THIS PAPER

blished every evening. Sundays ex septed by

JOSH T. JAMES,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID one year $4.00. Six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.60; One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week.

Advestising rates low and liberal. Subscribers will report any and all falares to receive their paper regularly, published, in the city of Wilmington.

Jefferson Davis, old, weak and proscribed as he is, stands to day the peer in full of any man living. He is still a breathing reality, thank God, to those who wore the gray and followed the fortunes of the starved Confederacy. and every utterance from his venerable lover hangs upon the whispers which fall from his lady's lips. No amount of detraction by his enemies can lower him esteem of those who look upon him to- union of the States there should have time when a Confederate body of troops many, on the 12th inst., at the great gomery, at the laying of the corner-stone additional proof of fidelity, and pray the bottom of my heart, and give you of the Confederate monument, and we God to give you grace to suffer and be thanks now for your kindness. [Trereproduce here the telegraphic report of strong. When your children's children mendous and long continued applause Mr. Joe conlan, has received a chalhis remarks:

would be constructive as hurtful.

come to join in the performance of the the balance of power, and culminated sacred task to lay the foundation of a during the war of 1812 on the decline of rum vidi et magna pais fui." General few who did not regret the necessity Gen. Lee, as the best man to lead a daughters, choking back their charge to repel the besieging army, to sobs, cheered them on the path make a sortie and attack in flank and of honor and duty. With fearless tread reverse, to double up Grant's army, these patriots, untrained to war, adand, if I may say so, in his presence vanced on many a battlefield to look here, he failed; but his failure was due death in the face. Though Alabama, to the failure of his guides to carry him like Niobe, must mourn her children where he proposed to go. Again that in death yet is her woe tempered by man and gallant soldier was the one the glorious halo which surrounds person whom Lee called at Appomat- their memory. For more than a cen it were possible to break the me that the roll of the grenadiers to whom be mountains of Virginia. He answered belonged, and when his name was that it was impossible; that after four called it was answered from the ranks, years of hard fighting his division was "Mort sur le champ d'honneur." Long, worn down to a fragment. It being very long, would be the list which would then impossible to break the line that contain the name of Alabama's sons, obstructed his march to the mountains, whose valor and fidelity would justify Gen. Lee, like Washington, without the same response. To name a few used the expression, said if he could all, therefore, left where they securely reach the mountains of Virginia he repose-in the hearts of a grateful peocould continue the war for twenty ple. This monument will rest upon the years. But when he found the line land for which they died, and point upwhich obstructed his retreat could not ward to the Father who knows the be broken, he said there was nothing to motives as well as the deeds of his childo but surrender. Be it remembered, dren; and at last resting in a land within that time is the removal of the however, that Lee was not a man who where justice may be rendered. which contemplated surrender as long as he had power to fight or retreat, and when he came to the last moment of surrender, he said to General Grant, "I have come to treat with you for the purpose of surrender; but, Gen. Grant, understand, I will surrender nothing that reflects upon the honor of my army."

