The city was again visited by copious showers last night.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 34 bales.

Brig Edith, Turner, from Boston for this port, was spoken May 7th in lat. 37 20, lon. —

Mocking bird cages of all sizes are sold very cheap at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.

The fishing party which went to the Rocks on Monday night returned to the city at a late hour last night, after a pleasant and successful trip.

Norwegian barque Liv, Ballars, cleared today for Cronstadt, Russia, with 2,164 barrels rosin, valued at $2,800, shipped by Messrs. E. G. Barker & Co.

Cope Fear Lodge No 2, I O O F, will make an excursion over the new railroad to Myrtle Grove Sound on the 7th of June next. Particulars by advertisement will be given in due season.

It was in contemplation, we understand, by the Marshals, to give Mr. H. A. London, the Memorial Orator, a Sound party to-day, but that gentleman was compelled to return to Pittsboro last night.

I O O F.
The North Carolina Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows convened in annual session at Charlotte last night. Mr. R. J. Jones, Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge, has gone to Charlotte to attend the convention, and Mr. Oscar Pearson, of Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, and Mr. W. J. Penny, of Orion Lodge, are also in attendance as delegates from their respective lodges.

City Court.
Lily Elliot, whose front name belies her color, was before the Mayor this morning charged with being drunk and disorderly last night in the Hollow. The charge was clearly established and she pled for mercy, but His Honor thought the citizens were entitled to mercy and imposed a fine of $20, with the alternative of 30 days in the city prison. She now languishes in a "dungeon cell."

There were two parties charged with keeping their bar rooms open on Sunday, one of whom submitted and a fine of $10 was imposed. The other party stood trial and was fined $20 for the offense. From this judgment the defendant appealed.

The Memorial Address.
In speaking of Mr. H. A. London's address yesterday, we can express ourselves in no more fitting terms than to say that it was just what it should have been. It was in every sense of the word a memorial address, carefully and thoughtfully prepared, in honor of those heroic North Carolinians who gave their lives for their country. It was statistical and North Carolina can well afford to go into statistics. It was historic, and North Carolina can well afford to go into history. It contained solid, substantial truths, which cannot be gainsaid, and such as should cause a throb of pride in the hearts of all true North Carolinians. It was a record, in epitome, of the most daring and heroic deeds of a gallant and self-sacrificing host of North Carolina soldiers. The language of the address was aptly chosen— terse, logical and forcible—and it made a deep and lasting impression upon all who had the good fortune to listen to it. Seldom have we heard a speech of like character receive such unanimous and hearty encomiums as have been given to that of yesterday. Its praise is upon the tongues of all who heard it, as well as of those who have read it as it appears in the columns of the press. Mr. London is a highly gifted speaker, with a pure enunciation of every syllable, and a strong clear voice, so that he could be distinctly heard at a much greater distance than some other speakers. He has just reason to be proud of yesterday's effort.

Buy yourself an oil stove if you want comfort during the Summer months. Their cheapness will surprise you at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.

Yesterday's Incidents.

Connected with yesterday's memorial exercises were quite a number of incidents which we think are eminently proper to mention. In the first place, the day was as delightful as could well be imagined. The rains of the morning and preceding night had cooled the atmosphere and laid the dust, so that those who took part in the exercises, as well as those who attended as spectators, were not inconvenienced by intolerable heat or dusty streets, as has generally been the case in previous years.

The floral offerings were beautiful and in profusion. To one unacquainted with our city's floral resources it would seem as if every garden and bush had been depleted for the occasion, but our streets our fragrant with the aroma of numberless blossoms this morning. The display of flowers at the Cemetery was not only profuse, but their arrangement was unique and exquisitely attractive. It is the opinion of all whom we have heard speak of the matter, that the floral display was far superior to that of any previous year.

