ures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest and best circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

A French paper, Le Courrier de Londres, has just appeared in London.

Note paper of a vivid scarlet hue is the Christmas novelty in stationery.

The fruit trees in Santa Barbara are being dug up and English walnuts planted in their stead.

Mrs. Leland Stanford's collection of works of art will be presented to the city of San Francisco and placed in a building in Golden Gate Park.

"It is absolutely impossible," said Lord Rosebery in a recent address in Scotland, "that in the future war could ever take place between the United States and England."

The man who receives the most letters a day in Washington is not the President or any member of his Cabinet, but a pension attorney, whose daily mail frequently numbers 500 letters.

The physicians of Sanford, Florida, have signed an agreement not to visit any patient who will not pay their bills on the first of each month. Those failing will not be attended until the bill is settled.

It is believed that in ten years Yankton, D. T., will be an inland town. In front of the town, where the river ran twenty feet deep five years ago, there are now 100 acres of land six feet above high water mark.

The Prairie du Pont levee, near East Carondelet, Ill., just reaching completion, will protect 10,000 acres of choice bottom lands, the flooding of which last summer caused the loss of $300,000.
The levee will cost $13,000.

A Chicago street corner lot that was bought thirty years ago for less than $9,000 has just been leased for ninety-nine years at an annual rental of $35,- 000. A ten-story building, to cost a round million, will be erected upon it.

During the recent cold snap at St.
Louis men were watching along the levees all day and night ready to step on the ice the moment it was able to bear them, and stake out a "claim" to an area for cutting. Such claims are always respected.

Ordinary army signalling, by waving flags or torches, can transmit only ten words or so a minute, spelled out by letters; but an adaptation of the Morse telegraphic alphabet, now generally employed, has more than doubled this rate of speed.

The residents along a lumber flume in the mountains above Chico, Cal., have a novel way of getting their mail.
It is started on a raft from the head of the flume at regular dates, and the people below watch for it, take out what belongs to them, and then send the raft with its precious cargo on the way.

Edward H. Tobey, Mayor Grace's old clerk, has been indicted by the United States grand jury of New York, for "aiding, abetting, counselling and procuring" Ferdinand Ward to "abstract" and "misapply" $5,000 of the Marine Bank's funds by means of a check drawn by Ferdinand Ward when the latter had no funds in the bank.

All the underclothing of the Mikado of Japan is made of a peculiar soft white silk; and as this "Son of Heaven" never wears a garment twice, nor one that has been washed, he consumes a great amount of this material; but it is not wasted, for the royal cast off garments are competed for as priceless possessions by his loyal subjects.

The colored league of Massachusetts held a public meeting in Faneuil Hall, Boston, last Tuesday night, and a resolution was unanimously passed declaring that all colored voters of the country are called upon to act for themselves in the future, independent of any political parties, and vote for no man who is not pledged to assist the colored race to attain its rights as citizens of this country.

A novel method for raising funds is to be resorted to at a church entertainment shortly to be held in Dayton, Ga.
Each lady attending will be wrapped in a gossamer waterproof and veiled, and carry a lunch basket filled. They will then be "sold" at auction to the highest bidder, and the purchaser will secure the lady's company as a partner for the rest of the evening and a share of the contents of her lunch basket.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1885. NO 291

Tennyson's new volume of poems is rapidly selling in England. Where are the newspaper frauds that have been pecking at him?—Morning Star.
One of them is located on Market street, South side, between Front and Second, and another on Princess street, near Water. These are all we can recall at this moment.

The Blair bill is a wise and benefi-cent measure, destined to promote the cause of education among the poorer classes in this country. This is to be done without taxation and through the expenditure of a portion of the large surplus fund now in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the people. We have not a copy of the bill by us, and therefore cannot give its exact provisions. But what we have stated is the foundation upon which it is built. There are probably imperfec-tions in it which may be remedied in the House. It passed the Senate last Winter and will pass the House this Winter by a very large vote. There is nothing in the least degree constitutional about the bill. Its friends were too much in earnest in their efforts to have it succeed to leave open any chance of its falling through on any such grounds. Those who talk about such things are simply talking in the dark and at hazard. If the bill becomes a law a large proportion of its benefits will be felt in the South, where they are most needed. It is necessary that the negro race should be educated. It goes without saying that the more knowledge they possess the better citizens will they become. The Federal government has freed them, by force and compulsion, and by the same agency were they exalted to citizenship and to a position that many of them are to this day incapable of understanding and appreciating. It is therefore incumbent upon the government which has placed them in this position to at least assist in furnishing them with a common school education. The negro, in fact, has a right to demand this, as has his white neighbor. It is a moral right this year and it will be a legal right next year. The white people of the South, the property owners, have done wonders toward furnishing schools for the negro and they are doing it still.
But they are unable to fill all the requirements of the situation and hence they ask for a portion of their own surplus capital to assist in the good work.
And the result of this appeal is the "infamous" Blair bill "courteously and fairly" referred to by the Star.

