

SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID. One year $4.00. Six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.00. One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Advertisers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The New York Star's Grant Monument Fund now amounts to about $4,000 about one-third of which is yet unpaid. It swells slowly, but surely.

On Monday, at Alexandria Park, near Leander Temple, the American bicyclist, made the best time on record for a quarter of a mile against a time, riding the distance in 37 1/5 seconds. Woodside tried, but failed to lower the record for five miles.

Mrs. James Brown Potter produced "Civil War" at the Gaiety Theater, in London, on Monday night, before a large and brilliant audience, including the Prince and Princess of Wales, the King of Greece and many other persons. Mrs. Potter showed marked improvement over her previous histrionic efforts, and was well supported by Kyrie Balow and Amy Rosville Fernandez.

Victor Hugo relates in his posthumous volume, "Choses Vies," that when Talleyrand died the physicians embalmed his body, and, having finished their task placed on the table the brain which had originated so many thoughts, had inspired so many mortals, erected so many buildings, led two revolutions and deceived twenty kings. After they had left, a servant entered and saw the brain. "They have forgotten something," he exclaimed, took the brain and threw it into the gutter "Finitis terrum."

The Greenleaf correspondent of the Philadelphia Record writing about Adjt. Gen. Drum, who was born in Westmoreland County, Pa., says: "His father, Simon Drum, was Postmaster there for about fifty years, and his grandfather, Simon Drum, Sr., was a leading citizen of Greensburg, and a pillar in the Reformed Church, from its organization in 1782. The Drums are of German or German Swiss stock, like a large portion of Westmorelanders, whose ancestors were pioneers in Western Pennsylvania before the war of the Revolution."

The Feast of Roses, one of the most charming celebrations of the month of roses, took place in Southern Italy lately. Churches were decorated with wreaths of roses, the very walls being covered with them and the images of the Madonna being decorated with all sorts of roses. The priests in procession were followed by acolytes, bearing each a silver salver piled with roses. The worshippers held bouquets of roses. Roses were blessed by the priests and distributed among young and old, who crowded forward to possess something beautiful as well as blessed.

When Amos Cummings and Joe Howard were young reporters both were assigned to the funeral of a prominent man where reporters were rigorously excluded from the church at the request of a relative of the deceased. Neither knew that the other had the funeral to write up. Cummings knew the undertaker, and got him to permit him to be one of the chief mourners. When Cummings got in the church he was surprised to see Howard opposite himself next to a bishop and dressed as an Episcopal clergyman. Each thought he had a "beat" on all the other papers till then.

A conference was recently held in London to consider the advisability of forming a National Prohibition party in Great Britain. The hundred or so delegates who were present were unanimous in believing that the time had come for organizing such a party, but its proceedings were hardly noticed by the great metropolitan journals. No people of any prominence attended the conference, with the possible exception of Mr. Axel Gustafson, who is busy agitating this question in England. A religious journal, the Christian Commonwealth, is vigorously advocating prohibition for Great Britain.

Some of the Baltimore politicians are in a big hole, as the following dispatch will show: In the criminal court to-day Judge Duffy sentenced Charles L. Owens, Isaac Waters, John Braden, John B. Sumner and Wm. J. Byrne, judges and clerks of election in the First ward, to two years each in jail. James H. Hamilton, judge of election in the Eighteenth ward, was sentenced to two years in jail and to pay a fine of $1,000. Henry Heintzler forfeited his bail and did not appear for sentence. All of them were convicted of fraud in the last municipal election. The sentence has created consternation among ward politicians. There are several more to be tried.

You will find hoes, forks, shovels, spades, scythes, swaths and farming tools of all kinds at JACOBI'S Hdq. Depot.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
Wrightsville, N. C.
Palmetto Railroad Co.
F. C. MILLER—Garden Seed
C. W. YATES—More New Books
HEINSBERGER'S—Pianos and Organs
A. A. BROWN & CO.—Commission Merchants
MILLER & NESTLIE—Kendrick's Medical Discovery

It was cool enough this morning, June 29th, 1887, for blankets.

Dog Collars. Large assortment just received. Can buy a nice collar for 25 cents up, at JACOBI'S Hdq. Depot.

The wind has hung out in the East all day and sundry projected fishing parties have as a consequence been hinged up.

Go to Sol. Bear's and buy a Towel-mer and some elegant Bath Towels, then go to Carolina Beach and take a surf bath.

