Miss Braddon's new novel, The Fatal Three, is probably a treatise on "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion."

A hot weather rumor at Washington is that the President can't spare a man from the Cabinet and has picked out Judge Edward W. Pettus, of Alabama, for the Supreme Court vacancy. But the secretary has notified his department heads to have in their reports a month ahead of the usual time, and what is to be deduced from that?

Carelessness takes the lead in causing fires. Out of 706 fires, which are recorded in the last quarterly report of the New York fire department, 385 are put down as the result of carelessness. Smokers were responsible for 50 and fireworks for 10. It looks as though the smokers were as much in need of regulation as the dealers in fireworks.

Physicians in New York feel some alarm at the increasing number of young women who indulge to a great extent in deadly stimulants and narcotics like chloral or opium. Both here and in England "her drops" are as much a part of a fashionable married woman's toilet as her cologne bottle, and are used with as much freedom as men employ in calling for cocktails at the club, "with a dash of absinthe."

A French land-owner died the other day leaving the whole of his estate, valued at $125,000, to the German Government for the purpose of founding a German settlement. He did this because he was sentenced to a year's imprisonment, in 1866, for shooting at and wounding a workman who dunned him for a debt of $2.50. He was a man of ungovernable temper, and declared that he would avenge himself for the infamy cast upon him by the Court.

According to a report issued by the Dan Mercantile Agency the new high license law in Minnesota is likely to reduce the number of saloons in that State one-half. In Minneapolis the number has fallen from 336 to 309, in Duluth from 113 to 60, while in Brown county 18 saloons out of 30 have gone out of the business. In Stillwater the number of saloons has been one-half, in Mankato more than one-half. New Ulm loses 18 saloons, Fergus Falls 16, Hastings 11, &c.

All caucuses in New York, in cities which have a population of 10,000 or over, will be conducted hereafter under an Act of the last Legislature, which requires fair and open notice of at least a week for every caucus. Voting must be by ballot, and a poll-list must be kept, while watchers are allowed to each candidate. Caucuses must be held open from forty-five minutes to an hour and a half, according to the Republican vote. The credentials are to be according to a defined form, and placed with the poll list in the hands of the chairman of the county committee.

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" perfectly and permanently cures those diseases peculiar to females. It is tonic and nerve, effectually allaying and curing those sickening sensations that affect the stomach and heart, through reflex action. The backache and "dragging-down" sensations all disappear under the strengthening effects of this great restorative. By druggists.

The American salutation "Hello" has travelled with the telephone around the world. The French have modified it into "Allo," and suppose it to be a corruption of "allons," under which form the word is printed on the telecards explaining the use of the telephone—an instructive example of the mistakes of etymologists. We see here an illustration of the universal adaptability of our American language. When Mr. Wharton Barker gets his telephones in operation in China, no doubt the mandarins will "hello" at one another as angrily as any Yankees.

Gen. James Longstreet lives in a quiet farm house on the summit of a mountain ridge in north Georgia. A friend who has just been paying him a visit says that his hair is silver, his whiskers are snow, his giant figure somewhat bent, but his eagle eyes still flash with the old-time fire, and years have only deepened the strong lines in his face. He was dressed for comfort. He did not care that his collar was awry, that his waistcoat adorned a chair post, that his alpaca coat was ripped up the back, and he did not care that his slippers went flap-flap-flap against his heels as he walked.

Worth Knowing
Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottle free at W. H. Green & Co's Drug Store.

Keens Her Youth
Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, only 50c. For sale by W. H. Green & Co.

HEINSBERGER'S—Do You Know It?

The harvest moon dawns at 24 minutes past 12 o'clock to-night.

Two new instruments, base and alto, have been received by the Germania Cornet Band.

Paints and Varnish. Best in city at JACOBI'S, and at lower prices than you can buy elsewhere.

Capt. Tomlinson, of the steamer Cape Fear, reports eight feet of water on the shoals at Fayetteville.

The schooner Delhi arrived this morning from Bath, Me., with a cargo of ice for Mr. B. H. J. Ahrens.

The attendance of the authorities is called to the condition of Second street, between Mulberry and Walnut.

Capt. Mac Wilson reports that the thunder storm was very severe at Southport last night, but did no damage.

A very large party of ladies, gentlemen and children went to Carolina Beach this morning on the steamer Pasquotank.

