THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1885 NO. 303

Imprisonment for one year follows immediately upon a death sentence for capital crimes in Kansas, and at the end of that time the Governor is com- manded to sign the warrant and see the execution carried out. This, however, no Governor has yet done in that State.

The great question of the sinfulness of raffles is not permitted to rest in Scotland. The Free Church Presby- tery of Inverness has decided by a large majority that raffling is not only contrary to the law of the land, but to the law of God, "and cannot be regard- ed as harmless or allowable for any object whatsoever;" moreover, "that the practice is dishonoring to God, who is irreverently appealed to as disposer of the lot, contrary to every principle of sound morality."

And now for the Onslow Railroad.

The old year has but two days more to live.

The receipts of cotton at this port to- day took up 181 bales.

Fine weather has come again and to- day has been as pleasant as May.

Those Brass and Silver head tacks are here. JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

The REVIEW JOB OFFICE is the place to get good work at moderate prices.

Ger. brig Auguste Sophie, Dethloff, sailed from Liverpool for this port Dec. 27th.

The moon entered on its last quarter at 8 minutes past 7 o'clock this morn- ing.

One white tramp was accommodated with lodgings at the guard house last night.

There were two cases of disorderly conduct before the Mayor this morn- ing, and both were discharged.

There is a package in the Postoffice with no address, though properly stamped, containing one jebby nubia.

Turner's almanac promised us some stormy weather about this time but it is as much out of the way as "Hazen" has been of late.

Nothing will please your wife better, for a Christmas present, than an Othello cook stove. They can be had at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

As compared with other cities, Wil- mington was a paradise of sobriety, peace and good order during the Christ- mas time. The reports of lawlessness in other localities are really shocking.

The three handsome dressing cases were awarded last night at Messrs Munds Bros' drug store. The lucky gentlemen were in the order named, Messrs James Dolan, O. G. Parsley, Jr., and Robert Petteway.

British schooner Mabel Darling, Toddler, cleared to-day for Nassau with 35,000 feet lumber, 30,000 shingles, 186 sponge poles, 15 tons coal and 50 bush- els rice douce, valued at $936, shipped by Messrs. Cronly & Morris and Pars- ley & Wiggins.

Remember the Christmas Tree and Festival at Germania Hall to-night, given by the Sunday School of the Second Presbyterian Church for the benefit of the pupils. There will be a plenty of refreshments and an enjoyable occasion may be anticipated.

The Postmaster desires us to call the attention of the public to the following extract from the postal laws: "The office is for the exclusive accommoda- tion of the mails, and those having charge of same. It is strictly private, not to be entered by any person, except agents of the Postoffice Department."

A Blind Authoress.

We received a call to-day from Miss Mary J. Salter, a lady whose afflicted condition—she is blind—appealed most forcibly to our sympathies. She is canvassing the city for the sale of two books written by her, one entitled "The Lost Receipt" and the other "All That Glitters is Not Gold." The books are well worth the small price asked for them and we trust that Miss Salter may succeed well in her efforts here.

A great lot of Gent's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and up- wards, at the Wilmington Shirt Facto- ry, 27 Market St., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

The Hebrew Fair.

The Fair gotten up by the ladies of the congregation of Temple of Israel will begin at the City Hall to-night and will without doubt be largely attended. The ladies have worked assiduously to make the Fair a success, and we trust that their laudable efforts may be appreciated. The Fair will be opened with a speech by Mayor Hall and the Cornet Concert Club will furnish music for to night's entertainment. The Germania Cornet Band will furnish the music to-morrow night.

Entertainment.

The Sunday School connected with the Baptist Chapel, on the corner of Fifth and Wooster streets, will hold a Christmas entertainment at the Chapel to-night, at which there will be tableaux, dialogues, and vocal and instru- mental music, together with a Christ- mas tree for the benefit of the pupils. The entertainment will be given under the direction of Mr. S. G. Hall, who is qualified for the task, and who has taken a deep interest in the success of the school from the time of its com- mencement.

