It is estimated that the wine crop of California will reach 25,000,000 gallons, an increase of 10,000,000 over the crop of 1885.

There is a mother in Richmond Mich., who has a regular orchard of olive branches, consisting of seventeen healthy children, the oldest being but 19 years of age.

Palmer Stevens, of Canaan, Conn., who died recently, aged 93 years, was one of a family of ten, of whom all but one lived to be 70, and four were over 90 when they died.

A large cave has recently been discovered in the Oregon range, forty miles north of El Paso, which is size, and in the beauty of its stalactites and stalagmites bids fair to rival the Mammoth Cave.

Some vandals have stolen the ivy planted by the Yale class of '86. It was the gift of Mrs. Cushing, who got it herself from Mt. Helicon in Greece, from the face of a cliff where the marble was quarried for the buildings on the Acropolis of ancient Athens.

An attempt was made on Monday night to dynamite Prince Leopold, of Brazil, a midshipman in the Brazilian navy and a grandson of the Emperor, who is now in New York. The Prince had been to Coney Island and on the return trip on the steamer a bottle with a burning fuse was discovered in the cabin and thrown overboard.

The Prohibitionists of Michigan are making much ado over the fact that in the new private car of Gov. Alger wine lockers have been built. They aver that this is a slap in the face of the temperance people of the State, without regard to party, and that it will lose the Republican party thousands of votes.

Randall Vaughn of Paulding, Ga., was wounded in the battle of Wayneboro', in 1864. A rifle bullet entered his body between the breast bone and the point of the heart. Four years ago an abscess formed in the abdomen fourteen inches from where the ball entered, and the other day the ball was Vaughn is recovering.

It is still thought that Congress will adjourn next Monday. A dispatch from Washington City says:

It is generally expected on both sides of the Capitol that, unless the President should veto some of the appropriation bills, Congress will adjourn on Monday, August 2. All of the bills are now passed except the Fortification bill and that for the Restoration of the Navy, and neither of these will require much time, as the Senate does not appear to be in a mood for debate. The Morrison resolution may last a day or two, but the Senate can talk on that while the conference committees are at work on other bills. It is not probable that there will be any further legislation in either House, except the passage of a couple of land grant forfeiture bills.

If Mr. C. C. Clark is elected from Craven county to the Senate he will vote and speak against County Government if it should become an issue. We believe he has said so, or words to that effect. He has a right to his opinion, and a good Democrat living in Craven might in the enjoyment of the same privilege elect not to vote for him.—Wil. Star.

If Mr. Clark is the nominee of the Democratic party then the man who refuses to vote for him is not a "good" Democrat. "Good" Democrats will always vote the party ticket. If Mr. Clark holds views obnoxious to the established principles of his party in this State then he should not have been nominated, but once having been put into the field by his party he should be supported by every member of that party. At least, these are our old-fashioned ideas about party fealty, party duties and party principles.

Pic Nic for Purchasers.
Bargains in every department Odds and ends and broken assortment of sizes will be sold without regard to cost. A chance for all in want of clothing or furnishing goods. Our rule is not to carry over any goods from one season to another if low prices will sell them; therefore we cut prices accordingly. Come and see the goods and you will be astonished at the marvelous bargains. I. SHRIER, the Old Reliable, 114 Market st. Sign of the Golden Arm.

Stoves: A very large assortment a prices to suit all. Ask your neighbors and friends who have tried our stoves, and they will tell you of their merit. JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

Only one bale of cotton was received at this port to-day.

There is a "deal" of sickness in the city, a large portion of it being among the children.

Seaboardmen report that there is now about five feet of water on the shoals in the Cape Fear.

There is a "special delivery" letter in the Postoffice addressed to D. H. Alston, postmarked Raleigh, N. C.

Oh, it is so warm again. Well, that's all right. Go to Heinsberger's, buy a Hammock, and the sight of it will make you feel cool.

We were pleased to receive a visit yesterday afternoon from the venerable Mr. Owen Alderman, of Pender county, who is on one of his rare visits to the city.

Brig Ala anta, Aldrich, cleared to-day for Pernambuco, Brazil, with 179 barrels rosin and 242,523 feet lumber, valued at $4,541.91, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son.

Several new dwellings and other buildings are now in course of construction at Smithville, and there is evidence of substantial prosperity throughout that entire town.

Godley's Lady's Book is now in the 56th year of its age, and exhibits undiminished vigor. It has a large circle of interested readers. Sold by Geo. R. Dyer for 25 cents.

Capt. N. F. Parker, of the Rocks, was in the city yesterday. He tells us that it is glorious at the Rocks now, and that everybody there is enjoying this fine weather to the full. The fishing is splendid.

