Goldsboro Argus: The protracted meeting at St. John's Church, in this city, is increasing in interest and in at tendance. Thirteen new members were continued during this week.

Robesonian: Toe stand of cotton this year is said to be fine. Corn, especially the March planting, not so good. So far this month the season has been delightful. - The almost daily rains of $1.20 for hard and $2.00 for yellow dir last week would answer a better pur. and $2 30 for virgin. pose two months, hence. Winston Daily: A few minutes before we went to to press this evening 290; tar, 87; crude, 53 we heard the sharp report of two pistol shots; upon enquiry we learned that the case of Mr W A Whitaker and W S Hay was to be tried for the affray that occurred some weeks past. While Wheat market opened at 85% and the attorneys, witnesses and Mr W A closed at 85% to 85% for July. Corn Whitaker were a-sembled in Justice opened at 41 and closed at 41 for July Grogan's affice, in waiting, Mr W S Pork none quoted. Hay, one of the parties to the case too late to stop the firing of his pistol | 10.54 for September. which went off; the bullet went passing near Mr Buxton's head, but otherwise doing no da mage.

Charlotte Chronicle: Mr. W. R. Hinson, of the Johnston mine, brought some remarkably fine specimens of etteville, Williams & Murchison. gold ore to the city yesterday. The ore was fairly studded with the precious metal and was examined with a good deal of interest to the mining men. Mr. Hinson shipped a portion of the ore to Boston, to show some interested parties in that city what sort of stuff com s the mines of Mecklenburg -- Col.

Alfred Rowland, congressman elect from this district, arrived in the city on the Carolina Central train last evens ing, on his way to St. Louis. He spent the atternoon at the Central Hotel, where he was met by a number of his Charlotte friends. We were pleased to see Col. Rowland looking so well. He was in the best of spirits and is in good trim to enter upon his duties as Con gressman when the time comes. Mr. J. Duncan, an old and highly esteemed citizen of this place, died very suddenly at his home last Sunday morning, from a malignant attack of dysentery. Mr. Duncan was in his store Saturday night until a late hour casting up the business of the day, and went home feeling unwell. Sanday morning, when his symptoms became alarming, his son was dispatched for a physician and Dr. Wilder was summoned, but he died before the doctor could reach him : --- We are reliably intormed by those who have read the opinions in Golorth vs. the Commissianers of Cleveland, and R. L. Mc-Dowell vs. the Commissioners of Rutherford counties, that the Supreme Court has not decided that the bonds are illegal or invalid, but expressly say they gave no decision on that point. All that the court does decide is that the judge below should have continued the injunction to the hearing, while the illegality of the election was being investigated and therefore there was error. No former decision of the court is doubted or overruled. No bondholder. or purchaser of bonds without notice, Nor Lufra 497 tons, Evensen, is in the least affected by the decision Nor President Hulbitz, 3'6 tons, Nellson, and if they are non-residents can easily Br George ! avis, 642 tons, Pitts, entorce their rights in the Federal courts if they choose to select that tribuna!. All these bonds are now owned by such bondholders. It is not decided, either, that the commissioners were guilty of contempt for issuing the bonds pending the suit. In fact, no rights are adjudicated.
