocket Knives in the city can be seen at JACOB'S Hdw Depot.

Christmas goods are coming in upon every steamer as well as by railroad and they are very attractive.

This is just the sort of weather favorable to catching colds and to the continuation of those already on hand.

JACOB'S has well earned the reputation of keeping the best and cheapest Stoves. Call and see his stock before buying.

Nor. barque St. Joseph, Christiansen, from Berwick for this port, was spoken on the morning of Nov. 28th, in lat.
31.10, long. 70. All well.

There has been a very disagreeable dampness in the streets to-day, to say nothing of the gale of wind which has blown in gusts all day.

There is a remarkable fine display of fruit and especially Florida oranges in the city. We have never seen them finer than they are this season.

A great lot of Gent's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st. J. ELISBACH, Prop.

After it had begun to rain last night and everybody knew that a storm was coming, the danger signal was ordered hoisted at the signal office in this city.

Such weather as we have had to-day is rough for vessels off the North Carolina coast, and we would not be surprised to hear of marine disasters from the effects of to-day's gale.

Food cannot be properly cooked, in a poor stove, so don't blame your cook but go to JACOB'S Hdw. Depot and buy one of his fine stoves. Then you will have Peace, Comfort, and Happiness at home.

Some people think that the trundling of hoops on the sidewalks, which is now much in vogue, is a nuisance, but the sport is so innocent, so free from danger and the young folks seem to enjoy it so much, that we cannot find fault with it. It is an inconvenience at times, it is true, but it makes the children happy, so we say, let them enjoy it.

Dangerous.

The sling shot nuisance still continues and we see no reason to look for its abatement at present. It is a dangerous sport, and if it must be indulged in, should be restricted to the open fields where there is less danger, and not permitted in the public streets where there are ever present dangers to person or property.

Cotton.

The cotton is now nearly all picked out in this section and a large portion of it has already reached the markets.
There is some yet in the fields, although the amount is inconsiderable, and there is considerable of that which has been picked and ginned is held by the farmers, in the hope of an advance in the price in the near future.

The Ball.

The anniversary grand ball of the Germania Cornet Band will take place to-night at Germania Hall, rain or shine, and "don't you forget it." The committee of arrangements—all young and decidedly good looking men—have spared no pains to make the ball the occasion of the season, and it will be first-class in every respect. The Melodians will furnish music for the dancing, and the pleasures will be enlivened by occasional music from the band.

"A Mountain Pink."

Miss Bella Moore and her supporting company seem to have captured the good opinion of people, as voiced by the press, wherever "A Mountain Pink," in which she appears in the title role, has been presented. Our citizens will have an opportunity to night of judging of her merits as well as of those of her support and of the play.
The Little Rock, (Ark.) Democrat in speaking of the play, says:

The audience last night was delightful with "A Mountain Pink" as rendered by Miss Moore and her company.
She captured the audience with her first appearance and though her first part in the play consisted of three fourths of the hard work, she never tired and did not refuse to repeat when recalled. The play is recognized as one of the best American melodramas and Miss Moore as an actress equal if not superior to the play. The ballads she sings and her manner of wedding them in part of the play is so skillful that "A Mountain Pink" presented without them would be shorn of half its beauty and attractiveness.

Personal.

Ex-U. S. District Attorney W. S.
O'B. Robinson was in the city to-day.

Lieut. Gov. Steadman left on this morning's train for Washington, D. C., and will be absent several days.

Mr. W. W. McDiarmid, of the Lumberton Robesonian, was in the city today and gave us the pleasure of a visit.
Mr. Dell Cassidy, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Jacksonville, Fla., who was married about two weeks ago to Miss Hull the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Ex-Gov.
Hull, of that city, arrived here last night with his bride on his return from a bridal tour to the North. They will remain in the city several days, the guests of Mr. J. D. Munde, where they would be happy to receive calls from his former friends.

An Earnest Woman.

Carmilla Urso, the great female violinist, who will appear at the Opera House next Monday night, is one of the most remarkable women of this or any other age. Born and reared in an atmosphere of music, at Nantes, in France, she at the early age of five years manifested an earnest desire to learn to play the violin. Her wish was granted and she began at once to take lessons and her progress was such that before she was six years old she played in public for the first time, the piece selected for the occasion being De Be-not's Seventh Air with variations, which was rendered with such exquisite taste and purity that at its conclusion she was crowned with a wreath of flowers. She was the first female who ever entered the Conservatory of Music at Paris as a pupil, and this she did triumphantly; and before she was ten years old she had contended for and won the first prize in a competition which extended over several days and included an examination in harmony, performance of a solo and sight reading in a quartette. Since then her career has been onward and upward, and reads more like a page of romance than it does like the earnest and patient labors of a weak, but determined woman.

If you need a meat cutter you can be supplied at JACOB'S Hdw Depot. †
