THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XI.

WILMINGTON N. C., MONDAY, JUNE 27, 1887

NO 151

WE will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects (except religious) for publication. The name of the writer must always be placed in the Editor's hands. Communications must be written on one side of the paper. Personalities must be avoided. And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents, unless so stated in the editorial column.

The Swedes of Chicago are going to erect in Lincoln Park a $50,000 monument to Linnaeus, the famous botanist. The monument will be the finest in Chicago, and is to be a fac simile of the Linnaeus statue at Stockholm.

Great complaints have been made about the impure drinking water at Baltimore. Mr. Martin, the chief engineer, says there is a bad taste in the water, which is due to a very small rod which now infests the water. The rods are dying out, and the water will have its proper taste soon.

A cruel book review of a volume of poems is given by the Literary World, which says: The book has a cubic content of 117 inches; it contains 608 pages, comprises (we take the author's word for it) 300 poems, and it weighs 2 pounds 3 ounces—all for $2, with the portrait of the author thrown in.

John H. Alexander, the Ohio colored youth who graduated at West Point last week, is a young man of excellent figure and light yellow complexion. "I expect," he says, "to receive a second lieutenant's commission in the 9th cavalry, where there are colored men. I had not the slightest inkling of my color. Indeed, I think I was more leniently treated by my classmates than some white men. I minded my own business and got along very well."

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Washington have been making a crusade against the tobacconists there who display in their windows pictures of actresses in tights. One dealer has taken a wicked revenge. He dressed all his scantily clad works of art in little skirts of tissue paper. From the smallest to the largest figure they are all clad in white and pink and blue skirts of tissue paper, gathered at the waist, and pasted over the figure from the bust to the ankles. The effect is startling.

A few days ago it was announced that a blind Union soldier of Elmira, N. Y., by the name of Patterson, had received back pension money to the amount of $13,000. It now appears that the whole affair was a gigantic swindle systematically worked up by a set of unprincipled schemers to defraud the Government. A quarrel among the originators of the scheme has disclosed the secret, and a Government official has been sent on to Elmira to look into the matter.

The taint of insanity that pervades the royal families of Europe is assuming alarming proportions. Succeeding the sad case of the Duchess of Cumberland comes that of the Duchess d'Alencon. Oddly, the Duchess d'Alencon was engaged to the late King of Bavaria, who, it is now recognized, was hopelessly mad for nearly twenty years. She is also a sister of the Empress of Austria. The royal family of England are not exempt from this scourge of kings. George III was insane at his jubilee in 1809. His blood flows in the veins of the royal family.

The retirement of three captains of the line of the army brings the number of second lieutenants for the graduates of the Military Academy up to forty. With this number of vacancies twenty-four of the graduates will be appointed as additional lieutenants. It is possible that the star graduates will be appointed as additional lieutenants in the engineer corps. This is one of the questions Secretary Endicott will have to dispose of on his return to Washington City. The assignments are not to be made up for some time, but as the cadets receive pay from date of graduation, the delay in giving them commissions will result in no other inconvenience than preventing some of them from taking a contemplated European trip this summer.

The sixth annual session of the Baptist Congress will be held in Indianapolis, Ind., from November 15 to November 17, 1887. Among the topics to be discussed by prominent speakers and writers are the following: "The organic union of Christendom," "Phases of the labor problem," "Proper function and net influence of the news papers of to-day," "Improvements in methods of theological education," "Woman's work in the Church," "Proper attitude of the Church towards amusements," and "The sin of covetousness." The Indianapolis committee will provide entertainment for all speakers and writers on the programme, representatives of the Baptist press of the country and officers of the general committee.

Some of the evil results of the big land boom at Los Angeles, Cal., are beginning to be felt by property owners. Last year Los Angeles County was assessed at $40,000,000. This year, it is said, the assessment will be $140,000,000. To pay taxes on such an assessment will bankrupt some of the big landholders and will force small speculators out of the market.

