The reports of the year's hog packing at the west, snowing an excess of about 150 000 nogs over last year, and an aggregate decrease in stocks of provisions March l about equal to 81,000,000 pounds of products, have added strength to provisions. The Caicago cliques supposed to be controlling mess pork and wheat are still believed to be buyers on every break in that market.

Iron continues dull so tar as new orders are concerned, but deliveries on old orders are heavy, and consumption continues active. Advance reports to Bradstreet's show that the total imports of iron and steel for two months of 1887 aggregate 465,000 tons, against 269,000 tons in two months of 1886, a gain of 73 per cent.; in value; $6.-787,000 in 1887, against $4.631.000 in 1886, a gain of 47 per cent. Leading members of the trade here look for a decline in this excessive importation prior to June, with a subsequent revival in prices. Raw cotton is 1 tc. nigher than last year, and ic. higher than last week, on heavy consumption and signs of exhaustion of the crop. New York and New Orleans only have considerable stocks of desirable cotton.

The movement of cotton goods is active, particularly at Chicago and Boston. Prices are tending upward for brown and bleached cottons. Woolens continue slow. Raw wool is steady. with the downward movement checked. Prices are 2@3c. lower than on January Supplies are ample until the new clip. Sugar is firmer and higher on lighter supplies in primary markets and reduced crop estimates in Cuba and