The tattered battle flag which was placed on the statue of the Confederate soldier has a history which should be dear to every North Carolinian. It belonged to Latham's Light Artillery, of which the late Dr. Henry G. Flanner was captain. This battery, it is claimed, fired the last shot at Appomattox, firing once or twice after the surrender had been made, not knowing of that fact. When the sad news was announced Capt. Flanner tore the flag from its staff, and divesting himself of a portion of his clothing, wrapped it around him, next to his body, where he kept it until he reached Wilmington. It had been in many a hard-fought and hotly contested field, and its battle-scarred folds speak volumes for the gallantry with which it was ever defended.

The vocal selections were given with much taste. The voices were well selected, the music and words were of a high order of merit, and the vocalists showed that they had given careful attention and thorough training to their respective parts, one of the beauties of which was that they were evenly balanced. The vocal exercises were conducted by Mr. A. G. Conoley, assisted by Miss L. Belle Anderson, who presided at the organ.

The instrumental music by the Cornet Concert Club, under the direction of Mr. James E. Willson, was superb. The Club is composed of thorough musicians who take a laudable pride in its proficiency, and will not be satisfied with anything which is not excellent. It is an honor to the city.

The Wilmington Light Infantry, under the command of Capt. John H. Daniel, turned out with fifty men, and presented a genuine military appearance. Every movement, whether in the marching or in the manual of arms, was executed with the precision of veterans. They deservedly received much attention and their fine military appearance and soldierly bearing were the subject of much commendation. This is one of the best—if not the very best—military organizations in the State.—Every member feels a pride in its success, and we are glad to note its continued increasing proficiency in military evolutions.

There was neither accident nor mishap to mar the solemn exercises, although the number in attendance was unusually large. Every feature of the exercises was interesting, and the impressive ceremonies carried many a war-worn veteran in imagination back to those days when in the fearful crush of arms he stood shoulder to shoulder with heroes whose remains are now mouldering in the hallowed Confederate lot at Oakdale; and many a young heart thrilled with glorious pride at the thought of the courage, patriotism, devotion and self-sacrifice of heroic relatives or friends whose life blood was shed for the honor and glory of North Carolina and the Sunny South.

It is Your Loss.
When you neglect to take advantage of the extraordinary big value for little money at SHRIER'S. When you can save $2, $3, $5, and frequently $10 on a suit of clothes. It certainly pays people to investigate, and those who fail to trade with SHRIER are certainly not doing justice to their families. Why then be so foolish throwing your money away elsewhere that you can quickly save by trading with the OLD RELIABLE? And with such savings purchase other necessities for yourself and family. Just think of it and trade with I. SHRIER.

Quick Work.

Pender County Superior Court adjourned last night for the term, having completed all of its business. The most important criminal case was the trial of Andrew Sloan, colored, for setting fire to the gin house of Dr. S. S. Satchwell. He was found guilty and was sentenced to — years imprisonment in the State penitentiary.

Fourth Street Bridge.

The special committee of the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Audit and Finance met in called session at the City Hall at 3 o'clock this afternoon to confer with the representatives of several iron bridge companies with reference to a bridge across the railroad at Fourth street. They had not concluded their labors at the time of closing our report. The following gentlemen represented the several bridge companies: George H. Crafts, of Atlanta, Ga.; the Smith Bridge Co.; I. W. Shipman, New York, the Penn Bridge Co., T. M. Nelson, Chambersburg, Pa.; the Pittsburgh Bridge Co., A. M. Rawns, Dayton, Ohio; the Columbia Bridge Co., and C. E. Hamlin, Chattanooga, Tenn. the King Bridge Co.

A Popular Star.

