President Cleveland is said to be saving three fifths of his salary, for use when the rainy day of the proverb dawns.

The London correspondent of the New York Times says: "The preat-est either laughs at Lord Tennyson's latest production or ignores it. Nothing more melancholy could have been imagined that this old man's gratuitous exposition of senility."

Those who ought to know say that the pretty purple inks used on typewriters nowadays are aniline inks, and will fade away in a few years. This is no objection to their use in ordinary correspondence, but it might cause serious trouble in the case of a contract or legal document.

Col W. H. Martin, who will succeed Judge Reagan as Representative from the Second Congressional district of Texas, is familiarly known at home as "Old Howdy." He was a very brave soldier, and tradition reports that on one occasion he made the Confederate Cabinet cry by an impassioned protest against the consolidation of the remnant of his company with others. There were only three men left of the original command, but they had kept the colors which the ladies gave them when they started for Virginia in 1861. "Old Howdy" is a very plain man in dress and speech, and will be one of the "characters" of the 50th Congress.

A new Virginia member of the 50th Congress will seek to have the clerk authorized to insert engravings of all members whose biographies appear in the Congressional Directory. He thinks this will be a great measure, which will pass both Houses with hardly a dissenting voice. The cost of the cuts is estimated at $30 each, making a total expenditure of $5,500. The author of this scheme is said to be the young Labor advocate from the Danville District. The proposition is similar to that of Frank Lawler, of Chicago, at the first session of the last Congress, when he expressed a desire to have the Congressional Record illustrated with engravings of those whose speeches were printed.

Renews Her Youth.
Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouchered for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, only 50c. For sale by W. H.
Green & Co.

A Gift for All.
In order to give all a chance to test it, and thus be convinced of its wonderful curative powers, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds will be, for a limited time, given away. This offer is not only liberal, but shows unbounded faith in the merits of this great remedy. All who suffer from Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of throat, chest, or lungs, are especially requested to call at W. H. Green & Co's Drug Store, and get a trial Bottle

Secretary Fairchild is a consistent Russia is plainly not a pleasant land to live in. There is one redeeming feature about it, however. Say to a Russian girl on Easter Day, "Christ is Risen" and she will kiss you.

There is a big sensation at Pittsburg, and all along the line of the Pan Handle R. R. For a long time past cars have been robbed while in transit and it was at length ascertained that the thieves were among the crew of the freight trains. Many arrests of these have resulted. Nearly two hundred warrants have been issued and nearly one hundred arrests made thus far.
The losses, it is claimed, run up into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Some of the Paris papers announce the death in a little Bavarian village of a Russian peasant who, it is said, drove the sledge in which the First Napoleon traveled from Moscow to the German frontier after the disastrous campaign in Russia. The peasant, who was 98 years old at the time of his death, had treasured up as a souvenir of the memorable event in which he had played so useful a part several pieces of money which had been given to him by the Emperor in return for his services.

The Florida State Legislature is now in session. Lieutenant Governor Mabry is ex-officio President of the Senate. Samuel Pasco was chosen Speaker of the House. The chief interest of the session centres in the election of a United States Senator to succeed Senator Jones. The leading candidates are Ex Governor W. D. Bloxham and the present Governor, A. E. Perry, unless Senator Jones, of Detroit, Mich., arrives. It is reported that Jones has secured rooms, and will make an explanation and enter the race.

Washington now boasts of a man dress-maker, who cuts and fits ladies' garments. The wife of a distinguished German opera-singer, who is now visiting in Washington city, upon receiving an invitation to dine with Secretary and Mrs. Whitney, called at the establishment where the man dressmaker is located. An order for an evening dress was given, and two days afterwards she called, as requested, to try on the dress. She was astonished to find a gentleman assisting her to remove her wraps, &c. Her surprise was even greater when he proceeded to try on and fit the incomplete garment.
In speaking to a friend on the subject, she said she never felt more embarrased in her life but she submitted, under the impression that it was one of the customs of the country.

The dust is something simply fearful.
The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 53 bales.

Only a few straws (hat) as yet show which way the wind blows.

