After banishing beer, the Probibi tionists of Jowa are now making a erusade agains: eider. In Des Moines, recently the Prohibition spies seized a keg of eider belonging to one Jacob Hueglin, and accused him of violating the law in having so deadly an agent of intexication in his possession As it was not strong eiter he believed he was not violating the law in using it But the justice of the peace declared the fluid to be intoxicating, and ordered it to be descroyed. The nead of the keg was accordingly knocked in, and the contents poured in the street as a warning to all other offenders.

Mr. Henry Watterson, the brilliant editor of the Louisville Courier-Jo rnal who has been rather severe in his criticisms on the Cleveland Administration, said a few days ago in an interview published in the Chicago Tribune : "I do no: believe there is the slightest chance of the Democratic party winning neat year unless it does nominate Cleveland. He is the only man that can, under present conditions, carry the party to victory. I don't see how they are going to get around it. They must take him.
