WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1887 terest at the Postofice at Wilmington, N. C. as second-class matter.

Political magnates at Raleigh are looking forward with feelings of not altogether unmixed satisfaction to the next political contest We believe that the Democratic party is safe as regards any opposition but not safe as egards strown action. Thoroughly organized and thoroughly aroused they are invincible but theirown supineness and inaction may give the victory to the enemy. Phila, lequirer There is more danger from within than from without and this condition of affairs is plainly set forth in he follow- foreign label.- Lowell Courier. tng, which we clip from the Raleigh correspondence of the Petersburg Index-Appeal:

There is considerable rejoicing in this city on the part of Republicans at the name "Mr Carmine Undergarment" failing off in the Democratic majority -Puck. in Kentucky at the recent election, and t must be said that the Democratic leaders are considerably disappointed. That it will have the effect of causing more discretion in the selection of can didates and the adoption of prudent tashion of calling his father by his given pratforms, both in a national and state name, and the fashion lasted about point of view, in the contest next year thirty seconds. - Detroit Free Press is presumable, and to this extent it has election next year will not be a mere | -Burlington Free Press. 'walk over" for the Democratic party consideration it is best that it is so. It is attributable in a great measure to Free Press over confidence, a political malady that has oftentimes beretofore proven latal. If the Democrat's party would win in he great contest of 1888, there must be several new, and it may be said, radical departures. Since the last presidential and gubernatorial election new elements have sprung up and topics promise conflicting opinions on mat- delineration. - Pillsburg Disput h ters never before discussed in this which has loomed up to immense proor so A new declaration of principles when he knows him."- Exchange regarding the tariff, internal revenue, civil rights and civil service reform are all very well as embodying the princi ples of the party on national politics. but something else is needed nearer home to obtain for he Democratic party that strict allegiance in the future which has led it on to victory in the past. It is useless men in North Carolina who have here to attemp to shut out the fact that there is something like lukewarmness on the part of a large number of white tofore voted the Democratic ticket. It is better to be candid in this matter and address ourselves to the task of taking proper steps to remedy it. than to await until it shall, perhaps, end in disaster. If the Democratic party would win it should realize the plain fact that it must adapt itself to the needs, as far as possible, of all the elements that com pose it Instead of some of the recog nized leaders of the party being engag ed in the effort to breed discord by a systematic growling over the dispensation of Federal patronage, it would be a source of much more benefit to the people of the State, and certainly a greater advantage to the Democratic party, it their efforts are devoted to weasures productive of unity in the great contest before us. First and foremost, there should be an end of manworshipping in North Carolina It would be well, for instance, if Vanceism were for a time, at least, merged into the Democratic party at large, and that the enthusiastic adherents of other partisan leaders should 'pool their you; capital not needed. This is one of the preferences" for the general good of the party. In a word, the old time charge that Democratic party is held together by the cohesive power of public plunder' should be exploded and the pronounciamento should be sent forth that it adheres to the grand old Jeffersonian idea as a party of the people bearing for its motto, "the greatest good to the greatest number." In view of the seeming difficulties looming up in the near future, it is hoped these hints may not be entirely fruitless, but may be productive of, at least, a small share of ordinary caution. The danger to the Democratic party in North Carolina comes not so much from the direction of its Republican opponents as from ambitious aspirations of leaders within its own ranks. Let it be understood that selfish considerations are paltry in comparison with whatever tends to A particle is applied into each nostril and is promote the best interests of the great agreeable.