Gen. Grant, like a man, said he wanted nothing that would have that effect,

and that Lee might draw up the papers

ATTY REVIEW

WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1886

NO. 103

proposed to do honor on this occasion. war and desolation. We hear of the The vary Review has the largest proposed to do honor on this occasion. war and desolation. We hear of the bona fide circulation, of any newspaper That we may not be misunderstood by valor and virtue, and endearing names such as are not wilfully blind, it may of Spartan mothers; but tell me where, be proper to state in the foreground that in all history of nations, was ever such we have no desire to feed the fires of spectacle seen as was witnessed in the sectional hate, while we do not seek to Valley of Shenandoah? How the tide avoid whatever responsibility attaches of war ebbed and flowed. Sometimes to a belief in the righteousness of our the Confederates retreated, and somecause and the virtues of those who times they pursued. Those people, risked their lives to defend it. [Long who claimed to be our brethren, had ward, so that nearly every section has Cleveland, O; W J Egan, N G; Mrs J applause and cheers. Revenge is not burned everything except the fences. a sentiment of a chivalrous people, and (Ex-Gov. Watts interrupting-"And the apothegm that forgiveness is more they would have burned them lips is caught as eagerly as the ardent to the injured than to those who inflict had an injury, has never had more powerful Mr. Davis turned, illustration than in the present attitude ingly continued, and why do you intelligence this morning that his shall ask what means this monument, and cheers ] there will be the enduring answer-"I Ex-Gov. Watts then spoke and was commemorates the deeds of Alabama's followed by Mr. Davis. The scene as sons, who died that you and your de-Mr. Davis arose and grasped the hand scendants should be what your fathers of his old Attorney General, was very in the war of independence lett you."- Strong for nomination as a Justice of affecting. It was some minutes before Alabama asserted the right proclaimed the Supreme Court, Mr. Strong is wellhe could proceed, as cheers were again in the Declaration of Independence as known as one of the ablest lawyers in and again repeated. When there was belonging to every people. She found sufficient quiet, Mr. Davis said: It is that the compact of union had been gratifying to me to be presented to you broken on one side, and was therefore nomination would be hailed with much by one on whom I leaned for advice annulled; that the government of the pleasure by the people of the entire when advice was wanted; whose sterling United States did not answer the ends Eastern section of the State. The Mesqualities always made me sure that the for which it was instituted, and with judgment he was drawing was from others of like mind proceeded to form the bottom of his heart. When you a new confederation, organizing its senger says editorially:

It is with more than ordinary pleasure called him away the place was missing powers, in the language of the Declara- that we endorse all our correspondent which he once filled, and I have always tion of Independence, in such form as says of Judge Strong in that connection. desired to lay my hand upon him again, seemed to them most likely to effect The Judge has no superior in his pro-[doing so amid applause.] Thus it was their satety and happiness. This was fession, and great love for North Carowhen we met the other night, after not revolution, because the State line and an unselfish patriotism have and Eight. It is two stories in height, years of separation. Some people in government, having charge of all always characterized his entire life. He the room gave a sardonic smile to see domestic affairs both of person is much honored and esteemed through two old weather-beaten men embrace, and of property, remained unchang out the State, not only by his own but our hearts were young, though our ed To call it revolution is a gross heads were old. Associated here with solecism, [applause] as sovereigns him, either in private or public life. so many memories, thrilling and tender, never rebel, and as only sovereigns can I have felt that it were dangerous for found a national league. If the States me to attempt to speak to you as my had not been sovereigns, there could not heart would prompt me. Not that I have been a compact of union. [Apam always treasuring up bitterness plause.] That the South did not anagainst any one, but I am overflowing ticipate, much less desire war, is shown with love and admiration for our below the absence of preparation for it, as loved people. [Long applause.] To well as by the efforts made to secure avoid, therefore, anything which might peaceful separation. The successful be prompted by the fullness of my party always hold the defeated responheart, for I believe I am case-hardened sible for the war; but when passion in that condition of non-citizenship, shall have subsided and reason shall which leaves me very little to fear. have resumed her dominion, it must be [Applause]; for the purpose of guard- | decided that the general government ing others rather than myself, I have had no constitutional power to coerce a constitutional right. Applause From [Voices-"Go on-say what you please; the early part of the century there had you are in the house of your triends]. been prophecies and threats of a disso-My friends, partners in joy and in sor- lution of the Union. These began at row, in trials and suffering, I have the North on the question of preserving monument at the cradle of the Confede- their trade. Though the war was waged rate Gevernment, which shall com- for the protection of sailors' rights, in memorate the gallant sons of Alabama | the course of years the balance of powwho died for their country-who gave er passed to the North, and that power their lives a free-will offering in defense | was so used that the South, despairing of the rights of their sires. won in the of peaceful enjoyment of their constituwar of the Revolution, and the State tional rights in the Union, decided to sovereignty, freedom and independence withdraw from it; this without injury which was left us an inheritance to to their late associates. This right to their posterity forever. These rights withdraw was denied, and the North the compact of union was formed not made ready for war. The distant mutto destroy, but better to preserve and terings of the storm were readily unperpetuate. Whosoever denies this derstood by the people of Alabama. cannot have attentively read the Arti Gray haired sires and beardless boys, cles of Confederation or the Constitu- all unprepared as they were, went forth tion of the United States. The latter to meet the storm 'ere it burst upon was formed and designed better to ef | their homes and their altars. It required fect the purpose of the first. It is not no Demosthenes to arouse them to the my purpose to dwell upon the events of duty of resisting invaders; no Patrick the war; they were laid before you yes- Henry to prepare them for the alternaterday by that great soldier in so able tive of liberty or death. It was the a manner as to require no supplement people, not the leaders, who resolved from me. They were laid before you and acted. One sentiment inspired all by one who, like Æneas. "Cuneta que- classes. Yet I believe there were very John B. Gordon was the soldier who, which left them no alternative be when our times seemed darkest at Pe- tween fighting for their State or tersburg, was selected by his Chieftain, against it. Mothers, wives and > may have been denied them here. In conclusion, permit me to say, though the memory of our glorious past must ever be dear to us, duty points to the present and future. Alabama, having resumed her place in the Union, he it yours to fulfill all the obligations devolving upon all good citizens; seeking to restore the General Government to its pristine purity, and, himself. It is not my purpose either to fare and happiness of your common discuss political questions, on which my | country. [Long applause.] Citizens of Alabama, and ladies, (facviews have elsewhere and in other times been freely expressed, or to review the log the ladies on the stand), for, to they not been stone.") and smilof the two sections towards one another. suppose they did not burn feaces? be-Policy, in the absence of magnanimity, cause they were stones! [Loud ap-died at her home in Buttenbeim, Gerwould have indicated that in the restord plause.] And yet, there never was a day as the highest living representative of a dead cause, a cause which has indeed been buried but the principles of seed been buried but the principles of seed and part of the beat there should have marched down that valley, that the lege and benefits as they had pre-exist-ladies did not hang out little Confeder-ladies did deed been buried but the principles of yet, you have faithfully kept your breid to the hungry soldiers. [Tre-Mr. Davis spoke yesterday at Mont-proud of you my country near for this proud of you, my countrymen, for this you, one and all; I love you all from

