Clear the Way

Without loss of time, when the intestinal canal is blocked up by reason of constipation, chronic or temporary. It should be borne in mind that this ailment is prone to become lasting and obstinate, and breed other and worse complaints. Postetter's Stomach Pills are the best remedy to remove the obstruction effectually, but without weakening or weakening the blocked bowels, a consequence always to be avoided from the use of violent laxatives, which are also the most pernicious of the cheap nostrums which are sold by the credulous and uninformed. The efficacy of experience, and of the medical faculty, sanctions the claims of this pill as a safe and reliable. Not only as a source of relief and permanent regularity to the bowels, liver and stomach, but as a means of removing and preventing kidney and bladder troubles, a distended and ague, it is without a peer.

The dog law will be enforced on and after June 10th. All "dorgs" and "purps" found at large after that date will be taken in out of the wet.

The steamer Passport will leave her wharf at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon for Carolina Beach. Returning the train will leave the beach at 6 o'clock.

Two juvenile clubs, the Wide Awakes, Capt. Louis Meyers, and the Evening Stars, Capt. William Bryce, played a match game of base ball this forenoon which resulted in a score of 15 for the former to 11 for the latter.

Two Myrtle Grove fishing boats were launched through the surf yesterday near Carolina Beach and went out to the Southern rocks. They were gone three hours and one boat brought back 200 fish and the other 190. Nearly all of the catch were pigfish.

The New Yorkers enjoy a half holiday, one day in the week and why not the Wilmingtonians. During the dull summer season no one would lose if they were generally observed. Friday afternoon would be a first rate time and then everybody could go off for a few hours of recreation to the Sound, or down the river or to the base ball ground.

The Rocks.

That favorite resort, the Rocks, is now open for the season, and attention is invited to Mrs. Mayo's card in this issue. The buildings have all been renovated and some noted improvements have been made. The rooms and beds are comfortable, the servants polite and attentive and everybody knows what a good table Mrs. Mayo always sets. Capt. Barclay is also on hand this season with his yachts, and the fishing and bathing and sailing there are of the best. The steamer Louise touches there each day going to and returning from Smithville.

Do Not Disturb Yourself.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS cure eruptions, tetter, salt rheum, blotches, spots, pimples, pustules, boils, carbuncles, ring-worms, scald head, sore eyes, erysipelas, itch, scabies, discolorations. There is nothing more disgusting than a face and neck all broken out with pimples and black-heads. Make the blood pure and all such eruptions disappear. One of two of BRANDRETH'S PILLS taken every night for a month never fail.

Ladies' Memorial Association.

The annual meeting of the Oakdale Ladies' Memorial Association was held on Thursday afternoon in Rankin Hall. The meeting was well attended, and more interest than usual was manifested. A motion was made before the meeting and seconded, that Hon. A. H. Van Bokkelen, to whose deep interest and untiring efforts the Memorial Association owe mostly their success in procuring the noble monument which marks the soldier's resting place, have the privilege of entering the Confederate List at any and all times.

After transacting other business of the meeting the members voted for officers and managers for the ensuing year.

The following ladies were elected as officers of the Association:

President—Miss Hettie James.
Vice President—Mrs. J. J. Hedrick.
Treasurer—Mrs. E. A. Anderson.
Secretary—Miss Kate Burr.

Managers—Mrs. John L. Cantwell, Mrs. John F. Garrell, Mrs. John A. Brown, Mrs. E. B. Wiggins, Mrs. Roger Moore, Mrs. Benj. Jacobs, Mrs. T. H. McKay, Mrs. Josh T. James, Mrs. John T. Rankin, Mrs. Thos. C. Crab, Mrs. Wm. T. Daggert, Mrs. A. L. DeKosset, Mrs. Wm. R. French, Miss Kittie Price, Miss Julia James, Mrs. Gabriel Holmes.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

Officers and Ladies of the Oakdale Memorial Association:

The close of another twelve months brings us together for the purpose of electing our officers for the ensuing year.

Since last we all met, for the third time in the existence of our Association, we have been called upon to mourn the loss of members our little band. Yes, since our last annual meeting, not one only but two of our beloved managers have been called from our midst by that saddest of all messengers, Death! and Mrs. Norman McKee, one of our managers and Mrs. James Hill, an honorary manager, are now sleeping their last sleep in that spot where so often their feet have trod to strew flowers over the graves of those who fell in their country's service. One resting beside her gallant husband, and both so near the hallowed dust of the heroes of the Lost Cause, whose deeds and memory we honor on our Memorial Day, that when the tocsin is sounded for that last great reveille they will come forth, the soldier and the soldier's wife, to meet that reward which is promised to the faithful soldier of Christ, whose law was duty. All honor and love be ascribed to their memory, but the tears we shed are only for our loss; knowing their worth through life, we feel that their names are only transferred to the Book of Eternal Life!

The one called upon almost on her bridal morn, to part with a husband, whose brave and honored name it was her privilege to bear for more than twenty years, has followed him over the river and the patient, gentle life here is ended.

The other, with her noble nature bearing bravely up when the vicissitudes of war called upon her to resign for a time, her equally gallant husband, not to the tender arms of a loving Saviour, but as a prisoner in the enemy's lines. Her gratitude for his restoration shone so beautifully in her unselfish life, so often denying herself to supply the wants of the orphan; ministering with so much affection and tenderness to an old and loving mother, that when she was called to join the army above, the motherly heart was broken. Verily as a tender mother to the orphan, a dutiful, loving daughter to an aged mother, aye, and a sympathizing friend to all in trouble, the name of "Mary Hill" will always be held in loving reverence.

