THE COFFINLESS DEAD.

The poem I sing of the coffinless dead—
The heroes who wore the gray,
Who dared to follow where chivalry led,
And fronted the flame of the battle red,
Whose blood like warm wine was shed,
In the heat of the deadly fray.

Ab, grand is the task the tale to tell,
Of those heroes without a name,
Whose spirits were stirred by the rebel yell.

As it rose and throbbed on the battle-swell,
As they followed their leaders mid fires of hell,
Through the gates of a deathless fame.

All hail to the brave, whose forms so bright,
Did a nation's shield arise,
Who dared to stand and strike for the right,
Whose spirits passed from the battle-night,
Into God's presence pure and white
With the stamp of the sacrifice.

All hail to the blood, that a christm fell,
On an infant nation's head,
What tho' the chimes of its christm'ing bell,
But mingled their tones with its funeral knell.

All hail to its spirit fled.

All hail to the paladins clad in gray,
That Stuart and Stonewall led,
Who would with their lives a ransom pay,
Whose brave breasts bore the brunt of the fray,
Who walk to the light of the sunless day.

All hail to the coffinless dead,
—Pal Henderson.

Mr. Beecher's Voice.

In the house of Thomas A. Edison, at Llewellyn park, is a remarkable monument of Beecher. The inventor's phonograph for impressing on a soft metal sheet the utterance of a human voice, and then emitting it again by the turning of a crank, has never been put to any very valuable use, and Edison has only gained from it a few thousand dollars in royalties from exhibitors. But he utilized it to make a collection of famous voices. Since he became famous his visitors have included hundreds of celebrities. Instead of asking them for their autographs or photographs, he has, in two or three hundred instances, requested them to speak a few sentences into a phonograph. He has kept the plates in a cabinet, and occasionally he runs some of them through the machine, which sends out the words exactly as uttered. Edison is probably the only man who can revive the silenced voice of the great preacher.

Amazing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, in the United States and Canada.

A Girl's Idea of a Man.

The following conversation was overheard in a hotel at Weldon, N. C., during the civil war.

Two young girls were chatting on a sofa unconsciously drawing the attention of the crowd in the room to their conversation. Said one:

"Selma is going to marry Lieutenant F., after all. You know she had broken her engagement with him. But he lost his leg at the battle of Manassas, and what does she do but take the hero into her favor again. I could not marry any one who was not a whole man, could you?"

"Yes," exclaimed the other; "if there was just enough of his body left to hold his soul, I'd marry him if I loved him!"

The applause that followed this speech was tremendous. The soldiers sprang to their feet and vented their feelings in loud buzzes while the landlord and attendants rushed into the room to see if the Yankees were whipped.

The Music of Talk.

Sentences are spoken in a certain musical key, and are mostly begun on the fifth or dominant of the scale of the keynote, from which they descend in seconds or thirds or other intervals to the keynote, and, maybe, down the lower dominant. Or they begin on the keynote and move to the dominant, or they ascend from the dominant to the octave, and to the ninth and tenth. Many expressions are begun on the sixth as a leading tone to the dominant, and in their relative harmonies, and frequently dwell on introductory tones from above or below to a tone of any of these chords.

Hop Bitters is not, in any sense, an alcoholic beverage or liquor, and could not be sold for use, except to persons desirous of obtaining medical benefits.

GREEN B. RAUM,
U. S. Com'r Internal Rev.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24, 1884.

Dear Sir—Why don't you get a certificate from Col. W. H. W., of Baltimore, showing how he cured himself of drunkenness by the help of Hop Bitters. His is a wonderful case. He is well known in Rochester by all drinking people there. He is known in this city, Cincinnati, New Orleans, New York; in fact, all over the country, as he spent thousands of dollars for rum. I honestly believe his card would be worth thousands of dollars to you in this city and Baltimore alone, and make thousands of sober men by inducing the use of your bitters.

PREJUDICE KILLS.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best physicians, who gave her disease various names, but no relief, but now she is restored to us in good health by Hop Bitters, that we had probed at two years before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters."—The Tar-nis—Good Templars

Milton, Del., Feb. 10, 1886.

Having used Hop Bitters, the noted remedy for debility, nervousness, indigestion, etc., I have no hesitation in saying that it is indeed an excellent medicine and recommend it to any one as a truly tonic bitters.

Respectfully,
REV. MRS. J. H. ELLGOOD

Scipio, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1884.

I am the pastor of the Baptist church here and an educated physician. I am not in practice, but am my sole family physician, and advise in chronic cases. Over a year ago I recommended your Hop Bitters to my invalid wife, who has been under medical treatment of Albany's best physicians several years. She has been greatly benefited and still uses the medicine. I believe she will become thoroughly cured of her various complicated diseases by their use. We both recommend them to our friends, many of whom have also been cured of their various ailments by them.

REV. E. R. WARREN.