> A writer in the Goldsboro Messenger presents the name of Hon. Geo. V. North Carolina and we believe that his party, but by all who have ever known

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. SHRIER-Clothing Sale C W YATES-Base Balls F C MILLER-A Full Line R F RISING-Rising's Tin Shop MUNDS BROS-Easter Cards, &c S H MANNING, Shff-Execution Sale GEO R FRENCH & Sons -High in Quality

The receipts of cotton at this port to-Offe wane thairs was to the guard house last night.

NATH'L JACOBI, Assignee-Assignee's Sale

Nor. brig J. Waliams. Nielsen, sailed from Oporto for this port April 23d.

Schr. John A. Griffin. Morey, hence, arrived at Philadelphia April 28th. Remember that JACOBI is headquarters for low prices on Sash, Doors, etc. Dog Collars. Finest assortment ever in the city can now be seen at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.

German barque Louise Wichards. Ehmcke, cleared to day for Liverpool, with 3 644 barrels tar, valued at $4 600, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

The Wilmington Light Infantry will attend St. John's Church in a body next Sunday morning, where services especially adapted to their presence will be held.

Lewis Hintz, a sailor, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with being uproariously drunk and disorderly last night. He was fined $5 for the offense.

Reciprocity in trade is the only founs dation for permanent business prosperity, and the man who ignores the 'live and let live" principle in trade is sure to reap finally disaster.

Rev. Dr. Prithard will preach in the Baptist Church at Raleigh next Sun day, exchanging pulpits with Rev. Dr. Netson, was will preach at the First Baptist Church in this city on that day.

