WILMINGTON. N. C.

TUESDAY APRIL 19. 1887.

Entered at the Postofice at Wilmington, N C. as second-class matter.

It is said that the vaults of the Treasory at Washington new contain two thousand tons of silver and forty-eight tons of gold. Their capacity for storage is nearly exhausted, and still the accumulation is rapidly increasing. And yet, notwithstanding, this surplus of riches, the mis-leaders of the Demos cratic party at the last session of Con gress would not allow the people's rep resentatives to even vote on the proposition to repeal the unnecessary and burdensome tax on tobacco, one of the chief agricultural products of Virginia and other Southern States The Democratic masses are all right, but some of their so called leaders are all wrong .-Richmond Whig.

Our colemporary is in error as o this. The Democrats are for on record in that line. The Republicans have opposed reduction and they also have gone on record It is true that the Democratic party were not exactly solid on the matter, alhough very nearly so. The following. which we clip from the Raleigh News and Observer, will show just how large a number of Democrats in the House favored reduction and how many Republicans opposed it:

Let it be kept before the people that be Democratic party in Congress has made every effort to reduce the taxation, which is a burden almostitoo grievous to be borne, and that those efforts have invariably been defeated by Republican opposition Let the figures roying the fact be presented over and over again. Let the blame for the continuance of the unnecessary war taxation be placed where it belongs When the initial step looking to a re duction, that is to say, when a motion was made to consider a tariff bill, June 17th, 1886, the two parties in the Hause divided as follows: For consideration Democrats

Republicans, Aagainst, ... Democrais.

R publicans, 129 That is to say, 85 per cent of the Democrats took their stand on the side of reduction and consequent relief to the people and only 4 per cent of the Republicans Do not these figures speak ouder than word -?

But again. When Mr. Henderson of his State offered in the House on the 3rd day of March, a resolution provid ing for the abolition of the tax on leaf tobacco when sold by the producer to a icensed dealer and for modifications of the restrictions now laid on the distillers of spirits and the producers of fruit brandy, 131 Democrats, of 136 voting, voted aye; while 107 Republicans, of 115 voting, voted nay. The question was on the suspension of the rules for the passage of the resolution and a twothirds vote was required. It was another effort to reduce taxation-internal revenue taxation this time-and it was defeated by the Republicans .-Ninety-six per cent of the Democrats voting cast their votes for the measure. Ninety-three per cent. of the Republicans voting cast their votes against it. What becomes of the Republican pretension to a desire to abolish the internal revenue system? What becomes of MASON & HAMLIN Organ and Piano Co., the Republican pretension even to modity that system? What becomes of the BOSTON. NEW YORK. CHICAGO. Republican promises before the people to reduce taxation? Let the people note the figures we have given and let them judge between the Democratic and Republican parties accordingly. The reduction of the internal revenue ax, and its total abolition as soon as such a thing is possible, is one of the cardinal principlés of the Democratic party in this State and as such is plainly expressed in the last platform of the party. Those who have opposed it--a lew individuals here and there-will do well to consider the almost entire unanimity of the party in the last Congress on this subject.
