The engineers and firemen of the Delaware & Hudson Road have been forbidden to work at or fit with any women they may pass on their locomotives.

Mr. Langtry says that by applying himself to the study of the English language she is thoroughly acquainted with the customs of the country.

Berry Wall, the king of the dunes, is out in a new evening dress the color of a new variety of wine-colored cloth and the waistcoat of white satin broadway.

A citizen of Cincinnati thought he had a sure fortune in a kitten which had five heads, five tails, ten forelegs and five hindlegs. He also thought that it would have about forty-five lives and was good for many years, but after a brief career of fifteen days the little monster died, the result of too much handling by the curious.

A British subject, Dr. Dillon, has been arrested in Odessa, Russia for writing on the same seat in a public train as the Governor of the city, whom he did not know. He was subsequently released, but was threatened with expulsion. The Governor publicly made some offensive remarks respecting Englishmen.

Twenty-seven friendless dogs were killed by electricity at Buffalo the other day. One by one they were placed in a box about two feet by three, lined with tin, with about an inch of water in the bottom. One by one they were muzzled, with a wire running through the mouth. A simple touch of the wire made each a corpse.

Buffalo Bill was never a member of the Nebraska Legislature, says the Omaha World. He ran once in Buffalo county against a fellow of the name of Ashburton, and received his certificate of election. Ashburton contested the seat, however, and won, but before the case was decided Cody had sent in his resignation and made ready to embark in the show business.

The base ball enthusiast is a peculiar mortal, says the Washington Post. When his club loses he leaves the grounds swearing at some particular player and also vowing never to go again, but the next day sees him on the bleaching boards, yelling like a wild Indian, and, if his team wins, trying to convince every one in his vicinity that it is the best club in the country.

Mrs. Henn's yachting costume was much admired at Bar Harbor when she went ashore. The material was of white duck, with a very loose, blouse-like waist, and a broad rolling collar of dark blue, open at the throat, such as is worn by her Majesty's men-of-war's men. The arms of the Royal Yacht Club were heavily embroidered on the sleeves, and a regular navy cap completed the costume.

Senator Eihu E. Jackson, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Maryland is about 50 years of age. He is happily married and has five children. He lives handsomely in a fine house at Salisbury, where he dispenses a truly Southern hospitality. He is a business man of ability and reputation, and is president of two national banks. He was at one time president of the Maryland Senate. He has always been a Democrat and is well acquainted with the needs of his State.

A recent Vienna dispatch to the London Daily News said that the Crown Prince Rudolph, during his visit to Galicia, in reply to a deputation of the Polish nobles who expressed their faith and loyal allegiance, said that he should always be glad to hear that the Polish nobility identified the common interests of the Empire with their own. This episode is remarkable, as showing that the old feeling of disloyalty among the Polish aristocracy is dying out.

The number of Dakota settlers who are living without record or title on unsurveyed public lands is estimated from 3,000 to 5,000. Congress appropriated only $40,000 for surveying public lands and the surveyor general of Dakota has been ordered to make no surveys unless they are positively necessary. The result is that the settlers are uneasy, and that they contrast the meagre appropriation with the $100,000 appropriated under the Indian severalty bill for surveys on the reservations. Considering how few and weak the Indians are and how many strong the whites, the latter manifest a singular jealousy.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XI. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1887. NO. 189

The programme of the President's trip to the South and West will not be made known for a couple of weeks yet.

The Church Messenger, heretofore published at Charlotte, has been merged into the Church and Home, of Jacksonville, Fla.

In the big yacht race at the North the Volunteer came in first, three hours and a half ahead of the Maryflower, which was second.

There is another big freshet running in the Savannah river, and more injury to crops is sure to follow. Parts of Augusta are already under water.

Gen B-ulanger has written to his seconds a letter in which he says: "Public opinion will judge between one, who a long distance off, insults a general of the army, and will only grant him derisory reparation, and myself who purposed to risk my life in order to avenge my honor as a soldier."

