WEDNESDAY. AUGUST 31. 1847 terret at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C. as second-class matter.

The Rev Mr. Baxter, of the Church of England, has just delivered three prophetic lectures at Liverpool There s nothing vague about this prophet .-England is to be separated legislatively from Ireland, India and her colonies; Lucien Bonaparte is to become King of Syria and later on Emperor of France. Belgium and the Rhine provinces are to be annexed to France in 1896 One hundred and torty-four thousand watchful Christians are to ascend from earth to heaven, and the millennium is to commence on April 11. 1901. The ecturer challenged any minister or inlividual to show that he had made any mistake. No one as yet has taken up he challenge, possibly because every one is convinced that no mistake has been made, possibly for other reasons.

The news from London that the mar riage of the Empe or of China has been postponed for two years, on account of his illness, evidently leaves more to be told. It has given rise to the sugges tion that the Empress Dowager is disposed to continue practically to exercise her for mer degree of control over the Flowery Kingdom for a while longer, in spite of the installation of young Kwang Hau on the Chinese New Year. It is conceivable that the Empress Dowager, who has been arranging all the details of the proposed marriage, is uawilling to risk as yet the influence of others over him, and accordingly contrives the adjournment of the cere- all day and am exhausted nothing helps Person-Nov 21 1 week mony, For some time the Empress has been represented as hard at work preparing an agreeable residence for her-I lton her retirement from the Government; but it she still holds a large degree of control over the young Emperand example have usually been commended by the foreign residents at Pekin and elsewhere

He gives very amusing accounts of the Hawaiian method of government and of the royal household in Honolulu. Mr. Spreckels at present is very much interested in beet-root sugar. He has also bought a large cargo of sugar beet for plantation. He intends making the experiment in one of the middle Western States, where the climate is about the same as in Austria. Gen. Tcherniayeff, whom the cable announces as Katkoft's successor in the Elizabeth, N J editorship of the Moscow Gazette, is a well-known Pan-Slavist agitator. He was born in 1828, educated in the military school at Nicolayev, and served in the Crimean war. In 1864 he was sent to Turkestan, where he conquered Tashkend. In 1867 he left the Russian army and entered upon the practice of law, but was soon reinstated in his rank as general, the Czar having taken a liking to him. Not receiving a suitable command, however, Tcherniayeff 8, 9. definitely resigned in 1875 and became the editor of the St Petersburg Ruskij Mir. The following year he went to Belgrade and was appointed commander-in-chief of the Servian army, but was disastrousiy defeated by the Turks at Alexinatz. He took no part in the subsequent Russo Turkish war. In 1877 he went to Prague, whence he was expelled by the Austrian Government for inciting Anti-German demonstrations, and he was equally unsuccessful in attempting to organize a Bulgarian rising in 1879, being arrested at Adrianople and sent back to Russia. In 1882 he became governor general of Tashkend, but his indiscreet tactics, which almost led to a war with England, caused his recall in 1884 He was appointed a member of the council of war, but lost recently that position, owing to his having attacked in the Bulgarian rising in 1879, being arrested war, but lost recently that position. whether arising from teething or oth owing to his having attacked in the causes.