A Multitude of Ailments
The ailments which affect the kidneys are both obstinate and dangerous. To their prevention Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is well adapted. The stimulus which it lends to the action of the kidneys when they are lethargic, serves to counteract a tendency in them to lapse, first, into a state of periodical inactivity, and afterwards into one of post-renal disease which is on a par with their delicate integuments, such as the blood and excretory organs. A double purpose is served by this cure. It promotes the action of the kidneys, and expels impurities from the blood which have no natural channel of outlet, except those organs. Constipation, biliousness, fever and ague, rheumatism and dyspepsia are also remedied by the medicine through its action and wise scope.

The Columbia Base Ball Club arrived in the city this morning and is stopping at the Parcell House.
The Second Presbyterian Church Sunday School will give an excursion to Lake Waccamaw next Thursday.
Dog Collars. Large assortment just received. Can buy a nice collar from 25 cents up, at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

The street hands are busy in the suburbs of the city fixing up sidewalks and putting down sawdust in the streets.
Go to Sol Bear's and buy a Gossamer and some elegant Bath Towels, then go to Carolina Beach and—take a surf bath.

A piece of a gold chain with a locket attached has been lost. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at Mr. Huggins's jewelry store.

Paints and Varnish. Best in city at JACOB'S, and at lower prices than you have to pay elsewhere for more common goods.

The health officers are determined that no spoiled fish shall be offered for sale in this market. Another lot of unsound fish were sent out of market Saturday Good.

Only two cases of disorderly conduct claimed the Mayor's attention at his levee this morning, one of which was fined $20 or 30 days, and the other $10 or 20 days below.

The Cotton Factory in this city, has commenced manufacturing seersucker, and is succeeding admirably. We learn a dyeing establishment is talked of in connection with the mill.

Mr. Samuel Bear, Sr., advertises in this issue of the REVIEW that he wishes to purchase a large quantity of wool, beeswax and hides, for which the highest market price will be paid.

Messrs. Collier & Co., auctioneers, will, commencing at 10 o'clock, Wednesday, June 29th, sell at their sales rooms a large assortment of goods, such as is found in a first class millinery establishment. See ad.

Carolina Beach. Keep cool and remember that the headquarters for bathing suits is at the Wilmington Shirt Factory. Suits made to order Ladies' a specialty. J. ELSBACH, Prop., 27 Market street.

"Where can I go to buy what I want?" "What do you want? Well, whatever you want, whether Matting, Towels, Trunks, Gossamer, Hammocks, Straw Hats or Summer Clothing, you can save money by buying at Sol Bear's."

American flags, muslin flags on sticks, Chinese lanterns, paper caps, pistols and caps for same, have just received a large assortment. Everybody who wants to make himself happy on the Fourth of July can be supplied at Heinsberger's.

Those who were wishing for rain a few days ago are now praying for it to cease. We are never satisfied.

Pianos and organs can be bought cheaper at Heinsberger's than at any other house in the State.

The changeable weather is causing a great many persons to complain of colds, but otherwise the health of the city is good.

Take care of your eyes. An agency for the LeMare's celebrated Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eye Glasses is established in this place at Heinsberger's.

The slaughter of the canines still proceeds. About one hundred of them have been made "to bite the dust," but the howling at night is not perceptibly less.

Mr. L. C. Lineberry at 117 Front street, says it pays to advertise. Read his ad. in another column and see if it will not pay you to buy some of the articles he advertises.

The Steamer Fassport will leave her wharf at 8 o'clock, three evenings this week—Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday—on moonlight excursions to Carolina Beach. A pleasant trip will be afforded on each occasion.

Indications.
For North Carolina, local rains and slight change in temperature.

Errata.
In the communication of "Ye Ancient Days," published in last Saturday's issue, several errors occurred, which we correct as follows: For King Alexis read Alexis, for Holloway and French read Hathaway & French, for Capt. C. B. Tavis read Capt. C. B. Taws, for Margarita read Marietta.

From Southport.
There are seven vessels now at Southport and up.

The German barque Erna, arrived yesterday and went into quarantine.
The Revenue Cutter Coifax arrived from Morehead City yesterday afternoon.

A Lilliputian.
We learn that there is living at Town Creek bridge, in Brunswick county a colored boy, 9 years old that weighs exactly 20 pounds. The gentleman who weighed him has a cat that pulls down the beam at 14 pounds. Two curiosities, that Barnum would no doubt like to get hold of.