Health Officer James and the Clerk of Front Street Market this morning condemned 15 watermelons and sent them out of the city.

The steam tug Alex. Jones, recently purchased by Capt. J. T. Harper, left Baltimore yesterday morning. She is expected here to-morrow.

Deputy Sheriff Elder now has in all 97 persons to take care of at the county jail. Of this number 3 are held for appearance before the United States Court and 4 are from Pender county.

Last night was fearfully sultry and uncomfortable but the pressure was released at 1 o'clock, when a heavy thunder storm came up and showered down just about enough rain to cool the overheated atmosphere.

Carolina Beach. Keep cool and remember that the headquarters for bathing suits is at the Wilmington Shirt Factory. Suits made to order. La lies a specialty. J. ELSBACH, Prop., 27 Market street.

The steamer Cape Fear arrived here about 2 o'clock this morning with about 125 excursionists on board, from Fayetteville and intermediate points. To-day the excursionists visited the Sound and the Beach.

At the Carolina Oil and Creosote Works foundations are being laid for four large oil retorts, each of which has a capacity of 475 gallons of oil per diem and another creosoting cylinder has been purchased, which is believed to be the largest in the world, measuring one hundred feet in length, with a diameter of six feet.

Down the River.
The Greensboro News says that Mr. Sam Wilson, of that city, has planned a novel excursion trip on which he started Friday evening. He has had a boat built by Mr. Frank Whittington, of Greensboro, in which he proposes to start from Jamestown on Deep River and make a trip by boat to Wilmington. The boat is light and substantially built. The lumber of which it was made was brought from New York. Mr. Wilson will take a friend with him and a tent and the nights will be spent on shore.

Lippincott's.
Lippincott's Monthly Magazine for September opens with a brilliant romance entitled "The Red Mountain Mines," by Lew Vanderpool, author of "Rohainah" etc., in which the pioneer life of California is painted with a firm and artistic hand. An article of great and timely interest, in view of the approaching Constitutional Centennial to be held in Philadelphia, is "Monroe D. Conway's 'A Suppressed Statesman.'" It deals with the life of Edmund Randolph, of Virginia, a name now almost unknown, to whom Mr. Conway insists that the initiation and ratification of the Constitution were especially due. Genie Holtzmeier contributes an amusing bit of autobiography entitled "How an English Girl Sought to Make a Living." Frank Carpenter reports a conversation with the man who captured John Wilkes Booth. James Cummings writes of "Social Life at Johns Hopkins University." The poems are by Alice Wellington Rollins, A. Lampman, and Robertson Trowbridge. In the Monthly Gossip the Editor makes a good-natured reply to criticisms on his July talk to contributors, and in Book-Talk he reviews Howells, Haggard, Sidney Luska, Miss Baylor, and others.

Strange Editorial Courtesy.
The insinuation of our neighbor, the Review, that the communication signed "Physician" was written by some one connected with the Messenger, is unworthy the friendship that has ever existed between this paper and the Review, and falls far short of that editorial courtesy for which Bro. James has ever been esteemed by this writer. "Physician" is indeed an M. D. of high and excellent professional standing in this city, the Review's insinuations to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bro. Bonitz is very kindly assured that if there is to be a rupture of the friendship which has existed between his paper and the Review for more than ten years past, it will not be the fault of the writer. We shall but defend ourselves and that we shall continue to do, always. If there has been a breach of "editorial courtesy" the fault is not at our door. We have noticed in the course of an editorial life reaching over more than fifteen years, that different people entertain different ideas on this subject. For instance, if we had made an assertion we would try and back it up ourselves, and not allow an anonymous writer to do it for us. And furthermore, if the situation had been reversed we would not have published the communication which appeared in Tuesday's Messenger. We would not have allowed an anonymous outsider to attack the Messenger as Bro. Bonitz has allowed one to attack the Review. If the publication of the article referred to, especially in the circumstances under which it was published, is not considered by our neighbor a breach of "editorial courtesy" then we would be glad to have his views as to what "editorial courtesy" really is.

In the meantime, as an illustration of what "editorial courtesy" actually should be, we suggest that Bro. Bonitz publish the name of his anonymous correspondent.

Dog Collars. Large assortment just received. Can buy a nice collar from 25 cents up, at JACOBI'S Hdq. Depot.

