WEDNESDAY APRIL 20. 1887. Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C. as second-class matter.

It has been said, and repeatedly, tha Cleveland cannot carry New York State again and that, as a consequence, is romination will mean the deteat of be Democratic party in the next election. It is a noticeable fact that this astate opinion originates with those at distance from the State of New York and is derived mainly from Republican you might be handling me. sources. People are prone to believe hat which they are anxious to believe and hence some Dem-crass have adopted views on this subject without look. ing as close as they might, and ought, derived. The New York Sua is very anxious to defeat Mr. Cleveland in this ampaign and evidently, truly fearing has yet received. hat the job will be a far more stupentous one than it undertook three years go, thinks that the most desperate effort d all should be made to defeat his and sticks at no trifles, such as a due regard for the facts and merits of the case, in seeking to prejudice the party against his hopes of a re election. It should be borne in mind that the Sun sa bad councillor and has proven party than any pronounced Republican newspaper in the country. A lew days since it said this: The fact remains that since 1884 Cleveland gained no Republican votes in New York and he has lost many Democratic votes

The New York Star, the ablest and truest exponent of Democratic princi ples in this country, takes up very band omely this gage thrown down by the Sun. It says: .

We are convinced that the fact is just ne other way. Since 1884 the President nas gained in the State of New York a very large number of Republican votes. while nearly all the Democrats who joined in the Blame-Butler secession would indignantly retuse to take part in similar movement in 1888. So that the President has lost no Democratic coles since 1884 but, on he contrary, rained many. Even those who have become discontented through false representations or personal disapp intnent do not seriously think of opposing he candidate of their party in the coming national contest. There is no doubt a the minds of careful observers that Cleveland is the choice of a majerity of he party in the State for the uomina tion and that he will poll more than one half of the entire vote of New York sen if the prohibition or some other ther movement should put a third andidate in the field. That the elecral ballot of the State will be cast for him is seriously questioned by no Demcrats outside of the little coterie in the sanctum of our luminous contemporary. We put our assertions over against hose of the Sun They rest upon common sense and general observation. The Sun's declarations rest only on a trautic desire to beat Cleveland, and to gratity this personal hostility. We are sorry that such is the plight of our bright neighbor. We would like to see it both Democratic and prosperous, and there are not lacking instances to prove Democratic constituencies Democracy and prosperity go hand in hand.

The magnificent library of the Historian Ranke is to become the property of the Garrett Biblical Institution, of Evanston, Ill, an educational institution of the Methodist Church. With the library will also go many valuable manuscripts and pictures. The library was secured by Prof. Bennett, who was a student of history under Ranke, and the money was turnished by a Western millionaire. Prof. Bequett is now in Europe, and has also made arrangements to secure the complete library of the German philologist, Scherer, for the Garrett Biblical Institute. These wo libraries, containing 25 000 volumes each, are said to be the most complete in their special fields of any in the world.
