The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

James Gordon Bennett will remain in Paris this Winter.

The art world in Paris takes a rather selfish view of Mr. Vanderbilt's death, and regrets the loss of the generous commissions which were expected from him.

Senator Cameron has just given the Episcopal congregation at Steelton the lot upon which their church is built, besides helping the congregation in other ways.

A 14-inch balk game of billiards was played in Chicago, last week, between Vignaux and Slosson for a purse of $1,000. Slosson won the game by a score of 600 to 743.

The famous trotting mare Early Dawn died in Lexington, Ky., last Wednesday. She was valued at $22,500. Her record was 2:14. Last year she won $10,000 for her owners.

The faith cure prospers in Sweden, where the Hotel Lion does a thriving business at Stockholm, and another hotel keeper advertises "rooms where one may be alone with God, at the lowest price, including service, cure and board."

Experiments on an extensive scale have been made in Germany to ascertain the relative strength of iron and steel girders. The soft steel girders proved to be 22 per cent. and hard-steel girders 68 per cent. stronger than the iron girders; and it is remarked that it seemed pretty well established that the strength of steel girders is about the same for the two flanges if made alike in section.

Washington Star: "The House is not inclined to simply write 'approved' on the Senate's succession bill and send it over to the White House for final action. The bill in its present shape comes from Republican auspices, and it is only natural that the Democratic House should scan the measure to see if its party may not in some way identify itself with its provisions."

A special cablegram from Rome on December 23 said: "The Pope is making emphatic the Christmas text of 'Good will toward men' by ordering the distribution for Christmas Eve among the deserving poor of $3,000 (American money) in small coin. Also his almoner is ordered to give 160 beds, bedding and bed linen to as many deserving families. He is looking ill, but will attend the ecclesiastical ceremonies of Friday."

The negroes of Rome, Ga., are now afraid to put their heads out of the door after dark. Vague stories are circulated of medical students who go abroad in the darkness and seize the first victim that comes along, and after killing him, carry the body off to the colleges for dissection. It seems to be a kind of craze with the negroes of Georgia. In Macon a few weeks ago an old woman was mourning the loss of a son, whom she alleged had fallen a victim to the body snatchers. A similar craze prevailed around Thomasville a month or two ago.

The metric system of weights and measures was adopted enthusiastically in many laboratories when first introduced, but is now said to be rapidly losing ground. It has been the cause of many serious errors. The fact that the misplacement of a little dot will turn a comparatively harmless dose of medicine into one having a deadly poisoning power bears strongly against it. Mr. Oscar Oldberg, a much respected druggist, who formerly advocated the system, has decided it to be unsuited to our requirements, and this will have much influence with many people who felt the defects of the system but did not like to reject it.

Spiders were formerly considered to be a cure in rural districts for ague. Some years ago a lady in Ireland was famous for her success in curing people thus affected. It appears that the only medicine she employed was a large spider rolled up in treacle. The patients were ignorant of the contents of this novel bolus, so that imagination had nothing to do with the matter. In England, also, the spider has been called in as an ague doctor. In Lincolnshire the creature was treated very much after the above mentioned Irish fashion, being rolled up in paste and swallowed; but elsewhere the animal is put into a bag and worn around the neck.

There was no City Court this morning.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 263 bales.

Those Brass and Silver head tacks are here. JACOBI'S Hdw Depot.

The REVIEW JOB OFFICE is the place to get good work at moderate prices.

Four white tramps and one colored tramp were accommodated with lodgings at the guard house last night.

A german complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wright was given last night in Concordia Hall and was very largely attended.

Nothing will please your wife better, for a Christmas present, than an Ohio cook stove. They can be had at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.

The steamer River Queen will hereafter leave her wharf in this city at 2 o'clock p. m., on Mondays and Thursdays, instead of at 12 o'clock, as heretofore.

Some thirty head of fine fowls, ten turkeys and twenty chickens, will be raffled at the Green House, corner Second and Princess, on Thursday night, New Years Eve.

Next Friday Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of the Fifth Street M. E. Church, will deliver a lecture at Temperance Hall on the subject of Temperance. The lecture will be free and the public are cordially invited to attend.

The old folks always insist upon "jowl and peas" for breakfast on New Year's Day. They say it brings good luck for the year. Whether this be so or not we know that a nice hog jowl is not to be sneezed at. Mr. J. R. Melton, in the new market, has them in profusion, as also a nice line of meats and poultry for New Year dinners.

Fair and Festival.
The Fair and Christmas Tree gotten up for the benefit of the pupils connected with the Sunday School of the Second Presbyterian Church was held at Germania Hall last night, and we are glad to record the fact that it was a most complete success in every particular. There was a large attendance and the programme was carried out completely and successfully, both as an effort to make the children happy and as a financial enterprise. The best of order prevailed and all were pleased.

