THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1887 NO 161

Restores Her Youth
Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, only 50c. For sale by W. H. Green & Co.

Worth Knowing.
Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottle free at W. H. Green & Co's Drug Store.

Paints and Varnish. Best in city at JACOBI'S, and at lower prices than you have to pay elsewhere for more common goods.
The crew of the Flying Pan Light Ship came up to the city this morning on a sort of a holiday, while the vessel is lying at Southport.

Go to Sol. Bear's and buy a Gossamer and some elegant Bath Towels, then go to Carolina Beach and—take a surf bath.

There is a washout near the seven mile post between here and Wrightsville Sound, which makes the road at that place impassable, and renders necessary a circuit of about a mile to reach either the Sound or the city. The place will be at once repaired.

The new drop harness for the horses of Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1, has been received and placed in position. The horses are being broken by daily practice to its use, and we are glad to learn that thus far it has given complete satisfaction.

American flags, muslin flags on sticks, Chinese lanterns, paper caps, pistols and caps for same, have just received a large assortment. Everybody who wants to make himself happy on the Fourth of July can be supplied at Heinzberger's.

The Cornet Concert Club will make an excursion to Waccamaw Lake on the 14th inst. The indications are, that if the weather should prove favorable on that day, the excursion will be largely attended as a good many have signified their intention of joining the party.

The cultivation of the grape has proved very profitable in North Carolina, and as Mr. S. Otho Wilson has given special attention to this branch of horticulture, the managers of the Grange Eocampment have selected him to deliver an address on "The Grape and its Cultivation in North Carolina," at Mt. Holly.

Carolina Beach. Keep cool and remember that the headquarters for bathing suits is at the Wilmington Shir Factory. Suits made to order. Ladies' a specialty. J. ELSEBACH, Prop., 27 Market street.

No Excursion.
A good deal of inquiry has been made upon the street regarding a rumored excursion party to Washington and New York. We have been informed that steps were taken looking to an excursion on a grand scale to those cities, but that from some cause the arrangement was not consummated, and that, consequently, there will be none, unless, as is barely possible, one may be gotten up considerably later in the season.

"Where can I go to buy what I want?" "What do you want? Well, whatever you want, whether Matting, Towels, Trunks, Gossamers, Hammocks, Straw Hats or Summer Clothing, you can save money by buying at Sol. Bear's."

Dog Collars. Large assortment just received. Can buy a nice collar from 25 cents up, at JACOBI'S Hdq. Depot.

Audit and Finance.
The Board of Audit and Finance met in called session yesterday afternoon. The chairman, Mr. R. J. Jones, stated that he called the board together for the purpose of considering a contract between the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company and the city, in reference to the proposed bridge on Fourth street over the railroad cut. On motion, the chairman was authorized to sign the agreement, which provides that in consideration of the railroad company building the abutments, it shall be relieved of all further responsibility in the matter, either for its maintenance, repair or reconstruction.

Getting Ready.
When completed the Champion Compress will be a mammoth structure, eclipsing in dimensions any other building in the city. There is an unbroken front wall on Nutt street of 330 feet, and the buildings extend back to the river, a distance of 318 feet. There are two buildings, with a court between them 66 feet wide and also extending to the river. Both buildings, as well as the court, are enclosed within one set of walls, so that the plant occupies the entire square embraced between Red Cross and Walnut streets, and Nutt street and the river. The work is being pushed as rapidly as possible to completion, and will be in readiness for occupancy with the opening of the next cotton season.

City Court.
John Williams, colored, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with firing a pistol on the streets. He admitted the firing and was required to pay a fine of $10 or go below for 20 days for the offense. The same defendant was charged with carrying concealed weapons, but judgment was suspended in that case.

Jacob Thompson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct was required to pay a fine of $20 or go below for 30 days. From this judgment the defendant appealed, when he was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $100 to prosecute the appeal.

One case of drunk and down was required to pay a fine of $10 or go below for 20 days.

One man charged with an assault and battery with a deadly weapon was bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $50.

