Eggs continue to be scarce and high. There were no tramps at the guard house last night.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 958 bales.

Schr. R. S. Graham, Avis, cleared at Philadelphia, for this port Dec. 13th.

There was quite a gale of wind from the Southeast at Smithville last night.

The storm has been general throughout this section, and at some points it has been quite severe.

A full line of silver plated tea and table spoons, at prices to suit the times, at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

There has been a rise of about 20 feet in the Cape Fear, but it was slowly subsiding at last account.

A good many of our citizens were beguiled yesterday afternoon by the bright sunshine to go into the streets, and were soon caught in showers of rain.

A great lot of Gent's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

We had very nearly forgotten to state that yesterday, the 13th inst., was the ninth anniversary of the DAILY REVIEW. We are on the tenth year now.

Yesterday's threatening weather kept a good many people from going to church, and the several congregations were comparatively light in consequence.

The New Emerald, Zeb Vance and New Excelsior Penn. are the cook stoves that please all. You can now buy them at reduced prices from JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

It is generally maintained that the recent weather has been of a very unusual kind for the month of December. Sailors and those whose business is upon the water pronounce the weather as remarkable. It has been and still continues decidedly mixed.

Yesterday (the 13th inst.) was the 23d anniversary of the battle of Fredericksburg, which was fought on the 13th of December, 1862. There are two men in this city who were severely wounded on that occasion, one of whom wore the gray and the other the blue.

Table and Pocket Cutlery Carrying Knives and Forks, Razors, Scissors, Shears, Corkscrews, etc., etc. We have a fine line of reliable goods. Give us a call before looking elsewhere. JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

City Court.

Henry Sherman, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was sent to the city prison for seven days by the Mayor this morning.

Fred Williams, also colored, for the same offense, was required to pay a fine of $3.

One case of drunkenness was discharged, and one case of disorderly conduct was settled by the payment of a fine of $1.50.

We suppress the names of the last two offenders by request.

Shrier as Santa Claus.

"You may just say to the people of your acquaintance" said SHRIER, the Old Reliable Clothier, "that I am going to play Santa Claus this season and will distribute from my headquarters the following appropriate things for presents: An overcoat of fine Beaver, or a dress suit, a business suit, a boy's suit, or a child's suit, silk handkerchiefs, driving gloves, dress gloves, furnishing goods, &c., &c." Just invite Santa Claus to call at our store, 114 Market street, and see the things I have selected for Santa Claus.

The REVIEW JOB OFFICE is the place to get good work at moderate prices.