Personal.
Mr. J. H. Mills, formerly superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, is in the city to-day.

Mr. James W. Hedrick, of the Sophomore Class at Chapel Hill, is in the city for the balance of the holidays.

Dr. H. John Hartsfeld, formerly of this city, but now located at Charlotte, is here spending the holidays with relatives.

Mr. I. Shrier returned to the city last night from Norfolk, where he has been for a few days on a visit to his brother, a merchant in that city.

Mr. James M. Brown, of New York, has been in the city for some days in attendance at the bedside of his brother-in-law, Mr. John E. Lippitt.

Our valued friend, Mr. George W. Lamb, of Duplin county, and his wife are here, the guests of their son-in-law Capt. T. J. Southerland. We regret to state that Mrs. Lamb is in quite feeble health.

Rev. Edward T. Wooten, Rector of the Episcopal Church at Statesville, who has been in the city with his wife and family during the holidays, as the guest of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Jewett, will leave here to-morrow on his return to Statesville. We understand that Mr. Wooten has received and accepted a call to a prosperous church in Delaware, and that he will leave North Carolina in a few weeks for his new field of labor.

Mr. J. Evans Brown, formerly of North Carolina, but for more than thirty years a resident of New Zealand, is at the Parcell House on a visit combining pleasure and recreation. His family are with him, although a son is now absent in the Eastern portion of the State, but is expected here in a few days. They will remain in this vicinity about two weeks longer, when they will go further South.

Jewish Fair.

The Fair gotten up by the ladies of the congregation of Temple Israel was opened last night at about half past 8 o'clock by Mr. Sol Bear, President of the Jewish congregation, who introduced Mayor Hall. The latter then made a neat and appropriate address, at the conclusion of which he declared the Fair duly open for business. The attendance was not so large as to interfere in the least with the pleasure of those present.

There are many beautiful and costly fancy articles on exhibition, the enumeration and description of all of which would far exceed the space at our command. Chief among the articles is a hand made fire screen which is a marvel of beauty and skillful needle work. The tables are all elegant.

Table No. 1, on the South side of the hall, is mainly devoted to the display of fancy articles in art needle work and is presided over by Mrs. I. L. Greenwald, assisted by Mrs. J. Fernberger, Mrs. G. Honnet, Mrs. S. Mendelsohn, Miss Louisa Rosenthal and Miss Lillie Taylor.

Fancy table No. 2, which is on the North side of the hall, is also devoted mainly to the exhibition of articles in fancy needle work, which like those of table No. 1, are elegant in design and exquisite in workmanship. This table is presided over by Mrs. A. David, Mrs. H. H. Kasprovicz, Mrs. J. I. Mack, Mrs. F. Rheinstein, Mrs. B. Solomon and Miss Carrie Rosenthal.

In the centre of the hall is a taste fully arranged "Floral Bower" where Misses Mamie Bear, Pauline Blumenthal, Flora Greenwald, Louise Katz and Nettie Rosenthal hold dominion.

The refreshment table is well supplied with everything to satisfy the appetite and is presided over by Mrs. A. Shrier, assisted by Mrs. S. Blumenthal, Mrs. N. Jacobi, Mrs. E. Levy, Mrs. G. Rosenthal, Mrs. S. Sternberger and Misses Blumenthal, Carrie Levy and Hattie Sternberger.

The confectionery table is presided over by Mrs. A. Liebman, assisted by Mrs. Samuel Bear, Mrs. R. Greenberg, Mrs. E. Scharf, Mrs. J. Weil, and Misses Caroline Bear, Greenwald and Lizzie Mayer.

The lemonade stand is presided over by Miss Theresa Scharf, and the telegraph office is in charge of Mr. M. Taylor.

Nearly all the articles on exhibition are to be disposed of by raffle, and some have already found owners in that manner, Mr. George Dyer having secured a fine umbrella with a gold head at the raffle last night. The Fair will open to-night and again to-morrow night. The Germania Cornet Band will furnish music for to-night's entertainment.

Christmas Tree

The entertainment at the Baptist Chapel, corner of Fifth and Woodster streets, last night, which was gotten up under the direction of Mr. S. G. Hall, for the benefit of the Sunday school connected with the Chapel, was a splendid success in every particular. There was a large throng in attendance; in fact there were many who could not gain an entrance. The entire programme was carried out. The tableaux were especially fine, the singing was good, the Christmas tree was laden with many presents for the pupils and at the proper time "Santa Claus" made his appearance to the eager and expectant throng. He was dressed in a costume befitting the occasion, and after taking a rapid survey of the bright but surprised faces which were turned upon him, he proceeded to distribute the presents from the tree, making glad the hearts of the little ones. The occasion was indeed a happy one.

