For other locals see fourth page.

There was a fine electric display last night and at midnight there was a promise of rain, but none fell.

At 12 o'clock to-day the thermometer in this office registered 90 degrees, which was about the maximum.

They do say that the fish are "biting like dogs" at the Rocks now. We hear of several parties on the wing for that place this week.

The steam tug Monarch left Southport this morning for Washington, N. C. with a steam dredge and scow to be used at that place.

There were a great many visitors at the Sound yesterday and the turnpike was fairly alive with vehicles throughout the day.

Our Southport correspondent informs us that there is quite a building boom in that town, and that some of the dwellings are elegant in design.

There were confirmation services yesterday afternoon in St. John's Church, when the Bishop administered the rite to one gentleman and two ladies.

Dr. J. H. Durham has removed his dental rooms to No. 114 Princess street, between Front and Second, where he has had the rooms nicely fitted up for his business.

The ladies are earnestly at work to-day in making preparations for the lawn party which is to be given in the City Hall Park on Wednesday night for the benefit of the Wilmington Light Infantry.

We understand that an entertainment in aid of the Wilmington Library Association is in preparation for a date not yet made public. It will consist of a representation in the Opera House and a lawn party in front at the same time.

The Acme Manufacturing Company of this city have received an order from Hon. Theo. D. Jewey, Collector of the Port of Charleston, S. C. and Custodian of Public Buildings, for 120 yards of matting for the floor of the United States Court Room of that city.

The cotton bloom business has played out and we come to the front with a report of two cotton bolls, positively the first of the season, which were received by a gentleman here this morning. They came from South Carolina and represented an average of a field of 100 acres.

Indications.

For North Carolina, fair weather in Northern portion, local rains in the Southern portion and stationary temperature.

Personal.

Mr. E. P. Boatwright has gone on a visit to Virginia. Miss Belle Anderson is acting as the organist at St. John's Church during his absence.

Mr. M. E. Cushing has accepted the position of organist of the First Baptist Church Choir.

Mr. R. K. Bryan, of Scott's Hill, recently of the Hickory Press was in the city yesterday as the guest of Col. B. R. Moore.

Mr. W. E. Springer has returned to the city from a visit to the Northern markets where he has been for the purchase of goods.

Mr. J. G. Barrentine, after an absence of several days, returned to the city this morning. While absent he has visited Jacksonville, Fla., and several other cities and has highly enjoyed his trip.

Dr. S. D. Brooks, of the U. S. Marine Hospital Service, arrived in this city last night to take charge of the Marine Hospital here, to supply the place made vacant by the removal of Dr. C. T. Peckham, who has been ordered to Memphis, Tenn., for duty. Dr. Brooks was last stationed at Evansville, Ind., from which place he came to this city.

Music at the Park.

The Lawn Party to be given in the City Hall Park on Wednesday night will be enlivened by music by the Cornet Concert Club, who will play a number of their best pieces on that occasion. The next day the band will give an excursion to Waccamaw Lake and we hope that there will be a great many to hear them at the Park and to accompany them to the Lake.

Military.

The Hornet's Nest Riflemen, of Charlotte, will arrive in this city on tomorrow night's train over the Carolina Central Railroad, and will leave on the midnight train on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, for Goldsboro en route for the military encampment at Morehead City. Two members of the company were here a day or two since making arrangements for their accommodation during their stay of a few hours in the city.

Retard of Merit.

At the last regular meeting of Howard Relief Fire Engine Company No. 1, a handsome and appropriate gold medal was presented to Stephen Jones, colored, the driver of the hose reel, for eight years faithful and continuous service with the company. The presentation was made by the President of the company, Mr. J. G. Oldenbittel, in a neat and appropriate speech, and it is needless to say that Jones is proud of the testimonial.

At St. James' Yesterday.

Rev. F. A. DeRosset, Rector of Trinity Church, Natchez, Miss., who is here on a visit to his father, Dr. A. J. DeRosset, preached yesterday morning in St. James' Church an eloquent and effective sermon from the text, (Matthew 5-48): Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Mr. DeRosset is a native of Wilmington and was baptized and confirmed in St. James' Church and these facts were feelingly alluded to in his sermon, which was heard with much interest by the large congregation present.

Literary.

"Aphorisms of the Three Threes" is the title of a little volume, now in its second edition which we have received from the publishers, Messrs. Chas. H. Kerr & Co. of Chicago, through Mr. C. W. Yates of this city. It is edited by Edward Owens Towne. The Three Threes is a social club of nine Chicago gentlemen, who dine together at stated intervals in a downtown restaurant. Meeting every ninth night after the first night of each and every of the nine months following the ninth month of the year, and seated in three at three three-legged tables, these nine wise men of Chicago spend the evening in discussion. The drops which distill from their lips Mr. Towne has caught in his little book, to the number of one hundred and sixty two.