Closed on their Option.
The Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina R. R., who had secured an option on the purchase of a half interest in the hammock at Wrightsville and the banks opposite, as was first mentioned in the Review, did not wait until to-day, when their option would have expired, but closed yesterday afternoon and the necessary papers for the transfer are now being made out. In the mean time the fact that the Sneed family at Wrightsville claim possession of the hammock may complicate matters somewhat.

The Irrepressible Obadiah
About 9 o'clock this morning Obadiah Jenkins visited the saloon of Monroe Byrd, on South Water street, and struck a colored man. Officer Gordon was called upon and arrested Jenkins and Officer Wiggs was assisting in escorting him to the guard house. On Market street, Jenkins resisted the officers and got Mr. Gordon's hand in his mouth and proceeded to masticate it, biting out entirely the nail on one of the fingers of the left hand. Officer Gordon had to use his club freely and it took the united strength of several men to get Obadiah on a dray and hold him there while he was being conveyed to the guard house. This spree will probably cost Mr. Jenkins very severely.—This biting business is classed as mayhem in the law and the penalty for it is no trifle. It is probable that the festive Obadiah will now retire to the shades of private life for some time to come.

Personal
Capt. H. Von Glaba has gone North to make his Fall purchases.
Mr. James H. Taylor has returned from a few days sojourn at the Rocks, where he had fine sport in fishing.
Mr. W. M. Parsley, of the W. C. & A. R. R., who has been North to spend his vacation, returned to the city last night.
Mr. D. G. Worth has returned to the city from an extensive trip in the Western part of this State and a part of Tennessee.
We were pleased to meet this morning our friend, Ernest Hicks, formerly of this city, but now traveling salesman for a Philadelphia house.
Messrs. C. C. Lyons, of Elizabethtown, M. N. Tatum, of White Oak, and Capt. T. J. Green, of White Hall, arrived with the excursionists from Fayetteville this morning.
Messrs. C. W. Yates and J. W. Woolvin, the only members resident in this city of Co. E 3rd N. C. Cavalry, have gone to Kinston to attend the reunion of that gallant command.
Mr. D. J. Powell, of the Holly Shelter district of Pender county, was in the city to-day and we were sorry to hear him say that there has been too much rain in his section and that the crop prospects there have been injured very much in consequence.
Our friend, Scott Robinson, of the upper Black River section, who was in town a few days ago, told us that the cotton in his neighborhood was not as good as he had hoped it would be, but that corn, peas and other crops are just magnificent.
Mr. Walker Taylor, of the insurance firm of Northrop, Hodges & Taylor, accompanied by Mr. Joseph S. Bean, Manager of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Louisville, went to Southport on Wednesday and is still there enjoying the "fresh salt" air.
Mr. A. J. Bloodworth, of the Colley section, near Point Caswell, was in to see us yesterday. He confirms the good reports of the crops in that locality, and says that while the corn crop is very fine, the cotton is something better than that; it is the finest, he says, ever raised on the fertile lands of that section.
Mr. John B. Munson has resigned his position in Capt. Emerson's office, in this city, to take that of Chief Clerk in the office of Col. W. A. Turk, of Raleigh, Freight and Passenger Agent of the North Carolina Division of the Richmond & Danville R. R. and Mr. George Cardwell, who has also been employed in Capt. Emerson's office for some time past, has been promoted to the position vacated by Mr. Munson. We part with our young friend with a great deal of regret. He is one of the most popular young men in the city, and deservedly so.

Indications
For North Carolina, local rains, followed by fair weather. South, to West winds, stationary temperature in eastern portion, and slightly warmer in Western portion.

For about 15 minutes this morning, during the prevalence of the thunder storm, the wind blew at the rate of 28 miles an hour.

Mr. A. Liebman has repainted the front of his store, No. 124 Market street. It presents a neat appearance. He will have a large stock of Fall goods in a few days.

The First Bale.
The first bale of new cotton was received here yesterday via the W. C. & A. R. R. from D. McLendon, of Timmons-ville, S. C., and consigned to Messrs. Worth & Worth. It was sold at 12 o'clock to-day at auction at the Produce Exchange. It graded middling and was sold to Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son at 13 cents. The Clyde Line steamship Benefactor will take it to New York. The first bale last year was received two days later.

