Easter Cards.
A large and beautiful line of Easter Cards, plain, fringed and very fine ones in boxes have just been received and opened for inspection at Heinsberger's.

Fire in Pender.
The residence of Mrs. Albert G. Hall, near South Washington, Pender county, together with the kitchen and smoke house, were destroyed by fire a few days since. The house, which was a large two-story frame structure, was more than a century old and was built by Mr. Stephen Sanders, who had a mill on Lewis' Creek near by. The fire originated on the roof, and was caused by a spark from the chimney, and spread with such rapidity that Mrs. Hall and her daughter, who were the only occupants at the time, had time to save only a small portion of the furniture and a little meat. Loss estimated at $1,500, with no insurance.

Wretched Indeed.
Are those who a confirmed tendency to biliousness, subject to the various and changeable symptoms indicative of liver complaint. Nausea, sick headache, constipation, furred tongue, an unpleasant breath, a dull or sharp pain in the neighborhood of the affected organ, impurity of the blood and loss of appetite, signalize it as one of the most distressing as it is one of the most common, of maladies. There is, however, a benign specific for the disease and all its unpleasant manifestations. It is the concurrent testimony of the public and the medical profession, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicine which achieves results speedily felt, thorough and benign. Besides rectifying liver disorder, it invigorates the feeble, conquers kidney and bladder complaints, and banishes the convalescence of those recovering from enfeebling diseases. Moreover, it is the grand specific for fever and ague.

Moulding. Best in city, at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

Review Exercises.

The regular quarterly review in the several Baptist Sunday Schools of the city will take place to-morrow afternoon. Aside from the regular exercises at Brooklyn Hall Baptist Sunday School, the new organ recently purchased by Maj. H. H. Foster, will be formally turned over to that church.

Mule Drowned.

At about 10 o'clock this forenoon a mule attached to a dray at the wood yard of John H. Whiteman, colored, backed overboard and was drowned. The dray at the time was being loaded with wood by a boy, who, standing on the dray, lost his balance and to recover himself gave a sharp pull at the reins which caused the mule to back, and the dray went overboard, dragging the animal with it. The boy jumped off and escaped. A large number of colored men responded quickly to a call for help, but the mule was under water fully half an hour before they succeeded in getting him out. It was the property of Whiteman and was worth about $75.

The Last of Earth.

The obsequies of the late Mr. John C. Heyer were held at his late residence, corner of Fourth and Red Cross streets, at 10 o'clock this morning, and were conducted by Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. There was a large gathering of our citizens, besides the immediate relatives and family of the deceased, in attendance. Many of those present were merchants of advanced years who had known Mr. Heyer in his mercantile career, and thus paid a silent tribute of respect to his many virtues.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies at the house, which were deeply impressive, the remains were conveyed to Oak Dale Cemetery for interment. The pall-bearers were Mayor Hall, Col. F. W. Kerchner and Roger Moore, and Messrs. B. F. Mitchell, H. Schulken, Owen Fennell, E. Peschau and J. R. Turentine.

Death of Mr. Burruss.

It is with deep and sincere regret that we announce to-day the death in this city, at half past 4 o'clock this morning, of Mr. Edwin E. Burruss, President of the First National Bank of Wilmington. Our readers are aware of the fact that a few days since he was stricken with paralysis, while at his office at the Bank, and that this attack, which was slight, was followed by one more severe on Thursday morning, since which he has never rallied.

Mr. Burruss was a native of Virginia, his family for many years past having been among the most esteemed residents of Norfolk. He came to this city very soon after the close of the war and had been a resident here for 21 years. He first opened a private banking house but in a few months obtained the necessary charter and established the First National Bank of Wilmington. He was its first President and has ever since remained at the head of its affairs.

In June, 1878, the First National Bank and the Dawson Bank were consolidated into one management, under the charter of the former, with Mr. Burruss as President and the late James Dawson as Vice President, and shortly after the business was removed into the old Cape Fear Bank building, where it has ever since been conducted.

Mr. Burruss was 57 years of age. He married Miss Elizabeth Northrop, of this city, the youngest daughter of the late Isaac Northrop, who survives him and by whom he had four children, three of whom now live. For many years past he had been a consistent and active member of the First Presbyterian Church, and it is in that sacred edifice that the funeral will be conducted to-morrow afternoon. He was a man of spotless character, pure, honest and upright in his dealings with his fellow men, liberal in his benefactions, a genial gentleman in the social circle, a gentle and devoted husband and a tender, kind and loving father. Peace to his ashes.

Always Giving Satisfaction.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS have always given satisfaction. In fifty years there has been no complaint of them. That is about their life in the United States and millions of persons have used them. There is no doubt that they have established themselves by merit alone. They cure rheumatism, dyspepsia, piles, diarrhoea, liver complaint and fevers, and greatly prolong the human life. One or two at night on an empty stomach, for a week or two, will keep you in good form and tone up the system.

Personal.