Six brave Confederates have also passed from our midst, and six more Memorial stones, bearing the names of Mr. Eugene Wiggins, Capt. Wm. A. Cumming, Mr. Theodore Eilers, Mr. J. H. Savage, Mr. J. H. Mallard, and Mr. Jno. C. Heyer are added to the many which mark the last resting place of the Confederate soldiers in Oakdale. Since you have honored me with the office of President of our Association, I have had placed seventy-three of these stones. Often, during the time, we have felt uncertain, owing to our small number, that we would have money enough in the Treasury to meet the expenses of Memorial Day, in addition to the cost of stones, but so far we have succeeded. This has, in a measure, been done by reducing our carriage hire, and through some kind contributions from merchants, and a friend who has for two or three years past sent me a contribution of five dollars for expenses on Memorial Day, not forgetting it this year, although so stricken by disease that it was with difficulty that her lame hand could pen the address. I refer to Mrs. O-car G. Parsley. Mrs. Whitehead has also, on former occasions, made like generous contributions.

The Law Party which we decided to have last week I think proved quite a success, having turned over to the Treasurer $76.07, the amount accruing from sales and contributions, and I have brought to-day one dollar more from a dear old friend called to Paradise on that day, and whose last earthly care was that something should be sent to us.

The contributions I am glad to say, were almost entirely among ourselves, for we felt reluctant to call upon a public who know so well that by the small yearly contribution of 50 cents, they could so much aid in a cause that should be dear to the heart of every Southern woman. Who was not twenty-five years ago called upon to send forth a father, brother, husband or son? Can a quarter of a century throw the oblivion of forgetfulness over such a past? Our record so indicates. Our thanks are certainly due to our solemn services on Memorial Day, to those who officiated on that occasion. To the Germania band, and Cornet Concert Club, the Choir who rendered such heart-inspiring music; the chaplain for his eloquent and appropriate prayer; the gifted orator whose carefully gathered statistics of the war recd of the Old North State made one thrill with pleasure at being a North Carolinian, and to the chief marshal and assistants for the decorous order to the Messrs. Parsley & Wiggins for their generous contribution of lumber for the new stand, which we were compelled to erect for the occasion. The usual courtesy and help was tendered by Mr. T. D. Nolan, Supt. of Oakdale Cemetery. I trust that every member of the Association will agree that your President and officers acted as you all would have done in declining to accept the proposal made by the Ladies' Memorial Association of Richmond, Va., to adopt the national decoration day as our memorial day, and in so doing join in death those who in life were fighting one for might and the other for right, the blue and the grey. What truly Southern heart does not revolt at political scheming over the dead—so sacred a thing as our dear Confederate dead who died for Southern homes and graves? After holding their graves in such sacred trust for over two decades, shall we now resign them to the keeping of those who fought them in life? I have brought to the meeting the letter and my reply; also one received from the Light Infantry in commendation of our decision.

This dear friends, I believe, ends my year's record, and at its close permit me again to thank you for the courtesy and forbearance which heretofore has characterized your demeanor towards me.

HETTIE JAMES,
President L. M. Association.

Elegant Testimonial.

We saw displayed in the window of Mr. George Honnet's jewelry store, this morning, an elegant and entirely appropriate badge or medal which is to be presented to Mr. H. J. Gerken by his comrades of the Hook & Ladder Company. There is a bar for the pin at the top, upon which is engraved the name, "H. J. Gerken." Below this are two crossed axes, connected by a shield upon which are the figures, "1857." Suspended from this is a wreath on a golden circle, the latter bearing the legend, "Presented by Wilmington Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, for Fidelity and Promptness, May, 1857." The design was gotten up in this city, while the medal, which is of Etruscan gold, was manufactured in New York. The medal reflects honor upon the company, and it could hardly be bestowed upon a more efficient, active and fearless fireman than Mr. Gerken.

The Magistrates.

The Superior Court Clerk informs us that, while he has the power to declare vacant the office of all magistrates who do not qualify within the prescribed time, (June 9th) he has never yet made use of that power, although there have been magistrates who did not qualify until three months after that date. His rule has been to notify all who have not qualified by that date, to appear and qualify within 30 days, and he will pursue the same course this year. The magistrates appointed for New Hanover County at the last session of the Legislature, are as follows:

Wilmington township—W. M. Poisson and W. W. Shaw, both of whom have qualified.

Cape Fear township—James Cowan and Edward Cobb.

Harnet township—W. B. Canaday and C. H. Alexander.

Masonboro township—B. S. Montford and Benj. Farrow.

Federal Point township—Jacob Horne and J. P. Biddle.

Prophylactic in Sickness.

"Typhoid Fever has broken out here again, but wherever Darby's Prophylactic Fluid has been freely used there has been no fever."—M. B. LANCASTER, P. M., Ed. Central Alabamian.

"The Fluid is not merely a deodorizer, but a disinfectant—a destroyer of the disease germs in an atmosphere which cannot be breathed without danger."—N. Y. Evening Post.

Stoves. Our line of cook stoves includes a variety of standard patterns, embracing the very latest improvements. We will not only satisfy but save money to every customer who buys a stove from us. JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

Take care of your eyes. An agency for the LaMare's celebrated Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eye Glasses is established in this place at Heinisberger's.

Paints and Varnish. Best in city at JACOB'S, and at lower prices than you have to pay elsewhere for more common goods.

Our Advice to You

In buying clothing for men, boys or children, do not allow yourself to be guided by glaring advertisements which promise to sell clothing lower than the Old Reliable. It is simply to draw your attention in hopes of selling you something at a larger profit. Why will men work hard all day for $1.50, $2 or $3, then throw it away when that sum could be saved in from 10 to 30 minutes by trading with I. SHRIRER whom we can recommend and who will deal honorably with you in every respect.