Election of Officers.
At the annual meeting of the Brooklyn Baptist Sunday School, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
Superintendent—J. W. Taylor
Asst. Superintendent—Z. E. Murrill
Conductor of Music—Majior H. H. Foster.
Secretary and Treasurer—N. Jenkins.

Boil the Water.
Reports continue to come in, almost daily, of a serious and frequently fatal epidemic of dysentery in several counties in the State. In the absence of definite information of the cause of the sickness, it is suggested that the local newspapers urge upon the people of the counties where they are published the adoption of the simple precaution of boiling the water used for drinking, and even for cooking purposes. Aside from indiscretions in diet, the affection in question is perhaps oftenest caused by impurities in the drinking water, and boiling the water is the only means of purifying it that is within the reach of most families. It is unquestionable that many lives would be saved in the affected districts by the adoption of this simple and inexpensive precaution.

Nearly an Accident.
Mr. Barksdale, the Wilmington agent of the Standard Oil Co., who came so near being drowned while bathing in the surf at Wrightsville Sound on Saturday last, we are pleased to learn, has quite recovered from his battle with the waves and is all right again.

We learn that a young gentleman who went down to Carolina Beach on Friday evening with the W. L. I. and who swam out considerable distance over the reef experienced great difficulty in reaching shore, on account of the rapidity of the receding tide. So exhausted was he when he neared the shore, to use his own language "a huge wave took me up, and wiped the beach up with me." Bathers should be careful and not venture out too far, especially when the tide is running out.

Are you going to build, repair or paint? Then buy your material from JACOB'S Hdw. Depot. He will supply you with the best and save you money.

Strawberries.

The N. Y. Star in speaking of the last strawberry crop, has the following to say in regards to the Messrs. Westbrook of Faison, N. C.:

"The latest propagation came from Faison, N. C. this season, which bears the name of Westbrook, being originated by the well-known nurseryman, J. S. Westbrook of Shortleaf. This is superior to and will succeed all others. Millions were transplanted this Spring, and by next season the Westbrook will be all the rage."

Real Estate Investment Co.

The Real Estate Investment Co., of this city has been organized and is ready for business. At a meeting of the stockholders the following named gentlemen were elected directors of the corporation: Chas. M. Steadman, T. Wright Meares, Jno. D. Ballamy, Jr., H. M. Bowden, R. W. Hicks, A. David, W. I. Gore, E. G. Barker, Geo. R. French, Jr. Subsequently, at a meeting of the directors, C. M. Steadman was elected President, H. M. Bowden, Vice President, and F. L. Meares Secretary and Treasurer.

Base Ball.

The Columbia and the Wilmington Base Ball teams are, as we go to press, crossing bats at the grounds of the latter in this city, and a close and exciting game is expected. The teams are said to be very evenly matched and each one will no doubt do its level best to "shoot out" the other if possible. The rain during the day and up to an hour of the commencement of the game, we fear has materially interfered with the attendance. Another game will be played to-morrow evening when we hope they will have fair weather and a large crowd to witness the interesting game.

Effects of Overshading.

The following in regard to two men shade around our dwellings is an extract from an article by Dr. Parker, in the Saxilianian:
"Houses overshadowed are not healthful, and too many trees near sleeping living-rooms exercise a very injurious influence. A soil loaded with roots and densely shaded is unfit for man to live upon constantly, and is certainly no place a permanent house. The air entering the bed-rooms and living-rooms from such surroundings is chilly and dead, and is not at all nutritious as it should be. Such an atmosphere cannot bring health, but is, on the contrary, very apt to be productive of sickness, and even death, especially among children and invalids. Trees preventing the incoming of God's sunshine into our homes should be speedily cut down and carried away, and the soil would be allowed some chance to dry, or rather one might truly say, "to breathe." The earth, to be healthy, needs, just as our bodies need, contact with the warm, dry air, and the life giving rays of the sun. As man pales, sickens and dies without the blessing of sunshine so, too, the earth dries and becomes unfit for even the feet of man. The importance of healthy soil, about our homes must be more carefully considered in studying the laws of health."

Celebration of St. John's Day at the Oxford Orphan Asylum—Most Worshipful Grand Master of Your City, C. H. Robinson, and Jacob I. Macks Present.

