The Cardiff giant has been sold in Texas for $32.

The balloon for the Paris Exhibition of 1889 will carry up 100 persons.

Lord Pennington's latest effort is a morning and evening hymn, dedicated to the boys in the Gordon Home at Portsmouth.

Governor Beaver, of Pennsylvania, devotes a portion of his time in Harrisburg to teaching a Sunday school class.

When last heard from Secretary Bayard had met the lady to whom he is said to be engaged only twice, both of those times having been in public places.

When Theodore Tilton was told of Mr. Beecher's death and asked whether he had anything to say, he shook his head sadly and answered: "No; it will do no good now."

A son of Senator Patterson, the famous carpet-bagger of South Carolina, is an inmate of the Tombs prison, New York, awaiting trial for having swindled a man out of the sum of five dollars.

One of the qualifications mentioned in favor of a Georgia Congressman who is mentioned for the Speakership is that he could "decide a point of order and bow to a lady in the gallery simultaneously."

Ex-President Davis has written a letter contradicting the rumor that he was about to visit Washington. He says that he will never see the Capital again. "It would be pleasant to view the scenes which were once so familiar to me," he adds, "though I doubt if I would hardly recognize the city now, as it has so improved and grown. No, I shall never again see Washington. I'm getting too old to travel."

The use of the gall of rattlesnakes is warmly urged by M. Kosciuszko, of Austria, as an antidote for snake bites. M. Kosciuszko, who became acquainted with the antidote in Venezuela, declares it to be both inexpensive and effective, as well as instantaneous in its operation, crows and dogs in the last stage of the poison recovering immediately on the remedy being administered to them.

The Senate of Missouri has passed a bill which makes it a felony for any one, by threats or violence, to induce an employee to quit work; and the punishment provided is imprisonment in the penitentiary for from two to five years. For the offence of using violent means to prevent one from accepting employment the punishment is imprisonment in the county jail and a fine of from $100 to $1,000.

Mr. Henry Allaway, a correspondent of the New York Times, who recently visited the principal manufacturing and commercial centres of the South, sums up the Southern situation as follows:— "What the whole South needs is a broad gauge immigration bureau. This will do more towards doubling the population than all the syndicate schemes. The basis of growth is here and nothing short of a miracle can halt it."

THE W. O. & E. C. R. R.

In the heat of the political contest we trust that our readers will not overlook the fact that the question of a subscription of $100,000 on the part of the county to the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina R. R. is to be voted on at the polls on Thursday. We look upon this as a very important matter and we trust that the amount will be voted. Our people have long desired a railway connection with Onslow and the opportunity for securing this is now at hand. The proposition is made under very favorable circumstances and every safeguard possible has been thrown around the bill so as to protect the interests of the people in the subscription.

There are many reasons why we favor this subscription. In the first place, Wilmington needs more railroads and in the second place it needs roads which can be controlled by our own people and which will be operated for the benefit of our home markets.

Onslow is a rich and productive county which has never yet been touched by a railroad.

The products of her soil are not only numerous and varied but her waters abound in fish and oysters.

The supply of these last is absolutely inexhaustible and a liberal delivery here will make Wilmington the greatest fish market on the Atlantic coast. The oysters are the best in the world and the supply has never yet equalled the demand.

Once at New River the entire water system of North Carolina is open to the road and can be made a feeder to it.

The amount asked of the county is $100,000. This is less than 2 per cent of the assessed value of real estate in the county. Therefore, if the construction of this road will but increase the value of realty but two cents on the dollar the subscription will have paid for itself.

If a piece of property worth $1,000 is raised in market value to $1,010 then the increase in value will have paid its share of the subscription. Real estate here is at a very low ebb and is only awaiting a boom. The Onslow R. R. may give the first impetus to that boom.

As for the interest, if the profits of the road do not keep down the interest on the bonds the increase of business here from that source will be sure to do it.

In fact, the increase of business here will pay both interest and principal. It is not by any means a bad speculation, if it takes ten years to do this, but we prophesy that it will be done in much less time than that.

If Wilmington can get to New River for $100,000 Wilmington ought certainly to go there. We think it dirt-cheap.

And now as to the expenditure of this $100,000.

We do not vote to give this money to a syndicate of people of whom we know nothing and composed of those who care nothing for us as a people or a place, and who may bring strangers to do the work that ought to be of right given out to our own people, but to those who are of us and with us and who will spend here at home every dollar that is available for the purpose. In other words, taking out the cost of the iron, it will be the right hand paying out money into the left hand and the left hand paying it back into the right hand, with the additional advantage of having that much more of money in circulation here.

We have given briefly here the reasons for the faith that is in us and why we would be glad to see this measure voted by the people. We honestly think it would be the best thing that could be done for this city and this section at this time and that it is an investment that will pay handsomely on the outlay. The opportunity once lost may never occur again, and it we do not take advantage of it some others will for such a rich county as Onslow will not much longer remain locked to the world. What do you say, friends and fellow-citizens?