Vast forest fires are raging on the German-Belgian frontier. A special in yesterday's New York Herald, from Brussels, says:

A vast fire has broken out in Herzogenwald, on the German-Belgian frontier, in the forest which extends twenty-five leagues on Belgian and German territory on the road from Verviers to Air-la-Chapelle. The fire began on the German side of the line and is spreading rapidly on the Belgian side, in a sheet of flame over one mile and a quarter wide, toward the district known as Les Hautes-Fagnes. If it once reaches the great peat bogs of that neighborhood it is feared that the fire may last for weeks. The origin of the disaster has not yet been discovered.

All of the fools are not dead yet, but they die off occasionally. Here is an account of the mad freak of one of them, as contained in a dispatch from Baltimore:

Charles Hopkins played ghost last night, wrapping himself in a sheet, and attempted to frighten a few laborers in a brickyard at the corner of Goney's lane and Biddle street. All of the laborers, with the exception of Wm E. Goodwyn, ran. Goodwyn called upon his ghostship to halt, and not being obeyed, fired his revolver, the ball entering the ghost's mouth and lodging behind his ear. The spectre uttered a yell and fell to the ground. He was taken to the Maryland University hospital, and Goodwyn was arrested and committed to jail this morning charged with shooting with intent to kill.

There are more deaths from cholera in Europe now than is generally understood. The returns for Sunday last are thus given in a special from Rome: Aderno, 25 new cases and 11 deaths; Paterno, 9 new cases and 4 deaths; Licola, 15 new cases and 4 deaths; Biancoville, 11 new cases and 4 deaths; smaller towns, 14 new cases and 11 deaths; Palermo, 6 new cases and 3 deaths; Resina, 17 new cases and 6 deaths; Catania, 9 new cases and 3 deaths.

There were 604 deaths from cholera in Catania during the month of July. The government has forbidden the holding of all public festivals. Fourteen new cases of cholera and ten deaths from the disease were reported in Naples on Saturday. A despatch from Malta reports seven new cases of cholera and two deaths from the disease on the island to day.

There was an interesting time at the Navy Department in New York, at noon on Monday last, when the bids for the new cruisers and gunboats were opened. The New York Star says: There was a large attendance of naval officers and contractors at the Navy Department at noon to day when the bids for the cruisers and the gunboats were opened. Among those present were Secretary Whitney, Engineer in Chief Meville, Chief of Ordnance Siesard, Chief Constructor Wilson, and other heads of bureaus. The bids were opened in the following order: Cramp & Sons for cruiser No. 1, class 3, $1,248,000; Cramp & Sons for cruiser No. 5, class 1, $1,510,000; Union Iron Works, San Francisco, for cruisers Nos. 4 and 5, both class 1, $1,428,000 (this is a bid for either); Cramp & Sons, class 2, cruisers 4 and 5, bidder to supply hull and machinery, $1,325,000 in each case. They propose to take the hull of the present cruiser No. 3 and put in a special bid for it. One bid is for a three-inch deck and one for a four-inch deck; Cramp & Sons, class 2, cruisers 4 and 5 special design, $1,355,000; William Cramp & Sons, class 3, cruisers 4, detective, price omitted; cruiser 5 detective, price omitted; interchangeable cruiser No. 4 and 5, $1,405,000. Mr. Cramp stated privately that the omitted bids must be in the other papers. William Cramp & Sons, gunboat 3, gunboat 4, both of class 3, $495,000 each; N. F. Palmer, Jr., & Co., of New York, gunboats 3 and 4, class 1, $490,000 each; Cramp & Sons, cruiser No. 1, $1,248,000.

Secretary Whitney said to a representative of the United Press after opening the bids: It is a great relief to my mind getting this out of the way. The requirements which the contractors assume are more exacting than in the case of any previous bidding. The law for cruisers Nos. 4 and 5 provides that the contract for the construction of them shall contain provisions to the effect that the contractor guarantees that when completely tested for speed, under conditions to be prescribed by this department, the vessel shall exhibit a maximum speed of at least 19 knots per hour and for every quarter knot of speed so exhibited above said guarantee the contractor shall receive a premium over and above his contract price of $50,000 and for every quarter knot that said vessels fail of reaching said guaranteed speed there shall be deducted from the contract price the sum of $50,000. The department has prescribed a four hours' run for the trial, the vessel to be loaded to her mean draught, so that there is to be no shaming in the condition of the trial.