New Uniforms.
The new uniforms ordered by the members of Germania Cornet Band, from a Chicago house, arrived to-day. They are fourteen in number and are all neat, tasty and handsome. The coats are of marine blue cloth, with gold collars, and epaulettes, and braided with gold in front. There is also gold braid on each sleeve, precisely similar in design to that which ornamented the sleeves of a Confederate captain in uniform during the war, and there are three rows of buttons in front. The pants are of cadet blue, with a thin gold stripe down the seam, and the helmet is of navy blue ornamented with a gold chain and gold trimmings and a horse-hair plume.
The band will make their first appearance in the new suits on Wednesday next, on which day they will give a grand excursion to Carolina Beach.

Building Permits.
A number of permits for the erection of new buildings were issued yesterday. Among them was one to Mr. O. G. Parsley for a brick building on Mulberry street, between Front and Water; Mr. H. C. Evans, frame dwelling on Second, between Orange and Ann, and Mr. Elijah Hewlett, frame dwelling on Castle, between Sixth and Seventh. The others have already been mentioned by us.

A Good Man Gone.
A note from a friend at Clarkton tells us of the death at Elizabethtown, yesterday morning, of Mr. J. W. Clark, after six months of suffering from that fell disease, consumption. He was one of the most prominent citizens of Bladen county and was honored and loved by all who knew him. He had been a member of the Board of County Commissioners for a number of years. There is general regret expressed at the loss of so good a man.

"The Old Reliable."
The large and attractive advertisement of Mr. I. Shrier, the "Old Reliable," will attract the attention of the reader to-day. Mr. Shrier will remove in a few weeks to handsome quarters on North Front street, where he will soon open with a new and attractive stock. We regret his departure from the "old settlement." It will be five years, in October, that we have occupied the same building together and our intercourse has always been of the most pleasant nature. May he prosper wherever he goes.

"Too Young to Die."
We regret deeply to learn of the death of Mr. Willie S. Hardwicke, son of Maj. Geo. W. Hardwicke, Foreman of the Star office, which took place at his old home in Bedford county, Virginia, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. He died of consumption, which long since had marked him for its own. He was not quite 30 years of age and leaves a wife and a child to mourn their loss. He had been a resident of this city for nearly twelve years past and his many friends here will grieve for him sincerely.

Chronic Rheumatism Cured.
VALLEY STREAM, N. Y., Jan. 23, '85.
I am a boatman, and upwards of sixty years of age. During the past two years I have suffered severely from rheumatism of the lower part of my back. My back ached without cessation, and at times I thought I would be paralyzed. I procured two ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS and put them across the lower part of my spine. In twenty-four hours all pain had ceased. At the end of a week I put on two fresh ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, wore them ten days, then took them off and washed my back with a little alcohol which removed every trace of the plaster. It is now three months since the plasters cured me, and I feel very much stronger and better than ever before.
ROBERT G. ELDEBT.

PLEASE NOTICE
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects—general interest but the name of the writer must always be attached to the Editor. Communications must be written on one side of the paper. Personalities must be avoided; and it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always echo the views of correspondents unless so set in the editorial columns.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

To the Public.

THE UNDERSIGNED, WHO HAS BEEN engaged in the Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Business in this city for nearly twenty years, will within a few weeks remove to new, large and commodious quarters on North Front street, and he takes this opportunity of thanking his many kind friends and patrons for the liberal patronage he has so long received at their hands and to assure them that in the future he will use his best endeavors to please them and retain their valued custom. Respectfully,
I. SHRIER.

In a short time I will go North, not for the purpose of replenishing my stock, but to buy an Entirely New and Elegant Line of Goods for the Fall and Winter Trade!

I have but a small part of last Winter's stock on hand now, having managed to clean it out last Winter and Spring, but I have a fair line of Summer goods in the way, which Must and Will be Disposed of!

I do not want to carry a dollar's worth of old stock to my new quarters, if it can possibly be avoided. I have no room for it there and have determined to get rid of everything before I move.

My goods have been marked down to almost nominal prices, and I am offering Extraordinary Inducements to Cash Buyers!

I will refuse no reasonable offer and I guarantee everything just as it is represented to be when sold. Come and see the goods and the prices, but do not buy unless you find it to your advantage to do so.