Mrs. E. B. Wiggins returned to the city last night from a two-weeks visit to the Northern markets.

Mr. John Taylor leaves here to-night for the New York markets for the purchase of new goods.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ended March 26th 1887, foot up 476 bales, as against 874 bales for the corresponding week last year; a decrease of 398 bales. The receipts for the crop year to date foot up 132,099 bales, as against 95,454 bales for the corresponding period last year, an increase of 36,645 bales.

The Railroad Vote.

The Board of Canvassers met at the Court House to-day and canvassed the vote in the recent elections. That for aldermen is the same as reported by us yesterday. The vote on subscription is now all in and the canvass showed that there were 2,018 votes for the subscription, to 247 against it. The last registration, that made in 1884, previous to the general elections in that year, is the guide. We do not know the exact number registered then but it will be found to exceed the vote but very little. On that occasion 4,485 votes were polled. The majority of this vote is 2,343, and the vote cast for subscription on Thursday is 2,018. Hence, the vote lacks 225 of being a majority of the qualified voters, according to the vote of three years ago. How far the actual list of registered voters in 1884 may have been since reduced by death and removal, remains to be seen. Possibly the measure may have been carried after all.

Criminal Court.

The following have been the proceedings before this tribunal since closing our last report:

State vs. A. J. Nelson et al, riot. The defendants, A. J. Nelson, Robert Jackson, Moses Howe, Joshua Telfair, Matthew Ashe, Isaac Stocks, Hagye Davis, Sandy Swann, Alonzo Durant, Wesley Watson, Handy Robeson, Richmond James, Robert Roan, Jesse Johnson, George Sanders, George Stocks, Philip Hooper, Wm Dudley Peter Evans, Alex. Alexander, I. P. Bowen, Wm. Buchanan, Joseph McNeill and Charles Sheppard, submitted. Judgment one penny and costs. The Solicitor's tax was remitted on the payment of $20.

State vs. Ed. Stanland, assault and battery. The defendant, Ed. Stanland, and H. Brewington and Louis Bryant, his sureties, called and, failing to answer, it was ordered that judgment nisi be entered against them and set aside.

State vs. Chris Swann, forcible trespass. Guilty and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Fanny Davis, larceny. Guilty. Motion for new trial. Motion overruled. Judgment, four years in State Penitentiary.

State vs. Fanny Davis and John Davis, larceny. Not guilty.

State vs. Prince Nixon, forcible trespass. Not guilty.

State vs. Robert Nixon, assault and battery. Continued and defendant recognized in $50 for his appearance at the next term of Court.

Greatly Excited.

Memorial Meeting.

The Chamber of Commerce held a meeting at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the rooms of the Produce Exchange to take action in regard to the death of Mr. Edwin E. Burruss, who was a member of that body. The meeting was largely attended and was called to order by Mr. J. H. Currie, who invited Col. F. W. Kerchner to the Chair and requested Col. J. L. Cantwell to act as Secretary. Col. Kerchner, upon taking the Chair, stated the object of the meeting, which he declared open for business.

Mr. J. H. Currie moved that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to draft suitable resolutions regarding the late Mr. E. E. Burruss, and Messrs. J. H. Currie, Roger Moore and A. G. Ricard were appointed on that committee.

During the absence of the committee Hon. George Davis spoke of the wisdom of such meetings as tending, in this energetic world, to keep people from utter selfishness, as well as being an appropriate way in which to express regard for the memory of the dead. He paid a glowing tribute to the kindly heart and noble virtues of the deceased, whom the speaker pronounced a true friend, a true man and a high minded, public spirited citizen.

The committee on resolutions then returned, and submitted the following:

WHEREAS It has pleased Almighty God to transfer from Time to Eternity our friend and fellow citizen, Edwin E. Burruss, in the midst of an active, prosperous and useful life, therefore be it

Resolved, First, That in his death we bow in submission, yet in sorrow, to the will of Him who doeth all things well, to this grievous dispensation which has bereaved this community of one whose usefulness was attested by his identification with numerous enterprises, both of a public and private nature, and to the success of which his public spirit and liberality has largely contributed.

Second—That humanity has lost a friend whose acts of benevolence were modestly and quietly bestowed, but so numerous that his name will long survive in the memory and affection of his fellow beings.

Third—That one so true to himself and the world and liberal in his business relations could not be less true to his friends and family and his God.

Fourth—That we tender to the family of the deceased our sincere sympathy, and commend them for consolation to Him who is the friend of the fatherless and the widow.

Fifth—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and to the city press for publication.

Mr. E. S. Martin in seconding the resolutions said our city had lost a distinguished citizen, whose life here had endeared him to those who had either social or business relations with the deceased. Mr. Burruss was a man of his word, full of sympathy for the misfortunes of his fellow men.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. J. H. Currie it was resolved that the Produce Exchange and Chamber of Commerce attend the funeral services in a body. The meeting then adjourned.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.
