The Daily Review

JOSH. T. JAMES. Editor & Prop WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1847. tered at the Postofice at Wilmington, N. C. s second-class matter.

It is teared that serious troubles wil result in connection with the succession of William III. King of Holland, who s now old and very seriously ill. He recently visited Curlsbad for treatment, but derived no benefit whatever therefrom He is now seventy-one ears of age, and cannot live much onger He is the last of male descendints of the House of Orange. After his death, if there is no outside inter erence. Holland will be governed by a council of regents. It is, however. sserted that Prince Bismarck will interfere, and witl put forward the hereditary Duke of Nassau who is the beir presumptive to the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, now held by the King of Holland, as chief of the Orange Nassau amily. The old Duke of Nassau, his tather, is one of the German princes de posed by Prussia in 1866, and was one of the first of these petty sovereigns who afterwards became reconciled to their conqueror. The young Dake married last year a Princes of Baden who is a granddaughter of Emperor William. The German authorities have, for some time past, been building forts along the Dutch frontier. These are now 50,000 German soldiers so disposed that they can be moved into Holland at a lew hours' notice.

Five new steamships are now in process of construction for the transatlantie passenger traffic One of these, the Pocahontas is an American vessel. built at Alexandria, Va. She will have her trial trip from Newport News in ADIES OR GENTLEMEN DESIRING two or three weeks. She is 540 feet long, 10 feet breadth of beam and 46 feet l'epth of hold. Her builder pre dict that she can cross the Atlantic in four days. She was built long and narrow for the express purpose of achieving speed. A new steamer. the North German Lloyd line, will be enough without being painted." aunched this month. She is expected to be the strongest and finest boat owned by this company. The Inman Com passenger ocean steamer affoat. She is being built at Birkenhead, and will be next in size to the Great Eastern In marked contrast to the Pocahontas, the new Inman boat is to be uncommonly long, 62 feet beam and 43 feet depth of hold The new ship will cost about man. $2,000,000, and is contracted to be delivered to the Inman Company early in other morning, "I haven't seen you for 1888. Comfort and saf ty are the two features sought to be attained in her construction. A fast steamship is now building for the White Star Line a Bellast, and the Hamburg Line has also ordered a new steamship from a British builder. It is estimated that the aggregate cost of the five new boats will not be far from $7,000,000.

> Senator Voorhees was "interviewed at Indianapolis a day or two ago, and the result appears in the form of a fine neryous, Democratic utterance. Mr Voorhees thinks that the party which prevails at the polls should at ouce take charge of the government. He holds that this is the logic of our political constitution-the dominant party incurs a responsibility and can discharge that responsibility only in person and not by proxy.

It has been said, though never with any authority, says the New York Star, that Senator Voorhees is among those who criticise Mr. Clevel and's administration on the score of lukewarm ness in its Democracy and failure to come up to the standard of party obligations. But the Senator, now that he is allowed to speak for himself, gives little countenance to this story. He

"But if you think nothing has been done to eliminate Republican partisan poison from our political system, suppose you cast your mind's eye around over Indiana and see how many Republican officeholders you can find in this great commonwealth. There is but one presidential postoffice in the State which I can think of at this moment where a change has not been made, and if there is a fourth class post office in the State not filled by a Democrat it is because no Democrat has been found willing to take it. I have in my office also a list of about one hundred and fifty young Indiana Democrats who have been appointed

Mr Voorhees could have added tast what he says of Indiana is true of all the other States in at least an equal degree. Being a well-informed public man, he of course knows that the work of equipping the machinery of government with Democrats has been prosecuted with a vigor unparelleled in our history, though always without prejudice to the transaction of the public business, and, in fact, distinctly to the benefit of its efficiency. Upon the whole, Senator Voorhees has paid a timely and sincere tribute to the Administration. And, as time goes on and the occasion seems oppor tune, other prominent party leaders will add their testimony to the success | moh 28 and honor and patriotism of the reestablished regime of true Democracy.