It was too cool last night for the projected moonlight excursion to Carolina Beach and hence it was abandoned. It will probably be a lovely time for it tonight.

Ger barque Elizabeth, Rotgers, cleared to-day for Fleetwood, England, with 1,650 casks spirit turpentine and 770 barrels rosin, valued at $26,903.46, shipped by Messrs Williams & Merchison.

Some needed repairs are being made to the gutter on the North side of Market street, between Front and Second. Now dig up the grass growing there and let the next rain-flood have fair play.

We saw this morning a gentleman from the upper part of Bladen county, near the river, and he says that the crops there are beginning to suffer for the want of rain. We have had enough and to spare here.

American flags, muslin flags on sticks, Chinese lanterns, paper caps, pistols and caps for same, have just received a large assortment. Everybody who wants to make himself happy on the Fourth of July can be supplied at Heinsberger's.

Carolina Beach. Keep cool and remember that the headquarters for bathing suits is at the Wilmington Shirt Factory. Suits made to order. Ladies' a specialty. J. ELSBACH, Prop., 27 Market street.

Indications.
For North Carolina, fair weather, and slight changes in temperature.

Base Ball.
The game yesterday between the Wilmingtons and Columbias resulted in favor of the home team. There was a good attendance on the grounds, although but little interest was attached to the playing. The score stood, 17 for Wilmington to 9 for Columbia.

City Court.
Maken Wright, white was before the Mayor this morning, charged with being a nuisance and a vagrant. He was fined $10, in default of the payment of which he was required to leave the city within 24 hours.
E. Blizzard, white drunk, and down, was fined $10 with the alternative of 20 days.
Julia Murray, colored, drunk and down, $10 or 20 days.

For Wrightsville.
Capt. E. W. Manning and Mr. W. H. Stokely have made some admirable arrangements for parties desiring to visit Wrightsville Sound and the beach. Wagonettes will leave the city three times each day, and the fare for the round trip is only 65 cents.
In addition to this they have arranged to run their boats on a regular schedule to the beach at a low rate, and have provided bath houses, towels, etc., for surf bathing. For particulars see ad. in this issue.

The Orphanage Association.
The third annual meeting of the Orphanage Association, at Thomassville, will be held at that place on the last Wednesday in July. Double exercises will be conducted, Rev. C. B. Justice will preach a sermon in the arbor at 11 a. m., and Hon. J. C. Scarborough to deliver an address in the chapel at the same hour. At 3 p. m. Gov. A. M. Scales and Rev. J. K. Connolly will deliver addresses in the arbor, and at the same time a business meeting of the Orphanage Association will be held in the chapel, conducted by the president, Rev. John Mitchell, D. D. Mr. J. H. Mills, the general manager, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend.

Knights of Pythias.

At the regular Convention of Stone-wall Lodge, No. 1, K. of P., held on Monday evening, the 24th inst. the following officers were elected for the ensuing term, viz:
C. C.—D. F. Barnes.
V. C.—C. H. Gatzler.
Prel.—E. B. King.
Mat. A.—G. A. Peterson.

These officers, together with the appointed officers will be publicly installed on Thursday evening, July 7th, at Castle Hall, on South Front street.

Paints and Varnish. Best in city at JACOBI'S, and at lower prices than you have to pay elsewhere for more common goods.

For the Beach.
The wind will probably get around to the South to-night and to-morrow will, in that case, be just splendid for a trip to Carolina Beach. This can be accomplished under the auspices of the ladies of Grace M. E. Church, who will give an excursion to the Beach on the Passport. Refreshments will be provided. All you will have to do will be to take along your best girl and your bathing suit, buy your tickets, get on the boat and trust to Providence and John Harper.

The Messenger.
The Wilmington Messenger appeared this morning in its first issue. It is 8 pages, aggregating 48 columns, 31 columns of which is reading matter and commercial news. The paper is printed in bourgeois, minion and nonpariel type and makes a very handsome appearance. It starts out under very favorable auspices and with every prospect of a successful career. We welcome Bro. Bonitz and the gentlemen of his staff to our city by the sea and trust that their lines here will fall in pleasant places.

