

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID: One year $4.00. Six months $2.00. Three months $1.00. One month 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. A circulating rates low and liberal. Subscribers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

John Kelly is to start South in a few weeks.

John J. Russell Lowell has endorsed the Administration warmly.

General Low Wallace says that the South has 150,000 men under arms.

Dr. Meyer, of Amsterdam, has gone to Rome to treat the Pope for rheumatism.

Miss Patti will be paid $2,000 an appearance during her tour with Herr Patti.

Mrs. Garfield is not writing her husband's life; but she is collecting material for such a work.

One of the gayest of Congressmen is Congressman Gay—a Louisiana sugar-planter, worth $1,000,000.

Rowell, the pedestrian, is coming to this country again to engage in a walking match. As usual this is to be his "last appearance" here.

Lord Tennyson has taken the trouble to write that he believes the disunion of Church and State would be a prelude to the downfall of much that is greatest and best in England.

Almonds are successfully cultivated in California. A. T. Hatch, of Cordeiro, has raised 1,500 sacks from 40 acres this season, and has 40 acres of young trees that will bear next year.

Ex-Governor Boutwell, of Massachusetts, will read a paper on Gen. Grant before the Webster Historical Society in the Old South Meeting House, Boston, on Wednesday evening, December 23d.

New York Sun: Mr. Keiley's action and attitude were honorable to himself, and such as to justify the estimate of his character which led, in the first place, to his appointment by the President.

Three native Americans in the new English House of commons, the two Bartletts and Mr. F. A. Channing, a grand-nephew of the great divine, who is an Oxford man and is regarded as of high promise.

The main significance of the revolt in Nuevo Leon, according to the accounts received, seems to lie in its relations to the Presidential election of next year; and it is possible that other Mexican States may find themselves before long under generals of the Federal forces as Governors.

Louisville Courier-Journal: "On the very day that the first Democratic message for a quarter of a century was sent to Congress the dispatches reported the resumption of operations by ten idle mills in one State alone. This was not as it should have been according to the prophets of the Republican scriptures.

Richmond State: The Democrats intend to build a navy. The President appreciates the importance of having well-armed ships; the Secretary of the Navy is in favor of having a strong navy; the Naval Committee will urge liberal appropriations in that direction. Millions may be appropriated under Democratic administrations for the navy. Every dollar will be honestly expended.

It is understood in London that communications have been passing during the last few days between the Liberal chiefs and Mr. Parnell for the purpose of having an amendment to the address which would unite the forces of the opposition and the Irish Nationalists against the Government. Should that union be effected and should it cause the ministry to be beaten on a division then Lord Salisbury will dissolve Parliament and appeal to the country on the ground that the present Parliament has no mandate to concede home rule to Ireland.

Washington Star: The temperance movement at the South is not confined to Georgia, but it is spreading over a large territory. In Alabama striking progress is shown. Thus at a local election in Florence, one of the most prosperous towns of the State, the prohibitionists carried four out of the five wards. In another city of the State the local liquor license has been raised to $1,000. In Maryland a large majority of the counties have adopted local option prohibition. It is to be noticed that this temperance feeling thrives on most unquestioned Democratic soil.

For other locals see fourth page.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 723 bales.

The streets have been alive and busy to-day with ladies, gentlemen and children.

There was a good supply of meats and poultry for Christmas in the market this morning.

This is really beautiful weather, and everybody is wishing that it may continue until after Christmas.

There are a good many people from the country in the city to-day making their purchases for Christmas.

Messrs. Jno. F. Garrell & Son are ready to comfort the inner man during the holidays. Read their advertisement in this issue and leave orders at once.

A great lot of Gen'l's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st. J. ELSEBACH, Prop.

Two white tramps were accommodated with lodgings at the guard house on Saturday night and five more of the same color and fraternity on Sunday night.

A few nights since a chicken thief broke into the coop of Mr. C. Hubert, 130 South Front street, and stole chickens of the value of $7 besides two nice turkeys.

Mr. T. C. Craft has a superb stock of furniture at his warehouses, on South Front street, and can supply anything desired in his line. He talks to our readers in this issue.

The New Emerald, Zeb Vance and New Excelsior Penna. are the cook stoves that please all. You can now buy them at reduced prices from JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Miss E. Karrer has another attractive advertisement in this issue, addressed to the ladies. It is all about Xmas, what to buy and where to buy it, and will be read with interest.

Gerbarque Folus, Schwenn, cleared to-day for Fleetwood, Eng., with 500 casks spirits turpentine, 500 barrels tar and 3,203 barrels rosin, valued at $12,850, shipped by Messrs. Alex Sprunt & Son.

The hour of distributing the gifts to the Brooklyn Sunday School and the Brooklyn Industrial School has been changed from 3 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, as was at first announced, to 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon.