Parties wishing to purchase fine Family Bibles will find it to their interest to call at Heinsberger's Cash Book Store, who will sell you a better bound Bible than you can get elsewhere.

Mr. J. T. Colfoss, of Burgaw, who is one of the most successful fruit growers in Pender county, has sent us some samples of the apples raised by him consisting of four varieties, the Red Queen, the old fashioned Horse and the long-stem June. They are as beautiful and as luscious as any of the famed Northern apples which we have ever seen in this market.

Indications
For North Carolina, fair weather, nearly stationary temperature and variable winds

Our Own Manufacture.
A very nice line of Wamsutta night shirts, all sizes, at 75 cents. Call at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market street, J. ELSBACH, Prop.

Sunday Schools.
Rev. A. M. Conway, pastor of the First Baptist Church, colored, has just returned from Moore's Creek, Pender county, where he has been in attendance upon the colored Sunday School Convention which was held at that place last week. He reports that there was a large attendance and much interest manifested in the Sunday school work, and thinks that much good will result from the labors of the convention.

At the Hotels
G. C. Speight, Wallaceton, Va.; W. F. Robertson, Atlanta; Leon Dargan, Milton Dargan, F. W. Crosswell, S. M. Barfield, W. D. Bogin, Sumter; A. W. C. Smyth, Richmond; M. J. Waterman, J. F. Brandt; and two sons, Fayetteville, are among the latest arrivals at the Orton.

A. J. Floyd, Ashpole N. C.; W. Jackson, Philadelphia; W. J. Hall, C. C. R. R.; L. W. Alderman, A. D. Alderman, Sumpson Co.; E. McMoore, J. B. Moore, Pender Co.; W. A. Waard, Smithville; B. Applewhite, Columbus Co.; are among the latest arrivals at the Sutton house.

The New York Enamel Paint Co's Ready Mixed Paint is the best. A full assortment of colors, in all size cans, from pounds up, at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

To the Benevolent.

The First Baptist Church, colored, of which Rev. A. M. Conway is pastor, is in a dilapidated condition and is much too small for the large congregation worshipping there. It is proposed to build a new church edifice, and for this purpose the contributions of Christians are requested. All necessary information in the matter will be cheerfully given by the pastor, at his residence, No. 508 Campbell street.

The Weather.

The hot wave has reached us in all earnestness. Last night was the hottest that we have experienced thus far this season. It was impossible to sleep. The heat has been intense to-day, but we hope that to-night may be cooler. Hot waves usually continue in their intensity about three days, and if the rule holds good this year, we may expect cooler weather by to-morrow. People cannot exercise too much caution about exposure to the hot sun, and ought also to be extremely cautious in what they eat and drink.

Sales of Real Estate.

Messrs. Cronly & Morris sold at auction to-day the one-story frame dwelling and lot on Red Cross street, between Third and Fourth, North side, to Capt. D. O'Connor for $1,605. Lot and dwelling just in the rear sold to Mr. Carl Mugge for $755.

The Anderson property, on Fourth and Fifth streets, between Ann and Nuon, was also sold to-day. The dwelling house, on Fourth street, lot 66x165, was sold to Mr. DuBrutz Cutlar for $1,275 and the Fifth street part, unimproved, lot 66x165, to Mr. E. G. Barker, for $745. All of these sales are subject to confirmation.

New Building.

An imposing structure is in course of construction on the estate of Hart & Bailey, on South Second street, between Market and Dock. It is being built on the site of the brick building formerly occupied as a storehouse on the first floor and as a dwelling on the second floor, which was burned in March last, and is 65 feet long by 34 feet deep, and two stories high. There will be accommodations for three stores on the first floor and seven rooms on the second floor which will be under the supervision of Mr. C. W. McClammy.

Another Thief.

C. H. Ward, the colored barber on South Front street, has a tin box in his shop in which he keeps his money, barber's checks and papers. Between the hours of 4 o'clock and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, while Ward was temporarily absent, some thief stole the contents of the box, which consisted of about eight dollars in money, besides checks and other papers. There is no clue as yet as to who was the thief, but we hope that he may be found out and treated to a wholesome dose of the criminal law of North Carolina.

The New Steamer.