We hope that our citizens will use their influence to have the annual encampment of the State Guard at Smithville. We doubt not the thing could be now stands. There was a brisk breeze knowing perhaps that Washington ever would be unjust to many. They are easily accomplished by a well-directed from the Southwest blowing at the

> A former citizen who resided here welve years ago thinks the greatest improvement our goodly city has made old market house from Market street to its present location.

The meetings at the First Baptist the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, Church are of deep interest and there destroying all the offices of that comare large congregations at all the ser- pany, and finally ceasing only when vices. Rev. Dr. Nelson, who is assist- there was no further fuel to feel upon. Silk Mitts. The Latest Styles in MILI-INERY ing the pastor, Rev. Dr. Pritchard, is It was a day ever to be remembered, an extremely interesting speaker and and there are a few, who were then in Indications.

For the South Atlantic States. winds from whose venerable lips it is interest-

The Rain.

The min of yesterday and the night before was general in this section. had a shere of its blessings.

Sad News.

Mr. M.M. Katz received the painful mother, the venerable Mrs. S. Katz.

Sporting.

The genial mixologist at Will West's lenge from his former partner, Mr Tommy Cunningham, of Haverly's Minstrels to dance him a sand jig dance of the old plantation style, the same to take place in New York within the next thirty days, for $250 a side and expenses Mr. Conlan has some sporting friends here who it is said will back him if the stakes are made $500. Mr. C. holds the championship of New York and Brooklyn.

New Residence

Mr. Walter Parsley is having a very cret. pretty residence erected on the North the first floor containing a sitting room, dining room, pantry and kitchen, with a deep bay window to the sitting room. The second floor contains two sleeping rooms, a nursery and bath room. All the rooms are sixteen feet long by fitteen feet wide. A broad piazza extends slong the entire front of the house and on the West side as far as the projection made by the bay window. It is a neat, tasty and pretty structure, and one that will be an ornament to that portion of

The Crops in Brunswick.

Sheriff Taylor writes us from Winnabow in Brunswick county, relative had plenty of rain, and that some are fearing frost and a freeze on the change of the moon, which takes place next Monday night. If their fears should be realized, there will be much damage done to the gardens and to peanuts and early planted cotton. The farmers of Brunswick county are striving hard to improve in agriculture and in poultry raising, but the hawks are very destructive at this season. Sheriff Taylor says that if everybody would mix powdered nux vomica in the feed for the chickens, the hawks would soon all be destroyed. It should be given two or three times a week.

Be sure to enquire JACOBI'S prices on Paints before buying. You will not regret so doing.

April 30th, 1843.

Just forty-three years ago to day-April 30th, 1843-occurred the most disastrous fire which had ever visited this city, and which had never been equalled in extent of territory devastated nor amount of property destroyed until the fearful conflagration of February, 21st, 1886. The fire of 1843, like that of 1886, occurred on a Sunday, with the difference that in the former instance it began in the forenoon, while a large portion of the citizens were in attend- BATS AND BASE BALL SUPPLIES, ance upon Divine service, and in the latter case the fire began its work in the afternoon. The great fire of April 30th, 1843, originated from a spark from a chimney of a kitchen, in the back yard of what was then known as the Cape Fear Bank building, which was located where the First National Bank time and the flames spread with astonishing rapidity. The fire department, and in fact everybody else, women as well as men, worked like heroes to stay the country, as well as in this city, promptly the progress of the flames, but without success, until they had swept every buying elsewhere. Orders from any part the country, as well as in this city, promptly filled. Guarantee prices to suit you. A call solicited. Bespectfully, CHAS. F. BROWNE,

CHAS. F. CHAS. F. CHAS. F. CHAS. fury, from where the fire originated to as best you may, to promote the wel- his discourses are of marked excellence. the prime of young and vigorous manhood, who have been spared to relate the incidents of that fearful day and

At the Orton.

