

THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 23, 1887 NO 148

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

THE BEST FAMILY MEDICINE

J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Home Manufactures.
Attention is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. French Bros. in this issue. The lime manufactured by these gentlemen has attained a high reputation and Rocky Point lime will be found in some of the most substantial pieces of work in the State. If we are not mistaken some of the lime used in the construction of the State House at Raleigh was taken from these mines in the olden days. We do not say that the Rocky Point lime is better than others, but it is equally as good and is a home manufacture, is sold cheap and should be used extensively.

St. James' Church.
The Rector having been called out of the city, there will be no services at St. James' Church on Friday, St. John Baptist's Day, and only the 11 o'clock service on Sunday, the 26th.

A Heavy Quail.
As the steamer Louise was going down the river yesterday afternoon, and when near Drum Shoals, she was struck by a severe squall. Fortunately Capt. Snell saw its approach and hastened to take down the awning of the boat, which he had just succeeded in doing when the wind burst upon them. Had he been a moment later the awning would have been torn in tatters, as the squall was of such severity as to plough deep holes in the water.

At Carolina Beach.
The ladies connected with the congregation of the "Temple of Israel" gave on excursion to Carolina Beach yesterday which was largely attended and heartily enjoyed. There was good music for dancing and a plenty of excellent refreshments and lots of fun until the showers came down to dampen the order of the sport. They returned at the usual hour last night without any accident further than getting wet by the rain.

Lucky Escape.
At about 3 o'clock this afternoon a colored boy, whose name we could not learn, fell from the wharf of the steamer Louise into the river. One of the hands on board the boat heard the fall and ran to the side, and seeing bubbles arising, he reached down as far he could into the water and was fortunate enough to seize the boy by the hair and pull him to the surface. The boy had fallen between the wharf and the steamer, and his discovery and rescue was almost a miracle.

To-morrow Night.
Remember the Concert at the Opera House to-morrow night, for the benefit of the Wilmington Light Infantry. The box sheet is now open at Heinsberger's, and now is the time to secure your tickets, before the rush begins. Prof. Van Lier and Mr. E. J. Thorpe, who have charge of the instrumental and vocal parts respectively, are doing all in their power to make the entertainment one of the best amateur concerts ever given in Wilmington. Prominent among the vocalists will be Miss Annie DeRosset, soprano, and Mrs. Pleasants, contralto. The recently formed singing society have volunteered their services for the occasion and will render some of their best selections in their very best style. Mr. Law W. Woodworth, a good comedian, has also volunteered his services in aid of the entertainment. We hope to see the house crowded to its utmost capacity, not only because the concert will be eminently worthy of patronage, but because we want a rousing benefit for the Light Infantry.

Literary.
Scribner's Magazine for July, which is the first number of the second volume, has been received, and that it is replete with articles of interest, the following table of contents will show: "The Physical Proportions of the Typical Man," by D. A. Sargent, M. D.; "Collection of Unpublished Letters of Thackeray"—iv, (to be continued); "The Return to Nature," by Edith M. Thomas; "Some Illustrations of Napoleon and Times," by John C. Ropes; "Jenny Bascou," by Philip Henry; "A Girl's Life, Eighty Years Ago," selections from the letters of Elizabeth Southgate Bowne; "On an Old Road," by C. E. Markham; "A Great Patience," by E. I. Stevenson; "Seth's Brother's Wife," continued, by H. Frederic; "Silent Sorrow," by Louise Chandler Moulton; "French Traits—"The Social Instinct," by W. C. Brownell; "The Owl," by G. L. Hildreth and "A Perilous Incognito," by H. H. Boyesen.

Our Advice to You
In buying clothing for men, boys or children, do not allow yourself to be guided by glaring advertisements which promise to sell clothing lower than the Old Reliable. It is simply to draw your attention in hopes of selling you something at a larger profit. Why will men work hard all day for $1.50, $2 or $3, then throw it away when that sum could be saved in from 10 to 30 minutes by trading with I. SHRIER whom we can recommend and who will deal honorably with you in every respect.

City Court.
Jesse Whitfield, a fourteen year old colored boy, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct in the neighborhood of Nun and Fifth streets. The testimony developed the fact that the defendant had been in the habit of chasing young girls, and in some instances women and throwing rocks at them, so that it had become almost impossible for a young lady in that neighborhood to go in the street without being molested, annoyed and frightened by the young scamp. He was sent below for 30 days.

A Woman's Discovery.
"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at W. H. Green & Co.'s Drug Store.

For Summer underwear, percale shirts, alpaca coats, brown linen suits, straw hats, ladies' traveling wraps, linen dusters, or whatever you need to keep cool during the Summer, go to Sol. Bear's.