The oyster season has about played.
As a rule few arrive here after Easter.

The gardens are all suffering now for the want of water. Rain is much needed.

Apples are apples now. Sixty to seventy five cents a peck, and scarce at that.

It is beautiful weather and now is about the time to look out for refreshing April shows.

JACOBI'S is headquarters for low prices on Sash, Doors, Paints and Builder's Hardware.

Fishing parties are now in order. In the country almost everybody goes fishing on Easter Monday.

Railroad traveling is dry and dusty with a large falling off in the passenger traffic on through lines, North and South.

We don't know of anything like a big boom in these parts but we do know that lots of new buildings are going up in every direction in this city.

How Is It?

The last number of the Biblical Recorder contained an extract, credited to the Wilmington Star, giving an account of the recent presentation of an organ to the Brooklyn Baptist Church. As the Star published no account of the organ presentation, and as the extract in question is substantially the account published in the REVIEW, we must think the Recorder has made a slight mistake.

A Festive Occasion.

The ball given last night at Germania Hall by the Hibernian Benevolent Society was in every respect a complete success. A large party of young ladies and gentlemen assembled to engage in the merry dance and all were happy with the pleasures of the hour. The Italian harpers furnished good music for the occasion and the dancing was kept up until a late hour, or rather, until an early hour this morning.

Fine Work.

We noticed in the window of Mr C.
W. Yates' bookstore a crayon drawing of a child's head, which was copied and enlarged from a photograph. It is the work of Mrs G C McIntire, of Min-ter City, Miss., and is skillfully executed and a perfect copy of the picture from which it was copied. Mrs. Mc-Intire formerly lived at Point Caswell, Pender county. That she is an artist is abundantly evidenced by the beautiful crayon of which we have made mention.

City Court.

There were four cases for the Mayor's consideration this morning. The first was for disorderly conduct, for which a fine of $1 was imposed. The second case was also for disorderly conduct, and a fine of $10, or 30 days in the city prison was the judgment in this case.
The third was for the same offense, and a fine of $10 or 30 days was the penalty attached to the offense. The fourth and last case was a drunk and down for which a fine of $10 was imposed. We is oppress all the names by request.

Outrageous.

We have had complaint of an outrage upon common decency which was perpetrated at about 7:30 o'clock last Sunday night. A man, evidently intoxicated at the time, began to shout, curse and use grossly obscene language near the corner of Fourth and Dock streets and kept the nuisance up until he got as far South as Nun street, where our informant heard no more of him.
It was at an hour when the church bells were ringing and the streets were filled with people on their way to their respective houses of worship. It is not known who was the guilty party, but we hope that he may be discovered and made to suffer for the outrage.

Interesting Entertainment.

The literary and musical entertainment at St. Stephen's A. M. E. Church, corner of Fifth and Red Cross streets, last night was a truly interesting, instructive and entertaining occasion.
The large and commodious building was crowded to its utmost capacity, the assemblage comprising some of the very best of our white and colored citizens. The music, which was a prominent feature, was under the supervision of Prof. Shepherd, of New Haven, Conn., assisted by the Asaph Club of this city. The selections were good and were given with taste and skill.
Rev Dr. Yates, of Front Street M. E.
Church, delivered an able address, which was listened to with profound attention and interest. Bishop Turner, of the A. M. E. Church, who was present, also made an able and interesting address.

Rupture Cured.

CLINTON CLINTON Co., Iowa, March 26, 1886.

About nine years ago I was attacked with a severe cutting pain in my left side. I screamed at times with agony.
No remedies availed until I placed an ALLCOCK'S PLASTER over the seat of pain. I wore the Plaster ten days, the pain decreasing every day until I was cured. My daughter was ruptured just above the navel when only three months old. She suffered little until she began to walk. The treatment of physicians appeared only to aggravate her case. I procured an ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER and cut it in three pieces. One I applied over the rupture.
It acted perfectly. At the end of ten days I washed the place with alcohol and put on a fresh piece. I used alterwards two more pieces, and after forty days the child was entirely well. I have never found any Plasters equal to ALLCOCK'S. R. W. MEAD.

The Produce Exchange.

