DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY
No Household Should be Without It.
It is reported that Bulgaria intends declaring herself independent.

The Democrats of Maryland yesterday met in convention in Baltimore and nominated Eliza D. Jackson for Governor. The resolutions strongly endorse Cleveland's administration.

The Ohio Republicans were in session yesterday at Toledo. Resolutions endorsing Sherman were introduced but were opposed by a resolution lauding him, but not endorsing him for the Presidency. The matter went over and a hot fight was expected for today.

Fairmount Park of Philadelphia contains 3,000 acres and is 11 miles long. Central Park of New York includes 834 acres, costing $15,000,000 for the land and improvements. The Chicago parks cover 2,000 acres, and those of St. Louis about the same. Prospect Park, Brooklyn, includes nearly 600 acres, and Druid Hill Park, of Baltimore, 680 acres.

Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile, Ala., writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. I have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend."

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is sold on a positive guarantee. Trial bottles free at W. H. Green & Co's drug store.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., say: "We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Buckle's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by the use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by W. H. Green & Co."

The Shakspeare Club.
For more than thirty years of our life journey we had read of Shakspeare, the dramatist, had read his life and plays and had seen several of the latter acted. Later we began to hear of Shakspeare, with the a in the last syllable omitted. Recently we have heard and read of Shakspeare, with the o in the first syllable and the a in the second syllable omitted. Within the last five years a gentleman temporarily residing in this city attempted to enter into an argument with us to prove that the man with such a varied orthography never wrote one of the plays that have been generally ascribed to him; but as we would not argue the question, he proceeded to show with wonderful lucidity that some contemporaneous dramatist—we have forgotten who—wrote all of them. As he concluded, leaving us of "The same opinion still." he had his labor for nothing. But this is merely preliminary to what we intended to say.

We have received the Journal of the Shakspeare Club of the University of North Carolina for 1886-7. The Journal is a chronicle of the proceedings of the several meetings of the Club during the time indicated. At each of these meetings certain characters of the great dramatist were discussed, which had previously been selected, and in these discussions much ability is displayed and careful and analytical study is manifested. Some of the thoughts expressed by those engaged in the discussions are original, and are themselves worthy of more than passing consideration.

The Club numbers about 50 members, mainly students at the University. Prof. Thomas Hume, Jr., D. D., is its President, and the opening paper of the Journal is a lecture delivered by him before the Club, with "Shakspeare as a Moral Teacher" for his subject. We believe that the University at Chapel Hill is the only Southern institution of learning which has such an organization, and we predict that much good may result from its efforts, especially since all similar institutions throughout the country have awakened attention to the study of the English language, which in the past has held a minor position to Hebrew, Greek and Latin.

City Court.
Edward Swann, colored, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with fast driving. The fact was proven and he was required to pay a fine of $5 for the offense.

Frank Wilkinson, colored, for keeping an unlicensed dog, was fined $3, of which amount $1 would be remitted when a badge for the dog had been secured.

Christopher Swann, colored, another unlicensed dog case. He was fined $3, from which the defendant appealed when he was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $50 to prosecute the appeal.

Mary Haight, colored, disorderly conduct. Fined $20 with the alternative of 30 days in the city prison.

A. J. Jones, disorderly conduct. Fined $5.

John Clinton, colored, disorderly conduct. This was a case of mistaken identity and the defendant was discharged.

Death of Mr. Lamb.
Mr. George P. Lamb, the well known florist and landscape gardener, died at his residence in this city last evening after a long and painful illness, in the 62nd year of his age. Mr. Lamb was a native of Sligo, Ireland, and had been a resident of this city and vicinity for more than thirty years. He was interred this afternoon in Oakdale Cemetery, the funeral taking place from St. John's Church. The remains were escorted to the grave by the Hibernian Benevolent Society of which he had long been an active member.

Imitators and Impostors.
The unqualified success of ALLOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS as an external remedy has simulated unscrupulous parties to put forth imitations, which they endeavor to sell on the reputation of ALLOCK'S. It is an absurdity to speak of them in the same category as the genuine and original porous plaster. Their pretensions are unfounded, their vaunted merit unsupported by facts, their alleged superiority to or equality with Alcock's a false pretense.

The ablest medical practitioners and chemists and thousands of grateful patients unite in declaring ALLOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS the best external remedy known.

For the Pen.
To-morrow morning Sheriff Manning will take four prisoners to the State penitentiary, who were all convicted of larceny at the recent term of the Criminal Court. Three of the prisoners are white and one is colored, which is the first time within thirteen years that the number of white prisoners predominates. The following is the list:
W. H. Farmer alias W. H. Palmer, three years.
Hiram Myers, three years.
Albert Dumrey, three years.
Henry King, three years.

Personal.
Mr. Jno. D. Williams, of Fayetteville, is here for the purpose of spending a few days on salt water.

Hon. R. R. Bridges, with his family, has gone to Saratoga for the balance of the Summer.

Mr. J. P. McNeill, formerly of Bladen county, but now a prominent lawyer of Florence, S. C., is in the city today.