Death of Mr. Latimer.

Capt. Henry Savage received a telegram from Asheville this forenoon which conveyed the sorrowful information of the death of Mr. Herbert R. Latimer at that place, at 1 o'clock this morning. Although his death had been almost hourly expected for several weeks, and it had been painfully apparent that his decease was merely a question of days, hours or minutes yet the sad announcement was a shock to all. He had been an invalid more than 12 months, with a disease, which had baffled the best medical skill and the most devoted and untiring nursing. Change of air, change of climate and change of scenery had been unavailing, and he had been patiently waiting for death, but the fell disease in sidiously and certainly did its fatal work.

Mr. Latimer was a young man—only 25 years of age—with an abundant fortune, a loving and devoted wife, two charming children and a host of relatives and friends to make life full of hope promise and usefulness. He was a genial, kindly hearted companion, the soul of integrity, of knightly honor, whose heart and hand were ever unostentatiously open to the cry of distress and whose hold upon human friendship was as extensive as his acquaintance. He was beloved by all who knew him and the distressing news of his untimely end will carry sorrow and grief to many a loving heart. His remains will reach here on Wednesday morning and the obsequies will be held at 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening at St. James Church.

Go to Sol. Bear's and buy a Gossamer and some elegant Bath Towels, then go to Carolina Beach and—take a surf bath.

City Court.

There was quite a formidable docket for the Mayor's consideration this morning, which was disposed of as follows:

Gustav Karlson, a deserter from the Nor. barque Argo, was arrested for bathing within the city limits, after having been warned not to. It was through this arrest that the fact of his desertion became known. He was fined $5 for the offense, which was paid by the captain of the Argo, who took the deserter back to the vessel, where he will probably be kept in confinement until the vessel is ready for sea.

H. O. Ruskin, for cursing on the streets and abusing the officer who arrested him, was required to pay a fine of $25 or go below for 30 days. The defendant pleaded earnestly for a remission of the fine, promising to leave the city at once as an inducement, but the Mayor was properly inexorable, and he now languishes in a "dungeon cell."

George Lewis, a colored boy, was found asleep under a school house. His excuse was that he had been fishing and had caught no fish and was afraid to go home. Ten days in the city prison.

Bennie Shaw, a little colored vagabond who has been frequently arrested, was found asleep in a vacant lot. Ten days in the city prison.

Susan Ann Jones, colored, for having in her possession two unlicensed dogs, both of which were of the feminine persuasion, was required to pay a fine of $5, of which amount $2 would be remitted when she should obtain the necessary license.

One case of disorderly conduct was continued.

Carolina Beach. Keep cool and remember that the headquarters for bathing suits is at the Wilmington Shirt factory. Suits made to order. Ladies' a specialty. J. ELSBACH, Prop., 27 Market street.

MARRIED.

GRANT—HOWLAND.—In this city, June 29th, 1887, at Fifth Street M. E. Church, by Rev. D. H. Tuttle, Mr. JOHN E. GRANT and Miss EFFIE HOWLAND.

MEMORIAL.

Mrs. Jessie Olivia Craig, daughter of Mr. P. S. F. Bruce and Mrs. S. G. Bruce, was born Feb. 24th, 1868. She joined the Presbyterian Church in April, 1886, was married to Mr. John H. Craig, Dec. 14th, 1883, was taken seriously ill in January last, and after a painful illness of six months, died at her home in Elberton, Ga., July 5th, 1887, at 9:55 o'clock, a. m., aged 31 years, 4 months and 11 days. Death took her, but with Christian resignation, the husband bows to the decree of Heaven that calls away his young wife in the bloom of womanhood, buoyant with hope and bright with promise. Grief-stricken the calamity that takes away from his bosom a cheery, loved and loving companion. With bleeding heart the father and mother bid farewell to their only daughter, whose merry, ringing voice made their home vocal with song. The elastic step that tripped so lightly in their home, has bounded through the early gate; and in voice that rang out so merrily here, now swells the anthems of praise with the bloodwashed throng.

A true and hopeful Christian, she did not fear death, but talked about it calmly and peacefully, "reading her title clear to a mansion in the sky." A few weeks ago she passed a sleepless night and sang "The Great Physician," her favorite song, almost all night, improvising where she did not remember the words; and told her mother in the morning that the doctors could not relieve her, and that she trusted in the Great Physician. "The blessed Jesus, sweetest name on mortal tongue and sweetest carol ever sung." As she consciously approached the dread hour, she sang "Nearer my God to Thee." She had a delightful reveries of Heaven, and thinking of the loved ones to follow. "Gathering at the Beautiful River" gave appropriate expression to her feelings, and bidding the dear ones meet her in Heaven, she fell asleep in Jesus, with no troubled dreams, no torturing pains to break the eternal rest.—Elberton, (Ga.) Leader.