A Perilous Postponement.
To postpone, when duty for immediate action is clear, is always unwise. Especially is it so when in regard to health calls for a resort to medication. Diseases of the kidneys and bladder are often of a swift growth, and fatal tendency if not arrested at the outset. We have even those of us who are not remarkable as well instructed—heard something of the danger of a disease, diabetes, or other diseases of the kidneys or bladder. Let not one be foolishly enough to procrastinate if he perceives the renal organs to be in any way affected. Such diseases are peculiarly adapted to over-charge the system, to substantially the state, without exciting the kidneys and bladder. Indulging in this disease is to be preferred to the impure and fiery stimulants of commerce, which prove the base of urinary peccators with a tendency to renal troubles. They are likewise incompatible for dyspepsia, debility, fever and ague, and bloodlessness.

Rice birds are next in order and then come oysters.

One brig and one schooner were reported in below this forenoon, bound up.

A cart load of cabbages were condemned yesterday and sent out of the city.

Some very fine tomatoes were sold in market this morning at 20 cents per peck.

The Charleston City Council have invited President Cleveland to visit their town.

The merchants are busy taking stock preparatory to making up their lists of Fall purchases.

The dog days end to-day and the hottest of the Summer season is a thing of the past.

Mr. C C Covington has removed his office to the first floor of the Sprunt building, on Walnut street, near Nutt.

At last accounts there was fifteen feet of water on the shoals at Fayetteville, a consequence of recent heavy rains in the interior.

Swedish barque Heide, Wulff, cleared to day for Riga, Russia, with 3,850 bbls rosin, valued at $4,126, shipped by Messrs Paterson, Downing & Co.

Barque Erna was cleared yesterday for Liverpool, with 2,200 bbls spirits turpentine and 2,041 bbls, rosin, valued at $35,000, shipped by Messrs. Alex Sprunt & Son.

The latter part of August and the entire month of September is the most pleasant part of the season at the seashore. Our friends in the interior will make a note of this fact. Distances are deceptive, sometimes, as well on paper as in the perspective. It is 27 miles from Wilmington to the Oslow line and hence but 13 miles from the line to New River.

The walls of the old Cape Fear Mill, corner of Nutt and Walnut streets, which was destroyed in the big fire of February 21, 1886, are being pulled down, as they are considered unsafe.

The two members of the Salvation Army who were arrested on Monday night for holding meetings in the streets were not heard before the Mayor this morning, but the case was continued until next Monday.

Mayor Fowler has issued his proclamation concerning the sale of liquor on election day. All places where it is sold must be closed at 6 o'clock this afternoon and not be reopened until 6 o'clock on Friday morning.

Messrs. C S Love & Co. received to-day the first open cotton bolls from Bladen county. They are two in number and unusually large in size and fine in texture. They are from the plantation of Maj. T. D. Love.

A disinterested estimate we heard to-day is to the effect that the vote for the railroad subscription to-morrow will be four to one. We do not think so. We are rather inclined to think that the vote may be close. It will be, at all events, if the friends of the measure, through over-confidence in the result, stay away from the polls.

Indication.
For North Carolina, fair weather, warmer in the western portion, and stationary temperature in the eastern portion.

Correction.
There was a slight inaccuracy in our report yesterday of the shooting of Simon Richardson. He was not advancing towards his stepson with brass knuckles when he was shot and his wife did not so testify. It was on the night previous that he had the knuckles on. And he was shot in the right breast, instead of in the arm, the ball passing out about inches from the spot at which it entered, grazing the ribs and making merely a flesh wound.

A Bad Day for Snakes.
Mr. R. J. Nixon of Grant township, in Pender county, sent in to-day to Mr. R. R. Bellamy, the druggist, a box full of snake eggs, just on the eve of incubation. One of them was broken and from it there emerged a young snake 12 inches in length. Mr. Nixon says that last August, in two shots, he killed 64 snakes, the smallest of which was 13 inches long, and it was not a good day for snakes, either. If everybody else could snow a like record the breed of snakes would soon become scarce.