E Dunn, Savanuah; Bruce Williams, Miss Emma Baldwin, Long Creek; S began at the South of us on Wednesday M Pritchett, J Elliot, Baltimore; Col and raised hard for a good portion of H B Short, Lake Waccamaw; J B Ezthat day, reaching this city early in zell, Columbia; D R Dance, Warren, the night. Hence it travelled North- Pa; George Hall, wife and daughter. Chapman, Mrs J W Post, Brookline, Mass; Mrs Richard Viall, Providence, RI; F Gardner, N C; Charles Gibbons. Newark, N J; are among the latest arrivals at the Orton.

The "Southern Hero".

Our new 50 cents shirts, reinforced warranted linen bosom and wristbands, has no equal; only manufactured and sold at the Wilmington Chief Factory A district. J. Busnacus, Prop.

Request Compiled With.

One who signs himself a "Patron of Your Paper," calls our attention to misprint in yesterday's issue. It is with great regret that we feel compelled to state that 1664 and 122 added together do not make 1886. If they did we would borrow $16.64 from one man and $1.22 from another and would make a designs ranging in price from 5 cents to 5 dolclear dollar by the transaction, enough, according to some authorities, to feed a newspaper man for a week, especially if supplemented by a little office pi-But seriously, good "patron," the error is merely a typographical one, the subs-genuine FRUIT SYRUPS, form a delicious titution of a 6 for a 7. Read it 1764 and oring. Fremember the place. you will understand the immense se-giar proof b ind fasts on your blinds. WE ARE AGENTS FOR FARMVILLE They can be had at JACOBI'S Hdw. De- Lithia Water and can furnish in bulk for 506

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Rising's Tin Shop.

HAVING PURCHASED THE ENTIBE stock of tools, machines and fixtures of W. E. KING, No. 15 Dock St., I am prepared to execute all orders entrusted to my care. Having employed Mr. King as Foreman, I ask a continuance of his former patronage. Respectfully.

ap1 30 1t R. F. RISING. Execution Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF EXECUTIONS IN MY hands, I will sell at public auction, at the Court House door, to morrow, May 1st, at 11 o'clock, the excess over the personal exemption of J. A. Lockfaw, consisting of Chewing and Smoking Tobacco, Cigars, Pipes, Matches, Lamps and Store Fixtures, Platform 10,000 BULL FROGS FOR WHICH the highest cash prices will be paid. For further particulars enquire of AL&X. HUGGINS, Orange St., bet. Water and Front Sts., apl 28 iwk Wilmington, N. C.

Last of the Season. RECEIVED THIS DAY THE drink and to smoke. I. B. RHODES, Prop, apl 29 S W Corner Front and Princess sts

To the Ladies Especially. MALL AT CRAPON'S FAMILY GROCERY and examine the New Foot Motor for Sewing Machines. They are highly recommended by Physicians as being the Ladies' friend and far superior to anything yet invented. There are several now in operation in this city which give perfect satisfaction.

GEO. M. CRAPON,

Family Grocery,

22 South Front Street

Base Balls,

CROQUET.

HAMMOCKS, &c.,

TOPS, MARBLES, &c. Artist Materials of all kinds at C. W. YATES'

Bookseller and Stationery.

Cypress Shingles.

ONE MILLION SHINGLES FOR SALE to your advantage to call and see me before apl 19 tf 123 N. Water St., Wilmington, N.C.

New Goods.

TEW GOODS WILL BE DISPLAYED and FANCY GOODS at MRS. H. B. JEWETT'S, 117 No. Second st

Job Printing.

THE REVIEW JOB PRINTING OFFICE

been freely expressed, or to review the past, except in vindication of the charpast, except in vindication of the charpast is prepared to do all kinds of Job Printing as whose venerable lips it is interest.

In the ladies on the stand), for to review the whatever side you may belong, it is prepared to do all kinds of Job Printing as can't be beat. A full supply of Drugs, Patent for the charpast is prepared to do all kinds of Job Printing as charpast in the ladies on the stand). In the ladies on the stand is prepared to do all kinds of Job Printing as charpast in the ladies on the stand is prepared to do all kinds of Job Printing as can't be beat. A full supply of Drugs, Patent for the charpast in the ladies on the stand in the ladies on the stand in the ladies on the stand is prepared to do all kinds of Job Printing as can't be beat. A full supply of Drugs, Patent for the charpast is prepared to do all kinds of Job Printing as charpast in the ladies on the stand in the ladies on th and itshall be done promptly. 1eb 24

PLEASE NOTICE

We will be glad to receive communication

ne side of the paper.

