Any one who has been afflicted with Cough, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, and all the affections of the Throat and Lungs, and who has tried all the usual remedies, and has not found relief, will find it in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is a cure for all the above ailments, and is the only remedy that will cure them.
It is a great blessing to the human race, and is the only remedy that will cure them. It is a great blessing to the human race, and is the only remedy that will cure them. It is a great blessing to the human race, and is the only remedy that will cure them.

A special to the New York Sun from Columbus, O., says: As the time grows nearer for the meeting of the Democratic Convention it becomes more apparent that Allen G. Thurman will be nominated by acclamation for Governor. Should he be elected in November his chance of getting the nomination for President next year would be excellent. The ticket might read: For President, Allen G. Thurman, Ohio; for Vice President, David B. Hill, of New York, or vice versa. Thurman would poll a tremendous vote for Governor. Old Democrats who have not voted since the war would come out of their holes and vote for Thurman. His nomination would create the greatest enthusiasm ever known in Ohio and he would beat Foraker by at least 20-000 majority.

The Manufacturers' Record, published at Baltimore, furnishes some interesting statistics regarding the continued building up of new industries in the South during the last six months. According to its figures there have been over 1,850 new establishments set on foot, involving an investment of capital in excess of $160,000,000. This is a large increase over the showing for the corresponding period last year. The Trade Journal, published at Chattanooga, supplements this with a statement of the number of new industrial establishments organized in the different Southern States during the three months just ending. They include all manner of mills and factories, machine shops, foundries, brick and tile works, mines, quarries, railroads, &c. All this shows in a general way how rapidly the South is developing its resources and how active it is becoming in the pursuit of material wealth.

The Montgomery Dispatch, after copying an article recently which appeared in the REVIEW, giving Gen. Jas. H.
Lane's testimony as to the gallantry of the North Carolina troops and the part they bore in Pickett's famous charge at Gettysburg, has this to say of the distinguished commander of one of the North Carolina brigades mentioned: General Lane was as gallant a soldier as ever drew a blade in battle, and anything he may say regarding Pickett's celebrated charge, which is now creating considerable discussion, will be regarded as authoritative. An article of length on that subject from this accomplished soldier and scholar would excite much interest and be greatly read by the people of Alabama and his brother confederates throughout the south.
Let Gen. Lane graciously his friends with an article on this interesting event,

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, JULY 5, 1887 NO 158 in which he and his brave command played no mean part.

Gen. Lane is still held in affectionate remembrance in North Carolina and there are probably a hundred or more grey veterans living to-day in this section—many of that number in this city —who were with him at Gettysburg, and anything from his pen on that subject will be hailed with intense interest.

Keenews Her Youth
Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouchered for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, only 50c. For sale by W. H.
Green & Co.

Worth Knowing
Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption.
Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottle free at W. H. Green & Co's Drug Store.

No more holidays now until Thanksgiving, nearly five months.

Mr. E. S. Tennent's pretty new residence, corner Walnut and Mulberry streets, is rapidly approaching completion.

The price of a round trip ticket between Wilmington and Pittsboro is only $7.85. This is a special rate for the Summer.

Go to Sol. Bear's and buy a Gossa-mer and some elegant Bath Towels, then go to Carolina Beach and—take a surf bath.

The Cobble stones on Front street, between Market and Chestnut, are an eyesore and a nuisance and should be replaced with Belgian blocks.

A few fireworks were let off last night in honor of the Fourth. Young Wilmington reserves its demonstrations in this line for Christmas.

Mr. DeL. Evans is having erected a new residence for himself on the vacant premises adjoining his father's house, corner Chestnut and Third streets.

Mr. Heinsberger's dwelling on Third street, near Mulberry, has recently been repainted and renovated and presents an exceedingly attractive appearance.

After several days of severe sickness we are at our post again. We are yet weak and feeble and in no condition for a fight or a foot race, but by being careful we hope soon to be as good as new.

Carolina Beach. Keep cool and remember that the headquarters for bathing suits is at the Wilmington Shirt Factory. Suits made to order. Ladies'

The Fourth of July, 1887, has passed back into the irrecoverable past, and our people this morning resumed their usual avocations as if the National holiday had never existed, and nothing remains of the day but its memories.

American flags, muslin flags on sticks, Chinese lanterns, paper caps, pistols and caps for same, have just received a large assortment. Everybody who wants to make himself happy on the Fourth of July can be supplied at Heinsberger's.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

Death of an Octogenarian.

Old Aunt Dicey Walker, one of the very oldest inhabitants of this city, died yesterday afternoon, aged 86 years.
Aunt Dicey was at one time a slave, the property of the late Mrs. Sally T.
Cowan. She was inherited by Mrs.
Cowan from her father, Gov. David Stone, and was brought to this city in the year 1822 by the lady's husband, the late Robert H. Cowan, the elder.
Mammy Dicey, as her white people always called her, was a half-breed, partly of Indian extraction. She was a faithful and beloved servant and an exemplary woman in all the relations of life, and has been a consistent member of the church for the past fifty years.
May she rest in peace.

