AUGUST ANTICS.

In high spirits—a summer thermometer. The refined lard manufacturer has a trying time of it.

The quickest way to rise in the world is to go up in a balloon. There is only one season in the year for the kangaroo—spring.

The longer a man lives the more he knows about what he doesn't know. A girl may be like sugar for two reasons.

The susceptible youth is like the mosquito. There is little hope for him after he gets mashed.

A half-grown shark is said to be good eating. The full-grown is admitted to be a good eater.

A postage stamp is like a youngster. It is always stuck to business after it has been thoroughly licked.

"Order is heaven's first law," says Pope, and the restaurant keeper thinks it ought to be the customer's too.

When does a lady treat a man like a telescope? When she draws him out, looks him through and then shuts him up.

Don't call a very large, strong, sinewy man a provicator. If you are sure he is a provicator hire another man to break the news to him.

If, through the success of the agitation for the women's rights, women ever come to sit in the jury box, intuits will probably get to be criers in the court.

A lady who advertised for a girl "to do light house work," received a letter from an applicant who said her health demanded sea air and a job where the lighthouse was situated.

"There's some cloud resting on Squander. Every time I meet him he is gloomier than before. He must owe a lot of money." "That isn't what troubles him, though. It's because he can't owe any more."

Give Them A Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad.

There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup.

W. J. McDonald

In returning thanks to you for my miserable cure of eczema or salt rheum, I deem it a pleasure to give you a detailed account of my case, and as there is, and always will be a prejudice against a verified remedy, you have my consent to publish the result, and all inquiries, by letter or in person, I will cheerfully answer.

At the age of three months a rash made its appearance on my face. A physician was called and he said nothing was the cause, he prescribed some cooling medicine, but the sores spread to my ears and head. Another M. D. was called. He professed to know all about the case, called it "King's Evil" and prescribed gunpowder, brimstone, and lard mixed into a salve, but the disease continued.

Nothing is known to science at all capable of the CUTICURA REMEDY in the various properties of cleansing, purifying, beautifying the skin and in curing the itching, itching, itching, and pimply eruptions of the skin, scalp and head, with hair loss, and a positive cure for every form of skin disease, from pimples to eczema.