Sheriff E. M. Johnson, of Pender county, was in the city today and paid us a pleasant visit. He corroborates previous reports of the splendid crop outlook in his county.

The Danielsville, (Ga.) Monitor has this to say of one of our Wilmington boys:
"On Monday we had the pleasure of grasping the hand of our esteemed friend, Mr. J. H. Craig, the efficient book-keeper for the large and prosperous firm of Swift Bros. of Elberton. Mr. Craig has for eight years been connected with the above firm, which is evidence of his business qualifications, honesty and integrity. Besides he is a young man of moral character and commands the respect of all who know him."

Literary.
The Magazine of American History for August comes to the front, as usual, with charming and instructive articles. There is not a dull page in the number. The leading paper will attract all readers, irrespective of historic or antiquarian tastes. It is an account of the "Presentation of the Arctic Ship Resolute to the Queen of England by the President of the United States," in the year 1856, written by Dr. Fessenden N. Ous, Secretary of Expedition.

"The First Newspaper West of the Alleghenies" is from the pen of William Henry Perrin, and it is admirably illustrated. A shorter paper is "The Latrobe Corn-Stalk Columns, in the Capitol at Washington," by Eugene Ashton; "The Origin of the Federal Constitution," by Prof. Francis N. Thorpe, a study which no reader or pupil can afford to miss. Subscription price $5 a year in advance. Published at 743 Broadway, New York City.

For the Grange Encampment.
Sheriff E. M. Johnson, of Pender county, having been requested to appoint delegates and marshals to attend the Grange Encampment and Farmers' Institute, to be held at Mt. Holly, Gaston county, on the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th of August next, has named the following:

Caintuck Township—Marshal—Theo Lamb. Delegates—D J Corbett, G W Corbett, F P Flyns, Thos Marshall, Thos Smith.

Caswell Township—Marshal—Jas H Colvin. Delegates—E A Hawes, J H Murphy, Jas F Moore, Dr G F Lucas, John G Parker.

Columbia Township—Marshal—A T Herring. Delegates—R H Murphy, D B Crum, G F Walker, C P Moore, Jr, C C Woodcock.

Lincoln Township—Marshal—Walter Bordeaux. Delegates—F H Bell, G T Williams, Bruce Williams, W W Larkins, C P Moore, Sr.

Indications.
For North Carolina, local rains and stationary temperature.

Commissioner's Court.
The case against Messrs. Kerr and Hubbard, owner and master of the steamer Deba, which was blown up several weeks since, for a violation of the U. S. steamboat inspection laws, came up before U. S. Commissioner T. M. Gardner to-day, and the parties were bound over to the next term of the U. S. District Court in the sum of $200 each. Messrs. E. W. Kerr of Clinton, and H. McClumby, of this city, were counsel for the defendants, no counsel appeared for the government.

District Conference.
The District Conference of Wilmington District M. E. Church will be held at Clinton, Sampson county, commencing on Wednesday next. The following are the delegates from the churches of this city:
Grace M. E. Church—Messrs. W. W. Hodges, W. M. Poisson, J. W. Perdew, W. M. Parker.
Fifth Street M. E. Church—Messrs. J. J. Tommer, F. A. Newbury, J. J. LeGwyn, J. T. Sholar.

Arrangements have been made with the railroad by which delegates and others who may wish to attend will be charged three cents per mile each way.

Greatest Sacrifice in Clothing Ever Known in Wilmington.
Mr. I. Shrier, desiring to close out every dollar's worth of clothing, gents' furnishing goods and to make quick work of it, will sell out his entire stock regardless of cost. The real cost or actual value of the goods will have nothing to do with the low prices; his main object is to open up in the large and handsome store in the Purcell building with one of the largest and finest stocks of custom made clothing. All goods on hand will be slaughtered off. Read a few of the slashing prices in children's suits: For $1 worth $2.25, some at $1.50 worth $3; a very handsome suit for $1.50 worth $4. On suits the price will be reduced $3, $5, $8 and $10; in furnishing goods 15, 25, and 33 per cent. Remember this is no sensational humbug scheme. Don't miss the opportunity of getting a bargain of the well known I. Shrier, 114 Market st.

The Old Folks at Home.
Or elsewhere, need a tonic now and then to sustain them under growing infirmities. No safer or more thorough invigorant for age and the delicate can be found than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a seasonable medicine in those ailments of commonest occurrence—liver complaint, indigestion and bowel disorder; a pure botanical safeguard against malaria, and a reliable means of counteracting rheumatism. To the convalescent, it is a valuable aid in the recovery of strength, and to the debilitated, nervous invalid it yields tranquil slumber and renewed appetite—two prime factors in the restoration of vigor. Being of purely botanical origin, it is free from those objections urged against mineral remedies, difficult or impossible of assimilation by the system, and which impair the tone of the stomach, which the Bitters, on the contrary, strengthen and regulate. It is endorsed and prescribed by the medical fraternity.

THE REVIEW JOB OFFICE is the place to get good work at moderate prices.