The festival given by the ladies of the Front Street M. E. Church at the City Hall last night was well attended and the display of refreshments was truly enticing. It was a pleasant affair.

A free exhibition of beautiful stereopticon views will be given in front of Bellamy's Drug Store, corner Front and Market streets, on Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. If stormy the next fair evening.

There is a Democratic postmaster in this city, for the first time in about 20 years, Postmaster Parsley and his assistants took complete control this morning, and the office will be run hereafter on a Democratic basis.

The New Emerald, Zeb Vance and New Excelsior Penn. are the cook stoves that please all. You can now buy them at reduced prices from Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Prize Tickets.
The following numbers drew the principal prizes at the regular monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, at New Orleans yesterday: Ticket No. 69,255 drew the grand capital of $150,000; No. 14,928 drew the second prize of $50,000; No. 51,794 drew the third prize of $20,000; Nos.
62,378 and 85,966 each drew $10,000.

City Court.
Alex. Cole, colored, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct. He was found guilty and a fine of $3 was imposed for the offense.

Joe Ellison, also colored, was charged with attempting to rescue a prisoner from a police officer, and was fined $10 for the offense.

Crazy Quilt.
Next Monday night the comedy of the "Crazy Quilt" will be presented at the Opera House by a company of Wilmington amateurs. The play was written by a gentleman of this city and is said by those who have seen the manuscript and are competent to judge, to possess real merit. The scenery necessary to a proper presentation of the play was also painted in this city and is the work of artists. We hope that a good audience may greet its presentation.

Literary.
The New York Weekly Star is one of the most neatly gotten up newspapers that comes to this office. It contains 16 pages, is printed on good paper with clear type and is of just the right size for convenience in reading or binding. It is Democratic to the backbone and is published at a subscription price of $1.35 per annum.
Besides its political matter—which is of the best—the Star contains much of interest in literature, art, household and fashion notes, and is a paper that may be read with pleasure and profit at every fireside in the country.

This Morning's Fire.
At about a quarter of 4 o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in the grocery store on the corner of Seventh and Mulberry streets, owned by Mr. J.
H. Mehreken, of Kingston, N. C., and occupied by Messrs Davis & Burton.
When first seen the flames had made such headway that the rescue of any of the property or the saving of the building was a matter of utter impossibility.
The firemen were quickly on hand and earnestly at work in an effort to save the adjacent dwelling, owned also by Mr. Philip Platt. In this they were fortunately successful, but the Western end of the building was badly scorched, the windows were all broken and the blinds ruined. For a short time it seemed as if the building would be destroyed, but the efforts of the firemen prevailed and it was saved. There was insurance on the dwelling to the amount of $400 in the German American Ins.
Co., of New York, represented in this city by Mr. M. S. Willard. There was insurance on the store building to the amount of $500 in the Hibernia Ins.
Co., of New Orleans, represented here by Messrs. Atkinson & Manning, and Messrs. Davis & Burton had insurance on the stock and fixtures amounting to $700 in the Insurance Company of North America, of Philadelphia, represented here by Messrs. DeRosset & Northrop. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. Mr. John W. Perdew is the agent of Mehreken in this city and has the care of both buildings. He has already commenced the necessary repairs on the dwelling.

Steamboatmen report that the rise in the Cape Fear now gives about 35 feet above low water.

Last night was extremely cold, but the weather has been growing considerably warmer to-day.

George C. Miln, the tragedian, will appear at the Opera House on the nights of the 25th and 26th inst.

Schr. J. P. Wyman, Torrey, cleared to-day for Port au-Prince, Hayti, with 150,940 feet lumber and 50,000 shingles, valued at $2,490.13, shipped by Messrs E. Kidder & Son.

Messrs. Munds Bros. are sending out to their patrons a lot of circulars, including Xmas cards, some of them hand-painted, and all of them hand some.

Fire Alarm Boxes.
Our attention has been called repeatedly to-day to the need of more fire alarm boxes in the city. This was made manifest at the fire this morning, which was at the corner of Seventh and Mulberry streets, while the nearest fire alarm boxes were at the corner of Seventh and Market streets on one hand and Sixth and Red Cross streets on the other; in either place three squares distant. This distance would not be apt to work great inconvenience nor delay in the day time, when people are awake and communication flies quickly from one point to another, but in the depths of the night, when the people are wrapped in profound slumber, it is a great disadvantage and makes a small fire liable to become a serious conflagration in consequence of the delay in spreading the alarm.

Shrier as Santa Claus.
"You may just say to the people of your acquaintance" said SHRIER, the Old Reliable Clothier, "that I am going to play Santa Claus this season and will distribute from my headquarters the following appropriate things for presents: An overcoat of fine beaver, or a dress suit, a business suit, a boy's suit, or a child's suit, silk handkerchiefs, driving gloves, dress gloves, furnishing goods, &c. &c." Just invite Santa Claus to call at our store, 114 Market street, and see the things I have selected for Santa Claus.