Hanover Council.

At the last regular meeting of Hanover Council No. 25, U. S. B. F., the following officers were re-elected to serve for the ensuing term:
President—Thos R Post.
Vice President—D H Walsh.
Counsellor—Dr Wm H Green.
Financial Secretary—N Jacobi.
Secretary—James F Post, Jr.
Chaplain—Rev Dr S Mendelsohn.
Treasurer—Wm Goodman.
Guide—John R Latta.
Warden—Thomas J Newsom.
Sentry—S P Cowan.
Med. Examiner—Dr F W Potter.
The officers of this popular Society will be installed at the first meeting in January next by Deputy Supreme President N. Jacobi.

A great lot of Gent's heavy Canton Flannel Drawers, from 40c and up wards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

Bishop Watson.

Rt. Rev. A. A. Watson, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, was in Newbern on Christmas. The Journal says:

Bishop Watson preached on Christmas day at Carist Church and on Sunday at St. Cyprians, administering the Holy Communion at each of these services. On Sunday night he was at Christ Church on his regular visitation, preached to a large congregation and confirmed a class of eight persons. The Bishop is endowed with an energy possessed by but few, and although apparently a feeble man, yet is a constant worker and is accomplishing much good in parts of his diocese heretofore inaccessible to Episcopal visitations.

A few days previous to Xmas the Bishop confirmed a class of 16 persons in St. Cyprian's (colored) Church.

Lippincott's.

The January number of Lippincott's Monthly Magazine appears in an entirely new dress. A handsome cover has been designed for it by Mr. George Fletcher Babb, whose white parchment-like surface, printed in red and black, presents a very attractive appearance. The typography is also entirely remodelled, the double columns have been done away with, and large, clear, bold-faced type is used.

One of the most noticeable articles is contributed by Gail Hamilton, who criticizes Civil Service Reform with her usual wit, vigor, and pungency. It is announced that an answer from the pen of Hon. Dorman B. Eaton will appear in February. Another feature of this number is a collection of criticisms, by George Eliot, upon Dickens, Carlyle, Kingsley, Browning, and others of her great contemporaries, newly resuscitated from the pages of the Westminster Review. These criticisms have never before been identified as hers. Two clever serials are begun, "A Bachelor's Blunder," by W. E. Norris, who stands in the front rank of modern English novelists, and "Taken by Siege," an anonymous novel by a writer whose every touch reveals an intimate acquaintance with New York dramatic and journalistic life. There are also other papers of much interest in this number.

Literary.

The New Year's number of the Magazine of American History is interesting to the society or business man. The leading article on "Paul Revere," by Mr. Goss, is one of the best pen-portraits of the heroic "Messenger of the Revolution" ever presented to the reading public. "A Tribute to Thomas A. Hendricks," by Hon. Jas. W. Gerard, is accompanied by a portrait of our late Vice-President. Then follows General W. F. Smith's "Operations Before Fort Donelson," which is the clearest chapter of history that has yet appeared in connection with this subject. "The Transfer of the Army of the Potomac from Burnside to Hooker," by Major William Howard Mills, is also a paper of interest. The origin of "Slavery in America" is discussed by General John A. Logan. The Hon. Horatio King contributes a portion of the humorous poem entitled "The Bladensburg Races;" and in "Reprints" are to be found two letters, written in 1781. Price, $5 a year in advance. Published at 30 Lafayette Place, New York City.

The Affairs of Life

Hinge upon confidence. It is the basis upon which every successful business enterprise is conducted, and without it no concern can prosper. SHRIER has done business a great many years, and the growth has been large, popularity and success, an established fact. We attribute this satisfactory result of our efforts to public confidence. The people trust us and we never deceive them. Our resources are ample, and as a consequence we undersell all competition and guarantee to the consumer the best value for his money obtainable anywhere. We are offering superb bargains this week. Don't buy a dollar's worth of clothing until you have seen our late New York purchases of men's, boys and children's suits and overcoats. You will save fully from 15 to 25 per cent. on every dollar you will buy. If any article bought of us is not exactly as represented, or is in any respect unsatisfactory, it may be exchanged or we shall promptly refund in cash the price paid for it. SHRIER.

The next entertainment at the Opera House in this city will be on January 8th, the Friday of next week, when the Madison Square Company will present The Private Secretary.

The New Emerald, Zeb Vance and New Excelsior Penn. are the cook stoves that please all. You can now buy them at reduced prices from JACOBI'S Hdw Depot.