Cape Fear Academy.
The closing exercises yesterday at the Cape Fear Academy ended its fourteenth annual session. Since last Wednesday the examination of classes has been in progress. After the recitation by the pupils of select pieces of prose and poetry, the Certificates of Distinction were awarded by the Principal to such pupils as had passed a successful examination in their various studies.

After a few closing remarks by the Principal the pupils crowded around to bid farewell, for the vacation, to their teachers.

We give below a list of pupils who deserve especial mention, in order of their names:

SENIOR CLASS.
Geo. Howell, F. Harper.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS.
A. Greenburg, Chas. Blomme, E. Manson, Jno Lewis, Jos. S. Hall, C. Murphy, S. H. Chadbourn, Geo. Pessenu, Robt. Cowan, R. Sloan, A. L. DeRosset, Jr., Geo. Southerland, Jno. D. Bellamy.

JUNIOR CLASS.
E. A. McKay, W. Latta, E. David, A. Parsley, Isaac Solomon, P. White, Alex. Hall.

INTRODUCTORY CLASS.
L. Solomon, L. Myers, C. VonGlabn, G. A. Heide, Jno. Wessell, P. J. Thomas, Willie Hedges, L. Cutlar, Em. Bear, H. Bear, Isador Bear, C. Giles, S. Springer, R. Rankin, Edgar Bear.

The enrollment this year is the largest the school has ever had, showing its increasing popularity.

There has been a larger number than ever before of classical studies and a greater demand for higher education.

The school well deserves its success which has resulted from the untiring efforts of its Principal, Prof. W. Catlett.

Why Should Old Men Suffer?
The pains of old age make the path to the grave one of thorns. Rheumatism and kidney troubles seem ever to be their companions yet Alcock's Porous Plasters give certain relief. Mr. Torrance Reilly, of No. 225 Myrtle Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., says:

"I am nearly eighty-four years old, and have suffered from rheumatism and kidney troubles. I have tried numberless remedies, but none ever relieved me as did Alcock's Porous Plasters. I suffer from pain in the lower part of the back, which is constant torture unless I keep these valuable plasters continually on. They are the only remedy my family and self ever use for pains or soreness in the chest and throat."

Headquarters for base ball supplies is at Heinsberger's.

You will find hoes, forks, shovels, spades, scythes, swaths and farming tools of all kinds at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

The New York papers give lengthy and graphic descriptions of the Golden Jubilee of Queen Victoria. Every important incident of her life has been portrayed by them during the past few days.

Mrs Grace Deems has lost the divorce suit against her husband, instituted by her. She did not even get judgment for costs. She will now be come a respondent in young Dr. Deen's suit for divorce.

"A point" as the term was used frequently in connection with the recent coffee flurry, is one one-hundredth part of a cent, this being the smallest fraction in which dealings in options are permitted on the New York Coffee Exchange.

Bancroft, the historian, is now busy at work on a history of the Polk Administration, during which he was Secretary of the Navy. He has not reached that point in his history of the United States, but for personal reasons and particularly because he thinks Polk has not had justice done him, by other historians he will pay particular attention to that era.

Among the visitors at the Vassar College commencement was a graduate who has made $10,000 in a unique manner. Upon her graduation she was promised by her father a dollar for every cent she earned by working at anything. She accepted the offer, and entering a factory, where she obtained six dollars a week, kept on working until her father had paid her $10,000 and broke the contract because his little joke was becoming too costly.

In answer to an inquiry concerning the business of the Supreme Court, Justice Field said the other day: "The condition of the calendar could not be worse. Eight hundred cases are yet unreached, meaning more than two years' continued business. There are only two ways of getting rid of this immense overstock. One is to make three Justices a quorum in all cases not involving Constitutional or international questions. The other is to give us eighteen instead of nine circuits."

An intimate friend of the tattooed man from Maine in a recent conversation said: "Mr. Blaine will not return until after the National Republican Convention. His absence will relieve him from the embarrassment of saying whether he would accept the nomination for President again. Of course, in his absence his friends should insist upon renominating him he could hardly do less than accept the responsibility. Mr. Blaine, I understand, will make a circuit of the globe. When he lands in San Francisco next Summer he will probably receive the news that he has been renominating for President by the Republican party."

The heroism of the man whose only regret on the scaffold was that he had but one life to lose for his country is at last to be fittingly commemorated in New York City, where that one life was taken in 1776 by the British Gen. Howe. Capt. Nathan Hale volunteered for the perilous service of ascertaining the strength and position of the enemy after
