Queen Victoria's jubilee is also that of telegraphy, the first patent for an electric telegraph having been issued June 20 1837—a week before the Queen's accession—to Cook and Wheatstone. British electricians propose to celebrate it with an exhibition illustrating the development of telegraphy and telephony.

The colony established two or three years ago in Mexico by the Utah polygamists appears to be growing. for the Mormons have recently bought a tract of 235 000 acres adjoining its site. Eventually there may be built up in Chihuahua a settlement where exiled law breakers from Salt Lake City can find very comfortable shelter.

The writers on the London Times are the highest-paid journalists in Europe. The special correspondents in the various social capitals are given establishments that entitle them to a footing of equality with the diplomatic representatives. In Rome the Times has only recently finished the building of a handsome home for the exclusive use and comfort of its correspondent at that point.

This is the view the Cape Fear Advocate, the colored Republican organ published in this city, takes of the municipal middle:

Our city affairs are about settled.—Some candidates may have been disappointed, but a change in our public officials is sometimes for the best. The Aldermen on the Democratic side took the advice of the Advocate and kicked out of the harness, so our city is as near in the hands of the people as could be expected. We asked for a clean sweep and we have almost got it.

Capitalists from all sections are still enthusiastic over real estate investments in Washington, and in the last week of two some very large transactions in both urban and suburban property have been made. Senator Don Cameron, who is said to have added to his abundant fortune at least $250,000 by lucky turns in real estate there, invested some $50,000 in suburban property last week, buying by the acre and calculating to sell by the foot.

Salisbury's savage onslaught on Gladstone at the meeting of the Primrose League recently recalls an incident of the recent premier's early parliamentary career. Twenty-five years ago Salisbury, then Lord Robert Cecil, made a vicious attack upon Gladstone and wound up by comparing him to a "pettifogging attorney." Upon this there were shouts of "apologize" from all over the house, whereupon Cecil declared he did apologize—to the attorneys.

Don't Experiment.
You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all throat, lung and chest affections. Trial bottles free at W. H. Green & Co.'s. Large bottles $1.

A Sound Legal Opinion.
E. Bainbridge Munday, Esq., County Atty., Cay county, Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."
Mr. D. L. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."
The great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c. and $1. at W. H. Green & Co.'s.

Ger. brig Matilda, Behrens, hence, arrived at Newcastle, Eng., April 27th.

Mocking bird cages of all sizes are sold very cheap at JACOB'S Hdq. Depot.

Superior Court, having concluded the business of the term, adjourned last night.

The storm signal was raised this morning and just as we expected the wind subsided almost instantly.

Rev. T. W. Guthrie, Presiding Elder of Wilmington District, will hold the second quarterly meeting for Israel on Sunday next.

There were quite heavy showers of rain, accompanied by considerable thunder and lightning, last night, after which the weather became perceptibly cooler.

A new schedule is to go into effect on the Clinton & Warsaw R. R. on Monday next, by which our friends in Clinton can come to Wilmington, spend the day with us here, and get back home that night. This is what the REVIEW urged.

The storm last night was general along the line of the Carolina Central Railroad and in some places it was quite severe. A good many telegraph poles were knocked down by the lightning, but we have heard of no injury to person or other property.

The Clinton & Warsaw R. R., 14 miles in length, cost the people of Clinton just $8 000, the cost of grading and cross-ties. Instead of doing the work, however, they paid the value in money. The road is already doing a fine business and will pay a handsome percentage in increased business and accommodations.

Hymeneal.

A few friends assembled last night at the residence of Mrs. M. R. Gill, No. 510 North Fourth street, to witness the marriage ceremony uniting the destinies of Mr. David H. Armstrong, of Asheton, Pender county, and Miss Laura J. Gill, of Petersburg, Va., by Mr. Keen, of Topsail circuit, M. E. Church, officiating.

The thanks of "ye local" are tendered for a generous slice of the wedding cake.

A Word of Caution.

The high winds which have been prevailing for several days past, have been the occasion of anxiety from fear of fires. People cannot be too thoughtful and cautious about fires at any time and especially should they be on their guard during the prevalence of a wind which in any degree approaches the magnitude of a gale; such as we had yesterday. Some, however, will always be heedless, and we hear of an instance yesterday afternoon of a colored woman who had a fire in an open yard. It was almost criminally careless, as had a spark been carried by the gale and ignited a building the result might have been the destruction of much valuable property.