A large line of new Spring samples for men's wear received from Browning, King & Co., the largest merchant tailoring establishment in the country. Call early and leave your measure at I. SHREK'S and save from fifteen to twenty dollars on a suit. Our binding obligation is:—
1st. The quality shall be as represented.
2. The garment shall be made to fit.
3. The price shall be lower than the same goods can be had elsewhere.
4. Money refunded if we fail in any of these particulars.

No registration, no vote.
Register, Register and Register!

To-morrow (Wednesday) is the last day for registration.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 69 bales.

It is not only a man's privilege to register and vote but it is his duty.

There is but one day left in which to register and if you do not register you cannot vote.

No man whose name is not on the registration books will be allowed to vote on Thursday.

We are sorry to state that Capt. W. M. Parker, of the firm of Parker & Taylor, is very sick and confined to his house.

How many good Democrats in this city are going to lose the right to vote on election day because of their neglect to register their name?

Miss E. Karrer is now busily engaged in opening and displaying new Spring purchases. The attention of the ladies is invited to this fact.

Schr Uranus, Peters, cleared today for Ponce P. R., with 268,582 feet lumber, valued at $4,190,26, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son.

The directors of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. have declared a dividend of 34 per cent interest on the certificates of indebtedness of the company.

Mr. G. W. Bornemann, corner of Ninth and Queen streets, has just moved into a new and comfortable store and dwelling house erected by him at that place.

Mayor Hall gives notice in this issue that all places where liquor is sold must be closed at 6 o'clock to-morrow afternoon and remain closed until 6 o'clock on Friday morning.

The gallant firemen of Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Co. No. 1, will celebrate their anniversary to-morrow by a parade and engine trial in the afternoon and "a feast of reason and a flow of soul" afterwards.

The total number of vessels arriving at this port for the eleven months ended March 1st 1887, were as follows:—
American—205 vessels and 83,505 tons.
Foreign—161 vessels and 81,971 tons, making a total of 366 vessels aggregating 165,476 tons.

Call Extended.
At a meeting of Brooklyn Baptist Church, held last night, a unanimous call was extended to Rev. G. M. Tolson to remain as Pastor another year. Mr. Tolson, as pastor of this church during the past year, has labored zealously in the cause of the Master and for the prosperity of the church and we are glad to say that his efforts have been truly and greatly blessed.

Only those who come of age on that day can register on the day of election.

Stricken Again.
We regret to learn that Mr. John C. Heyer is again confined to his house by sickness and that his condition is considered critical indeed. He was taken sick several weeks since, but recovered so far as to be able to be on the streets and at his usual place of business, and his appearance indicated a complete restoration to health. A few days since he was stricken again and he has continued to grow worse until now there is but little prospect of his recovery.

Personal.
Mr. James F. Moore, Superintendent of Public Instruction in Pender county, is in the city and made us a pleasant visit yesterday.

Mr. Julius Sampson, who has been several months in the city, expects to leave here to-night on his return to New York. He will be accompanied by Mr. E. T. Draper, the manager of the house here, who will spend two weeks in that city in the selection of new goods.

Audit and Finance.

The Board of Audit and Finance, as at present constituted, held its last regular meeting yesterday. There were present Mr. W. I. Gore, chairman, and Messrs R. J. Jones and Wm. Calder. The Board audited and approved the following: Bills for current expenses, amounting to $404.75; for street improvement (paving Mulberry street from Water to Nutt) $850. Six hundred and ninety coupons, amounting to $12,376, were burned in the presence of the board. The purchase of a suitable horse for the hose cart of Howard Relief S. F. E. Co., recommended by the Board of Aldermen, was approved.

The Wilmington Library.

Last evening we visited the rooms of the Wilmington Library Association and made a necessarily brief examination of the literature which has been gathered for the instruction, entertainment and amusement of our people. Many of the books are rare and many years out of print, and their value is almost incalculable. The standard works of history, poetry, fiction and romance are well represented, while the collection is peculiarly rich in the old standard dramas. We could but wonder as we saw the opportunities there afforded for acquiring knowledge regarding its progress. Science, art, law, medicine, and in fact, nearly all of the best writers of the past as well as of the present age, in prose or poetry, are represented, and the selection of books the most care has been observed to avoid the trashy or inferior publications with which the world is now flooded. There seemed to be a lack, however, of some of the lighter literature, such as would engage the attention of younger people and especially of such as would be entertaining to young ladies. The cost of membership is only fifty cents per month, which gives free access to a library of books whose aggregate original cost was nearly or quite $5,000.

To-Night's Entertainment.