Southern Convocation.
We copy this from the Goldsboro Argus, premising that we do not think any of the clergy from this city, except the Bishop, were in attendance:
The Southern Convocation of the Diocese of East Carolina will meet in St. Stephen's Church on Wednesday—the Festival of St. Peter, and Thursday the Bishop will preside. The public services will be at 11 o'clock in the forenoon and 8 in the evening of those two days. Should other services be arranged they will be duly announced. The preachers are expected to be the Rev. Dr. Carmichael of St. John's, Wilmington, the Rev. Messrs. Lewis of St. James', Wilmington, V. W. Shields, of Christ's Church, Newbern, and Israel Harding, of St. Mary's, Kingston.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

Prof. Noble.
This week's Raleigh State Chronicle is an educational issue. Among other matters of interest it publishes spirited portraits of a number of prominent pedagogues in this State and among the list is a likeness of our genial and accomplished friend, Professor M. C. S. Noble, Superintendent of the Graded Schools in this city, which is not, by the way, very flattering. The Professor is not exactly an Adonis, but he is by long odds a better looking man than is presented in the picture of him in our contemporary. An interesting sketch of his life is appended, which, though brief, is more true to nature than is the (in this instance literally) counterfeit presentation of him. The Chronicle says:

Mr. Marcus Cicero Stevens Noble is a native of Franklin county and was raised in the great county of Johnston. The son of Capt. A. M. Noble. He was a pupil of Rev. W. B. Harrell and Prof. John C. Scarborough; afterwards became a pupil at Bingham's School; completed the Freshman year at Davidson College, taking 100 on Latin; taught a year at Bingham's; went to the University where he graduated in 1879; taught three years at Bingham's and commanded the cadets, obtaining the military title of "Captain" in 1882 he was elected Superintendent of the Wilmington public schools, the best paying position in the public school work in the State. For three years he has been Superintendent of the Newton Summer Normal School, to which position he has been re-elected this year.

Mr. Noble is sui generis. He is smart and bright, full of rollicking fun and quaint humor, generous to a fault, thinks quickly and correctly—and is in a word, a man. The writer was recently in Selma, where Mr. Noble was raised. The estimation in which he is held in his "home" town (so we heard a gentleman say) negatives the maxim that "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country."

In 1885 Mr. Noble was married to Miss Alice Yarbrough, who had been for several years a teacher in the Wilmington school. Though settled in life he is as young in spirit as ever, and his wife is fully in sympathy with his life work.

Personal.

Hon. A. H. Van Bokkelen is at the Warm Springs, in Madison county. Mr. John J. Conoley, formerly of this city, but now of Brunswick, Ga., is here on a brief visit.

Messrs. B. G. Empie and James Dolan have found a copartnership for handling the fleecy staple next Fall. They are both clever gentlemen and good business men and we hope they will score a big success.
Mr. William A. Johnson, of Clinton, is here with his wife. They have been spending several weeks at Capt. Manning's place at Wrightsville. Mrs. Johnson's health requiring a sojourn on the sea coast.

Mr. J. Hal Boatwright has purchased the interest of Mr. Gordon in the insurance agency of Jno. W. Gordon & Smith. Mr. Boatwright's interest in the firm begins July 1st but he will remain at his present position in the First National Bank which he has filled for the past 15 years, until August 1st.

Hon. A. M. Waddell is continually receiving requests to make speeches and deliver addresses at various points. He is just back from Morehead, where he addressed the Teachers' Convention, and on his return found an invitation to make a little spread-eagle speech at a Fourth of July celebration at Fayetteville, which we are sure his ardent patriotism will compel him to accept.

"Where can I go to buy what I want?" "What do you want?" Well, whatever you want, whether Matting Towels, Trunks, Gossamers, Hammocks, Straw Hats or Summer Clothing, you can save money to buy at Sol Bear's."

A Multitude of Ailments.
The ailments which affect the kidneys and bladder are so numerous, that merely to name them would fill a space far outrunning the limits of this article. Suffice it to say, that they are both obstinate and dangerous. To their prevention Heintzler's Stomach Bitters is well adapted. It stimulates which it leads to the action of the kidneys when they are lethargic serves to counteract a tendency in them to lapse, first, into a state of paralysis, and afterwards into one of positive organic disease which so destroys their delicate integrity, rolls up the blood and causes death. A double purpose is served by its use. It promotes activity of the kidneys, and expels impurities from the blood which have no natural channel of outlet, except those organs. Constipation, biliousness, fever and ague, rheumatism and dyspepsia, are also remedied by the medicine through action and wide scope.

Are you going to build, repair or paint? Then buy your material from JACOBI'S Hdq. Depot. He will supply you with the best and save you money.
