Sporting men are much interested in discussing the probable effect of John L. Sullivan's broken arm upon his outsilistic career. When it was first Tout the people all call you my Gas as in as ced at Minneapolis that Cardiff had broken the champion's arm, the 10 000 pers are present at the mail want away feeling that they had been doped, But the statement of the examining physicians has settled that point. They say that the main bone between the wrist and the elbow is broken, and that it will cause a disability for sixty days. Sullivan says that he wants to meet Card ff again as soon as his arm heals The champion's friends think that his Her. hart will prove useful to him, as it will end to make him more cautious in the

The King of Corea is never seen by his common subjects, excepting on cer ain occasions when he goes to worship at the shrines of his ancestors. On these occusions the streets are cleared f the merchant booths and all other ibstructions, fresh yellow clay is spread ver the rand, mounted and foot police keep the crowd in order, and the King passes by escuted by a procession neardomestic use that recommends itself to every ly a mile in length. The procession is one of the most gorgeous spectacles to be seen in the East, and as modern civilization will be apt soon to modify it, it is certainly well worth seeing. Al ready f reign uniforms and guns are beginning to rob it of some of its bar baric splendor. The King is scated on gorgeous red throne supported on the shoulders of thirty-two men.

> John W Bookwalter, of Ohio, who has returned to this country from an exended residence in Europe, says: gave it as my opinion a year ago that certainty. The reason why he is so copmar with his party is because he is he high chief of protection. He is the representative of the greatest principle of his party. He would rather increase he tatiff than reduce it. The Dame. erais should be just as pronounced in heir views of the subject. They c r tainly should have no fear in coming at holdig, for there are a much greater number of Anti-Protection Republicans than Democratic Protectionists Nearl. all the Mugwamps favor a reduction of the tariff. I take it that the Mog wompvoted the Democratic ticket, not se much of account of their dislike for Blaine as b cause they do not believe in protection knowing that it must cause pan cs, strikes and a arvation.

Harper's Young People. AN ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE has been called "the model of what a periodical for young readers ought to be," and the justice of this commendation is amply sustained by the large circulation it has attained both at nome and in Great Britain. This success has been reached by methods that must commend themselves to the judgment of parents, no less than to the tastes of children—namely, by an earnest and we'l sustained effort to provide the best and most attractive reading for young people at a low price. The filustrations are copieus and of a conspicuously high standard
