THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. X. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1886. NO. 47

PLEASE NOTICE.
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but The name of the writer must always be attached to the Editor.
Communications must be written on one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always echo the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

Accounts of the Fire.

Yielding to the popular demand, we will reprint to-morrow, in the WIL-MINGTON JOURNAL, the reports of the fire which have appeared in the DAILY REVIEW. They will be on a large half-sheet, as it is impossible to print extra copies of the JOURNAL in full, the first side of the paper having been put to press on Monday morning. In this way only can we meet the demand for copies of our report. Orders received to-morrow forenoon and papers delivered early in the afternoon, in time for mailing.

Notes from the Fire.

The destruction of Front Street M.
E. Church by fire last Sunday brings to mind the great fire of April 30th, 1843, when a large portion of Wilmington was destroyed. That fire also occurred on Sunday and the Front Street M. E.
Church, which was a wooden structure and stood on the site where the walls of that which was destroyed last Sunday now stands, was burned. Singularly enough, in that instance every building on that square was burned except the parsonage, as was the case at the recent fire. It is a most perfect and singular coincidence which will be long remembered.

Sifting the matter as carefully as it can be sifted at this time we do not think that the net loss entailed upon our people as a whole, by Sunday's fire, will exceed $100,000, and this is the opinion also of a careful and conservation insurance man with whom we conversed to-day. It is impossible as yet to get at the exact figures but no one claims now that the loss will exceed $600,000 and some even say that $400,- 000 will cover it.

Slight Fire.

At about half past 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the roof of a small frame dwelling on Front street, between Queen and Wooster, ignited from a spark from the chimney, but the flames were extinguished before the firemen, who started promptly when the alarm was given, could reach the scene. Damage nominal.

Joint Agent at Charlotte.

Mr. Thomas C. James, of this city, has been appointed Joint Agent for the Piedmont Line and the Seaboard Air Line at Charlotte, and will leave here for his new post of duty about the first of March.
This is a new office and the object is to carry out intact the principles upon which the Associated Railway system was founded. The joint agent will be required to furnish rates for all the roads and is to superintend the general business of transportation. He is to act in behalf of all the roads, thus bringing them practically under one head. The appointment of the joint agent will not affect the local management of the depots, here, which will continue the same as heretofore.

Ilwaine, J. D. Hardin, N. C.; J. McClellan, L. A. Catlin, Woodstock, Conn.; W. S. Horwill, Edward Barker, Brooklyn, N. Y.; A. L. McDonald, H. C. Dock-ey, Rockingham, are among the latest arrivals at the Orton.

Mr. S. G. Worth, of the Fayetteville

News, has this kind reference to the misfortune which has recently overtaken our city:
Mr. G. Herbert Smith has received the following dispatch from Mr. W.
H. McRary, who is now in New York: Notify National Bank that I have requested Mayor Hall to draw on my account $500 for sufferers from the late fire. Let me know if more is needed.
W. H. McRARY.

Mr. W. C. Farrow, junk dealer at No. 9 Mulberry street, was one of the sufferers by Sunday's fire. His place with all its contents was destroyed, involving a loss of about $1,000, upon which there was no insurance.

Mrs. J. Myers' grocery store, on North Water street, was one of the places burned and the loss falls heavily upon her, as she had no insurance.
She estimates her loss at $5,000. Included in this amount is $800 in currency.

In our report of the fire in Monday's issue, in speaking of the work of the tugs in extricating vessels from peri-cious positions, we omitted to mention the fact that the steamer Italian also rendered important service by removing two or three vessels to place of safety. The omission we hope is pardonable, as it was simply an oversight in the haste of making up our report.

We actually saw yesterday a number of workmen engaged in cleaning off the old mortar from bricks, for building purposes, before the bricks were cod. If this isn't pluck and energy and enterprise, we hope somebody will tell us what is.

Mr. A. W. Watson, junk dealer, on North Water street, lost about $1,500 by the fire, upon which there was no insurance.

The steamer Bladen was valued at $9,000, upon which there was insurance to the amount of $3,500. Her cargo was insured for $2,500, besides an insurance upon 112 bales of cotton, which was held by Messrs Alex. Sprunt & Son. The exact value of her cargo is unknown, but it was never less than $6,000. The steamer River Queen was valued at $5,000. She was insured for $1,000, with a cargo insurance of $2,000.

Mr. T. B. Henderson has secured office room with Mr. C. S. Love, on South Water street.

We were a little too previous yesterday in stating that the New York and Wilmington Steamship Company would use the public wharf foot of Chestnut street. They have secured the Lord warehouse and wharves, foot of Ann street, where the steamers will hereafter discharge and take on cargoes.