The annual meeting of the Produce Exchange was held at their room at to-day, and was called to order by the President, Mr. J. H. Currie. Col. J.
L. Cantwell was requested to act as Secretary. The report of the Secretary was read and accepted, followed by the President's report which was accepted and ordered to be furnished to the daily papers of this city. The report is as follows:

GENTLEMEN—Once more it becomes my duty as President of your Exchange to make an annual report.

Amid all the cares and anxieties that surround our daily lives, we are blessed with the thought, that it is good for us that the Lord reigneth.

It affords me great pleasure to be able to state that the business transactions between our merchants during the past year have been of the most pleasant nature, not a single case of any kind referred to the Arbitration Committee, which speaks well for the rulers of your Exchange, as well as the high moral of your merchants.

There have been six cases referred to the Arbitration Committee since the organization of this Exchange, only two of these within the last ten years.
This of itself should induce every business man in the city to become members. We are glad to note the large increase of cotton receipts over the last year, and congratulate our cotton merchants, that our "City by the Sea" stands in the front ranks of the cotton markets of the South.

Up to the first of this month the receipts of cotton were 132,334 against 95,886 bales to the same day last year, a gain of 38 per cent. This is a splendid showing considering the present crop is short of what it would have been with good seasons.

The receipts of spirits turpentine to the first of April foot up 64,839 casks against 60,738, for the year ending April the first 1886, 4,401 casks increase, which is over 6 per cent.

Rosin receipts 346,539 bbls against 289,164 bbls the previous year, a gain of 57,375 bbls nearly 20 per cent increase.

The receipts of tar for calendar year just ended make 73,600 bbls against 67,043, year ending April first, 1886, a gain of over 9 per cent.

I am sorry to have to report a falling off of the last article on the list of naval stores known as crude. We received up to the first of this month 24, 302 bbls of crude, and the year ending April first 1886, 32,358 bbls, a loss of nearly 25 per cent.

Considering we have been on the wane as a naval store port for several years, it is very gratifying to note the large increase of spirits, rosin and tar.
We are well aware however that the increase we have mentioned cannot last, but while it does last we ought to use our united energy to find something to take its place. That something must necessarily be found in new territory to most of our merchants. The time has been when Wilmington was able to trade with nearly every section of our own State, but we are strangers to the most of our State now.

This is not from want of energy and enterprise on the part of our merchants, but from the division of our territory by the managers of our railroads.

We were at first disappointed that this great wrong would have been righted by the appointment of a Railroad Commission during the last session of the Legislature, but in this we were disappointed.

To witness the way the railroads tought against the creation of a Railroad Commission was, and is, a convincing argument and proof of the necessity for one, and let me urge you to continue the fight until you get a Legislature that will do their duty to the people regardless of free passes on railroads and free whiskey in Raleigh.

It affords me pleasure to be able to mention the fact that your representatives from New Hanover worked faithfully and voted solidly for a Railroad Commission, for which service they are entitled to our thanks.

In this connection I wish to thank the Railroad Committee for the work they have done showing the necessity for a Commission. You have the report of Mr. W. Woodward who was employed by the committee to get up facts and figures showing the freight rates of the different railroads to the most important trading points in and out of the State, likely to affect us. We are certainly under many obligations to Mr. Woodward for this report, and thank him most heartily for his valuable services.

I refer you to the report of the Secretary and Treasurer as to the financial condition of the Exchange. You have not failed to notice in his report that the receipts and disbursements of money are very much larger than the assessment made by the authority contained in your By-Laws.

We have kept posted on the boards of your Exchange every day for nearly two years the quotations of the leading markets of the world by wire.

The money that paid for this valuable information was raised by subscription among your members. While some subscribed very liberally, others refused to pay anything, which makes it burdensome to those who pay.

We would suggest to your new Board of Managers to call a meeting of the Exchange for the purpose of amending the By-Laws so as to enable them to increase the assessments.

By all means continue to take the telegraphic market reports.

You can raise by assessment now about $1,600 and you need about $3,000 per annum, to keep everything in good financial condition.