Election of Officers.

At a meeting of Stonewall Lodge No. 1, K. of P., held last night, at their Castle Hall, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

S. P. C.—R. B. Clowe.
C. C.—J. J. Hopkins.
V. C.—H. W. Collins.
Prelate—J. H. Davis.
M. of Ex.—W. W. Hodges.
M. of F.—W. L. Jewett.
K. of R. & S.—W. H. Yopp.
M. at A.—G. A. Peterson.
Committee on Education of Orphans and Trustees of Widows' and Orphans' Fund—G. M. Altafer, W. S. Warrock, J. L. Dudley.
Representative to Grand Lodge—R. B. Clowe.

Service for Seamen.

The Christmas Eve Services at the Seamen's Bethel were conducted by Rev. F. W. E. Peschan, of St. Paul's Luth- eran Church, in the language of the Scan- dinavians. This was appropriate as nearly all of those present were of that Northern race and they could not have understood the import of a sermon del- ivered in the English tongue. Rev. Mr. Peschan is an accomplished ling- uist and speaks the Scandinavian tongue in its native purity; a fact which, combined with a fine enunciation and pleasing oratory, made his sermon im- pressive and deeply interesting to those hardy sons of Norway "who go down to the sea in ships and do business upon the great waters." There was a large congregation present, mainly composed of foreign seafaring men, and liberal contributions were made to- wards purchasing an organ for the Bethel.

Quite Appropriate.

Col. John L. Cantwell was the recip- ient of a Christmas gift in the shape of a nicely framed roster of the founders of the Wilmington Light Infantry. The Company was organized in 1853, with 36 members, as follows:

Theodore Ambrose, Edward N. Ad- kins, Frank J. Bishop, Thomas N. Bishop, Jas. A. Burch, Dixon Brown, Robert R. Bowden, Edward Cantwell, John L. Cantwell, Jesse W. Dicksey, W. C. Ferguson, Joseph M. Foy, J. S. Ives, Oliver Kelley, John R. London, John D. Love, Fred S. Moore, Alex. E. Mott, Charles W. Morris, William H. Northrop, Samuel G. Northrop, John J. Poisson, James T. Petteway, Geo. E. Pritchett, Samuel Swann, William H. Shaw, Neil B. Shaw, William O. M. VanBokkeken, George O. Van- Amringe, Jr., William A. Willson, Louis H. Wilson, William A. Walker, William L. White.

Personal.

Mr. John D. Shaw, of Rockingham, is in the city to-day.

Col. W. A. Guthrie, of Fayetteville, arrived in the city last night.

Prof. R. S. Herndon, who was here as a teacher of instrumental music during the Summer, arrived in the city this morning on a short profes- sional visit.

Capt. William Sharp, of Norfolk, Va., is in the city on a visit to his brother, Mr. John H. Sharp. He was on the street yesterday when Capt. E. W. Manning came up, and in a few moments there was a mutual recogni- tion and a cordial, hearty hand shaking as they recognized in each other the shipmates of 1853-4-5, when they were on board the same vessel of the U. S. Navy in the Mediterranean squadron. Capt. Sharp has gone to the Sound to- day as the guest of Capt. Manning and we doubt not there will be many happy memories of their sailor life recalled.

Election of Officers.

Cornelius Harnett Council, No. 231, Royal Arcanum, held a meeting last night for the election of officers for the ensuing year, with the following result:

Regent—J. G. Wright.
Vice Regent—J. C. Chase.
Orator—W. W. Harris.
Secretary—B. A. Hallett.
Collector—J. Well.
Treasurer—R. J. Jones.
Guide—W. M. Swann.
Chaplain—T. O. Bunting.
Warden—W. A. Willson.
Sentry—W. W. Shaw.
Trustees—Samuel Northrop, M. M. Katz, N. Jacobi.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites.