We Stand Corrected.
In speaking a few days since of Gen. James H. Lane, we referred to him as a native of Alabama. This was in deference to the opinion of some one else, which we found in print. Our impression then was that he was born in Virginia and we were right. The article referred to has called forth the following communication from General Lane to the Montgomery Dispatch, which we take pleasure in republishing here:

AUBURN ALA. July 2 1887
EDITORIAL DISPATCH:—Many thanks for your very complimentary editorial notice of myself in your issue of today.
I take it for granted that my gallant friend, Josh T. James, is still the editor of the Wilmington, N. C. REVIEW, and I cannot understand how he could have made such mistakes about my nativity and present occupation.
I have been called a Virginian, a North Carolinian, a Vermontor and have been taken for "Old Kansas Jim Lane," and now I am an Alabamian. I was born, raised and educated in Virginia under the immortal "Stonewall Jackson," but I do not object to being called a son of dear old North Carolina, who honored me so highly in the times that tried men's souls; nor do I object to being considered a son of the dashing, glorious, progressive State of Alabama; but, as a man intensely Southern in all my feelings, I must protest against being credited to Vermont or being considered even remotely related to Old Kansas James H. Lane. I stand almost alone in this world I have but few relatives and they are all in Old Virginia, and like myself, are all Southern to the core. I have been compelled from pecuniary considerations, to change my abode so often that it looks as though I am fast becoming like that celebrated flake—hard to locate.
I have, I think, a right to be proud of my war record, as our grand old chief, President Jefferson Davis, has recently penned the following in my behalf: "I willingly bear witness to his character and of general capacity. Endorsed to me as he is by his services to the South when he was the youngest brigadier in the Confederate army, I admit that I feel a warm interest in his success, not for himself only, but also as a good example for the youth of the State I love so well."
If I felt that I could wield a pen as well as I fought for our just South-ern cause, I would not hesitate to give to the public some of my many war-time incidents, particularly as I have been often requested to do so by friends and others in Alabama, North Carolina and Virginia.

Respectfully,
JAMES H. LANE.

Base Ball.
The Wilmington base ball club proved themselves the victors in their contest with the Wilson club yesterday, on the grounds of the latter. The score stood as follows:
Wilmington, 11 runs, 11 hits, 6 errors.
Wilson, 3 runs, 4 hits, 11 errors.

There will be another trial to-day and we hope that we may have the pleasure of recording an equally gratifying result for our home team.

Personal.
Mr. A. G. Ricard has gone to New York on a trip in which pleasure and business will be combined.

Mr. Fab. H. Bosbee, U. S. Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina, is stopping at the Orton House to-day.

Mr. Alex. Orr and wife will soon leave here for the North, where they will spend considerable time in examining the latest styles in photography for the benefit of their patrons when they return.

W. Mr. H. Burton, formerly a resident of Wilmington, but for many years a resident of Sherman, Texas, returned to the city to-day and will pass the remainder of the Summer with his relatives here. He has been absent 36 years, and is at present the guest of his nephew, Mr. W. J. Penny.

Knights of Pythias.
Stonewall Lodge No. 1, K. of P. and Germania Lodge No. 4, K. of P. had a public installation of officers at Germania Hall last night, which was made interesting by the presence of a goodly number of ladies, by some fine vocal music and by an instructive address by Mr. J. I. Macks. Mr. N. O. Berry, of Goldsboro, Grand Chancellor of K. of P. for North Carolina, assisted by Messrs J. A. Bonitz, R. B. Clowe, T. D. Meares, H. C. Prempert, B. F. White and H. C. Von Kampe, installed the following officers in "ample form" to serve for the ensuing term:

STONEWALL LODGE NO. 1.
C. C.—D. F. Barnes.
V. C.—C. H. Ganzer.
P.—E. B. King.
M. at A.—G. A. Peterson.
I. G.—C. N. Brewer.
O. G.—W. L. Jacobs.

GERMANIA LODGE NO. 4.
C. C.—H. Hutaff.
V. C.—J. A. Schroeder.
P.—J. W. Dohls.
M. at A.—A. Deumelandt.
I. G.—J. Haar, Sr.
O. G.—J. Sauls.

After the ceremonies attendant upon the installation of the officers had been concluded, Mr. J. I. Macks, the orator of the occasion, delivered an entertaining and instructive address. Mr. J. W. King then read the declaration of principles, at the conclusion of which all present were invited to partake of refreshments that had been prepared for the occasion and to which all did ample justice. It was an interesting and enjoyable occasion, in which tone looked greater delight than did the ladies present.

Greatest Sacrifice in Clothing Ever Known in Wilmington.
Mr. I. Shrier, desiring to close out every dollar's worth of clothing, gents' furnishing goods and to make quick work of it, will sell out his entire stock regardless of cost. The real cost or actual value of the goods will have nothing to do with the low prices; his main object is to open up in the large and handsome store in the Parcell building with one of the largest and finest stocks of custom made clothing. All goods on hand will be slaughtered off. Read a few of the slashing prices in children's suits: For $1 worth $2.25, same at $1.50 worth $3; a very handsome suit for $1.50 worth $4. On suits the price will be reduced $2, $3, $4 and $5 per cent. Remember this is no sensational humbug scheme. Don't miss the opportunity of getting a bargain of the well known I. Shrier, 114 Market St.