Operating Expenses.
We not only believe that a line of railway from this city to New River will pay the people of Wilmington in a largely increased volume of trade but we see no reason in the world why it should not pay a dividend on the investment. There is no doubt, in our mind, that it will more than pay expenses. While in Pitsboro recently we made some enquires as to the cost of operating the Pitsboro branch of the R & A. Air Line. This road is 11 1/2 miles in length, running from Moncure to Pitsboro, and two trains each day are run over the road. The entire cost of operating the road, including the road master and his force, is about $13 per day. It is 40 miles from this city to New River and $40 a day, according to the expenses of the Pitsboro R. R. ought to pay for operating a road to that point. This, it seems to us, is a liberal estimate. It is at the rate of $1,000 per month and $12,000 per year. It seems to us, therefore, that nothing but gross mismanagement would prevent the road from paying a dividend as well as expenses.

Personal.
Mr. R. E. Lee, of Laurinburg, was in the city yesterday.
Col. Alfred Rowland's health continues to improve, but slowly.
Hon. O. P. Meares is holding Criminal Court in Charlotte this week.
We regret to learn that Mayor Fowler is sick and confined to the house.
Mr. F. W. Clark, G. P. A. Seaboard Air Line, was in the city yesterday and registered at the Orton.
The family of Capt. J. H. Sharp, Secretary of the Carolina Central R. R. are at Henderson, in Vance county.
Capt. Wilson, of the Louise, has a very sick child, his youngest, a daughter, being so ill that she is not expected to live.
Mr. Fred H. London and family, of Rock Hill, S. C., who have been on a visit to this city for a few days, leave to-night.
Mr. W. F. Williams, of the Carolina Central, has gone to Eilenboro, to join Col. Jones, who is there superintending the repairs to the road.
Mr. Bernard P. Ryan, of New York, who has been visiting relatives in this city, leaves to-night for a short sojourn in the Switzerland of America.
Mrs. James Darby and her daughter, Miss Mamie, are sojourning at Carolina Beach and Miss Lizzie Darby is visiting relatives at Long Island City, N. Y.
Alderman Fishblade presides over affairs at the City Hall during Mayor Fowler's absence. He has been there before and knows exactly how to do it.

The Last Chance.
To buy clothing at 40 and 50 cents on the dollar. Don't miss the opportunity of getting a slice of the numerous bargains now to be had at I Shrier's. Remember that this is no humbugging scheme. Every dollar's worth of goods must be sold before Shrier's removal to the mammoth store in the Purcell building on Front street. It would be advisable for country merchants to give him a call and get bargains in job lots.

Dog Collars. Large assortment just received. Can buy a nice collar for 25 cents up, at JACOB'S HDW. DEPOT.

Death of Miss Lily Judge.
We regret to learn of the death at Savannah, today, of Miss Lily Judge, eldest daughter of the late John Judge, formerly of this city. The funeral services will take place to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock, from St. Thomas' Church.

Carolina Beach. Keep cool and remember that the headquarters for bathing suits is at the Wilmington Shirt Factory. Suits made to order Ladies a specialty. J. ELSBACH, Prop., 27 Market street.

City Court.
Acting Mayor Fishblade disposed of the following cases this morning:
Member Hawkins, charged with disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days.
Andrew Laspeyre, drunk and down, $5 or 5 days.
Ephraim Hurst, found sleeping on the streets, was ordered locked up until his mother calls for him.

Collegiate.
Mr. H. A. Bagg, Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, has received a letter from Hon. K. P. Battle, President of the State University, notifying him that the Legislature has repealed the act authorizing "County Students," but stating that indigent students may give their notes for the amount of tuition, $60, and that the sons of preachers, and those proposing to study for the ministry, may enter free of charge for tuition. The teacher's course is free. All must, however, pay $10 per collegiate year.

Are you going to build, repair or paint? Then buy your material from JACOB'S HDW. DEPOT. He will supply you with the best and save you money.
Headquarters for base ball supplies is at Heinsberger's.