Cora Van Tassel had a boom all over the South. The following from a Knoxville (Tenn) paper tells of her success in that city:

"Yesterday morning at 7 o'clock when Lieber brothers opened their store a crowd of men were waiting at the door to secure reserved seats for the Cora Van Tassel Dramatic Company's performance at Straub's Theatre last night. In half an hour one hundred seats were sold, and one man kept busy all day selling reserved seats. At 6 p. m. every reserved seat in the house had been sold and the boxes all taken. Long before the performance began last night every seat remaining in the balcony and gallery had been sold, and crowds were admitted to standing room only. About two hundred people were turned away at the ticket office, because no more seats could be obtained. Reserved seats for the matinee Saturday are selling rapidly.

The above will likely repeat itself here and we advise all wanting good seats to secure them at once, as the prices are small and the city will be filled with strangers and good seats will be at a premium. The sale of seats for Monday evening is now open and on Monday the diagrams for the entire week will be opened for the balance of the week and seats can be secured for any evening's performance.

Take care of your eyes. An agency for the LeMare's celebrated Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eye Glasses is established in this place at Heinsberger's.

A Festive Occasion.

Mr. J. G. Oldenbuttel, Chief of the Wilmington Fire Department, was treated to another serenade last night, and it was a tip-top affair, which plainly showed the high estimation of the Fire Department for their Chief. At about half past 9 o'clock the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1 marched in a body to the hall of Howard Relief Fire Engine Company No. 1, where they found the members of the latter Company in waiting for them. Here the two companies were joined by the Germania Cornet Band and several of the members of the Board of Aldermen, and at about 10 o'clock they took up their line of march for Chief Oldenbuttel's residence, the band leading and followed by the Aldermen and these followed by the firemen. Arriving at Chief Oldenbuttel's, the band played two of their best pieces in fine style, when the Chief appeared and cordially invited them into the house where, upon entering, he greeted them with a short but cordial speech of welcome. A most superb lunch of tempting viands, with champagne accompaniments, was immediately served, to which ample justice was done. At the conclusion of the interesting and life-giving exercises at the table, Capt. W. P. Oldham of W. S. F. E. Co. No. 1, addressed the Chief in an appropriate speech, assuring the latter of the hearty good-will of the company represented by the speaker and giving the assurance of their earnest support and hearty co-operation. He was followed by Mr. John Haar, Jr., who spoke in a similar strain in behalf of the Howard Reliefs. To both of these Chief Oldenbuttel responded in felicitous remarks. Other brief speeches were made by members of the Board of Aldermen and others present, suitable to the occasion. The band then played several well selected pieces. The festivities were kept up until a late hour.

Personal.

Mr. M. Bellamy will leave here tonight for New York, on a business visit, to be absent several weeks.

Mr. E. W. Kerr, of Clinton, Sampson County, was in the city to-day, but left on this evening's train for home.

We were pleased to receive a call today from our good friend, Mr. W. A. Johnson, of Clinton, who has been in the city on a brief visit.

Rev. A. A. Watson, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, will leave here next Tuesday night for Edenton, where he will preside at the Annual Council of the Diocese. He will go to Norfolk and from thence to Edenton, arriving there on Wednesday morning. The most direct route, however, is via Rocky Mount and Williamston, and arrangements have been made for a steamer to meet the train at Williamston at 8 p. m. on Tuesday which the delegates will board directly on their arrival there, reaching Edenton the same night or early on Wednesday morning.

The Corner Stone.

The corner stone of Grace M. E. Church, corner of Fourth and Mulberry streets, will be laid at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon with appropriate religious and Masonic ceremonies. The following is the programme of exercises which will be held:

Prayer by Rev. C. W. Goodwin, Anthem—"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord," by the Choir—under the direction of J. W. King, Esq., with Miss Mattie Murray as organist and Mr. James E. Willson as Cornet accompanist.

Laying the corner stone by Mr. C. H. Robinson, Grand Master of the Masonic Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

Music by the Germania Cornet Band. Address by Eugene S. Martin, Esq. Anthem—"O praise God in His holiness, by the Choir, with cornet and organ accompaniment.

Address by Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D. Doxology Benediction.

See JACOBI'S large and fine assortment of fishing tackle. He can surely please any fisherman with his assortment.