Let me urge you once more to do all in your power to aid in bringing the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad direct from Fayetteville to this place.

This is by all odds the most important enterprise that can possibly engage your attention.

The building of 80 miles from here to Fayetteville will put you in direct communication with about 300 miles of railroad reaching from the mountains to the sea, and traversing some of the best farming lands of the State, as well as reaching her best manufacturing centres and rich mineral and timber lands, to say nothing of the vast coal and iron mines of Southwest Virginia, together with her wonderful mineral deposits which fill up, or nearly so, the whole calendar known to the mineralogist.

I hope you will press this matter with the energy and zeal that made Wilmington famous in the past.

I hope that work will soon begin on the East Carolina & Onslow Railroad, and let me urge you to sustain with united support the result of the election recently held which was almost unanimous in favor of a county subscription of $100,000 to aid in building this road.

We consider it a source of congratula-tion to you and the whole city that we are to have a free ferry and bridge on Cape Fear and Brunswick rivers—the people of Wilmington and Brunswwick shall so elect. This is a candidate worthy of your suffrage, regardless of any form of political predilections, and one who will reward all those that may come or go across his threshold, after he is elected, and send gifts to those who may be unable to attend, and measure out with unstinted hand equal prosperity to all. I ask for this candidate your hearty support and all your votes.

The work of rebuilding the burned district has been carried on with much energy, and the improvements of the new buildings as compared with the old ones are very marked.

When we will have added to the new buildings recently completed, as well as those now under construction, our new public building by the U. S. Government, our city will then present an appearance that will claim the admiration of strangers as well as the pride of our own people.

The work of improving the Cape Fear river and bar by the U. S. Government still continues, and with marked success. Although the amount appropriated by Congress for the work between Wilmington and Fayetteville was small as compared with the magnitude and importance of the work to be done it has nevertheless been of great benefit to navigation and the commerce of Wilmington and Fayetteville as well as the whole section of country contiguous to them.

The improvement of the river and bar from Wilmington to the ocean, is progressing with satisfactory results.
We hope to see by next December 1887 feet at low tide all the way from here to the sea. When this great work will have been completed, we hope to command the most of the export business of our own State, as well as the Western States who are nearer the ocean through our port than any other.

It is well known to all those who are familiar with the Engineer department of the Government, that the money passing through their hands is honestly and economically expended, and all our citizens ought to feel a throb of national pride when they remember this fact.

I ask this Exchange to take prompt action when Congress meets, to urge them to appropriate the amount of money asked for by Capt. W. H. Bixby, the Engineer in charge, to complete the work on the Cape Fear river and bar at once. It will be economy for the Government to do it, as well as doing a great service for the commerce of your port.

There are so many things, and so many public enterprises, that concern you all, and yet you all cannot give your attention to them at once, that I am constrained to make a suggestion, that I hope will meet a favorable consideration. I suggest that you form a stock company for the purpose of establishing a business newspaper, that will represent the views and interests of our business men, with energy and boldness. I think there is room here for such an enterprise and I am sure you will all acknowledge the necessity.

Your committee have all perfomed their duties faithfully and I thank them for you all as well as the Board of Managers and myself.

It is my duty as well as a great pleasure to again bear testimony to the efficiency of your Secretary and Treasurer, who has discharged his duties so faithfully and well as to be entitled to the thanks of every member of this exchange.

For nearly two years the Angel of life has been the companion of all our members, but "the fiat of death is irrevocable." There is no appeal for relief from that great law which dooms us to dust, if there was, our friend and fellow member, E. E. Burruss, would be with us to day instead of being in the silent city of the dead. We have lost one of our most progressive, enterprising, and public spirited citizens, by the death of Mr. Burruss, and the poor have lost a friend who gave without their knowledge. This must be the kind of charity that called forth the divine distinction, "greatest of the three."

The home made desolate by this great bereavement is enveloped with too sacred a sorrow to mention, save with bated breath, as we commend them to the keeping of Him who alone can speak words of consolation to the broken hearted that stand beside his new made grave.

To day severs my official relations with the Wilmington Produce Exchange, having served the full limit of the time established by custom for President, I retire to the rank of your