ESPECIALLY DESIRABLE FOR CHILDREN.

A LADY physician at the Child's Hospital, at Albany, N. Y., says: "We have been using Scott's Emulsion with great success, nearly all of our patients are suffering from bone diseases and our physicians find it very beneficial."

dec 21 I. B. RHODES, Prop.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

There is again preparing for war. Seemingly anxious to fight somebody.

W. W. Corcoran, of Washington City, the great Southern philanthropist, celebrated his 87th birthday last Sunday.

Mr. Wilfred Lawson and most of the rest of the defeated at the late English elections. On the other hand many brewers were returned.

Out of twenty four horses that have trotted in less than 2:20 during the year, seventeen are direct descendants of Hambletonian. Blood will tell.

A goodly proportion of the "two mil- lions" went to the polls in Great Britain at the late elections. The full returns show that 4,842,514 men voted, against 3,231,864 on the polling lists last year. This is an increase under the Franchise Act of 1,620,650 voters.

A Union veteran at Watertown, N. Y., it is stated, has, through the post- master of Petersburg, Va., learned the name of a worthy but needy Confed- erate soldier who lost a leg in the war, and has turned over to him the pen- sion the Union veteran has been draw- ing, but which "he can live without."

Archdeacon Farrar's visit to Amer- ica has been attended by beneficent re- sults in an unexpected quarter. Cyrus W. Field, of New York, told some Philadelphians who were calling on him the other day that since the Eng- lish Churchman took breakfast at his house and held forth eloquently on the subject of total abstinence, he has not drunk a drop.

The German historian Ranke celeb- rated his ninetieth birthday in Berlin on December 21. He received congrat- ulations from all parts of the Empire, from the students to the Emperor, who also sent an autograph letter with a portrait of himself. The aged scholar is in vigorous health, and hopes to live to complete his Universal History the sixth volume of which has just been issued.

Mad dogs are snapping at people in the crowded streets of New York, and its populous suburbs, and in three cities in the neighborhood, Newark, Passaic and Hoboken, systematic efforts, under official auspices, have been made to protect the streets. Mayor Grace, of New York, says that he in- tends to issue a proclamation shortly calling for a strict enforcement of the dog law.

Metropolitan poverty is naturally on a large scale. The New York Char- ities Organization Society reports that it found on a single street (between Houston and Fourteenth streets) 893 cases requiring relief, or with the aver- age of four to each family, a population of 3,000 people in a single street only five blocks in length, and the section referred to is generally regarded as one occupied by poor but respectable work- ing people.

The International Criminal Congress, which has been in session in Rome, has brought to light many interesting statistics. It appears that Italy has an annual average of eight murders to every 100,000 inhabitants; against nine in Spain and Hungary, two in Austria, one in France and Belgium, and only 0.5 in Great Britain. In crimes against public morality the rate of average for Italy is four while that of Germany is thirteen—the highest figure on the list.

The bald head of Senator Isham G. Harris is a striking object to the vis- itor looking down from the strangers' gallery of the United States Senate. A deep scar running in a semi-circle across the top of the skull marks the energetic effort of a Federal cavalry- man to end the Southerner's career on the battlefield of Shiloh. Mr. Harris, as Governor of Tennessee, was with Albert Sidney Johnston throughout that two days' conflict, and it was in his arms that the Confederate leader expired.

I keep it with pride,—I apply it with care,—I prize it, I prize it, my SOZODONT there. I use it, as sure as the morning light comes. It whitens my teeth and it hardens my gums. It sweetens my breath,—it's my very best thing. Thy praises I'll ever, Oh, SOZODONT, sing.

The Bottom of the Sea

yields no pearl that can exceed in beauty teeth whitened and cleansed with that incomparable dentifrice, the fragrant SOZODONT. Nor is coral rosier than the gums in which such teeth are set. So say the ladies, who are the best judges in such matters.

"SPALDING'S GLIE," handy and use- ful.