Agony is Courted

By persons who, attacked by a mild form of rheumatism, neglect to seek prompt relief. Subsequent torture is prevented by an immediate resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Slight exposure, an occasional draught, will beget this painful malady, where there is a predisposition to it in the blood. It is not difficult to arrest the trouble at the outset, but will high impossible to eradicate it when matured. No evidence in relation to this super blood depurant is more positive than that which establishes its efficacy as a preventive and remedy for rheumatism. Not only is it thorough, but safe, which the vegetable and mineral poisons, often taken as curatives of the disease, are not. Besides expelling the rheumatic virus from the system, it overcomes fever and ague, biliousness, constipation and dyspepsia.

Frank Vitzelly, the artist, was supposed to have perished in the ill-fated expedition of Hicks Pasha. A Syrian Greek who has arrived at Cairo says that among the European prisoners at Khartoum is a "short, stout man, with a full beard, wearing glasses." There is reason to suppose that this man is Vitzelly.

High license exists in Iowa in spite of the prohibitory liquor law. In Keokuk there are fifty saloons in which whiskey, beer, wine and other prohibited liquors are openly sold. The taxed liquors go into the city treasury and saloon keepers pay into the city treasury a license fee of $400 each, making an annual revenue of $20,000, which is expended on the streets and public grounds.

Henry Labouffiere, in a special letter to the New York World, says: "The Queen holds strong opinions on the Colin Campbell case, and I hear that her Majesty declares that Lady Colin has been shamefully treated, and that she will be pleased to receive her at Court. Her Majesty has very decidedly condemned the whole conduct of the Campbell family in respect to Lady Colin; and particularly blames the Duke of Argyll and Lord Colin."

The general estimate of the Chinese character is very low, but a spirit of self sacrifice and regard for their fellow men seem to be marked traits. This appears from the action of the Chinese in New York, who have raised $13,000 for the defence of four of their countrymen who are to be tried at St. Louis on the charge of murdering a Chinese detective two years ago. The prosecution is being urged by a Chinese benevolent association of New York, which also raised several thousand dollars for the purpose.

Bishop H. M. Turner, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and one of the most prominent colored men of the South, in a recent interview with a reporter of the New York Star said that the colored people of the South were very favorably disposed toward the President, and that their friendship for him would undoubtedly be manifested very substantially in 1888. The colored people of the South had tired long ago of Republican promises, misuse and hypocrisy, and that intelligence was causing them to break from party control.

It has recently been computed by an officer of the ordnance department in Washington that the weight carried by a soldier equipped with rod bayonet, rifle and cartridge belt, three days' rations and 100 rounds of ball cartridges and complete "kit" of clothing is 53 pounds 258 ounces; with Springfield rifle, bayonet, scabbard, cartridge boxes and leather belt, clothing and ammunition, etc., is 54 pounds 56 ounces; with Springfield rifle, bayonet, scabbard, cartridge belt, clothing, ammunition, etc., is 53 pounds 15 06 ounces.

The Ex-Express Egonie, says a writer at Naples, bears the traces of great and delicate beauty, almost resembling her age a mystery. Slender, and with a superb figure, she is once to be recognized as a grande dame. Her bright and vivacious eyes, the old fascination and the epigrammatic Her still rosy complexion is admirably preserved, and is owing to the mild climate which renewed the ancient beauty in her hair; her hair, not yet white, still has tints of pale gold.

Excitement in Texas.
Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn head, or raise his head; every body thought he was dying of Consumption. A bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

Dr. King's New Life Pills, Dr. King's New Discovery, Consumption free at W. H. Green & Co's. Drug Store.

The Verdict Unanimous.
Dr. S. S. Nutt, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., writes: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every man has given relief in every case. I have taken six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing. Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellefontaine, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all cases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Buy a bottle at W. H. Green & Co's. Drug Store.