Changes in the Postoffice.

We regret to learn that Col. James G. Burr has been compelled, on account of impaired health, to resign the position in the Postoffice in this city he has held so acceptably for the past two years. The increased amount of work and the close confinement made necessary by the requirements of the position have become too great a tax upon his energies, for there is no let up in this business, the labor being continuous, as is the case, in fact, with every position in the office, from the Postmaster down. Col. Burr is one of our oldest citizens, "native and to the manner born," and has made a competent and efficient officer.

Col. Burr's resignation takes place on Monday and he will be succeeded in the duties of the position by Mr. Robert C. Cantwell, who has been for some time past a route agent. He will therefore bring to bear upon his new duties a previous experience in postal affairs as well as good business qualifications.

The Wounded Man.

In response to a telegram sent yesterday to Clinton by C. I. W. C. Jones, making inquiries regarding the condition of young Mr. James, who was so severely wounded on the 27th inst., replies were received last night stating that the attending physician pronounced the indications as favorable, the sufferer taking nourishment, with mind clear and pulse at 84. We, in common with all the people of Wilmington, earnestly hope that these conditions may continue and that the young man may be restored again to perfect health.

The Encampment.

The next Anniversary of the Wilmington Light Infantry promises to be an affair of unusual interest and brilliancy. It will be celebrated by a three days' encampment, May 19th, 20th and 21st, in the Canaday field, in the eastern extremity of the city, and all the companies of the second regiment have been invited and nearly all have signified their intention to be present. The regimental field and staff officers will also be present, and the encampment will be under regular military discipline. This will undoubtedly have a tendency to bring many civilians to the city and our streets will present a stirring appearance. Aside from the military display, the Cora Van Tassell Dramatic Company will be in the height of their engagement at the Opera House, so there will be plenty of amusement for all.

The important day, with the military, will be on the 20th, and it has been suggested that on that day the stores and places of business be closed, and the time be made a general holiday for our citizens. The suggestion is a good one, and we trust that the day named may be generally devoted to recreation pleasure and attention to our military friends.

St. Stephen's Church.

Passing along Red Cross street to Fifth, a few afternoons ago, our attention was attracted to the open doors of St. Stephen's new A. M. E. Church. Having heard much of the beauty of this building, we yielded to a natural curiosity and entered the spacious vestibule. It is indeed an imposing structure, both without and within. It is a colored people's church; its minister is a colored man, and it was built almost entirely by the colored race. The sexton, who was airing and dusting the church, informed us that not a dollar for its erection had been subscribed outside of the city of Wilmington. The building is large and spacious, the seats broad and very comfortable. The stained glass windows admitted the afternoon sunlight in many colored hues, and cast a soft radiance upon the native North Carolina woods of which the interior is built. Observing small pamphlet-like books lying about on the seats, we inquired of the sexton who informed us that they were forms of worship used in the service. Glancing over the leaves we read a short service somewhat similar to the beautiful ritual of the Episcopal Church, including the Apostles' Creed, the Ten Commandments, with short responses, and several short prayers, some of which were familiar to us. The sexton invited us into the chancel to look at a large picture which was standing upon a frame on one side of the chancel. The subject of the picture was the return of the Prodigal Son, at the moment when the servants, having been commanded, have brought the best robes to put upon him, and a ring for his hand. Over the painting was a text taken from the parable: "For this my son was dead, and is alive again; was lost and is found." Upon asking the meaning, the sexton informed us that the minister would preach from that text and upon that parable the following Sunday, and the picture was to make them better understand his teaching. It occurred to our mind that such was really not a bad method of instructing this impulsive race; enthusiastic in their natures and possessed of vivid imagination, it is not surprising that they should enter more fully into the spirit of the teaching while the portrayal of the teaching story stands before them in life like coloring. Such instruction might be termed a religious object lesson.

Upon some of the windows are illuminated texts, as "In the Lord do I trust," "The God of Jacob is our refuge." The whole building is substantial and appropriate, and will no doubt fill the requirements of its large and prosperous congregation.

Wire cloth for your windows and doors can be found at JACOB'S Hdq. Depot.