Steamboatmen report that there is another big rise in the Cape Fear.—There was last week an unusual rise, the freshet reaching to 35 feet above low water, but that had fallen off about 17 feet, when it began to rise again.

The large stock of drugs, chemicals and fancy goods in Messrs W. S. Briggs & Co.'s store, opposite the New Market, is being sold to close out and many handsome things for the holidays may be bought there cheap. See ad. of Mr. E. H. Freeman, assignee, in this issue.

Knights of Honor.
Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular annual meeting this evening at 7.30 o'clock. Election of officers. Full attendance is desired as business of importance will be transacted.

To Be Disposed Of.
FISHBLATE is anxious to dispose of his large stock of clothing before Christmas. To do so, he has just knocked the bottom out of prices. Now is the time to take advantage of his prices. He guarantees to save you at least 35 per cent. on your purchases. Guarantees that you will be perfectly satisfied, otherwise you can have your money refunded. You have nothing to risk—so call on him before you make any purchases, and you will find what he states is so.

Those Brass and Silver head racks are here. JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Personal.
Col. K. M. Murchison and Mr. K. M. Murchison, Jr., are in the city today.

Mr. A. F. Powell, of Whiteville, Columbus county, is in the city today. Mr. Samuel P. Cox, business agent of the "We, Us & Co." Comedy Company, is in the city and registered at the Purcell. He is making preparations for the appearance of the company at the Opera House on the night of the 28th inst.

For Two Days.
As Christmas falls on Friday which will be observed as a holiday, there is a wish that the stores may be also closed on the Saturday following, so as to give the clerks two days' holiday. It is probable that this could be done with little loss or inconvenience, as the prospects for trade on Saturday would be rather light. Give the clerks a chance and then make them work harder with the beginning of the new week.

A Day's Sport.
Dr. J. A. Sheets, druggist at 802 Market street, is one of the luckiest sportsmen in the city. Last Saturday morning he went on a hunting expedition to the vicinity of Castle Hayne, and succeeded during the day in shooting two fine deer—a buck and a doe—besides a number of squirrels, ducks and other birds and reached home before night. This may be set down as extraordinary good luck.

Store Robbed.
Some one broke into Mr. A. W. Watson's store, on North Water street, near Mulberry, early yesterday morning and carried off a number of portable valuables, among them Mr. Watson's overcoat, about $3 worth of cigars, $1.35 in money, which had been left in the desk, and a lot of matches. Boxes of letters and other articles were found scattered around promiscuously. Mr. Watson thinks that the thief got in by the back way and after the policeman on that beat had been relieved yesterday morning, which was at 6 o'clock.

Crazy Quilt.
Of course there will be a throng at the Opera House to witness the rendition of the comedy entitled "Crazy Quilt," which was written by a resident of this city and will be performed by Wilmington ladies and gentlemen for the benefit of the Wilmington Concert Club. A Wilmington production, by a Wilmington company for the benefit of a Wilmington organization! Good! Let them be cheered by a rousing house and thus give encouragement to home talent. The play is sparkling with fun, and all those who wish for an evening of innocent pleasure can be gratified by a visit to the Opera House to-night.

Lynched.
About three weeks ago John Lee shot and killed Solomon Welch, in Richmond county, for the purpose of robbery. Both parties were white. After the perpetration of the crime Lee fled, but was hotly pursued and as the verdict of the coroner's jury was that Lee committed the act, Gov. Scales offered a reward of $200 for his apprehension. Lee was captured by Deputy Sheriff Patterson, near Keyser, Moore county, on the 1st inst., to whom he made a full confession of his guilt. He was lodged in jail at Rockingham, where he remained until last Friday night, when he was taken out by a mob, and carried to a place about a mile distant and hung to a tree, where he was found soon after, dead.

Tragedy.
Mr. George C. Miln, who was formerly a clergyman, but forsook the pulpit for the theatre, has established an enviable reputation in the tragedy roles of his repertoire. He will appear at the Opera House on the nights of the 23rd and 26th inst., with a matinee on Saturday afternoon. The plays selected for his engagement here are Shakespear's "Hamlet," Bulwer's "Richelieu," and Tom Taylor's "Fool's Revenge," in each of which he has won distinction. The Quincy, Ill., Herald, in speaking of his rendition of Richelieu says:

As a delineator of the character of the crafty, scheming and terrible Cardinal, Miln to-day stands the equal of any actor on the American stage, and his success in "Richelieu" is more than well deserved. All the good things that might be said in a column may be summed up in a few words. Miln is a great actor, inspired by genius, and his "Richelieu" stands to-day one of the grandest characters of the stage. The company is in all respects worthy to support the star.
