NO. 152

County Convention.

The New Hanover County Demoeratic Convention assembled at the this forenoon, and was called, to order County Executive Committee

Meares was requested to act as secre-

On motion, the reporters of the daily papers of the city were invited to seats in the Convention.

On motion, it was decided that all votes should be taken vive roes, unless there should appear a wide difference of opinion in regard to any question about to be voted upon. On motion, it was voted that the chairman of the meeting be instructed to appoint 35 delegates to the Judicial Convention, to be held at Goldsboro June 30th, 1886; 35 delegates to the Congressional Convention, to be held at Wadesboro, July 21st, 1886, and 35 delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Ruleigh, August 25th, 1886.

On motion it was voted that neither proxies nor alternates be allowed in place of the regularly appointed delegates to either of the conventions. -

Mr. J. D Bellamy, Jr., presented the their adoption in a forcible and well timed speech:

owes to the people, who have reinvested so much improved she has quit using it with the administration of the gov erament, to justify their confidence by a wise and patriotic line of policy in the rite of baptism after the sermon. keeping with its time honored principles and such as will redound to the benefit of the people and secure their continued trust and support.

Resolved. That this Congressional the candidate for Congress should be selected from the ablest and best men of those whose names shall have been publicly presented, and due opportunity Allen and others. In the evening there of their respective merits.

Resolved, That the Democrats of fairly represented in this convention, There will of course, be lots of good unanimously presents to the District things to eat. There were no interments in Belleyue Convention its distinguished, fellow citizen, Charles M. Stedman, as altogether worthy to receive the nomination for Congress, and it earnestly hopes that this recommendation will receive a cordial approval.

Re olved. That we commend Charles M Stedman to the District Convention as a faithful and devoted Democrat; a man who by intellectual attainments, by his great force of character and by his untiring industry, has justly achived a large measure of success; whose earnest sympathy with the people, and undealings have won the hearts of the masses, and will draw out their enthu siastic support. Resolved, That the delegates from this county to the Congressional Con vention are hereby instructed to cast the vote of this county for Charles M. Stedman so long as there shall be any possibility of effecting his nomination. and to spare no means, by all honora ble and persuasive endeavors, to bring about that result; and to pledge to the with zeal and courage to a glorious ever.

These resolutions were unanimously

Some discussion then ensued as to the propriety of putting a County Dem ocratic ticket in the field for the next election, and while there was no de cided opposition to that measure it was concluded not to press the matter and other places while they indulged in until the next Convention.

On motion, the thanks of the meeting were voted to the retiring County Executive Committee for the zeal and their duties during the past term. The Convention then adjourned, after a most harmonious session, to meet on the last Saturday in October, 1886, at II o'clock in the forenoon.

Lippincott's Magazine.

Lippincoll's Monthly for July has a timely article by Frank G. Carpenter on 'The Loves of the Presidents,' which is full of pleasant gossip. Some of the information has been obtained by historical research, but a considerable portion was turnished by descendants of the parties in question. J. S of Dale contributes an admirable story cast in failing advocacy of their rights, and dramatic form and entitled "Two Paswhose broad, liberal and charitable sions and a Cardinal Virtue," which contains some striking situations. There are two notable contributors to the Experience Meeting, Madame Henry Greville, who discourses about "My Literary Career," and Joaquin Miller, who explains "How I came to be a Writer of Books." The Serials develop fresh leatures of interest; there are poems by Kate Putnam Osgood, Louise Convention that, if nominated, he will Chandler Moulton, etc , and the Monthbear aloft the banner of Democracy ly Gossip is as chatty and agreeable as Trapped. Quite a number of colored men have been in the habit of assembling, nightly, after their day's work was done, in the store of Mrs. Grotgen, on the corner of Castle and Front streets, where they found seats on boxes, heads of barrels their usual gossip. One of these colored men was seen on two or three occasions, by a comrade, to take cakes. crackers &c., from the barrel upon which he would be sitting at the time and the clerk of the store was notified of the fact. The next night he was watched and was seen to take ginger cakes from the barrel upon which he was sitting and put then in his pocket, but gothing was said of the transaction. The next night the clerk had prepared for his coming by setting a strong steel trap in the barrel and the ginger cake thief had not been long in his accustomed seat before the trap sprung and cau, ht him by the hand and he could not extricate himself without assistance. We have not heard that legal steps have been taken to purish the thief, but REGULATOR Saturday, July 3 we doubt not that the next time he bunts for ginger cakes he will be sure not to light on a steel trap.