OXFORD, N. C., June 24, 1887. (Special Cor. Daily Review)
This has been a gala day in old Oxford and one long to be remembered. At an early hour in the morning people from every section of the country began to pour in, and by 11:30 o'clock, when the Masonic procession moved towards the Asylum, the streets were well crowded and thousands at the Asylum securing positions to hear and see. On arriving at the Asylum the Masons were met by the children from that institution, formed in double ranks, when the Masons passed through their lines, headed by the M. W. Grand Master. This being done the Masonic fraternity opened rank and the children ranks and the orphans passed through their lines into the spacious chapel of the Asylum, followed by the Masons.

The exercises were opened with prayer, by Rev. Mr. Hester. After one or two beautiful pieces sung by the orphans, the most worthy Grand Master C. H. Robinson delivered a short but most appropriate address, stating in the outset that Mr. Eugene Martin of your city who was the orator on the occasion had been prevented by pressing engagements, and while the people of this section would have been very glad to have heard your silver tongued orator, Mr. Martin, there were no regrets that they had so able a substitute on the occasion. After this address the children sang a most beautiful anthem when your townsman, always ready when pressed into services, was introduced and J. I. Macks, Worshipful Master of Old St. Johns Lodge No. 1, delivered a very chaste and appropriate address for fifteen minutes, which while it was impressive was nevertheless most excellent as was evinced by the frequent applause he received. This was followed by another piece sung by the orphans, and received a round of applause as all of the sweet music did.

WE GIVE A NIKETSK STRAP with each Trunk bought of us a choice stock of nickel and X.C. brass just received which we guarantee to sell cheaper than any one in the city. A job lot of Curry Combs at your own price. FENNEL & DANIEL, Horse Milliners, 108, Front st.

Does it Pay to Advertise?

OF COURSE IT DOES.
IN ADDITION TO THE HANDSOMEST line of China, Glass, Queensware, Lamps, &c., which has ever been offered to the trade, I have just received a large and fine assortment of Wood and Willow Ware, consisting in part of the Juniper Water and Faerch's Pails, Tubs, Bowls, and Four Urns, baskets of all kinds, Door Mats, Scrub and Backing Brushes, and the best quality of Brooms ever offered here. Call and examine.

The marshal then introduced Professor Gannaway of Trinity College who spoke for a few moments, expressing his highest gratification on being present on such an interesting occasion. After conclusion of another very beautiful anthem by the whole school of orphans, the Rev. Dr. Dixon the Superintendent of the Asylum gave some very encouraging statements about the Asylum, saying he now had 205 children in his family. The Grand Lodge of North Carolina showed great wisdom and good judgment in selecting Dr. Dixon to preside over the Asylum. I know I but echo the hearty sentiment of every person present to day when I say that no other man in the whole State could fill the bill half so well, and they might have searched the whole United States without finding his superior or equal, and it is only necessary to see these little orphans to convince your of the truth of my statement.

Here a recess was taken for about two hours, to give the visitors a chance to inspect the various buildings and the magnificent vegetable garden, the Industrial School and other places of note and interest.

At the Industrial School, we were shown shoes made by the boys after a training of only six weeks, and experienced workmen pronounced them as well done as any they ever saw, and that they would sell at retail for at least $2. They were boys' shoes.

After all had lured sumptuously repaired again to the Chapel where we listened to several most charming pieces of music by the whole school, and quartettes and trios by the more advanced children. A most excellent address of about ten minutes was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Jenkins of the Female Seminary of Oxford. The most worthy Grand Master here took occasion to congratulate the audience, which was packed up stairs and down upon their good fortune in being present, and paid a high and most deserving compliment to the worthy Superintendent of the Asylum, Dr. Dixon. After the benediction by the Rev. Mr. Hester the crowd dispersed. While the attendance of Masons from a distance was very small, the Lodges from the surrounding country were very well represented. This is a noble work and should be fostered by every true North Carolinian.

Our Advice to You

In buying clothing for men, boys or children, do not allow yourself to be guided by glaring advertisements which promise to sell clothing lower than the Old Reliable. It is simply to draw your attention in hopes of selling you something at a larger profit. Why will men work hard all day for $1.50, $2 or $3, then throw it away when that sum could be saved in from 10 to 30 minutes by trading with I. SHRIER, whom we can recommend and who will deal honorably with you in every respect.