The new steamer Cape Fear, which has been in course of construction for the Bladen Steamboat Company, a Capt. S. W. Skinner's ship yard, in the Southern section of the city, is now completed and will start on her first trip to Fayetteville to-morrow. She has been constructed under the immediate supervision of Capt. T. J. Green, who will be her commander. The boat is first-class in every particular and is built in the most thorough and substantial manner throughout. She has a capacity of 700 barrels of naval stores and cabin and state room accommodations for twenty first class passengers. She has four state rooms and every possible regard has been had to secure the utmost comfort and convenience for lady and children passengers. The Cape Fear is built very much after the model of the steamer North State, which was once so popular on the river. Capt. Green has been a steamboat commander on the river more than twenty-one years, and is the Nestor of Cape Fear steamboat captains. He will do all in his power for the comfort of his passengers and will take every precaution which has been taught by his long experience to secure their entire safety from harm. We wish the new steamer Cape Fear and its worthy commander, Capt. T. J. Green, an abundant success and many prosperous and profitable trips to Fayetteville and return. The regular sailing days are announced in our advertising columns in this issue.

We are now prepared to furnish you with moulding and ornamenta wood work of all kinds. Hear our prices before buying. JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

Thieves and Burglars.

It seems that the city is infested with a gang of burglars and thieves, who are pursuing their vocation with lively energy and persistence, although thus far with no great success. Several houses have been entered by these prowlers within the past week, but in no instance have the thieves been able to secure a large amount of booty. They have thus far escaped detection, and this fact has emboldened them in their pursuit of property to which they have not legal right. It behoves all our citizens to see that their premises are safely and securely fastened in the daytime as well as at night, for these unwelcome visitors may appear at any time. They are not in the least ceremonious, further than to be careful and not make any more noise than possible. At about 2 o'clock this morning one of these gentry entered the dwelling of Mr. M. Judge, on Seventh street, between Market and Princess, but was discovered by Mrs. Judge, who screamed, when the scamp, who was a colored man, beat a hasty retreat and escaped through an adjoining lot to the street. At a little later hour a colored thief entered through a window the room on the second floor of a house on McKee street, between Chestnut and Mulberry, by placing a ladder against the side of the house. The inmate of room was awakened and screamed murder, thus arousing the entire neighborhood, but the thief managed to escape in the confusion of the moment. It is to be hoped that justice by due process of law may speedily overtake these scamps.

Ho. W. J. Green.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26, 1886.
I have read the DAILY REVIEW.—Though not now in the Third, I know that your valuable paper has a wide circulation in Col. Green's district, and I desire through its columns to say a few words in his behalf, especially as I am in a position to observe his daily labors, and his untiring efforts to advance the interests of his constituents.
I have known Col. Green some twenty years, and remember how, in the days of political pretense, he gave liberality of his means, his time and his talents to the stump, to the cause of the white people of the State, and the advancement of Democratic party.
When the Democrats of the old Third, in 1868, learned to value him at his true worth, called him to the front, he gained them another victory.
Scarcely had he been in Washington six days when he had introduced a bill for the erection of a public building in the city of Wilmington; a bill to provide for holding district and circuit courts in Fayetteville; a bill to pay dealers in tobacco a rebate of tax under act of 1883; and a bill appropriating $10,000 for establishing lights on the Lower Cape Fear River. Subsequently he introduced many others in that and the present Congress, among which I might mention the bill requiring starry mail contractors to reside in the State. A very important matter to our people, was also his bill to check frauds and adulterations in articles of food, drinks and medicine. Again, his bill to prevent imitation articles being sold as genuine butter was really the origin of the oleomargarine bill just passed both Houses. His bill required that these imitations should be sold for just what they were, which everybody agrees is proper. He also introduced bills to improve the Cape Fear, Black River, Northeast and Upper Cape Fear Rivers, and Bogue Sound, aggregating some $240,000.
So it will be seen that he has not been idle. At roll calls he has been one of the most attentive members in the House, and his vote has always been cast in the interest of his section, his State and his people.
There is one fact that every one connected with the House is bound to have observed, and that is the kindly regard and warm personal fellowship so many of the members have for Col. Green, or they know him as a generous, high minded, gentlemanly companion, and I can tell you from my experience here that this feeling is worth more in securing the passage of any measure he may desire than all the long winded speeches of a whole session. Col. Green never deals in indirection; here his many and outspoken position on all public questions has gained the respect of all, even the Republicans, and now no man in the House who has been here the same length of time stands in a better position to assist to his constituents in the coming Congress.
Therefore I say, as a close observer of North Carolina interests here, that the Democrats of the old Third will not only honor themselves but facilitate their best interests by returning Wharton J. Green.

A Big Snake.
We saw a monster water moccasin to-day at Mr. George M. Crapon's store on South Front street. It was 5 1/2 feet in length, and was one of the largest we have ever seen. It was killed this morning on the opposite side of the river.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner.