Personal

Mr. Newton Gillilan, formerly of this city, who has been for some years past located at Shoe Heel, has sold out his business there to Mr. G. P. Kidder and will remove to Georgia. He was in the city yesterday and favored us with a visit. He was on his way then to Georgia and will remove his family in a few months. We are sorry to see such men leaving the Old North State.
Capt. A. D. Lippitt, of Pittsboro, is in the city to-day.

Gamma Theta Eta.

This Literary Society had a public meeting last evening at the Cape Fear Academy. In addition to the regular exercises Hon. A. M. Waddell was to have delivered an address, but owing to the small audience the lecture was postponed indefinitely. The society expect to have speakers at all of their public meetings, which take place on the last Tuesday of each month. They have issued admission tickets which are gotten up very neatly.

City Court.

There was a small docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning.
Toney McIlhenry, a colored man who belongs at the poor house, was arrested and locked up for safe keeping.
He will be at once returned to his proper quarters at the poor house.
Jack Murray, colored, for fast driving, was required to pay a fine of $3 for the offense.

But the Balance Must Go.

Yes, the balance of our stock must go. As we must have the room for Spring goods; prices not the object; the room is what we want and must have; room to place one of the largest and finest stocks of Spring and Summer clothing in course of manufacture for us. You can positively save at least 25 to 50 per cent. on the dollar. All we ask is an opportunity to prove that our prices are the lowest in the city. SHIRK, The Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market St. Sign of the Golden Arm. †

Front Street M. E. Church.

A meeting of the Official Board of Front Street M. E. Church South was held at the pastor's library room last night. The following communications explain themselves:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Feb. 23rd, '86.
Rev. E. A. Yates, Pastor First M. E.
Church, City.

REV. SIR:—Heartily sympathizing with you and your congregation in your great loss, the undersigned, Rabbi and Directors of the congregation "Temple of Israel" hereby offer you use of their Temple, corner Fourth and Market Streets, during such time and on such days and evenings; as you may need a House of Worship, and as will not conflict with the services of our Congregation, which are held Friday evenings and Saturdays.

Fraternally yours,
S. Mendelsohn, Rabbi; A. Weill, President pro tem; M. M. Katz, F.
Rhinolstein, N. Greenwald, Nathl.
Jacobson, Wm. ...

Attest: J. I. Maeks, Secretary.
WILMINGTON, N. C. Feb. 21th, '86.
To the Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn, Rabbi, and others

GENTLEMEN:—At a meeting of the Official Board of Front Street Methodist Church, held at the Parsonage last evening, Feb. 23d, your communication tendering the use of your House of Worship, the "Temple of Israel," to the Front Street Congregation, was read and unanimously accepted, and the undersigned were appointed a committee to convey to you and your congregation the thanks of Front Street Methodist Church, for your sympathy and very generous offer in this time of their heavy loss.

(Signed) E. A. Yates, C. L. Grasslio, J. W. King.
The Board also received offers of accommodations from Rev. P. H. Hoge, on behalf of the First Presbyterian, from Rev. J. W. Primrose, on behalf of the Second Presbyterian, from Rev.
F. W. E. Peschau, on behalf of St.
Paul's Lutheran, and from Rev. D.
H. Tuttle, on behalf of Fifth Street congregations, for which the committee are instructed to return thanks and assure all these brethren that their sympathy is highly appreciated.

An invitation was received from Fifth Street congregation to worship with them on next Sunday, which on motion of Dr. Yates, was unanimously accepted. All the services of the Front street congregation will thereafter be held in "Temple of Israel," corner of Fourth and Market streets.

Great unanimity of sentiment prevailed as to the necessity of vigorous effort to build another House of Worship.
The Board also passed a vote of thanks to the firemen and citizens who labored so effectively in saving the Parsonage and furniture.

On motion the Review and Star were requested to publish the proceedings.

W. W. SHAW, Secretary.

We note the above proceedings with peculiar gladness. They breathe the tender sentiments of brotherly love, human kindness, sympathy for the distressed and proffers of aid to those in need, which show that the "groed for gain" is not the all absorbing passion of the hour. Front Street Church has been a great sufferer. Not only is the beautiful church, which had been recently much improved in appearance at a considerable cost, in ruins, but the new and elegant organ, lately purchased, in which the congregation and all lovers of music took much delight, is also destroyed. It has been a heavy blow to that congregation, but with the pluck, vim and earnestness of feeling prompted by piety and with the assistance and support of God's blessing they will soon have a place of worship equally as comfortable and convenient as that which was destroyed.

The attention of our readers is invited to the advertisement of Mr. A. Y. Wilson, in this issue, offering for sale lumber of all kinds and metal roofing.