Personalities must be avoided And it is especially and particularly un stood that the Editor does not always endor the views of correspondents unless so stain the editorial columns.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Plants and Bulbs.

CHOICE DOUBLE PEARL TUBE ROSE Bulbs 35 cts per dozen, post paid 40 cts.
Small Bulbs 15 cts per dozen. Tomato Plants 12 inches high, some in bloom, 15 cts. per doz.
Other Bedding Plants at reasonable rates.
W. J. KIRKHAM.
apl 28-2t Sixth St., bet Dock and Orange

By S. VanAMRINGE & Co.,

AUCTIONEERS.

Assignee's Sales.

THE ASSIGNED STOCK NOW ON HAND in HEINSBERGER'S STORES, Nos, 107 and in HEINSBERGER'S STORES, Nos. 107 and 109 Market Street, will be sold without reserve at public auction. Said stock contains choice Pianos, Organs, Musical Boxes and Instruments in large variety. A fine selection of Oil Paintings, Oliharanha, Steel Engravings, Books, Stationery and Fascy Goods. Also, the Show Cases, &c. Sale will commence on Wednesday moraling, the 28th of April, at 10 o'clock.

NATHANIEL JACOBI, The above sale is postponed to Wednesday morning, May 5th, at 10 o'clock. Apr 28 tf

Beautiful Novelties for

Easter. CNDON MADE GOODS IN EXQUISITE

MUNDS BROS.

Soda Water!

CRUSHED ICE AND CREAM WITH OUR

MUNDS BROS. Lithia Water.

per gallon. Equal to any Lithia Water sold.

MUNDS BROS

Established 1874.

WE SOLICIT ORDERS FOR DRUGS, Chemicals, Patent Medicines and any articles usually kept in Drug Stores. Lowest prices

MUNDS BROS. Wholesale and Retail Druggists, 104 NORTH FRONT ST.

Millinery Goods

JUST RETURNED FROM TO ALL THE LATEST STYLES! Due notice will be given of Opening Days.

MRS. E. A. LUMSDEN

High in Quality.

last load of the season of those magnificent TURKEY CREEK OYSTERS. OUR GENTS' $3 CALF CONGRESS AND Last call. Also, the best of everything to BALS; our $2.50 Ladies' Kid Button Boot; our $2.50 Ladies' Goat Button Boot, high quality, low price.

"GLYCEROLE" is the only proper Shoe Dressing for Ladies to use. It softens the leather, but does not break or crack it. Call on us and examine some of our styles.

Geo. R. French & Sons apl 26 tf

Geo. W. Price, Jr., AUCTIONEER & COMMISSION MERCHANT.

Office and Sales Room, 215 Market St., Wilmington, N. .

Auction Sale DVERY TUESDAY NIGHT AT 7.30 o'clk, and every Wednesday Morning at 11 o'clock and Saturday Nights.

Grandmother's

NITTING COTTON (Unbleached) Nos. 10 and 12. COLORED KNITTING COTTON.

LADIES', GENTS' AND MISSES' COL LARS AND CUFFS. LADIES' DUDE COLLARS.

EMBROIDERY SILK. BARGAINS IN HAMBURGHS.

A Full Line OF DRUGS, CHEMICALS AND PATENT MEDICINES.
Allen's Lung Balsam, Hall's Lung Balsam, Rull's Cough Syrup, Miller's Cough Syrup, Pises' Consumption Cure. Strict attention given to prescription department.
Open day and night.

F. C. MILLER'S, Corner Fourth and Nun sts. Soda and Mineral Water, OUR COFFEE SYRUP AND OTHERS

161 Market Street.

