SILENCE.

My soul is voiceless as the frozen moon
Yet in it slumbers music deep and strong
As all the splendid fire of sunlit noon;
Would that some hand might strike it into song.

And yet perchance the touch that thus should wake
The silent chords to soaring melody,
Might be the hand of one for whose dear sake
The song would grow until too great to be.

So sleep, my heart, serene as yonder star:
Silence shall be sweet like summer rain.
To hush the lips of song were better far
Than bursting into symphonies of pain.

—W. J. Henderson.

The Early Poet's Doom.

Young women listen to this: Tom Moore began to write poems when he was a boy of fourteen; Southey wrote his first verses when he was eleven; Keats was a successful poet at eighteen; Leigh Hunt talked in rhyme at thirteen; Chaucer at twelve; and Milton when he was only ten. And where are they now? Ethel? Where are they now? They are dead. Go wash the ink off your thumb and help your mother rare the potatoes. Ethel, if you would live long, I'll write the poetry. I don't care to live any longer. [P. S.—In fact, I'd rather die than pare the potatoes.]—Dob Burdette

As a remedy for accidents common to every day life, such as cuts, bruises, sprains, burns, scalds, frostbites, and bites of poisonous insects, Salivation Oil has no equal in the market. It literally annihilates pain. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Weights Just a Pound.

LINGTON, IND., March 12.—Utica, Clark county, a few miles South of here, bears the distinction of numbering among its citizens probably the smallest baby in the world. It was born on Friday to the wife of Raymond Ferguson, a farmer, and only weighs sixteen ounces. It is well formed and in very good health. The arms of the little stranger are just three inches long, while its legs measure four inches. Dr. Williams, the attending physician, says it will survive if nothing untoward happens. The mother and father of the midget each weigh over 150 pounds and are in the best of health.

How Women Would Vote.

Were women allowed to vote, every one in the land who has used Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" would vote it to be an unfailing remedy for the diseases peculiar to her sex. By druggists.

Ocean Pilots.

All ocean steamers are commanded by men who have licenses as pilots for every harbor along their routes. But there is another class of pilots who make it a business to lie outside the harbor for which they are specially licensed, to watch for sailing vessels and steamships coming from a distance, or from foreign ports. Such a pilot, we must explain to our inland readers, takes entire charge of outgoing and incoming vessels, until they have passed the dangers around the coast and harbors of our seas, lakes and great tidal streams. The captain of a ship surrenders its control wholly to the pilot while he is on board on pain of forfeiture of the insurance on the vessel in case of disaster within that time.

There is no craft, perhaps, in this country which is subject to more rigid rules than this. The pilots, for example, of Delaware Bay have for a century been governed by certain inextinguishable customs, as binding as laws. Their business obliges them to be sober, intelligent, keen sighted, and ready-witted men. When not in charge of a vessel, they are on large pilot boats, which lie outside of the capes, sometimes sixty miles at sea, watching for vessels.

The pilots of New York bay and of Boston harbor go even further out to sea, and are sometimes met with from one to two hundred miles from the land. They are cruising about in the track of incoming steamers, and almost always appear in ample season to offer their services. But if no pilot comes, the ship lies outside the harbor and signals for one. The corps on the pilot boats have regular turns, and the pilot to whose lot this vessel falls is rowed out to her.

He is bound to answer the signal by day or by night, in sunshine or in the fiercest storm. Nothing but the absolute certainty that the boat cannot live in the sea running between him and the vessel will release him from his obligation.

A boy who wishes to learn this business must serve an apprenticeship. For Philadelphia pilots the term of apprenticeship is six years, during which time the young man lives on the pilot boats, studying the channels, soundings and dangers. Then, after a year and a half of partial responsibility, he becomes a pilot.—Youth's Companion.

"Old Scratch" is the demon Skratli, who still survives in the superstitions of Northern Europe. "Old Nick" is none other than Nicker, the dangerous water demon of the Scandinavian legend.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. 6 dead & wily.

The word humming is from Hamburg; "a piece of Hamburg news" was in Germany a proverbial expression of false political rumors.

A MEDICINE, NOT A DRINK.

HIGH AUTHORITY.

Hop Bitters is not, in any sense, an alcoholic beverage or liquor, and could not be sold for use, except to persons desirous of obtaining medical bitters.

GREEN B. RAUM,
U. S. Com'r Internal Rev.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24, 1884.

Dear Sir—Why don't you get a certificate from Col. W. H. W., of Baltimore, showing how he cured himself of drunkenness by the help of Hop Bitters. This is a wonderful case. He is well known in Rochester by all drinking people there. He is known in this city, Cincinnati, New Orleans, New York, in fact, all over the country, as he spent thousands of dollars for rum. I honestly believe his cure would be worth thousands of dollars to you in this city and Baltimore alone and make thousands of sober men by inducing the use of your bitters.

J. A. W.

PREJUDICE KILLS.

Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, but now she is restored to us in good health by Hop Bitters, that we had looked at two years before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters.—The Tarantula—Good Temp'ers

Milton, Del. Feb. 10, 1886.

Having used Hop Bitters, the noted remedy for debility, nervousness, indigestion, etc., I have no hesitation in saying that it is indeed an excellent medicine and recommend it to any one as a truly tonic bitters.

Respectfully,
REV. MRS. J. H. ELLGOOD

Scitico, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1884.

I am the pastor of the Baptist church here and an educated physician. I am not in practice, but am my sole family physician, and advise in chronic cases. Over a year ago I recommended your Hop Bitters to my invalid wife, who has been under medical treatment of Albany's best physicians several years. She has been greatly benefited and still uses the medicine. I believe she will become thoroughly cured of her various complicated diseases by their use. We both recommend them to our friends, many of whom have also been cured of their various ailments by them.

REV. E. R. WARREN.

CURED OF DRINKING.

"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thirst for liquor that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady and he has remained a steady and sober man for more than two years, and has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it."—From a leading R. R. Official, Chicago, Ill.

1,500 ACRES OF LAND IN THE one best pine region. For sale on easy terms to suit purchasers. Four acres for $25. Larger tracts $5 per acre, in monthly payments of $10. This land adjoins the "Southern Pine," a recently established health resort (or sanitarium), and is especially adapted for Fruit Culture, as well as all the cereals. A number of New England people have bought lots in the town of "Southern Pine," and it is the desire of the owners of this land to induce small farmers, mechanics and others from the New England and Middle States, as well as elsewhere, to locate here. No State in the Union offers greater inducements to settlers than North Carolina. Nowhere can a better farming country or an area a climate be found. This is the opinion of Northern men who have settled in North Carolina. This is a bona fide offer, and is limited.