Mr. Frederick Warde, the tragedian, with his company arrived here on this morning's train from Columbia, S. C., where they played last night. They will appear at the Opera House to-night in Sheridan Knowles' celebrated play of "Virginia," with Mr. Warde in the title role. The New York Star, in speaking of the play, says: "The personation of the character of Virginia in Sheridan Knowles' tragedy by Frederick Warde, at the People's Theatre last evening, was one that fairly enraptured an audience that filled every portion of the house, from the orchestra to the last row in the gallery. To the part which John McCullough made famous the star brought a fine physique and a handsome countenance—two valuable essentials. His voice was made to do good duty in the strong scenes, and to the act before Appius Claudius he completely won the house by the moving picture of fatherly love and the sense of Roman honor. Several times he was called before the curtain.

To-morrow night the company will appear in Galba, the Gladiator, of which the Atlanta correspondent of the Macon Macon Telegraph says: "Warde's personation of Galba, the Gladiator, tonight amounted to a sensation. He was called fifteen times during the evening. Eight times was he called in the arena scene, fourth act, where Galba recognizes his daughter and refuses to slay her. His acting in this scene was the grandest exhibition of dramatic power of the robust school seen here since Forrest played here in 1867. No actor has ever made a greater impression on an Atlanta audience. They wept and shouted and rose in their seats and would not quit recalling him at the end of the arena scene until he made a speech thanking them for their generous appreciation."

How to cure a Boy of Croup.

Mrs. Samuel Nutt, of South Haven, Kansas, tells how she saved the life of her boy.

I have been using ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS for the last ten years, principally for a weak back. Not long ago I found my son very much inclined to croup. He had a bad croupy cough, and a wheezing sound in his lungs every time he breathed. He nearly died from the obstruction of the throat. I covered him from the throat to the pit of the stomach with ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. In two hours the cough ceased and his breathing was much easier. In a few days he was entirely well. I kept the ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS on him six days. Since then, whenever he is affected with colds in the throat, I never use anything but ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER, which cures him immediately, without any inconvenience. They are the best preventive of the croup ever known, and I would not be without them for any consideration.

St. Paul's E. L. Sunday School.

At a meeting of St. Paul's E. L. Sunday School, held on Sunday evening last, the following officers were elected: Superintendent—W. H. Strauss. Ass't Supt.—C. W. Polvogt. Secretary—J. H. D. Klauder. Treasurer—L. Vollers. Librarian—G. W. Bornemann. Ass't Librarian—Fred Bissenger. Organist—Miss Augusta Lessman. The school is in a flourishing condition, having 12 teachers and a membership of 175 all told. They meet regularly every Sunday at 3 p. m. in Luther Memorial Building.

Criminal Court.

Defendant submitted. Judgment not yet pronounced.

The Democrat who fails to register and vote may have cause to regret it after Thursday's sun has set.

Birthday Festivities.

Kaiser William, the Emperor of Germany, celebrated the ninetieth anniversary of his birth to-day, and in commemoration of the day the Germans, in all quarters of the globe, join in the general rejoicings. In this city, Mr. E. Peschau, the German Vice-Consul for this port, and one of our most respected citizens and successful merchants, celebrated the event by inviting his friends to partake of refreshments, both solid and liquid, at his counting-room on North Water street, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. The table was elegantly spread with an appetizing and substantial lunch, while generous Rhine wines and soothing cigars were conveniently near in profusion. There was a large attendance, nearly all the prominent business men, besides many others, being present. Short patriotic speeches, suitable to the happy occasion, were made and the best of spirits was maintained without question or dispute. Among the speech makers were Mayor Hall, Mr. R. E. Heide, Norwegian Vice Consul, Mr. C. H. Robinson, Collector of Customs, Messrs. Norwood Giles, Thomas Evans, George Harris and Col. Roger Moore. Mr. Frederick Warde, the tragedian, who was present favored, the company with a delightful recitation, and Capt. Dathloff sang a solo, which closed the exercises. Col. F. W. Kerchner was the master of ceremonies, and it was indeed a happy occasion.

An entire new registration is necessary for this election. Register your names then or you cannot vote.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

Wretched Indeed.

Are those whom a confirmed tendency to biliousness, subject to the various and changeful symptoms indicative of liver complaint. Nausea, sick headache, constipation, furred tongue, an unpleasant breath, a dull or sharp pain in the neighborhood of the affected organ, impurity of the blood and loss of appetite, signalize it as one of the most distressing as it is one of the most common, of maladies. There is, however, a benign specific for the disease and all its unpleasant manifestations. It is the consummate testimony of the public and the medical profession, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicine which achieves results speedily felt, thorough and benign. It acts on the liver, the stomach, the bowels, the spleen, the pancreas, the kidneys and bladder, and restores the convalescence of those recovering from enfeebling diseases. Moreover, it is the grand specific for fever and ague.