Wide Awake.
The July Wide Awake has an interesting article on what sort of a boy George Washington was, with another hatchet story as good as the cherry tree story—and more human.

Charles Egbert Craddock's story begun in the June number halts at a coon hunt. The other story tells stop to take breath as they can.
There is more of what goes on inside of a bank, a peep at the Harvard Annex, a boy misses his Fourth of July, and a picture-story of animals and their animal friends.

Wide Awake is as bright and full and solid and good as ever. $2.40 a year; but there isn't a boy or girl that can't get it for work.

Send five cents for a sample copy to D.
Lothrop Company, Boston; and there will come with it a primer about the other Lothrop magazines.

Literary.

With its July issue the Magazine of American History begins its eighteenth volume. A portrait of Henry Laurens, the South Carolina statesman of the Revolution, graces the opening page, accompanied by a sketch of "Henry Laurens in the London Tower," from the Editor. General Arthur F. Devereaux follows with a spirited and thrilling account of "Pickett's Charge." Justin Winsor contributes a paper on "The Manuscript Sources of American History." General P. St. George Cooke writes a chapter on one of his exploits in the Southwest in 1843, entitled, "One Day's Work of a Captain of Dragoons." John M. Bishop discusses on the "United States Mail Service." A new department appears, called "Historic and Social Jottings," which promises to be an agreeable feature of this publication. Price, $5.00 a year, published at 743 Broadway, N.
Y. City.

Greatest Sacrifice in Clothing Ever Known in Wilmington.

Mr. I. Shrier, desiring to close out every dollar's worth of clothing, gent's furnishing goods and to make quick work of it, will sell out his entire stock regardless of cost. The real cost or actual value of the goods will have nothing to do with the low prices; his main object is to open up in the large and handsome store in the Purcell building with one of the largest and finest stocks of custom made clothing. All goods on hand will be slaughtered off. Read a few of the slashing prices in children's suits: For $1 worth $2.25, some at $1.50 worth $3; a very handsome suit for $1.50 worth $4. On suits the price will be reduced $3, $5, $8 and $10; in furnishing goods 15, 25 and 33 per cent.
Remember this is no sensational humbug scheme. Don't miss the opportunity of getting a bargain of the well known I. Shrier, 114 Market st.

Throw Aside Her Stick.

NEW YORK, February 13, 1884.
ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS have been a great comfort to me in Winter.
I use them as chest protectors; they break up a cold in a few hours if placed one on the chest and two under the shoulder blades.

Last Winter I was much crippled with rheumatism in my knee; I had tried different remedies without avail; then I covered the whole knee joint with two ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLAS-TERS and kept them on for four days, when I changed them. I got better all the time, and in two weeks I was entirely well, and threw aside my stick.

Mrs S. FINKE.

"Where can I go to buy what I want?" "What do you want? Well, whatever you want, whether Matting, Towels, Trunks, Gossamers, Hammocks, Straw Hats or Summer Clothing, you can save money by buying at Sol.
Bear's."

Maj Finger to Speak.

The Grange Encampment and Farmers' Institute, to be held August 10th, to 13th, promises to be quite a success.
Some of the most prominent and practical speakers will deliver addresses on the occasion and on subjects that are of great interest not only to the farmers but to all others. Maj S. M. Finger, Superintendent Public Instruction, will deliver an address on the condition of public educational advantages to the farmers' children in North Carolina.

County Commissioners.

The Board met in regular monthly session yesterday afternoon.
The Treasurer submitted his report, showing a balance on hand of $6,999.79, and surrendered 12 bonds of the denomination of $100, which were destroyed in the presence of the Board. The educational fund shows a balance on hand of $8,531.97.

The Register submitted his monthly report of amount received from "marriage fees, $8.55, and exhibited Treasurer's receipt for same.

Seventy-one applications for license to retail spirituous liquors were granted.

A communication from F. D. Koonce relative to the construction of a railroad from Wilmington to some point on the A & N C R R was laid aside for further reference.

Mr. W. W. Shaw, Clerk of the Auditing Committee and Warden of the Poor, tendered his resignation, to take effect on the 15th inst, which, after feeling regrets expressed by every member of the Board, was accepted and an election for his successor resulted in the choice of Mr. S. W. Vick.

The Chairman of the Board reported the assessment of the C. C. R. R. to be $4,538 per mile, of which 1 mile and 176 yards is in New Hanover, making total assessed value for taxation in this county $4,888.56.

Also, W. C. & A. R. R. at $6,000 per mile, of which 1 1/2 miles is in New Hanover. Also, Wilmington Railway Bridge Co., which consists of 2 iron bridges and 2 1/2 miles of track, and assessed on same at $60,000, of which New Hanover taxes $59,139 and Brunswick $861.

The Board then proceeded to assess the New Hanover Transit Company at the rate of $3,700 per mile and found 1 1/2 miles which, including the rolling stock, makes an assessable value of $6,475.
