 And only two days now to Christmas.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 564 bales.

Nowegian barque Insular Capri, Danielsen, cleared to-day for Bremen with 1,475 bales cotton, valued at $60,000, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

The New Emerald, Zeb Vance and New Excelsior Penn. are the cook stoves that please all. You can now buy them at reduced prices from JACOB'S Hdw Depot.

The stereopticon show attracted another large crowd last night. "Death on Dirt" soap, which is advertised so extensively on the canvas, is for sale by R. E. Bellamy, Druggist, cor. Front and Market sts.

A great lot of Gent's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and upwards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

Some of the merchants complain that there is but little business as compared with previous Christmas seasons, but every body seems to be buying, and nearly every one we meet is burdened down with parcels and bundles.

North Carolina hams are scarce here at this time, but Mr. W. H. Yopp, on South Front street, has a nice lot, which are advertised in this issue. A Christmas dinner in North Carolina is not complete without a North Carolina ham.

Mr. Geo. M. Crapon is doing all he can to accommodate his customers. He is kept pretty busy at his family grocery on South Front street now in receiving goods and sending them out. He has nice, new, fresh goods and which the attention of the public through advertisement in this issue.

Master Frank K. Myers is the agent in this city for Royal Glue, which is reputed to be an inseparable liquid cement for the mending of all sorts of articles that require mending by adhesion. He will sell only by wholesale, and will be ready to fill orders in a few days.

Notice was posted on the blackboard of the Produce Exchange to-day that the Liverpool Cotton Exchange will be closed from the 24th to the 28th inst., and again from the 31st inst. to January 4th, 1886. The New York Cotton Exchange will be closed on the 25th and 26th inst., and again on January 1st and 2nd, 1886.

Capt. T. J. Southerland, who is the agent here for the Columbus (Ohio) Buggy Company, has just hung in his office a handsome colored print issued by the Company, which is a striking and effective picture. It is entitled "Columbus presenting to the King and Queen of Spain trophies secured in the New World."

Mr. J. R. Melton has made big arrangements for this Xmas. He can supply anybody and everybody with anything and everything in his line, delivered promptly and in splendid condition. He is booking orders now largely for Christmas meats and poultry, and a hint to the wise in this line ought to be sufficient.

We saw this morning at Mr. W. H. Yopp's store the most beautiful oysters, in the bucket, we have ever yet encountered. It is no exaggeration to say that some of them were as large as a lady's hand. They were not for sale but formed part of a lot of 150 gallons which were being shipped by Mr. Yopp to the order of one party in the country.

Diplomas Awarded.
 We are glad to learn that Mr. A. Y. Wilson, of this city, has been awarded diplomas both by the North Carolina State Fair and the Virginia State Fair for the best "Montross" metallic shingles exhibited. The diplomas, although differing materially in design, are both elegant and chaste and are well worthy of preservation. We also learn that the metallic shingles for which he is the agent are very much observed and admired wherever he has exhibited them.

For the Sick.

There are quite a number of sick persons at the city hospital who will be deprived of any of the pleasures of Christmas, unless they are kindly remembered by the charitably disposed of our citizens. We hope that they will not be forgotten, but may be made happy by a share of the bounties usually distributed on Christmas occasions.

Crazy Quilt.
 There was a large audience at the Opera House last night to witness the rendition of the above named play. The performance was not as good as was hoped and there were a good many delays owing in part to the obstinacy of the scenery, which made it somewhat tedious, yet there was a spirit of determined good nature pervading the house that compensated for any shortcomings otherwise.

For Christmas.
 Capt. F. M. James will start on Thursday morning on his rounds of collection for the poor of the city, and will distribute the contributions as fast as they are received. It is his wish that the contributions may be distributed in season for all the needy and worthy poor of the city to be supplied for Christmas. We trust that our citizens will respond promptly, for "sweet charity's sake."

City Court.
 It was a sort of feminine malinee at the City Court room this morning, as the following will show:
 Henrietta McNeill, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $3
 Betsy Crawford, also colored, for a like offense, was fined $5.
 Virginia Brown, another colored damsel, for a like offense, was required to pay a fine of $5 or go below for 10 days.

Audit and Finance.
 The Board of Audit and Finance convened in regular session at the City Hall yesterday afternoon. Present: W. I. Gore, Esq., Chairman, and Messrs. John W. Gerds, R. J. Jones and C. F. VonKampen. The minutes of the last regular session were read and approved, and bills against the city amounting to $168.61 were audited. The Board adjourned, to meet in joint session with the Board of Aldermen at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon at the City Hall, to consider the matter of paving South Water street with Belgian blocks.

 Mr. J. Howard Brown, of the New York Star, is in the city to-day.
 Mr. Van V. Howard, agent for the George C. Miln Co., is in the city to-day.
 Mr. A. T. London, of Montgomery, Ala., is in the city, looking well and hearty.
 Capt. W. W. Carraway, our genial friend of the News and Observer, is in the city to-day. He has an appointment in the U. S. Revenue service, but says that at present it is only a "dress parade" appointment, as he has not yet received his warrant to proceed to business, and his pay does not commence until that arrives.
 Capt. V. V. Richardson, Mr. D. P. High and Mr. J. P. Stanley, all of Whiteville, Columbus county, were in the city last night. The first named gentleman met by appointment Judge A. S. Seymour, of the U. S. District Court, who was also here, and qualified as U. S. Marshal for the Eastern District of North Carolina.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of a grand art sale of oil paintings, steel engravings and water colors, from the Academy of Fine Arts, Boston, to take place at auction to-morrow, Thursday and Saturday, in the store N. W. corner Market and Second streets.
