The announcement that Mr. Gladstone, the great English statesman, has been invited to attend the celebration in Philadelphia, in September pext, of the adoption of the Federal Constitution. and that he may possibly be induced to come, will be gratifying news to the many admirers of Mr. Gladetone in this country. Mr. Gladstone has expressed his desire to visit the United States, but has heretolore been prevent" ed by absorption in political and other affairs.

The long strike smong the operatives in the Paterson silk mills is practically ering. over, and both sides are calculating their losses. It is estimated that the dyers lost $150,000 in wages and that the other operatives who were throwa out of work lost $900,000, making more than a million dollars lost altogether by the laboring men as the price of their ill-advised step. The manufacturers and citizens are supposed to have suffered as severely, so that the strike (which came to nothing) has proved an expensive luxury for all concerned.

It is said that the Emperor of Russia is about to join the ranks of royal and imperial authors. He has revised his diaries for the past ten or liteeu years. and has instructed M.
